

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

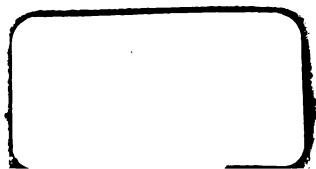

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ECLIPSES—1890.

There will be three eclipses this year, two of the Sun and one of the Moon, neither of them visible in the United States, and a lunar eclipse.

I. A Lunar Eclipse, June 3. The nearest approach of the Moon to the Earth's shadow occurs at 1h. 37m. morning, Washington time. Whether a contact of the Moon and the Earth's shadow (Umbral) will occur is uncertain, owing to the uncertainty of atmospheric conditions. If a contact occurs it will be visible throughout the United States.

II. An annular eclipse of the Sun, June 17, visible generally through the eastern continent.

III. A partial eclipse of the Moon, November 26, visible in the United States.

IV. A central eclipse of the Sun, December 11, visible in the Indian and Southern Oceans.

THE SOLAR SYSTEM.

To the average inhabitant of our Earth, looking up at the sky with the natural eye, it seems to be manifest that the Earth upon which he stands is the largest, as well as the most important, part of Creation. The Sun itself appears to have been formed only to give us light and heat by day, and the Moon and Stars to furnish us with light at night. When, however, we look forth and beyond with the eye of the mind, and in the light which science, aided by the telescope, affords us, we learn how really little is this planet, our Earth, as compared with the millions of stars and systems of worlds which stud the heavens, and make up the immensity of the Universe. Our Solar System, with all its planets and attending satellites, asteroids and comets, is apparently only one of many such systems, and our Earth only one of the smaller planets belonging to that system. In what follows we have enumerated the primary planets, with their satellites, and the comets connected with the Solar System, confining ourselves, for want of space, to the simplest facts known relative thereto, and the accepted data concerning each.

The Sun is the center of our Solar System, and around it all the planets, comets, stars or meteors belonging to this system revolve or circle, receiving from the Sun their light and heat. The time occupied by each planet in thus circling once around the Sun is called the year of that planet. All the planets, in addition to their revolutions around the Sun, also revolve or turn around their own axis or center in the same manner as a wheel turns around its hub, and the time each planet thus turns once around its own center is the day of that planet. The Sun is estimated to be eight hundred and sixty-five thousand miles in diameter—that is, it is that distance measured through its center, and its bulk is seven hundred times that of all its planets combined.

MERCURY is the planet nearest to the Sun, being distant from that body thirty-six million miles. It is the smallest of the planets, and only two thousand nine hundred and ninety-two miles in diameter. Its year is eighty-eight of our days, that being the time it occupies in circling once around the Sun. Its day is twenty-four hours and five minutes long, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

VENUS is the planet second in distance from the Sun. It is at times our beautiful Evening Star, and at others the Morning Star, and, from its nearness to us, appears to our view as the largest of the stars. It is sixty-seven million miles distant from the Sun, and seven thousand six hundred and sixty miles in diameter, being larger than Mercury or Mars, and smaller than our Earth and the other planets. Its year is two hundred and twenty-five of our days, that being the time occupied in circling once around the Sun. Its day is twenty-three hours and twenty-one minutes, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

THE EARTH, the world in which we live, is the third planet from the Sun, being distant ninety-two million seven hundred thousand miles, and its diameter is seven thousand nine hundred and eighteen miles. Its tropical year, on which the seasons depend, is three hundred and sixty-five days, five hours, forty-eight minutes and fifty-seconds, the time occupied in circling once around the Sun. Its day is twenty-four hours, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

MARS is the fourth planet from the Sun, being distant one hundred and forty-one million miles. It is four thousand and two hundred miles in diameter, being larger than Mercury, but smaller than all the other planets, and is generally distinguishable by its red color. Its year is six hundred and eighty-seven of our days, that being the time occupied in circling once around the Sun. Its day is twenty-four hours and thirty-seven minutes, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

JUPITER is the fifth planet from the Sun, and is distant from it four hundred and eighty-two million miles. Like Venus, it is at times our Evening and again our Morning Star, and when at its nearest point to the earth is second only to Venus in beauty and brilliancy. It is the largest of all the planets, being eighty-five thousand miles in diameter. Its year is nearly twelve of our years, that being the time it occupies in circling once around the Sun. Its day is short, being but nine hours and fifty-five minutes long, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

SATURN is the sixth planet from the Sun, being distant eight hundred and eighty-four million miles. Saturn is next to the largest of the planets, and is seventy-one thousand miles in diameter. Its year is twenty-nine and one-half of our years, that being the time it occupies in circling once around the Sun. Its day is ten hours and fourteen minutes long, the time taken in revolving once around its own center. This planet is especially interesting in consequence of its being surrounded by a detached ring, forming one of the great wonders of the heavens.

URANUS is the seventh planet from the Sun, and is seventeen hundred and eighty million miles distant from that body. It is the fourth largest of the planets in size, being thirty-one thousand seven hundred miles in diameter. Its year is eighty-four of our years, that being the time it occupies in circling once around the Sun. Its day is unknown.

NEPTUNE is the eighth planet from the Sun, being distant two thousand seven hundred and eighty million miles. Neptune is the third largest planet in size, being thirty-four thousand five hundred miles in diameter. Its year is nearly one hundred and sixty-five of our years, the time occupied in circling once around the Sun. Its day is unknown.

The planets, unlike the Sun, are all dark bodies, having no light of their own, and are seen and shine only by the light they receive from the Sun. Those visible to the naked eye are Mercury (rarely), Venus, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn, and these are readily distinguished by their clear, steady light, so different from the twinkling light of the fixed stars. Six of the planets have satellites or moons, revolving around them in the same manner that the planets do around the Sun, and they serve to light their respective planets at night in the same manner that our moon gives light to the Earth.

Our EARTH has but one satellite, the familiar Moon, which is two hundred and thirty-eight thousand miles distant from us, its diameter being two thousand one hundred and sixty miles. From the moon's nearness to us, it appears vastly larger than any of the planets, and seems to be next to the Sun in size. It circles around the earth once in twenty-seven days, seven hours, forty-three minutes and eleven seconds.

MARS has two satellites or moons, which, after centuries of search, were discovered by Prof. Hall through the great Washington telescope in 1877. They are respectively about four thousand and fourteen thousand five hundred miles above the surface of the planet, and are extremely small in size, being only about twenty miles each in diameter. The inner one revolves around Mars about three times as fast as Mars revolves around its own axis, thus causing the anomalous appearance to an inhabitant of that planet of this moon rising in the west and setting in the east.

JUPITER is attended by four moons, the smallest of these being about the size of our moon, and the others considerably larger.

SATURN has at least eight moons, the largest being nearly equal in size to the planet Mars, and in addition is possessed of the luminous ring surrounding its center, before alluded to.

URANUS has four moons, and NEPTUNE at least one; but both of these planets are so very far distant from the earth that the most powerful telescopes have failed to reveal much that is really definite about them.

ASTEROIDS. — There is another class of bodies, two hundred and fifty-seven of which have so far been discovered, belonging to the Solar System, known as the Asteroids, or minor planets, the latter designation being given to distinguish them from the larger or primary planets above enumerated. With the primary planets they revolve around the Sun in eccentric orbits of their own, occupying the vast space of over three hundred millions of miles between Mars and Jupiter. These Asteroids cannot be seen by the naked eye, the largest being only three hundred and seventy miles in diameter, while many are not more than fifteen miles. The four principal in size of the Asteroids are Ceres, Pallas, Juno and Vesta.

COMETS. — There is still another class of bodies belonging to or visiting the Solar System, designated Comets. They are those mysterious and beautiful heavenly bodies which come in view only at comparatively long intervals to surprise and excite the curiosity of mankind, and oftentimes, unfortunately, serve to arouse the superstitions and fears of the less informed. They are either periodic or transient. The former circle around the Sun in regular periods of their own, but instead of revolving around that body in flattened circles, like the planets, their paths are egg-shaped, or ovals, approaching close to and swinging around the Sun, and then shooting out from it with immense velocity into the realms of space, then turning again approach the Sun to repeat the circuit. In their motion out from and toward the Sun they cross the paths of the planets, many of them travelling much greater distances than most of the latter. The best observed of the Comets are Halley's, whose revolution occupies seventy-six years; Faye's in seven and a-half years, and Encke's in three years and four months. The latter moves around and out from the Sun, crossing the orbits of Mercury, Venus, the Earth and the Asteroids, nearly to the orbit of Jupiter, then turning speeds around on its return, cutting anew the orbits named, to again swing around the Sun. To this list may be added the lost Comet of Biela, formerly well recognized under a period of six years and eight months, but which has not been seen since 1852, when it came round as two comets, one and one-half million miles apart. The source of the meteoric displays or falling stars of November 27, 1855, and of November 27, 1872, is confidently referred to the matter of this lost comet, which is thus resolving itself into a meteor-stream. The transient comets come from the realms of space to visit our system, where, after having passed around the Sun, they dart away to disappear in space again, never more to return, unless, perchance, arrested by the giant planet Jupiter, and held captive, as they sometimes are.

HERSCHEL'S WEATHER TABLE.

FOR FORETELLING THE WEATHER, THROUGHOUT ALL THE LUNATIONS OF EACH YEAR, FOREVER.

This table is the result of many years' actual observation, the whole being constructed on a due consideration of the attraction of the Sun and Moon, in their several positions respecting the Earth, and will, by simple inspection, show the observer what kind of weather will most probably follow the entrance of the Moon into any of its quarters, and that so near the truth as to be seldom or never found to fail.

NEW YORK STATE CONVENTIONS AND PLATFORMS.

Democratic.

The Democratic State Convention met in Syracuse Tuesday, October 1, 1889. The Hon Edward F. Jones, of Binghamton, was temporary and permanent chairman. The following ticket was nominated:

Secretary of State—FRANK RICE, of Ontario.

Comptroller—EDWARD WEMPLE, of Montgomery.

Attorney-General—CHARLES F. TABOR, of Erie.

State Engineer and Surveyor—JOHN BOGART, of New York.

Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals—DENIS O'BRIEN, of Westchester.

The following platform was unanimously adopted:

First. The Democratic party of the State of New York, in Convention assembled, renews the pledges of its fidelity to Democratic faith and reaffirms the doctrines of the national platform for 1888, adopted at St. Louis. We have not advocated and do not advocate free trade; but we steadfastly adhere to the principle of tariff reform, believing that adherence to the right alone carries in itself the certainty of triumph. We heartily indorse the honest and fearless administration of the national government by Grover Cleveland.

Second. We charge that the Republican party at the last Federal election obtained power in the nation by corruption and false pretenses; by intimidation and coercion of voters; by promises unperformed and pledges unredeemed; and by shameless trafficking of cabinet and other offices in its gift to the highest bidders; and though its candidates by these unscrupulous means received more than half the votes of the Electoral College, its doctrines and principles were repudiated by a majority of the voters of the country.

We arraign the chief executive of the United States for a disgraceful violation of the pledges contained in his letter of acceptance, to wit: "In appointments to every grade and department, fitness and not party service should be the essential and discriminating test, and fidelity and efficiency the only sure tenure of office," in that, not in exceptional instances, but with sweeping hand, he has removed hundreds of honest and capable officers before the expiration of the terms for which they were appointed.

Third. Maintaining, as heretofore, that improper combinations of capital which limit production, fix the price of commodities, regardless of the cost of production, reduce the wages of labor and crush out the smaller independent dealer, and thus strangle legitimate competition, are conspiracies, we demand legislation to prevent such combinations.

We point to the fact that while the last two Republican Legislatures have defeated all additional legislation desirable for their complete suppression, the Legal Department of the State, under Democratic administration, has instituted and carried to a successful issue litigation having the destruction of such conspiracies as its aim.

Fourth. We arraign the late Republican Legislature for imposing the heaviest State taxes in both rate and amount since 1875. We condemn as reckless, improvident and unnecessary the increase in taxes from $9,000,000 to $12,500,000, at a time when the people are poor and the burdens of taxation are especially oppressive.

We commend the vetoes of a Democratic Governor, which have saved to the taxpayers of the State $2,000,000; and we pledge that the Democracy, if intrusted with control of the legislative branch of government, will give to the people lower taxes and economical expenditures. We believe that unnecessary taxation is unjust taxation.

Fifth. We do not favor the unrestricted sale of intoxicating liquors on the one hand nor prohibition on the other.

We believe that the liquor traffic should be restrained and regulated by just and equitable excise laws, rigidly enforced, which laws in their operation should be substantially uniform throughout the State.

We believe all excise revenues, whether called license fees or taxes, should belong to the local treasuries of the localities under whose authority licenses are issued, to be applied in reducing the burden of local taxation.

We are opposed to all sumptuary legislation that needlessly interferes with the personal liberty or reasonable customs of the people. We favor the largest liberty for the individual citizen consistent with the public welfare.

We oppose the passage of the prohibition amendment upon which the next Legislature is required to act, and we denounce the hypocrisy of the Republican party of this State and of the States of Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Pennsylvania in submitting, or proposing to submit, prohibition amendments only to defeat them at the polls.

We arraign the Republican party for its dishonest treatment of the temperance question. We point to the fact that an Excise Commission, its majority largely Republican, was, upon the recommendation of a Democratic Governor, in 1888, appointed by the Legislature itself to revise the excise laws, and thereby secure a just and proper solution of the temperance question; that this Commission, consisting of seven members, five of whom were Republicans, reported a measure known as the "Excise Commission Bill;" that this measure was supported by the Democratic members of the Legislature, but was repudiated by the Republican legislators, who, in its stead, passed a bill extreme in its character, illiberal in its provisions and unjust in its discriminations, drafted for the sole purpose of securing executive disapproval, in order that the temperance question should continue to be an issue in political contests. Such dishonesty and hypocrisy we denounce as a breach of faith with the people.

The Republican party, loudly proclaiming itself as favoring high license fees, designedly ignores the fact that the excise boards in the cities, towns and villages of five-sixths of the State are under Republican control, and that, with the sanction and approval of the Republican leaders, such boards impose scarcely one-third of the amount of fees permitted under existing laws.

We believe that in this matter reform should begin at home, and we denounce their utterances, so inconsistent with their acts, as additional proofs of the dishonesty with which the Republican party treats this question.

Sixth. The Democratic party renews its declaration in favor of electoral reform. We demand such changes in our election laws as will more effectually promote the secrecy of the ballot, stop corruption at the polls and prevent the intimidation and corruption of electors. The Republican majority refused to enact a just and reasonable measure at the last session of the Legislature, but instead thereof passed a bill containing provisions which were unconstitutional, grossly defective, clearly impracticable and otherwise objectionable and which properly met with executive disapproval. Its insincerity was manifested in its subsequent refusal to enact any different measure for securing ballot reform.

We earnestly insist upon a free, pure and untrammelled ballot, and to the accomplishment of that end will favor any reasonable and practicable measure which is free from constitutional and other radical defects, and has for its true and honest purpose the secrecy of the ballot and the eradication of the evils of corruption, bribery and intimidation at elections.

Seventh. We arraign the Republican party for treason to the Constitution. The last Legislature, following the lawless example of the four previous Legislatures, refused to provide for an enumeration of the people as a basis for an apportionment of the Senate and Assembly districts of the State, and has thus perpetuated the control of the minority of the State in the law-making branch of the Government, in defiance of the will of the majority, in shameless contravention of constitutional requirements.

It has also refused to enact a proper measure for creating a Constitutional convention, as required by the vote of the majority of the people of the State.

We charge that the Republican party has not desired either enumeration or a Constitutional convention. Its professions in favor of either are false and insincere. The only act relating to enumeration which it ever passed was one in 1885, which coupled with an enumeration an elaborate, complicated and unnecessary census which would have cost the taxpayers over $400,000, and which invited and warranted executive disapproval.

The only act which it ever passed for a Constitutional convention was one in 1887, which unwarrantably postponed the holding of the convention for a year, and provided an unjust and improper basis of representation, which objectionable features rendered it impossible of approval. Successive Republican Legislatures have subsequently refused to pass any measure providing for a simple enumeration of the inhabitants or to provide for a Constitutional convention upon a basis of representation founded upon the latest apportionment.

Eighth. We oppose needless special legislation. We believe in home rule for cities.

We demand a rigid enforcement of the laws enacted by the Legislature for the benefit of the workmen of the State.

We favor a revision of the tax laws, whereby personal and corporate property shall be made to bear its full and just burdens.

We sympathize with all efforts having in view the advancement of the interests and the improvement of the condition of laboring men, and will give our hearty support to the legislation which seeks to accomplish these ends.

We favor a continuance of the policy which seeks to improve the canal system of the State and maintain its efficiency. And we condemn the last Legislature for its refusal to pass any measure to secure to the people of the city of New York the benefits of rapid transit.

Ninth. We heartily indorse the Democratic administration of Gov. David B. Hill. He has been a consistent exponent of Democratic principles, and we especially commend his able, bold and vigorous exercise of the veto power, whereby the people and property of the State have been protected against the assaults of a partisan, reckless and improvident Legislature.

We commend the able and wise administrations of his various associates in the State departments and submit that the splendid record of honesty and efficiency made by them justifies a continuance of the trust reposed in the Democratic party, of which they are faithful representatives.

Republican.

The Republican State Convention was held at Saratoga, Wednesday, September 25, 1889. The Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, of New York, was temporary chairman, and the Hon. George B. Sloan, of Oswego, was permanent chairman. The following ticket was nominated:

Secretary of State—JOHN I. GILBERT, of Franklin.

Comptroller—MARTIN W. COOKE, of Monroe.

Treasurer—IRA M. HEDGERS, of Rockland.

Attorney-General—JAMES M. VARNUM, of New York.

State Engineer and Surveyor—WILLIAM B. VAN RENSSELAER, of Seneca.

Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals—ALBERT HAIGHT, of Erie.

The following platform was unanimously adopted:

The Republicans of New York rejoice in the restoration of Republican supremacy in the nation, and take pride in the part this State had in that result. We congratulate President Harrison upon the success of his administration, and declare our perfect confidence in its integrity, efficiency and patriotism. We reaffirm the National Republican platform of 1888, and emphasize our approval of these doctrines:

Protection to American industries and to American labor;

The extension of American trade and fostering of American shipping interests;

Liberal and equitable pension laws and a discriminating preference of Union veterans in appointments to public offices;

A national election law to secure the honest choice of representatives in Congress;

The restoration of the efficiency of the postal service;

The rehabilitation of the navy;

The purification and elevation of the civil service;

The encouragement of popular education and the promotion thereby of national patriotism.

We commend the action of successive Republican Legislatures in enacting wise and beneficent public measures, including the law taxing collateral inheritances, which has already relieved the burdens of taxation by over $2,000,000; the law taxing incorporations, which produces $200,000 annually; the law making employees first preferred creditors in assignments; the law providing for the proper discipline and employment of convicts, and the law protecting the products of the farm and dairy.

We arraign Gov. Hill as a public enemy for defeating by his vetoes the following measures of legislation: The enumeration bill, twice passed in obedience to the requirement of the Constitution; the Constitutional Convention bill, passed in pursuance of an overwhelming vote of the people; the Anti-Bribery bill, to prevent corruption of voters and intimidation of employees at elections; all measures for excise revision and reform, notwithstanding their approval by prominent men of all political parties; the Ballot Reform bill, twice passed, to secure a pure and untrammelled ballot; the Liquor Tax bill, twice passed, which would have lightened the burdens of taxation on homes and farms to the extent of $3,000,000 annually, all which measures were passed by Republican Legislatures, in response to the demands of an enlightened and patriotic public sentiment. We denounce these vetoes as being subversive of the rights of the people's representatives, and as being autocratic and revolutionary.

The repeated efforts by Republican Legislatures to secure ballot reform and thoroughly practicable temperance legislation are proofs of the right purpose and good faith of the Republican party. No step backward will be taken, and we pledge our determination to persevere until salutary and adequate provisions of law on these vital subjects are embodied in the statutes of the State.

We urge the continuance of efforts to render impossible improper combinations and conspiracies known as "trusts," which have for their object the restriction of trade and the enhancement in cost of the necessities of life.

The maintenance of the canal system in its highest efficiency and usefulness is demanded as necessary to the regulation of freight rates and the continued commercial supremacy of the State.

Resolved, That this convention recognizes the importance of the great historical event which it is proposed to commemorate by the World's Fair of 1892. Appreciating the stimulating effect of such a celebration upon the industrial and commercial interests of the country and the national welfare, we hereby cordially indorse the enterprise, and declare that it should be conducted on a scale and in a manner commensurate with the greatness of the nation and the patriotism of the people. The selection of the chief city of the Empire State, the commercial metropolis of this continent, as the place for this fair is hereby cordially approved. We recommend that such action be promptly taken by Congress and the Legislature of this State as shall be needed to make this great event a success.

Prohibition.

The Prohibition State Convention met at Syracuse, September 4, 1889. A. A. Hopkins of Monroe was permanent chairman. The following ticket was nominated:

Secretary of State—JESSE H. GRIFFIN, of Westchester.

Comptroller—BENJAMIN L. RAND, of Erie.

Attorney-General—COLERIDGE A. HART, of New York.

State Engineer and Surveyor—ALFRED B. KENYON, of Allegany.

Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals—WALTER J. FARRINGTON, of Dutchess.

The following platform was adopted:

The Prohibition party of the State of New York, in convention assembled, acknowledging God as the source of all power in government, and heartily indorsing the National platform adopted at Indianapolis, does hereby declare:

1. That the prohibition of the liquor traffic, State and National, should be the dominating and dividing political issue until such prohibition shall have become the recognized and settled policy of the Government.

2. That to vote for the candidate of license party is practically to vote for license.

3. That we heartily approve the declaration that the liquor traffic can never be legalized without sin, and that license, high or low, is vicious in principle and powerless as a remedy.

4. That we demand the rigid enforcement of the prohibition provisions of the excise laws.

5. That local option has proven unsatisfactory, being too local and too optional, yet in the future, as in the past, we will, where the question is presented, vote for no license, but we refuse to accept local option as a substitute for the policy of prohibition.

6. We recognize the duty of the coming Legislature to submit to the electors of the State an amendment to the Constitution prohibiting the liquor traffic, but, as the political machinery of both the old parties and almost the entire press of these parties in every recent contest have been combined for the defeat of prohibition, we protest against any such submission by any political party whose only purpose is prohibition defeat; and we further declare that if the amendment is submitted in this State, the Prohibition party will make every possible effort to secure its adoption.

7. That the right of suffrage rests on no mere circumstance of race, color, sex or nationality.

8. That the law should be so amended as to require ten years' residence for naturalization.

9. That we are opposed to all trusts and monopolies in the necessities of life.

10. That the American Sunday, in the interest of public order, should be jealously guarded.

11. That the purchase and sale of votes should be punished with disfranchisement.

12. That the principle of Civil Service reform should be honestly applied in appointment to office.

13. That we demand for the laboring man and woman adequate compensation for their work, and protection of all their rights; we urge upon their attention the fact that the liquor traffic consumes their hard-earned wages, resulting in poverty and distress, and commend to their attention the statement of Master Workman Powderly to the effect that if he had a million tongues he could not adequately express his abhorrence of the traffic and the great injury it does to the working people; that we are in favor of each man paying taxes on what he owns, not on what he owes;

that the government can afford to be, and ought to be, just and generous to the honorably discharged soldiers and sailors of the Republic, but that the doors of the United States treasury ought not to be thrown open to gratify the desires or satisfy the greed of claim agents and unscrupulous politicians.

14. We most earnestly invite to equal privileges in our ranks all persons who agree with us on the single point of unyielding opposition to the liquor evil.

15. That the Prohibition party will accept no compromise for the settlement of this overshadowing moral and political issue of the age, the extermination of the liquor evil of our Nation, but will continue persistently to labor until we have secured its death by the ballot and planted our victorious forces behind the law for its enforcement.

Greenback.

The Greenback State Committee nominated a State ticket headed by THOMAS K. BEECHER, of

THE NEW STANDARD TIME.

In 1884, four standard meridians were adopted within the United States, by which railway trains are run and local time regulated. These meridians are fifteen degrees or 900 miles, apart, there being a difference of just one hour in time from one meridian to another, as there are 360 degrees in the earth's circumference, which, divided by twenty-four hours, gives fifteen degrees to every hour. The Eastern meridian, seventy-five degrees west from Greenwich, passes four minutes west of New York city. The Central meridian, ninety degrees west longitude, passes through New Orleans and St. Louis. The Mountain standard meridian, one hundred and five degrees west longitude, passes near Pike's Peak, Rocky Mountains. The Pacific meridian, one hundred and twenty degrees west longitude, is near the coast, San Francisco being nine and one-half miles west of it. The figures in these calendar pages will be correct for the various standard meridians; for places east of any meridian and within seven and one-half degrees of it, one minute of time for each quarter of a degree of longitude (equal to fifteen miles nearly), or four minutes for each degree, must be subtracted from the almanac figures. For a place west of any meridian, and within seven and one-half degrees of it, add one minute for each quarter of a degree to the almanac figures. Any United States map gives the distance in longitude of most places from the several standard meridians, sufficiently near to make practical application of the rule.

NOTE.—The vote given in the preceding tables is that cast for the heads of the electoral tickets. Oswald Ottendorfer (Dem.), and William H. Seward (Rep.), except in New York county, where the vote of the highest elector on each ticket is given, as about 2,000 electoral tickets were voted in New York city bearing the names of thirty-four Republican district electors and two Labor electors-at-large. The table of pluralities, given elsewhere, gives the plurality for the highest elector on each ticket. The following shows the range of difference in electors: Democratic, Ottendorfer, head of ticket, 635,757; Mehrbach, highest, 635,965; Youmans, lowest, 635,901; average for thirty-six electors, 635,940. Republican, Seward, head of ticket and lowest, 648,759; Crouse, highest, 650,338; average for thirty-four district electors, 650,308; average for entire thirty-six electors, 650,221.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES.

STATE OFFICERS.

David B. Hill, Governor.

David Bennett Hill was born in Havana, Schnyler (then Chemung) county, New York, August 29, 1822. His ancestors were from New England. They were of marked strength and directness of mind and uprightness of character. The excellent schools of his native town gave Mr. Hill the ground work of a thorough academic education. In 1862, he went to Elmira to perfect his studies in the law, which he had already begun. In November, 1864, occurred his admission to the bar in that city, which he has ever since made his home. The first few years of his profession were enough to prove Mr. Hill a leader of the bar of the southern tier. In Chemung county he early interested himself in the success of the principles of the Democracy. He was made the representative of the county in the Legislature of 1871, and again of 1872. His legislative service placed him in the front rank of members. As a lawyer, his judgment was deferred to by the Assembly. As a tactician, his aptitude in effecting the success of principles was notable. As Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, his parliamentary abilities were seen to be unusual. He was an earnest opponent of the system which made penal labor a victor over the interests of honest industry in the State. He secured the passage of a bill forbidding the system, by the Assembly, but the Senate defeated it. In 1875, Mr. Hill declined an appointment by Governor Tilden as member of the Constitutional Commission to provide a uniform charter for cities. His professional duties forbade his acceptance. In 1877 and in 1881 Mr. Hill was president of the Democratic State Convention, which, on each occasion, met in Albany. In 1881, the ward in which Mr. Hill resided elected him Alderman. It is the strongest Republican ward in Elmira. The election was a marked personal triumph and public compliment. Mr. Hill has always believed a citizen's duty to his neighbors requires him to become their trustee in home government, on their demand. In the spring of 1882, Mr. Hill was chosen Mayor of Elmira. He led his ticket largely against a very strong competitor. The needs of the municipal service, with his sense of duty, were made to outweigh all inclination for uninterrupted legal labor. An administration conspicuous for its reforms created a demand, co-extensive with the State, for Mr. Hill's nomination for Lieutenant-Governor. It was made by acclamation, and the ticket headed by Grover Cleveland was elected by an overwhelming majority. Mr. Hill succeeded to the office of Governor on January 6, 1885, when a vacancy was created by the resignation of Governor Cleveland, elected President of the United States, and performed the duties of the office with such acceptability that he was nominated by the Democratic State Convention which met at Saratoga in September 1886, by a vote of 338 out of 384. After an exciting contest he was elected over Ira Davenport, the Republican candidate, by a plurality of 11,134. Governor Hill is a lawyer of great reputation, a counsel of vast interests, an administrative reform Democrat after the straightest sect, a parliamentarian of resource, alertness, lucidity and a fine sense of equity; and his relations to the Democracy of New York have always proved him to be the faithful friend of pure politics and good government. He was re-elected in 1888 by 19,133 over Warner Miller, Republican.

Edward F. Jones, Lieutenant-Governor.

General Edward F. Jones was born in Utica, June 3, 1823. He moved to Lester, Mass., in childhood, where he remained until the war broke out. He commanded the Sixth Massachusetts Militia, which was the first to respond to President Lincoln's call for 75,000 men. The regiment was attacked in Baltimore while on their way to Washington to protect the Capital, on the 19th of April, 1861, and their defense is a matter of history. They arrived in Washington that evening, and were congratulated by President Lincoln and cabinet as having saved the Capital from falling into the hands of the enemy. Their victory decided the question whether the war should be fought north or south of the Potomac. He served as colonel of this regiment four months until it was mustered out. He then returned to Massachusetts and personally recruited the Twenty-sixth Massachusetts Regiment, and, at its head as colonel, saw three years' service in various departments, mostly in the Army of the Gulf. On his return home, at the close of the war, he was breveted brigadier-general for meritorious services. He served one term in the Massachusetts Legislature. In 1865 he moved to Binghamton and established the Jones Scale Works, and by his energy and perseverance built up a large and successful business, now employing over 100 men. His relations with his employes have always been of the most pleasant nature, bringing mutual confidence and respect. He is a thorough business man, and has had but little to do with politics. He was the Democratic candidate for congressman in 1874, running against Thomas C. Platt, in a district with 8,500 Republican majority, reducing Mr. Platt's majority to 600. Two years afterward he was nominated again, and ran largely ahead of his ticket against Jeremiah W. Dwight. General Jones was one of the original members of Post Watrous, of Binghamton, and is still in good standing in the Grand Army of the Republic. He has been prominently identified with local charities, such as the Susquehanna Valley Home and the Good Shepherd Hospital, of Binghamton. General Jones was named to fill the vacancy on the Democratic State ticket caused by the declination of the Hon. Roswell P. Flower. He was elected over General Joseph B. Carr, Republican, by a plurality of 3,156. He was re-elected in 1888 by 22,362 plurality over S. V. R. Cruger, Republican.

Frank Rice, Secretary of State.

Frank Rice, Secretary of State, was born in the town of Seneca, Ontario county, N. Y., January 15, 1845. His paternal and maternal grandfathers emigrated to Seneca, the latter from England and the former from Massachusetts, and were the first settlers in that part of the country. The farms which they purchased are still owned by their descendants, one of them now being in the possession of Mr. Rice's father. During his early years Mr. Rice worked on the farm in the summer nd attended school during the winter at the district school. When eleven years of age he entered Dr. Taylor's private school at Geneva, N. Y., where he remained for one year. He then returned to his home, and at the age of fifteen he spent one year in the Geneva Classical and Union school. The next schooling which he received was at the Canandaigua Academy, where he remained for three years under Dr. Noah T. Clarke. In the fall of 1864 he entered Hamilton College, from which he was graduated in 1868 with high honors. In 1869 he began the study of law at Canandaigua in the office of Comstock & Bennett. At that time this was the leading law firm in Ontario county, and under its instruction Mr. Rice acquired a knowledge of law which has since enabled him to rise to a commanding position at the bar of western New York. He entered upon the practice of his profession in 1870, and in 1875 he was nominated by the Democratic party for District Attorney. In a county which is one of the Republican strongholds of the State his chances for election were looked upon by his opponents with no small degree of ridicule. The Republicans placed in nomination a strong candidate and a hotly contested canvass ensued, the result being Mr. Rice's election by a majority of 34. In 1878 Mr. Rice was renominated and again displayed what the Republicans conceded to be wonderful political strength by defeating his opponent by 839 majority. In 1882 he was nominated by his party for the Assembly and was elected by 1,266 majority, reversing a Republican majority of the year previous of 1,223. The Legislature was Democratic that year, and Mr. Rice at once attained a prominent position among the leaders of his party. He was chosen chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, and it will be remembered that the duties of the committee during that session were unusually arduous, here being five closely contested cases before it. Of this number, that of Sprague v. Bliss was the most important, and the impartial manner in which Mr. Rice presided over the deliberations of the committee won for him the hearty endorsement of representatives of both parties. He also served as a member of the Judiciary, Insurance and other committees. His greatest victory, however, was in 1883, when he was renominated to the Assembly and pitted against the Hon. John Talmes, the present Representative in Congress from the Twenty-ninth district. Although Mr. Talmes was the strongest candidate the Republicans could have nominated at that time, Mr. Rice was re-elected by a majority of 241, while the county went Republican by 692. That year he was nominated in the Democratic caucus for speaker, but as the Legislature was Republican, he, of course, was not elected, but became the leader of his party on the floor. During the session he served as a member of the Committee on Ways and Means, and Cities and Rules. In the fall of 1884 he was nominated for the office of County Judge of Ontario, and while Mr. Blaine's plurality in Ontario county was 739, Mr. Rice was elected by a majority of 606, and thus honored with his fifth consecutive victory in a Republican county. He was serving his fifth year as County Judge when he was nominated by his party at Syracuse in 1889 for Secretary of State. His last victory was more gratifying than any with which he had been honored heretofore, he having carried his own election district, town, county and State, his plurality in the county being 773, and in the State over 20,000 over John I. Gilbert, Republican, Jesse Griffin, Prohibitionist, and Thomas K. Beecher, Greenback. Mr. Rice was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in 1880, which nominated General Hancock for the Presidency, and served as Secretary of the New York State delegation. He has also been a delegate to nearly every State Convention since that time, and was a member of the Democratic State Committee in 1883. He has always been a Democrat, and since his majority actively connected with the leadership of his party. He has been a candidate for office six times, has never been defeated, and has each time received a majority in his county in spite of its normal Republican majority of about 1,000.

Edward Wemple, Comptroller,

Comes from that sturdy stock which has made the Mohawk Valley famous. Since 1712, when Queen Anne granted the Caughnawaga patent to a Wemple, among others, that name has been prominent in that region. Half a century later a Wemple was one of the founders of the old Dutch church, which still stands at Fonda. In colonial times the Wemples defended their homes against invaders side by side with the Johnsons, but when the Revolution came they broke their old alliance and arrayed themselves and their influence on the side of liberty and the colonists. Edward Wemple was born at the old family mansion in Fultonville, October 23, 1843. Having received his earlier education in the common schools of that village, he was graduated from Union College in 1860, and entered on the study of the law. A sedentary life was too tame for his active temperament, so after finishing his studies he entered into partnership with his father in the foundry business. Of this business he gained a practical knowledge, and continued it after his father's death; he still enters actively into its management. Mr. Wemple has, however, not limited himself solely to business, but has diligently devoted his leisure to the study of political questions and affairs of State, the broad result of which he has shown time and again in the State Legislature and in Congress. At the age of thirty, Mr. Wemple was chosen president of his native village, and from that time he has been constantly called upon to serve the public by his neighbors and an ever-widening circle of friends. First he was promoted to Supervisor of his town; then he was elected to the Assembly; then he was chosen to Congress; then to the State Senate; and in 1887 the people have committed to his care the financial policy of the State by the largest vote received by any candidate on the Democratic State ticket at the 1887 election. In each of the offices he has filled he has devoted to the public the care and energy which he gives to his own private affairs. The State canals are one of the subjects to which he has given much attention, and in the position of Comptroller his familiarity with their history and management has been most useful. Among other measures presented by him while in Congress was that giving the executive power to veto objectionable items in appropriation bills without killing the whole bill; and it is due to him that a noble monument marks the spot where the first great victory of the colonies was achieved—the battle-field of Saratoga. He was always alert for the interests of his constituency, in securing mail facilities, in looking after the interests of the veterans of the war, giving patient examination to their claims and earnestly pushing all just claims to a speedy settlement. Mr. Wemple's personal popularity has been demonstrated by his election to Congress and to the Senate in a strongly Republican district, where he has received the highest number of votes ever cast for any man, with but a single exception. In private life he is plain and earnest, although dignified and of strong convictions; he is genial and courteous and ever-ready to listen to counsel and willing to oblige, when principle does not forbid. A firm friend and a sturdy fighter, he has the good will and cordial respect of all who know him; and while he is uncompromising in his adherence to Democracy, he wins large support from his political opponents, because they recognize the honesty and uprightness of the man. He is married and resides at Fultonville. He was elected Comptroller by a plurality of 15,374 over Jesse L'Amoreaux, the Republican candidate, and was re-elected in 1889 by 11,000 plurality over Martin W. Cooke, Republican, and B. L. Rand, Prohibition.

Elliot Danforth, State Treasurer.

Elliot Danforth was born at Middleburgh, Schoharie county, N. Y., on the 6th of March, 1850. He is the youngest son of Judge Peter S. Danforth, of Middleburgh, ex-Senator and ex-Justice of the Supreme Court. In 1861, when the civil war broke out, young Danforth was only eleven years old, an age which prevented him from joining the Union army, but his patriotism only awaited an opportunity to prove his high regard for those who shared the trials of a soldier's life, for when it was proposed to establish a soldier's and sailor's home in the State of New York, Mr. Danforth's efforts in aid of the project, were unceasing until success was attained. From his youth Elliot Danforth manifested a great desire for the acquisition of knowledge, and at the public schools he was noted for his studious habits, and his fine literary tastes were thus early formed. Soon after leaving school he commenced the study of the law in the office of his father, and in January, 1871, he was admitted to the bar. Well grounded in principles of the law as well as in general literature, and possessing an earnest and forcible delivery, his success as a professional man was fully assured. In 1874, he married Miss Ida Prince, an accomplished young lady, the only child of Dr. Gervis Prince, President of the First National bank of Bainbridge, N. Y. In 1878 Mr. Danforth formed a law partnership with the Hon. George H. Winsor, of Bainbridge, and the firm was not long in achieving a widely extended reputation in the successful performance of their professional duties. Mr. Danforth is a member of the New York Bar Association and has served on many important committees; he was President of the corporation of Bainbridge for three years. Mr. Danforth entered with great enthusiasm into the broad and stirring field of politics. From the first his affiliations were with the Democratic party, and he came before the people as a staunch representative of the young Democracy of the Jacksonian school. In 1880 Mr. Danforth was a delegate to the National Democratic Convention which met at Cincinnati and nominated General Hancock for the Presidency. He was the youngest member of the Convention. In the fall of 1880 he was unanimously nominated as the Democratic candidate for Congress from his district, but declined the honor. In the same year his name was presented as a candidate for State Treasurer and he received a very flattering support from his friends. In 1884 Mr. Danforth was again a delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago which nominated Grover Cleveland for President, toward whose election he gave ardent support, delivering many stirring addresses in different parts of the State during that memorable and exciting campaign. Soon after the election of the Hon. L. J. Fitzgerald as State Treasurer in 1884, Mr. Danforth was appointed Deputy State Treasurer, the duties of which he discharged with such ability and success that Treasurer Fitzgerald on his re-election reappointed him Deputy for two years from January 1, 1888. Mr. Danforth is one of the directors and also the attorney of the First National Bank of Bainbridge, and a member of the Board of Education in that village. He is a member of several fraternal organizations, such as the Masonic, the Odd Fellows, etc. In these societies he is a popular, industrious and working member. At the Democratic State Convention held at Syracuse in 1889, Mr. Danforth was unanimously nominated for Treasurer of the State, which nomination was ratified by the people at the election in November by their giving him over 16,000 plurality.

Charles F. Tabor, Attorney-General.

Was born June 21, 1841, in St. Joseph county, Mich. In 1848, his father, Silas Tabor, returned to his old home in Newstead, Erie county, where he had resided many years, and where he died in 1863, on the farm which had been his for nearly half a century. Young Tabor lived with his parents and worked on his father's farm until he was eighteen years old, and helping his father occasionally in his building contracts, going when he could to the district school in winter, and later attending the Lima Seminary and the Williamsville and Clarence Academies. He began the study of law with the Hon. James M. Humphrey, of Buffalo, N. Y., teaching school winters to enable him to prepare himself for the bar, to which he was admitted in October, 1863, by the General Term of the Supreme Court, having been personally examined by Judges Grover, Davis, Marvin and Daniels. Mr. Tabor was a Supervisor in Erie county for two years, and was the nominee of his party both years for chairman of the board; he was Excise Commissioner of his county for three years; he was Member of Assembly for the Fourth district of Erie county, a Republican district, in 1875 and 1876, being a member of Committees on Education and Cities, and taking a prominent and positive part in the debates and proceedings of the Assembly for those years. In 1883 he was the candidate of his party for County Judge, and was defeated by only seventy-eight votes in the county which gave Garfield 3,800 majority. He was for several years attorney for the board of supervisors of Erie county. He was appointed First Deputy Attorney-General in June, 85, and held the position until he was sworn in as Attorney-General. In the Attorney-General's office he had charge of the public interests before the Board of Claims and the conduct of the cases brought against State officers. He was nominated for Attorney-General in the fall of 1887, and elected by 14,361 plurality, carrying Erie county by over 300 majority. The average majority against the rest of the Democratic ticket was about 2,500 in that county. Mr. Tabor has always been a Democrat, and his father was also, having been elected by that party to the office of Superintendent of the Poor of Erie county in 1837. He was re-elected Attorney-General in 1889 by about 9,000 plurality over James M. Varnum, Republican, and C. A. art, Prohibitionist.

John Bogart, State Engineer and Surveyor,

was born in Albany, of which city his family were among the earliest settlers, having come thither from Holland in 1642. He early attended the Albany Academy, and is a graduate of Rutgers college. Previous to the war he gained honorable distinction upon various engineering works, among them the enlargement of the Erie Canal, the short line of the New York Central Railroad between Syracuse and Rochester, and the original construction of the New York Central park. At the very opening of the war Mr. Bogart offered his services, and was assigned to duty as an engineer in connection with the works of Fortress Monroe. He had charge of the construction of the strong granite fort on the Rip-Raps in Hampton Roads. He was present at the celebrated engagement between the Confederate iron-clad Merrimack and the Union vessels Cumberland and Congress, and on the next day saw, from his station at the masthead of one of the vessels near Fortress Monroe, the engagement between the Merrimack and Monitor, which revolutionized naval warfare. During the war Mr. Bogart was on active duty in Virginia, especially at Yorktown, the Chickahominy, Norfolk, Point Lookout, the James river, City Point, and at Richmond immediately after the evacuation. His brother was killed in the action at Port Hudson, La. Mr. Bogart continued in the service until 1864. Since then he has been constantly engaged in his profession upon most important engineering works in various parts of the United States. He was the chief engineer of the Brooklyn Park commission for several years, the chief engineer of the department of public parks of New York city from 1873 to 1877, and has been engaged upon the public improvements of Chicago, New Orleans, Albany, Omaha, Nashville, Keene, Hartford and other cities. For the past ten years he has been secretary of the American Society of Civil Engineers. He was Deputy State Engineer and Surveyor of the State of New York until his resignation in July, 1887. Mr. Bogart stands high in the profession, as he does with everyone with whom he has come in contact, either in public or private life. He was elected over O. H. Cornell, Republican, by 13,061 plurality in 1887, and re-elected in 1889 by about 17,000 over William Van Rensselaer, Republican.

SENATORS.

J. Sloat Fassett (Republican), President pro tempore of the Senate, who represents the twenty-seventh district, was born of American parentage in Elmira, November 13, 1853. He was educated from the Elmira Free Academy in 70, and Rochester University in 1875, with the highest literary honors, and soon after entered upon the practice of the law in his native city. In 1883 he supplemented his legal and literary studies by a course of lectures at Heidelberg University, Germany, and by extended travel in Europe and the east. He entered political life by appointment from Governor Robinson, who chose him to fill the vacancy in the office of District Attorney for Chemung county in 1879 and 1880. He is trustee of Cook Academy and trustee of Rochester University, and proprietor of the Elmiravertiser, and active in many prominent business enterprises in Elmira and other cities. He was senator in 1881-83-85-87-89. In 1889 he was unanimously renominated for a fourth term by acclamation upon the presentation of the two counties in a district outside of Chemung, his own county. He was re-elected by the largest majority ever given to anyone in the district, running over a thousand ahead of his ticket. His majority over a Democratic competitor, E. W. Chamberlain, was 4,233. Each of the three counties gave him a majority. In 1888 Mr. Fassett was a delegate to the National Republican Convention and was made the Committeeman for the State of New York. The National Committee made him not only Secretary, but the Secretary of the Executive Committee as well, which position he accepted and the duties of which he performed during the campaign of 1888. In 1860 he was elected President pro tempore of the Senate to succeed the late Henry R. Low, and in 1830 he was re-elected to that position. Mr. Fassett is one of the most effective and brilliant debaters in the Senate, and has served with credit on the principal committees of that body. He is married and lives at Elmira.

John Francis Ahearn.

John Francis Ahearn (Democrat), who represents the Sixth district, was born in New York, of Irish parentage, April 18, 1853, and was educated at the public schools of New York. He has been a clerk in various well-known business houses. He was a member of the Assembly in 1884, serving on the Committee on Railroads, and has since been Clerk of the Police Court. He is married and resides at No. 41 Gouverneur street, New York. Mr. Ahearn is a member of the County Democracy and was elected as the candidate of that organization by 4,716 plurality over Thomas F. Grad (Tammany), who had carried the district at the special election in 1883 by 4,815 plurality, and T. M. Holden, Prohibitionist.

James W. Birkett.

James W. Birkett (Republican), who represents the Third district, was born July 31, 1841, and was educated in a New York public school. Moved from New York city to Brooklyn in 1864, and has resided there since. He is married and is engaged in the business of manufacturing and erecting steam and hot water heating apparatus, and also of gineer's supplies at 886 Jay street, and in the business of engineer and contractor at 68 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn. He was elected Alderman in the Second aldermanic district in 1885, and served two years. This Second aldermanic district comprises the same wards as the Third Senatorial district which he now represents in the Senate. He is and has been Treasurer of the Republican General and also the Campaign Committees since 1885, and he did very efficient work for his party in the last presidential campaign. He was elected to the Senate in 1889 by 4,068 plurality over Matthew T. Bride, Democrat, and a Prohibition candidate.

William L. Brown.

William L. Brown (Democrat), who represents the Fifth district, was born of Irish parents in Vermont on Christmas Day, 1840. His parents removed to Mahoning county, O., where he passed his boyhood and received his early education. His father died when he was very young, and he assumed the care and support of his widowed mother. He became a school teacher and obtained employment in that capacity in Ohio for several terms, then he went to Copiah county, Miss., and was teaching school there when the war broke out. He disagreed with the southern leaders on the question of the Union and left the south. Although serving in the war in the Eighty-eighth and One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Regiments of Ohio Volunteers, his rank of colonel came with his appointment as aide-de-camp on the staff of Governor William Allen, the Democratic War Horse of Ohio. After the war Col. Brown, with a party of friends, set out for Montana, across the plains with mule teams. It was the first regular train that made the trip over the Bridger route. The journey was one of great danger and hardship, but they reached Virginia City without an actual Indian fight, although many were expected. Montana then was strongly Democratic, and in the fall campaign Col. Brown made a number of effective political speeches. He was made chief clerk of the Territorial Legislature by unanimous vote of the Democratic members, being the first to hold that office after the organization of that body. He remained in Montana for two years engaged in mining near Virginia City, where he employed a number of men and added considerably to his fortunes. Returning east he took control of the Youngstown (Ohio) Vindicator, which he made a paper of influence among Ohio Democrats and labor organizations. In 1875, he ran for State Senator in "the Western Reserve," and ran 1,400 ahead of his ticket in that hopelessly Republican section. Youngstown, strongly Republican, gave him over 1,000 majority in a vote of less than 8,000. After settling at Youngstown, he actively engaged and participated in political affairs as a speaker and a writer, and speedily arose to prominence in his party. For a number of years he was chairman of the Mahoning Democratic County Committee and represented his district in the National Democratic Conventions of 1872 and 1876. He soon afterwards came to New York, and is now the successful business manager of the New York News, and the associate and partner of the Hon. Benjamin Wood in the publication of that paper. Col. Brown is married. He was elected in 1889 as the Tammany candidate by 2,545 plurality over Michael C. Murphy, County Democrat, indorsed by the Republicans, and F. M. Hammond, Prohibitionist.

Jacob A. Cantor.

Jacob A. Cantor (Democrat), who represents the Tenth district, was born in the Seventeenth ward of New York city, December 6, 1854. His parents were natives of London, England. He is a graduate of the public schools, and has been a resident of either Yorkville or Harlem since 1860. In his fourteenth year he entered the law office of William Ware Peck. Early in 1870 Mr. Cantor became associated with the firm of Webster & Craig, the former of whom is a son-in-law of Hon. Hamilton Fish, and the latter ex-Judge Advocate-General of New York. At the invitation of Manton Marble, in 1872, Mr. Cantor became a reporter on the New York World, remaining on the staff of that paper until 1877. During his connection with the World he entered the University Law School, from which he graduated with distinction in 1875. Two years later he was a partner with William D. Hennen, author of the "Louisiana Digest," and later was associated with Charles E. Coddington, compiler of several legal treatises on Law and Trade. He is now senior member of the law firm of Cantor & Van Schaick. For the past seven years Mr. Cantor has been a delegate from the metropolis to every Democratic State convention. He was one of the Democratic speakers during the Presidential contest of 1880, and the State campaigns that have followed, and was an earnest supporter of the Democratic candidates for President and Vice-President during the campaign of 1884. He was a Delegate-at-Large from New York city to the State convention of 1881. Mr. Cantor was a Member of the Assembly in 1885, 1886 and 1887, and was elected to the Senate of 1888-89, serving on important committees. He also was chosen as the candidate for President pro tem. in the Democratic caucus, an unusual compliment to a Senator on his first term in the Senate. Mr. Cantor is a fluent speaker and a legislator of substantial attainments, his name being prominently associated with the act requiring surface railroads to compensate municipalities for the use of streets. He is married, residing at 140 East One Hundred and Fourth street, New York, and is an active member and former trustee of the Press club. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1889 as the Tammany nominee by 5,636 plurality over Charles A. Peabody, Republican, Alston G. Culver, County Democrat, and E. D. Garnsey, Prohibitionist.

Norton Chase.

Norton Chase (Democrat), who represents the Seventeenth district, was born of American parentage, in Albany, September 8, 1861, and is consequently the youngest member of the Senate. He was educated at the Albany Academy, graduating with honors in 1878. He attended Yale College for a year and then entered the Albany Law School, from which he received the degree of LL. B. in 1882. He studied law with the late Judge Samuel Hand, and shortly after his death, in 1886, formed a partnership with Mr. Frank B. Delehanty, under the firm name of Chase & Delehanty, succeeding to much of the practice of Judge Hand. Mr. Chase is married and resides in Albany. He has taken an active interest in military matters and is Major of the Tenth Battalion, N. G. S. N. Y. He is a member of many business and social organizations and takes an active part in the life and plans of the community he represents. He has always been a Democrat and entered active political life in 1835, when he was chosen to the Assembly by 1,200 plurality from the Third Albany district. He served on the committees on Judiciary, Military Affairs, and Two-thirds and Three-fifths Bills, and was prominent in the debates of the session. In 1837 he was the Democratic candidate for Senator for the Seventeenth district and was elected after one of the most exciting contests in the district, but was counted out by eight votes and the seat was awarded to Henry Russell. Since attaining his majority he has done faithful work for the Democracy as a campaign speaker. During the campaign of 1868 he served on the Democratic canal boat "Thomas Jefferson," speaking three and four times a day, with the Hon. John Boyd Thacher, Congressmen C. R. Breckenridge and John Allen and others. Mr. Chase was re-elected to the Senate in 1869 by 3,151 plurality over George H. Treadwell, Republican, and Joel R. Wager, Prohibitionist.

Henry J. Coggeshall.

Henry J. Coggeshall (Republican), who represents the Twenty-second district, was born in Waterville, April 23, 1845, of New York State parentage. He was educated in the common schools and the seminary of his native village, studied law, and was admitted to practice in 1866. He is a ready and pleasing speaker, and of decided popularity. He has been one of the trustees of Waterville village, president of the fire department, and is now a member of the Board of Education. From 1869 to 1872, he was Assistant District Attorney of Oneida county; Member of the Assembly in 1883, and Clerk of Oneida county from 1880 to 1883. He was elected to the Senate in 1884, and is now serving his fourth consecutive term. During his service he has been a member of the Judiciary and Railroad Committees and other important committees, chairman of the Committee on Miscellaneous Corporations, and has also been prominent in debate. He has always been a Republican. Mr. Coggeshall is married and lives at Waterville. He was elected by 1,010 plurality in 1889 over James Flanagan, Democrat.

Michael F. Collins.

Michael F. Collins (Democrat), who represents the Sixteenth district, was born in Troy, N. Y., September 27, 1834, of Irish parentage, and was educated in the public schools and Christian Brothers' Academy. Mr. Collins worked for a number of years at his trade, that of newspaper compositor. He was one of the printers who were locked out in the Troy Press strike in 1877, and afterward started the Troy Standard; left the Standard in 1879, and purchased the Troy Observer, a Democratic Sunday newspaper, of which he is also editor. He is president of the Board of Civil Service Examiners of Troy, president of the Pioneer Democratic club, and trustee of the Pioneer Building and Loan Association. He is married and resides at Troy. He served with credit in the Assembly in 1886 and 1887. He was elected to the Senate in 1887 by 2,818 plurality over James H. Manville, Republican, although the district has a normal Republican plurality of about 2,000, and in 1889 was re-elected by 3,530 plurality over James C. Rogers, Republican, and F. O. Ives, Prohibitionist.

Gilbert A. Deane.

Gilbert A. Deane (Republican), who represents the Fifteenth district, was born in Connecticut, June 2, 1851, of American parentage, and was educated at Williamstown, Mass. He lives at Copake, where he is engaged in iron mining and manufacturing. He was a member of the Assembly in 1884, and was elected to the Senate in 1887, serving as chairman of the Military Committee and member of various committees. He was re-elected in 1889 by 3,090 plurality over J. Mansfield Davies, Democrat.

Harvey J. Donaldson.

Harvey J. Donaldson (Republican), who represents the Eighteenth district, was born in Washington county in 1848, of American parentage. He was educated at the schools of Montgomery and Albany counties, and until 1880 was engaged in business as a contractor. For the following six years he was a paper manufacturer, and he is now retired from active business. He is director of the First National Bank of Ballston Spa and of the Citizens' National Bank of Saratoga Springs. Mr. Donaldson is married and lives at Ballston. He has always been a Republican and served in the Assembly in 1888 and 18-9. He was elected to the Senate by 11,183 plurality over Thomas Morphy, Prohibitionist, no Democratic nomination being made.

Louis W. Emerson.

Louis W. Emerson (Republican), who represents the Nineteenth district, was born of American parentage, at Warrensburgh, July 25, 1837, and was educated at the Warrensburgh Academy. He is a manufacturer by occupation, and although a strong Republican, he has never held office until elected to the Senate. Mr. Emerson is a bachelor and resides at Warrensburgh. He was elected by 4,465 plurality over Henry D. Graves, Democrat.

George Z. Erwin.

George Z. Erwin (Republican), who represents the Twentieth district, was born at Madrid, St. Lawrence county, not far from the place of his present residence, on the 15th of January, 1840. His preliminary education was obtained in the St. Lawrence Academy, at Potsdam; then he entered the Middlebury, Vt., College, and in 1865, at the age of twenty-five, graduated with honor. After graduation he at once began the study of law, and from 1869 to 1873 was a member of the firm of Tappan & Erwin, which was dissolved by the election of the senior member to the Supreme Court bench. Mr. Erwin has since been a member of the legal firm of Dart & Erwin. In the fall of 1881 he was nominated for the Assembly, and represented the Third district of St. Lawrence for six consecutive years. During his service in the popular branch of the Legislature he was a member of the Committees on Ways and Means, Railroads, Banks, and Privileges and Elections, and the select committee to investigate Receiverships and the Public Works Department of New York. In 1885 he was Speaker of the Assembly, and was again a candidate against James W. Husted in 1886, but withdrew before the caucus was held. He was elected to the Senate in 1887, serving on the Finance, Judiciary and Insurance Committees, and taking a prominent part in debates. He was re-elected in 1889 by 8,481 plurality over Calvin T. Fletcher, Democrat, and Horatio S. Hendee, Prohibitionist.

Edward Hawkins.

Edward Hawkins (Democrat), who represents the First district, was born at Stony Brook, Long Island, of American parentage, January 21, 1839. He was educated at the public school of the village, and when quite young became a sailor, engaging in the merchant service. He followed the sea for many years, and on abandoning it turned his energies to the manufacture of menhaden oil and guano. He is at present engaged in farming at Jamesport, Long Island. He is a trustee of the Riverhead Savings Bank. Mr. Hawkins is married. He has always been a Democrat, and his contest in 1889 attracted especial notice, as his brother, the Hon. S. S. Hawkins, who had represented the district in the previous Senate, was his Republican opponent. He was elected by 1,535 plurality over S. S. Hawkins, Republican, and J. E. Phelps, Prohibitionist.

Francis Hendricks.

Francis Hendricks (Republican), who represents the Twenty-fifth district, was born of American parentage, at Kingston, N. Y., November 23, 1834, and was educated at the public schools and the Albany Academy. Removing to Syracuse when a young man he began business life and is now one of the most successful merchants in that city. He is President of the State Bank of Syracuse and President of the Trust and Deposit Company of Onondaga. He is married. Mr. Hendricks has always been a Republican, and as such was chosen Fire Commissioner and Mayor of Syracuse. He served in the Assembly in 1884 and 1885, and is now serving his third term in the Senate. He has been Chairman of the Cities Committee, and, although not a fluent talker on the floor, has been one of the most influential members in his party caucus and in determining legislation. He was elected in 1889 by 4,960 plurality over Jabez B. Norton, Democrat.

Thomas Hunter.

Thomas Hunter (Republican), who represents the Twenty-sixth district, was born in Baltimore, Md., of Irish parentage, September 11, 1834, but his parents moved to Cayuga county when he was three years old. His early educational opportunities were limited to six months attendance at the public schools. He worked on a farm until the age of seventeen, when he went to Virginia and worked on the Manassas Gap Railroad. From a day laborer he became a foreman. In 1857 he returned to Sterling, and entered the milling business. Going again to Virginia in 1860, he was there when the war broke out. August 7, 1862, he enlisted as a private in Company F, 110th Regiment, New York Volunteers. On the twenty-fifth of the same month he was made Second Lieutenant, and in the following May was promoted to Captain. He served with the Nineteenth corps under General Banks, participating in several important engagements. In February, 1864, he was detached from his regiment and was ordered into Florida where he mustered in 574 men as the Second Florida cavalry, declining the command of the organization as he preferred to remain with his company. He was stationed in Florida until the rebellion was crushed and was mustered out of service on the 3d of August, 1865. Upon his return north he engaged in the lumber business, and in 1871 began his career as a railway contractor. His first contract was on the Southern Central, and he constructed ninety miles of the present Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg Railway; he four-tracked the New York Central from Syracuse to Clyde, and afterwards was awarded a contract in the construction of the Welland canal. He also filled large contracts on the West Shore, the Pennsylvania Railway and western roads. During these years he has made his home at Sterling; is married and has been a successful farmer. He served in the Assembly of 1881-82, and is the present supervisor of his town. He was nominated for the Senate after a prolonged dead-lock; was elected by 2,771 plurality over John D. Teller, Democrat, and Isaac C. Andrews, Prohibitionist.

Eugene Semmes Ives.

Eugene Semmes Ives (Democrat), who represents the Eleventh district, was born in Washington, D. C., November 11, 1839. He was educated at the University of Georgetown, D. C., and subsequently took the degree of Bachelor of Laws, at Columbia College, New York city, having previously pursued his legal studies in Austria and Belgium. He is now a practicing lawyer in the city of New York. In politics a Democrat, Mr. Ives was never before the fall of 1884 a candidate for office, when he was elected to the Assembly; he was again elected to the Assembly in 1886, and was one of the best known members of that House, being the author of the Ives Pool bill, and in charge of the Field Code scored a remarkable triumph as a legislative leader in obtaining a majority in favor of the Code. In 1889 he was in charge of the New York Rapid Transit bill, and took an active part in debate, serving on the Judiciary and General Laws Committees. Mr. Ives is married and is well known in the society life of New York, Washington and Albany. He was elected as the Tammany candidate in 1889 by 8,319 plurality over John Carlin, Republican, and Dennis A. Spellacy, County Democrat.

John C. Jacobs.

John C. Jacobs (Democrat), who represents the Second district, was born in Lancaster, Pa., December 16, 1838. He comes from Revolutionary stock on his father's side and his mother's family was of German origin. He was educated at the common schools, and when fourteen years old he learned the printer's trade. He was the Albany correspondent of the New York World and other papers at the outbreak of the war, and during McClellan's campaign acted as a war correspondent. He entered public life as an unsuccessful candidate for the Assembly in 1863, but for twenty years from 1866 he served continuously in the Legislature, being during the greater part of this time the Democratic leader in the branch of which he was a member. He served in the Assembly continuously from 1866 to 1874, acting on various committees, and as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee in 1870. For twelve successive years from 1874 he represented the Fourth district in the Senate, and was the parliamentary leader of his party, as well as serving on the principal committees. Since 1885 he has withdrawn from public life, but in 1889 he resumed his active interest in political affairs, and was elected to the Senate by 8,198 plurality over Philip Casey, Republican and Independent.

John Laughlin.

John Laughlin (Republican), who represents the Thirty-first district, was born of Irish parentage, in Newstead, Erie county, March 14, 1856. He lived on a farm in that town until he was ten years of age, when his family removed to Wilson, Niagara county. He continued in agricultural pursuits until he was nineteen years of age, when he entered the High School at Lockport, where he completed a four years' course. He began the study of law in the office of Hon. Richard Crowley, at that time United States Attorney for the northern district of New York. In April, 1880, Mr. Crowley removed to Buffalo and Mr. Laughlin accompanied him, and was admitted to the bar in October of the same year. Subsequently he entered into partnership with Mr. Crowley, continuing until the latter removed to New York. Afterward he associated with him ex-County Clerk Joseph E. Ewell and Supervisor Daniel McIntosh, under the firm name of Laughlin, Ewell & McIntosh. Mr. Laughlin defended Hattie Penseyres, who was tried at Buffalo for the murder of her husband, and saved her from the gallows, the conviction being for murder in the second degree. The case attracted great attention in the western part of the State. Mr. Laughlin is unmarried and lives in Buffalo. He has always been a Republican and served in the Senate of 1888-89, acting as chairman of the Canal Committee and member of the Judiciary Committee. He devoted himself especially to legislation for canal improvement, though taking part also in political debates. He was re-elected in 1889 by 2,671 plurality over Matthias Rohr, Democrat, and John A. Thompson, Prohibitionist.

John J. Linson.

John J. Linson (Democrat), who represents the Fourteenth district, was born of American parentage, at Mongaup Valley, Sullivan county, November 23, 1850. He was educated at the Monticello Academy and Albany State Normal school, after which he taught school for a time. In January, 1872, he was admitted to the bar, and four years later he became a partner of the Hon. Augustus Schoonmaker, and remained in that firm until the appointment of Mr. Schoonmaker as Inter-State Commerce Commissioner. He has always been an active and ardent Democrat. For five years he served as Corporation Counsel of the city of Kingston, and for three years was Justice of the Peace, in which positions and in the extensive practice of his profession he has won an enviable reputation as a lawyer. He was a member of the Senate of 1888-89, serving on the Finance and General Laws Committees and taking a leading part in political and legal debates. He was the author of the Linson electoral bill, designed to check corrupt practices at elections and won a State reputation by his services in the last Senate. He is married and lives at Kingston. Mr. Linson was re-elected in 1889 by 8,620 plurality, one of the largest the district ever gave, over Charles C. Kromer, Republican, and Isaac C. Dart, Prohibitionist.

Patrick H. McCarren.

Patrick H. McCarren (Democrat), who represents the Sixth Kings district, was born in Boston, in 1849, of Irish parentage, and educated at public and private schools. He is a cooper by trade, has been oil and cooperage inspector, and is now in the real estate and insurance business. He is unmarried, and lives at 109 Wythe avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y. He was a member of the Assembly from the district in 1882-83, 1889 and was prominent in debates and deliberations of the sessions. In 1885 he was an unsuccessful candidate for the Senate. He was elected to the Senate in 1889 by 417 plurality over Edward H. Schluter, Republican, and F. McDonough, Prohibitionist.

Donald McNaughton.

Donald McNaughton (Democrat), who represents the Twenty-ninth district, was born in Mumford, town of Wheatland, Monroe Co., N. Y., March 29, 1830. His parents were of sturdy Scotch stock. His education was confined to the public school in Mumford, and from a clerk in early life he prepared himself for the legal profession. For eight years he represented his town in the Board of Supervisors and was chairman of the Board. In 1864 he was presented with a law library by the citizens of Wheatland for his successful efforts in filling the quota of that town in the various drafts. During the construction of the Rochester and State Line Railroad, and for many years after its completion, he was Secretary and Treasurer of that company; is a trustee of the Central Union Storage and Transfer Company of Rochester, trustee of the Reynolds Library, President of the Scottish Society of Rochester, and Secretary of the Wheatland Historical Society. He is unmarried and resides in Mumford, having a law office in Rochester. Mr. McNaughton was elected to the Senate in 1887 by 429 plurality, although the district gave over 1,000 plurality for the Republican State ticket. He served on the committees on Cities, Railroads, Canals and Public Buildings; was a member of the New York Aqueduct investigating committee, and in 1889 repeated his previous triumph, carrying his district by 871 plurality over William A. Sutherland, Republican, and the Prohibition nominee, although the district again gave nearly 4,000 plurality for the Republican State ticket.

Edmund O'Connor.

Edmund O'Connor (Republican), who represents the Twenty-fourth district, was born in Ireland, of Irish parentage, in November, 1848, but came to this country when a child. He was educated at the public schools and the academy at Little Falls and at the Delht Academy. During this period he contributed to his own support by working in the railroad blacksmith shop and the hammer shops at Little Falls. After leaving school he began the study of the law and for several years he has practiced successfully his profession in Binghamton, where he lives. Mr. O'Connor is married. He has always been a Republican, but though active in party politics he has never before filled an elective office. He has been a trustee of the Binghamton Asylum for the Chronic Insane. He was elected in 1889 by 3,160 plurality over Frederick A. Shaw, Democrat, and Rufus A. Thompson, Prohibitionist.

William P. Richardson.

William P. Richardson (Republican), who represents the Thirteenth district, was born at Lawrence, Mass., May 10, 1848. He comes of old colonial stock, William Richardson having settled in this country from England in 1682. His great-grandfather on his father's side was Captain John Richardson, who served in the Revolutionary war and was wounded at the battle of Stillwater, in this State. His ancestry on his mother's side also took part in the Revolutionary struggle, his great-grandfather, David Collins, having entered the service of his country at the age of seventeen, remaining until the close of the war. Mr. Richardson's boyhood and school days were spent in Newburyport, Mass., and in Providence, R. I. He received his education in the public schools, and at about the age of fifteen obtained employment in a drug store, in Providence, R. I. There he remained for two years, at the end of that time going to Paterson, N. J., where he engaged in the same line of business. After an unsuccessful business venture in Havana and the Bahama Islands he returned to Paterson and engaged in the hardware business. He was elected a member of the Paterson Board of Education. For about fifteen years he has been a resident of Goshen, where he owns one of the largest and most productive farms in the county. He is President of the Orange County Farmers' Association and director of the State Agricultural Society. He is married. He has always been a Republican and was Presidential Elector for his district in 1888. He was elected to the Senate by 232 plurality over Peter Ward, Democrat, and Howard G. McKoon, Prohibitionist.

William H. Robertson.

William H. Robertson (Republican), who represents the Twelfth district, was born at Bedford, Westchester county, October 10, 1823, of Scotch-English parentage, and was educated at the Bedford Union Academy. He taught school for three years and then read law, being admitted to the bar in 1847. He has practiced law ever since, his firm, Closs & Robertson, formed in 1854, being the oldest now in practice in the State. In 1876 Williams College conferred the degree of LL. D. upon him. Mr. Robertson is married and lives at Katonah. He has had a longer and more extended political career than any man now in active political life in the State, having been a Whig and a Republican always. He was Supervisor of Bedford four years; chairman of the Westchester Board of Supervisors twice; member of Assembly in 1849 and 1850; of the State Senate in 1854-55 and 1873-74-75-76-77-78-79-80-81-82-83 and President pro tem, in 1874-75-76-77-78-79-80-81; County Judge of Westchester county twelve years (three terms); Presidential Elector in 1860; Representative in the Fortieth Congress; Delegate to the Republican National Conventions in 1864, 1876, 1880, 1884 and 1888, and Delegate to Whig and Republican State Conventions repeatedly; Collector of the Port of New York, four years, and member of the Republican State Committee for fifteen successive years. He was one of the three Republicans from this State sent by General Grant to Florida in 1876 to see the electoral vote cast; chairman of the Military Committee appointed by Gov. Morgan in 1882 to raise and organize State troops in the Eighth Senate district; Commissioner to superintend the draft in Westchester in the early part of the war, under an appointment of the Governor, and Brigade Inspector of the Seventh Brigade for six years. In 1849 and 1855 he and Reuben Kobiec, of Warren, cast the only votes for William N. Seward for United States Senator. He has been chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee seven years, of the Committee on Commerce and Navigation two years, and on Literature two years. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1889 by 2,715 plurality over Henry C. Nelson, Democrat, and Lyon, Prohibitionist.

George F. Roesch.

George F. Roesch (Democrat), who represents the Seventh district, was born in New York city, June 19, 1835, and educated in St. Nicholas Parochial School, De La Salle Institute of the Christian Brothers and Columbia College Law School. He also read law in the offices of Cyrus Lawton and Barnum & Rebhann, and was admitted to the bar on October 30, 1878. He has always been a Tammany Democrat; has been a speaker for the Democracy since 1874, and took part in the Tilden, Hancock and Cleveland campaigns. He is unmarried and lives at 35 1st Avenue, New York. He is a member of the New York Press club. He was a member of the Assembly in 1883, serving on the Committees on the Judiciary, Public Health, State Charitable Institutions, Memorial Services of the late Governor E. D. Morgan and the Conference committee to establish a State Bureau of Labor Statistics; in 1885 serving on General Laws and Two-thirds and Three-fifths bills, and on the Democratic caucus committee; in 1888 serving on the Judiciary, Federal Relations and Special Committee to investigate the condition of the Indian tribes in this State; in 1889 serving on the Judiciary, Federal Relations and Public Printing. He was the author of the bills to repeal the law which prohibited actions being brought in this State on policies of life insurance where the insured had died outside of the State; to prohibit the manufacture of cigars in tenement houses; to authorize the Board of Education in New York city to provide special schools and classes to enable those to acquire an English education who cannot attend the regular day or evening sessions on account of their occupations; to extend to veterans the privilege of music at funerals of comrades on Sunday; to abolish the store money order system and compel corporations to pay their employees in cash; to protect by injunction and action for damages the labels of trades unions attached to the products of skilled labor. In 1885 he introduced a bill to give citizens the preference over unnaturalized persons in employment on public works. His predecessor was elected in 1887 on the united Democratic nomination by a plurality over five opponents. Frederick W. Diehl was nominated by the County Democracy and endorsed by the regular Republicans and also by the John J. O'Brien faction. Mr. Roesch defeated the combination candidate by a majority of 2,240. He was elected by 2,240 plurality over Frederick W. Diehl, County Democrat, endorsed by the Republicans.

Charles T. Saxton.

Charles T. Saxton (Republican), who represents the Twenty-eighth district, was born at Clyde,

N. Y., where he still resides, July 2, 1846, of American parentage; was educated at Clyde High School and prepared for college; but the war breaking out he abandoned his books, and, on November 19, 1861, he enlisted in the Nineteenth New York Volunteers, when but fifteen years old, serving until February, 1866, through the Port Hudson and Red River campaigns in Louisiana, and the Shenandoah Valley campaign of 1864 in Louisiana, attaining the rank of Sergeant-Major. He was admitted to the bar in 1867, since which time he has been engaged in the practice of the law. He has been President of the village of Clyde and Trustee of the Clyde High School. He was a member of the Assembly in 1887, 1888 and 1889, serving as chairman of the Judiciary Committee for three years. He is the author of the Saxton bill, which aims to apply to the State the Australian ballot system, which has recently been adopted in several States. Mr. Saxton is a leader in debate on general and political topics. He is married. He was elected to the Senate in 1889 by 4,154 plurality over Martin Sunderlin, Democrat, and William R. Hunt, Prohibitionist.

Titus Sheard.

Titus Sheard (Republican), who represents the Twenty-third district, was born at Bailey, England, of English parentage, October 4, 1841, but emigrated to this country in 1854. He attended the public schools for a few months during intervals from work as an employe in woolen mills, and subsequently taught school for a few years. By economy he accumulated enough money to start in the manufacturing of woolen and knit goods, and he has since that time rapidly amassed wealth. He is President of the Sheard Manufacturing Company, is married and lives at Little Falls. He has always been a Republican, and was a member of the Assembly of 1878, 1879 and 1884. In the last-named year he was chosen Speaker, receiving the Republican caucus nomination after an exciting contest with Theodore Roosevelt. He was nominated for the Senate in 1889, after one of the longest dead-locks on record, which attracted the notice of the whole State, and was finally solved by a letter from the Hon. Thomas C. Platt in Mr. Sheard's favor. He was elected by 2,697 plurality over A. Beekman Cox, Democrat, and Philip Elwood, Prohibitionist.

George B. Sloan.

George B. Sloan (Republican), who represents the Twenty-first district, was born in the city of Oswego, June 30, 1832. His father, James Sloan, was a native of Massachusetts, and emigrated to this State in 1825. His mother was of New Hampshire birth. After receiving a good common school education, at the age of fourteen he commenced a business career. Subsequently, and several years later, he became widely known in the business field as a member of the firm of Irwin & Sloan, whose transactions in their line of business for twenty years were larger than any similar firm in the northern part of the State. That firm was dissolved in 1885, and the business was given over to young men who had previously been junior partners in the firm, and it is now carried on under the title of Gaylord, Downey & Co. Mr. Sloan is married, is president of the Second National Bank of Oswego, director of the Oswego Shade Cloth Company, member of the local board of the State Normal School at Oswego, and trustee of the New York State Idiot Asylum at Syracuse. In politics he has always been an active Republican. He was a member of Assembly in 1874, 76-77, 79 (Speaker in 1877, defeating James W. Husted after a close and exciting canvass). He is now serving his third successive term in the Senate. He has been chairman of the Finance Committee, and in all financial matters is the recognized leader of his party in the Senate. He was offered the position of United States Treasurer at New York, but declined, and has several times declined to be a candidate on the State ticket. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1895 by 8,996 plurality over George E. Morse, Democrat, and Charles G. Bacon, Prohibitionist.

Charles A. Stadler.

Charles A. Stadler (Democrat), who represents the Ninth district, was born in Germany, July 15, 1848. He came to this country at the age of three years, and when old enough he was placed by his parents in De La Salle's private institute, where a careful foundation was laid for the education he afterward received. At the age of twelve Mr. Stadler entered the public schools of New York and studied ornamental drawing, it being the intention of his parents to apprentice him to an engraver. Shortly after leaving school he entered upon a commercial career. His sterling character and talent for handling large enterprises placed him at the head of the New York Ice Exchange. He was made president of the Sebastian Manufacturing Company, and became a member of the firm of Neidinger, Schmidt & Co. He is likewise a member of the New York Produce Exchange. Mr. Stadler has always been a Democrat in principle, and a careful student of political economy. During the movement in favor of a national modification of the war tariff Mr. Stadler was chosen by citizens to appear before congressional committees and represent them in the matter. He appeared before the Finance Committee of the United States Senate, and the Committee of Ways and Means of the House, and eloquently advocated the reduction of duties upon raw material. Last winter Mr. Stadler made several masterly arguments against sumptuary legislation. He is a member of the Liederkrantz, Arion and other kindred organizations. He is a member of the Democratic Executive Committee, and was re-elected to the Senate in 1889 as the Tammany candidate by 6,080 plurality over William J. Boyhan, County Democrat, indorsed by the Republicans.

Lispensard Stewart.

Lispensard Stewart (Republican), who represents the Eighth district, was born in New York, of American parentage, June 19, 1855. He was educated at Anthon's and Charlier's private schools and the boarding school of Dr. Morris, and at Yale College, where he graduated in 1876. Returning to New York he studied law at the Columbia Law School and received the degree of Bachelor of Laws in 1878. He then began the practice of law, but was compelled to relinquish practice in order to undertake charge of important trust estates. Since then his time has been fully occupied at his up-town and down-town offices principally in caring for real estate. He has always been a public-spirited citizen, and takes an active part in charitable work. He is on the governing boards of the Prison Association, the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary and the Seamen's Missionary Society. He is a member of several of the clubs of New York, a member of the board of governors of two and prominent in the social life of the metropolis. He is also an enthusiastic sportsman and has hunted in all parts of this country and in Europe. Mr. Stewart is a bachelor. He has always been a Republican, was a Presidential Elector in 1888, and was made Secretary of the Electoral College of this State. He was elected to the Senate by 805 plurality over Charles H. Turner, "the iceman," Tammany, and Nelson J. Waterbury, Jr., County Democrat.

Greenleaf S. Van Gorder.

Greenleaf S. Van Gorder (Republican), who represents the Thirtieth district, was born at York, Livingston county, of Holland-Dutch and Scotch-Irish parentage, June 2, 1835. He was educated at the public schools of Livingston and Allegany counties and the Academy of Allegany county, and studied law with Sanford & Bowen, at Angelica, N. Y., and was admitted to the bar at Buffalo, N. Y., June, 1877. Has been trustee of the Pike Seminary since December, 1892. Was Town Clerk of Pike in 1878, 1879, 1880 and 1881; and Supervisor of the town of Pike in 1883, 1884, 1885, 1886 and 1887. Has always been a Republican and served in the Assembly in 1888 and 1889, taking an active part in debate and advocating especially the sale of the State salt reservation in Onondaga. He was elected to the Senate in 1889 by 2,883 plurality over John H. Buck, Democrat, and Alva Carpenter, Prohibitionist.

Commodore Perry Vedder.

Commodore Perry Vedder (Republican), who represents the Thirty-second district, was born of American parents, in Ellicottville, Cattaraugus county, February 23, 1839; was educated in common schools and Springville Academy; has been a farmer, canal driver, raftsmen, sailor and school-master; is now a lawyer; was in the One Hundred and Fifty-fourth New York Volunteers from August, 1862, until the close of the war as private, First Lieutenant and Captain; was made Brevet Major for gallant conduct in the campaign to Atlanta, and Lieut.-Colonel for gallant and meritorious conduct at Lookout Mountain; was in battles of Chancellorsville, Wauhatchie, Lookout Valley, Lookout Mountain, Chattanooga, Rocky-faced Ridge, Bentonville and Siege of Savannah. Was in the Assembly of 1872-73-74-75, and Senate in 1876-77, 84-85 and 1886-87; Register in Bankruptcy, 1867-75; Internal Revenue Collector, 1869-71; State Assessor, 1880-83. He is now serving his third successive term in the Senate, in which body since 1884 he has been active in framing tax laws, interested in the collateral inheritance tax law and corporation formation tax law of the State. He is an eloquent and ready debater. He is a widower and resides at Ellicottville. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1889 by 5,401 plurality over E. W. Gallagher, Democrat, and D. W. C. Huntington, Prohibitionist.

MEMBERS OF ASSEMBLY.

James W. Husted, Speaker.

James W. Husted (Republican), Speaker of the Assembly, who represents the Third Westchester district, was born of American parents, descended from English and French stock, at Bedford, N. Y., October 31, 1833. He was educated at the Bedford Academy and at Yale College, where he took his degree in 1854. For three years following he taught school and studied law, being admitted to practice in 1857. Mr. Husted is one of the few men in political life who retain youth's interest in literature, and he possesses a poetic gift of fair order. He has been Superintendent of Village Schools, County School Commissioner, Deputy Superintendent of Insurance, Harbor Master and Deputy Captain of the Port of New York. In Masonry he wears the jewel of the thirty-third degree, and has been Grand Master of the State Lodge. In military rank he has reached that of Major-General of the Fifth Division of National Guard, State of New York. He is a director of the Mutual Life Insurance Company and of the P. & B. Railroad, has been president of the Poughkeepsie Bridge Company and has been actively interested in large business ventures. He is married and lives at Peekskill. Gen. Husted enjoys the double honor of having served a longer period in the Legislature and having held the office of Speaker of the Assembly oftener than any man in the history of the State. He is now serving his twentieth year as member of Assembly and his sixth term as Speaker. The Hon. Alexander Sheldon and DeWitt C. Littlejohn each served five terms as Speaker, the longest service up to 1890. Gen. Husted has represented both Westchester and Rockland counties, the latter as a non-resident. In his long service in the Assembly he has acted as chairman or member of nearly all the important committees, and when not wielding the gavel has been his party's leader on the floor. He has been frequently a delegate to National and State conventions, and, as the best parliamentarian in the State, has presided at such assemblages. He is a forcible political debater and a graceful speaker on non-political occasions. In 1881 he was defeated for State Treasurer on the Republican ticket. LETTERS OF CONGRATULATION.

Seventy-fifth Anniversary of The Argus—January 26, 1888.

TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,

to The Argus:

more than two years I daily read the Albany Argus, deriving therefrom my information of its events, and gathering abundant reasons for my Democratic faith. Of course, long before our intimate acquaintance, I was familiar with the paper as an influential expositor of party principles and policy. But when a person reads a paper every day, for even no longer a period of two years, it grows to be like a companion friend, whose existence and prosperity are matters of interest. It is for these reasons that I most heartily and sincerely congratulate the managers of The Argus upon the seventy-fifth year of its establishment. Its history is honorable; its influence has been great; its fidelity to political principles in days of newspaper controversy has been steadfast, and may it continue for many years to demonstrate that courage and honesty are profitable as well as

Yours, very truly,

GROVER CLEVELAND.

FROM THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, }
ALBANY, January 25, 1888. }

to The Argus:

congratulate The Argus upon the anniversary that celebrates to-day. Democrats remember that it has fought in many gallant contests for the supremacy of Democratic principles; that it has bravely stood firm in defeat; that it has wisely counseled

The Argus marked its silver and golden anniversary periods by honorable, brilliant and successful successes, and it now completes its three-score of a century with renewed youthful vigor. It may good wishes for innumerable prosperous years to come.

Very truly yours,

DAVID B. HILL.

FROM EX-GOVERNOR LUCIUS ROBINSON.

ELMHURST, N. Y., January 4, 1888.

to The Argus:

more than fifty years I have known well the Albany Argus and the distinguished men who have connected with its editorial management. All that long period it has been uniformly distinguished for its courteous demeanor and its steadfast devotion to the maintenance of sound principles upheld by truthfulness of statement and force of argument which could not be over-estimated. Its career, its usefulness and its success are for it the admiration of all good men who have been in the habit of reading its columns. Its splendid qualities which it has shown were more forcibly illustrated than when it was under the control of the great journalist and man who has recently been laid in the tomb. It is bright and high example long continue to its course.

Yours very truly,

L. ROBINSON.

PUBLIC LEDGER BUILDING,
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 17, 1888. }

To The Argus:

Certainly a newspaper that covers seventy-five years of such eventful, honorable, and immeasurably influential history as The Argus does is well entitled to commemorate when it completes the third and enters upon the fourth quarter towards the round century of its existence. With such a history, exhibiting such far-reaching influence and power in the affairs of the State of New York and of the United States, it might be deemed needless if it did not celebrate the day.

What strongly interests me, as one of the printing and publishing fraternity, is the dimension of the sheet or sheets that must be brought into use for the illustrated historical number you are to print of a paper whose origin has to be traced back to the times of the Clintons (George and De Witt) and Aaron Burr, in the early years of the century; and in the following attempt to elect George Clinton president in order to defeat Madison, all resulting in complications which required the establishment of The Argus in 1813—events which in turn brought in Edwin Croswell to give The Argus a renown and power continued through the days of the famous Albany Regency, when (with Croswell) Martin Van Buren, William L. Marcy, Silas Wright, John A. Dix and Azariah Flagg were among its writing contributors, through to the day when Daniel Manning was its controlling spirit—equal to the ablest of the long line of his illustrious predecessors.

What spread of white paper you will require for all the great history of The Argus which lies between Croswell and Manning is a question curiously interesting. How will you illustrate that potent "Democratic Triumvirate," consisting of the Albany Argus, Ritchie's Richmond Enquirer and Blair's Washington Globe, which more than half a century ago ruled the Democratic party and politics of the United States, which made and unmade the statesmen and party bosses of that day and even shaped the congressional and executive policy of the nation—those three journals sending out controlling opinions and declarations to all parts of the country, which came back in responsive echoes? And it is curious to consider how the illustrated historical Argus will reproduce in their manner as they lived the "Albany (Argus) Regency," the "Richmond (Enquirer) Junta," or "Virginia Dynasty," and the Washington (Globe) "Kitchen Cabinet," which ruled the Democratic politics of the United States for so many years.

Of course you will find a way of doing these things or their equivalent. We shall see; and meanwhile I offer my cordial congratulations and best wishes for a long continuance of the honorable, influential and useful career of The Argus—the seventy-fifth year of which is to be rounded out handsomely and appropriately Thursday, January twenty-sixth.

Very truly,

GEO. W. CHILDS.

ECLIPSES—1891.

There will be four eclipses this year, two of the Sun and two of the Moon, and a transit of Mercury over the Sun.

I. A total eclipse of the Moon, May 23, invisible in America.

II. An annular eclipse of the Sun, June 6. The annular phase will be visible in part of Siberia. The partial phase will be visible in California, Alaska, the Northwestern States, throughout British America, and in Europe. It begins at San Francisco, at 6h. 12m. in the morning, and ends at 7h. 36m. 52s. 3d. At Portland, Oregon, it begins at 6h. 22m., and ends at 7h. 52m. At Chicago and St. Louis a mere contact of limbs occurs.

III. A total eclipse of the Moon, November 15.

IV. A partial eclipse of the Sun, December 1, invisible in North America, but visible in the southern part of South America.

V. A transit of Mercury, May 9, in the afternoon. Its ingress or beginning at Washington occurs at 6h. 40m., and at San Francisco at 6h. 46m. In New England invisible. West of New York and Charleston the ingress will be visible, and the transit will end after sunset. In Cuba the transit begins at sunset, as also at New York and Charleston. The ingress in central time will be at 5h. 54m., and at 6h. 54m. eastern time.

THE SOLAR SYSTEM.

To the average inhabitant of our Earth, looking up at the sky with the natural eye, it seems to be manifest that the Earth upon which he stands is the largest, as well as the most important, part of Creation. The Sun itself appears to have been formed only to give us light and heat by day, and the Moon and Stars to furnish us with light at night. When, however, we look forth and beyond with the eye of the mind, and in the light which science, aided by the telescope, affords us, we learn how really little is this planet, our Earth, as compared with the millions of stars and systems of worlds which stud the heavens, and make up the immensity of the Universe. Our Solar System, with all its planets and attending satellites, asteroids and comets, is apparently only one of many such systems, and our Earth only one of the smaller planets belonging to that system. In what follows we have enumerated the primary planets, with their satellites, and the comets connected with the Solar System, confining ourselves, for want of space, to the simplest facts known relative thereto, and the accepted data concerning each.

The Sun is the center of our Solar System, and around it all the planets, comets, stars or meteors belonging to this system revolve or circle, receiving from the Sun their light and heat. The time occupied by each planet in thus circling once around the Sun is called the year of that planet. All the planets, in addition to their revolutions around the Sun, also revolve or turn around their own axis or center in the same manner as a wheel turns around its hub, and the time each planet thus turns once around its own center is the day of that planet. The Sun is estimated to be eight hundred and sixty-five thousand miles in diameter—that is, it is that distance measured through its center, and its bulk is seven hundred times that of all its planets combined.

MERCURY is the planet nearest to the Sun, being distant from that body thirty-six million miles. It is the smallest of the planets, and only two thousand nine hundred and ninety-two miles in diameter. Its year is eighty-eight of our days, that being the time it occupies in circling once around the Sun. Its day is twenty-four hours and five minutes long, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

VENUS is the planet second in distance from the Sun. It is at times our beautiful Evening Star, and at others the Morning Star, and, from its nearness to us, appears to our view as the largest of the stars. It is sixty-seven million miles distant from the Sun, and seven thousand six hundred and sixty miles in diameter, being larger than Mercury or Mars, and smaller than our Earth and the other planets. Its year is two hundred and twenty-five of our days, that being the time occupied in circling once around the Sun. Its day is twenty-three hours and twenty-one minutes, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

THE EARTH, the world in which we live, is the third planet from the Sun, being distant ninety-two million seven hundred thousand miles, and its diameter is seven thousand nine hundred and eighteen miles. Its tropical year, on which the seasons depend, is three hundred and sixty-five days, five hours, forty-eight minutes and fifty-seconds, the time occupied in circling once around the Sun. Its day is twenty-four hours, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

MARS is the fourth planet from the Sun, being distant one hundred and forty-one million miles. It is four thousand and two hundred miles in diameter, being larger than Mercury, but smaller than all the other planets, and is generally distinguishable by its red color. Its year is six hundred and eighty-seven of our days, that being the time occupied in circling once around the Sun. Its day is twenty-four hours and thirty-seven minutes, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

JUPITER is the fifth planet from the Sun, and is distant from it four hundred and eighty-two million miles. Like Venus, it is at times our Evening and again our Morning Star, and when at its nearest point to the earth is second only to Venus in beauty and brilliancy. It is the largest of all the planets, being eighty-five thousand miles in diameter. Its year is nearly twelve of our years, that being the time it occupies in circling once around the Sun. Its day is short, being but nine hours and fifty-five minutes long, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

SATURN is the sixth planet from the Sun, being distant eight hundred and eighty-four million miles. Saturn is next to the largest of the planets, and is seventy-one thousand miles in diameter. Its year is twenty-nine and one-half of our years, that being the time it occupies in circling once around the Sun. Its day is ten hours and fourteen minutes long, the time taken in revolving once around its own center. This planet is especially interesting in consequence of its being surrounded by a detached ring, forming one of the great wonders of the heavens.

URANUS is the seventh planet from the Sun, and is seventeen hundred and eighty million miles distant from that body. It is the fourth largest of the planets in size, being thirty-one thousand seven hundred miles in diameter. Its year is eighty-four of our years, that being the time it occupies in circling once around the Sun. Its day is unknown.

NEPTUNE is the eighth planet from the Sun, being distant two thousand seven hundred and eighty million miles. Neptune is the third largest planet in size, being thirty-four thousand five hundred miles in diameter. Its year is nearly one hundred and sixty-five of our years, the time occupied in circling once around the Sun. Its day is unknown.

The planets, unlike the Sun, are all dark bodies, having no light of their own, and are seen and shine only by the light they receive from the Sun. Those visible to the naked eye are Mercury (rarely), Venus, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn, and these are readily distinguished by their clear, steady light, so different from the twinkling light of the fixed stars. Six of the planets have satellites or moons, revolving around them in the same manner that the planets do around the Sun, and they serve to light their respective planets at night in the same manner that our moon gives light to the Earth.

Our EARTH has but one satellite, the familiar Moon, which is two hundred and thirty-eight thousand miles distant from us, its diameter being two thousand one hundred and sixty miles. From the moon's nearness to us, it appears vastly larger than any of the planets, and seems to be next to the Sun in size. It circles around the earth once in twenty-seven days, seven hours, forty-three minutes and eleven seconds.

MARS has two satellites or moons, which, after centuries of search, were discovered by Prof. Hall through the great Washington telescope in 1877. They are respectively about four thousand and fourteen thousand five hundred miles above the surface of the planet, and are extremely small in size, being only about twenty miles each in diameter. The inner one revolves around Mars about three times as fast as Mars revolves around its own axis, thus causing the anomalous appearance to an inhabitant of that planet of this moon rising in the west and setting in the east.

JUPITER is attended by four moons, the smallest of these being about the size of our moon, and the others considerably larger.

SATURN has at least eight moons, the largest being nearly equal in size to the planet Mars, and in addition is possessed of the luminous ring surrounding its center, before alluded to.

URANUS has four moons, and NEPTUNE at least one; but both of these planets are so very far distant from the earth that the most powerful telescopes have failed to reveal much that is really definite about them.

ASTEROIDS. — There is another class of bodies, two hundred and fifty-seven of which have so far been discovered, belonging to the Solar System, known as the Asteroids, or minor planets, the latter designation being given to distinguish them from the larger or primary planets above enumerated. With the primary planets they revolve around the Sun in eccentric orbits of their own, occupying the vast space of over three hundred millions of miles between Mars and Jupiter. These Asteroids cannot be seen by the naked eye, the largest being only three hundred and seventy miles in diameter, while many are not more than fifteen miles. The four principal in size of the Asteroids are Ceres, Pallas, Juno and Vesta.

COMETS. — There is still another class of bodies belonging to or visiting the Solar System, designated Comets. They are those mysterious and beautiful heavenly bodies which come in view only at comparatively long intervals to surprise and excite the curiosity of mankind, and oftentimes, unfortunately, serve to arouse the superstitions and fears of the less informed. They are either periodic or transient. The former circle around the Sun in regular periods of their own, but instead of revolving around that body in flattened circles, like the planets, their paths are egg-shaped, or ovals, approaching close to and swinging around the Sun, and then shooting out from it with immense velocity into the realms of space, then turning again approach the Sun to repeat the circuit. In their motion out from and toward the Sun they cross the paths of the planets, many of them traveling much greater distances than most of the latter. The best observed of the Comets are Halley's, whose revolution occupies seventy-six years; Faye's in seven and a-half years, and Encke's in three years and four months. The latter moves around and out from the Sun, crossing the orbits of Mercury, Venus, the Earth and the Asteroids, nearly to the orbit of Jupiter, then turning speeds around on its return, cutting away the orbits named, to again swing around the Sun. To this list may be added the lost Comet of Biela, formerly well recognized under a period of six years and eight months, but which has not been seen since 1852, when it came round as two comets, one and one-half million miles apart. The source of the meteoric displays or falling stars of November 27, 1885, and of November 27, 1872, is confidently referred to the matter of this lost comet, which is thus resolving itself into a meteor-stream. The transient comets come from the realms of space to visit our system, where, after having passed around the Sun, they dart away to disappear in space again, never more to return, unless, perchance, arrested by the giant planet Jupiter, and held captive, as they sometimes are.

HERSCHEL'S WEATHER TABLE.

FOR FORETELLING THE WEATHER, THROUGHOUT ALL THE LUNATIONS OF EACH YEAR, FOREVER.

This table is the result of many year's actual observation, the whole being constructed on a due consideration of the attraction of the Sun and Moon, in their several positions respecting the Earth, and will, by simple inspection, show the observer what kind of weather will most probably follow the entrance of the Moon into any of its quarters, and that so near the truth as to be seldom or never found to fail.

THE NEW STANDARD TIME.

In 1884, four standard meridians were adopted within the United States, by which railway trains are run and local time regulated. These meridians are fifteen degrees or 900 miles, apart, there being a difference of just one hour in time from one meridian to another, as there are 360 degrees in the earth's circumference, which, divided by twenty-four hours, gives fifteen degrees to every hour. The Eastern meridian, seventy-five degrees west from Greenwich, passes four minutes west of New York city. The Central meridian, ninety degrees west longitude, passes through New Orleans and St. Louis. The Mountain standard meridian, one hundred and five degrees west longitude, passes near Pike's Peak, Rocky Mountains. The Pacific meridian, one hundred and twenty degrees west longitude, is near the coast, San Francisco being nine and one-half miles west of it. The figures in these calendar pages will be correct for the various standard meridians; for places east of any meridian and within seven and one-half degrees of it, one minute of time for each quarter of a degree of longitude (equal to fifteen miles nearly), or four minutes for each degree, must be subtracted from the almanac figures. For a place west of any meridian, and within seven and one-half degrees of it, add one minute for each quarter of a degree to the almanac figures. Any United States map gives the distance in longitude of most places from the several standard meridians, sufficiently near to make practical application of the rule.

NOTE.—The vote given in the preceding tables that cast for the heads of the electoral tickets: Oswald Ottendorfer (Dem.), and William Seward (Rep.), except in New York county, where the vote of the highest elector on each ticket is given, as about 2,000 electoral tickets were voted in New York city bearing the names of thirty-four Republican district electors and two Labor electors-at-large. The table of pluralities, given elsewhere, gives the plurality for the highest elector on each ticket. The following shows the range of difference in electors: Democratic, Ottendorfer, head of ticket, 635,757; Mehrbach, highest, 635,965; Youmans, lowest, 635,901; average for thirty-six electors, 635,940. Republican, Seward, head of ticket and lowest, 643,759; Crouse, highest, 630,388; average for thirty-four district electors, 630,308; average for entire thirty-six electors, 630,308.

David B. Hill, Governor.

David Bennett Hill was born in Havana, Schuylcr (then Chemung) county, New York, August 29, 1842. His ancestors were from New England. They were of marked strength and directness of mind and uprightness of character. The excellent schools of his native town gave Mr. Hill the ground work of a thorough academic education. In 1862, he went to Elmira to perfect his studies in the law, which he had already begun. In November, 1864, occurred his admission to the bar in that city, which he has ever since made his home. The first few years of his profession were enough to prove Mr. Hill a leader of the bar of the southern tier. In Chemung county he early interested himself in the success of the principles of the Democracy. He was made the representative of the county in the Legislature of 1871, and again of 1872. His legislative service placed him in the front rank of members. As a lawyer, his judgment was deferred to by the Assembly. As a tactician, his aptitude in effecting the success of principles was notable. As Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, his parliamentary abilities were seen to be unusual. He was an earnest opponent of the system which made penal labor a victor over the interests of honest industry in the State. He secured the passage of a bill forbidding the system, by the Assembly, but the Senate defeated it. In 1873, Mr. Hill declined an appointment by Governor Tilden as member of the Constitutional Commission to provide a uniform charter for cities. His professional duties forbade his acceptance. In 1877 and in 1881 Mr. Hill was president of the Democratic State Convention, which, on each occasion, met in Albany. In 1881, the ward in which Mr. Hill resided elected him Alderman. It is the strongest Republican ward in Elmira. The election was a marked personal triumph and public compliment. Mr. Hill has always believed a citizen's duty to his neighbors requires him to become their trustee in home government, on their demand. In the spring of 1882, Mr. Hill was chosen Mayor of Elmira. He led his ticket largely against a very strong competitor. The needs of the municipal service, with his sense of duty, were made to outweigh all inclination for uninterrupted legal labor. An administration conspicuous for its reforms created a demand, co-extensive with the State, for Mr. Hill's nomination for Lieutenant-Governor. It was made by acclamation, and the ticket headed by Grover Cleveland was elected by an overwhelming majority. Mr. Hill succeeded to the office of Governor on January 6, 1885, when a vacancy was created by the resignation of Governor Cleveland, elected President of the United States, and performed the duties of the office with such acceptability that he was nominated by the Democratic State Convention which met at Saratoga in September 1886, by a vote of 838 out of 864. After an exciting contest he was elected over Ira Javenport, the Republican candidate, by a plurality of 11,184. Governor Hill is a lawyer of great reputation, a counsel of vast interests, an administrative reform Democrat after the straightest sect, a parliamentarian of resource, alertness, lucidity and a fine sense of equity; and his relations to the Democracy of New York have always proved him to be the faithful friend of pure politics and good government. He was re-elected in 1888 by 19,117 over Warner Miller, Republican.

Edward F. Jones, Lieutenant-Governor.

General Edward F. Jones was born in Utica June 8, 1828. He moved to Lester, Mass., in childhood, where he remained until the war broke out. He commanded the Sixth Massachusetts Militia which was the first to respond to President Lincoln's call for 75,000 men. The regiment was attacked in Baltimore while on their way to Washington to protect the Capital, on the 15th of April 1861, and their defense is a matter of history. They arrived in Washington that evening, and were congratulated by President Lincoln and cabinet a having saved the Capital from falling into the hands of the enemy. Their victory decided the question whether the war should be fought north or south of the Potomac. He served as colonel of this regiment four months until it was mustered out. He then returned to Massachusetts and personally recruited the Twenty-sixth Massachusetts Regiment, and, at its head as colonel, saw three years' service in various departments, mostly in the Army of the Gulf. On his return home, at the close of the war, he was breveted brigadier-general for meritorious services. He served one term in the Massachusetts Legislature. In 1885 he moved to Binghamton and established the Jones Scale Works, and by his energy and perseverance built up a large and successful business, now employing over 100 men. His relations with his employes have always been of the most pleasant nature, bringing mutual confidence and respect. He is a thorough business man, and has had but little to do with politics. He was the Democratic candidate for congress man in 1874, running against Thomas C. Platt, in a district with 3,500 Republican majority, reducing Mr. Platt's majority to 600. Two years afterward he was nominated again, and ran largely ahead of his ticket against Jeremiah W. Dwight. General Jones was one of the original members of Post Watrous, of Binghamton, and is still in good standing in the Grand Army of the Republic. He has been prominently identified with local charities, such as the Susquehanna Valley Home and the Good Shepherd Hospital, of Binghamton. General Jones was named to fill the vacancy on the Democratic State ticket caused by the death of the Hon. Roswell P. Flower. He was elected over General Joseph B. Carr, Republican, by a plurality of 8,156. He was re-elected in 1888 by 22,263 plurality over S. V. R. Cruger, Republican.

Frank Rice, Secretary of State.

Frank Rice, Secretary of State, was born in the town of Seneca, Ontario county, N. Y., January 15, 1845. His paternal and maternal grandfathers emigrated to Seneca, the latter from England and the former from Massachusetts, and were the first settlers in that part of the country. The farms which they purchased are still owned by their descendants, one of them now being in the possession of Mr. Rice's father. During his early years Mr. Rice worked on the farm in the summer and attended school during the winter at the district school. When eleven years of age he entered Dr. Taylor's private school at Geneva, N. Y., where he remained for one year. He then returned to his home, and at the age of fifteen he spent one year in the Geneva Classical and Union school. The next schooling which he received was at the Canandaigua Academy, where he remained for three years under Dr. Noah T. Clarke. In the fall of 1854 he entered Hamilton College, from which he was graduated in 1858 with high honors. In 1859 he began the study of law at Canandaigua in the office of Comstock & Bennett. At that time this was the leading law firm in Ontario county, and under its instruction Mr. Rice acquired a knowledge of law which has since enabled him to rise to a commanding position at the bar of western New York. He entered upon the practice of his profession in 1859, and in 1873 he was nominated by the Democratic party for District Attorney. In a county which is one of the Republican strongholds of the State his chances for election were looked upon by his opponents with no small degree of ridicule. The Republicans placed in nomination a strong candidate and a hotly contested canvass ensued, the result being Mr. Rice's election by a majority of 634. In 1878 Mr. Rice was renominated and again displayed what the Republicans conceded to be wonderful political strength by defeating his opponent by 859 majority. In 1883 he was nominated by his party for the Assembly and was elected by 1,366 majority, reversing a Republican majority of the year previous of 1,233. The Legislature was Democratic that year, and Mr. Rice at once attained a prominent position among the leaders of his party. He was chosen chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, and it will be remembered that the duties of the committee during that session were unusually arduous, there being five closely contested cases before it. Of this number, that of Sprague v. Bliss was the most important, and the impartial manner in which Mr. Rice presided over the deliberations of the committee won for him the hearty indorsement of representatives of both parties. He also served as a member of the Judiciary, Insurance and other committees. His greatest victory, however, was in 1883, when he was renominated for the Assembly and pitted against the Hon. John Raines, the present Representative in Congress from the Twenty-ninth district. Although Mr. Raines was the strongest candidate the Republicans could have nominated at that time, Mr. Rice was re-elected by a majority of 241, while the county went Republican by 692. That year he was nominated in the Democratic caucus for Speaker, but as the Legislature was Republican, he, of course, was not elected, but became the leader of his party on the floor. During the session he served as a member of the Committee on Ways and Means, and Cities and Rules. In the fall of 1884 he was nominated for the office of County Judge of Ontario, and while Mr. Blaine's plurality in Ontario county was 739, Mr. Rice was elected by a majority of 608, and thus honored with his fifth consecutive victory in a Republican county. He was serving his fifth year as County Judge when he was nominated by his party at Syracuse in 1889 for Secretary of State. His last victory was more gratifying than any with which he had been honored heretofore, he having carried his own election district, town, county and State, his plurality in the county being 773, and in the State over 20,000 over John I. Gilbert, Republican, Jesse Griffin, Prohibitionist, and Thomas E. Beecher, Greenback. Mr. Rice was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in 1884, which nominated General Hancock for the Presidency, and served as Secretary of the New York State delegation. He has also been a delegate to nearly every State Convention since that time, and was a member of the Democratic State Committee in 1888. He has always been a Democrat, and since his majority actively connected with the leadership of his party. He has been a candidate for office six times, has never been defeated, and has each time received a majority in his county in spite of its normal Republican majority of about 1,000.

Edward Wemple, Comptroller.

Comes from that sturdy stock which has made the Mohawk Valley famous. Since 1712, when Queen Anne granted the Caughnawaga patent to a Wemple, among others, that name has been prominent in that region. Half a century later a Wemple was one of the founders of the old Dutch church, which still stands at Fonda. In colonial times the Wemples defended their homes against invaders side by side with the Johnsons, but when the Revolution came they broke their old alliance and arrayed themselves and their influences on the side of liberty and the colonists. Edward Wemple was born at the old family mansion in Fultonville, October 23, 1843. Having received his earlier education in the common schools of that village, he was graduated from Union College in 1862, and entered on the study of the law. A sedentary life was too tame for his active temperament, so after finishing his studies he entered into partnership with his father in the foundry business. Of this business he gained a practical knowledge, and continued it after his father's death; he still enters actively into its management. Mr. Wemple has, however, not limited himself solely to business, but has diligently devoted his leisure to the study of political questions and affairs of State, the broad result of which he has shown time and again in the State Legislature and in Congress. At the age of thirty, Mr. Wemple was chosen president of his native village, and from that time he has been constantly called upon to serve the public by his neighbors and an ever-widening circle of friends. First he was promoted to Supervisor of his town; then he was elected to the Assembly; then he was chosen to Congress; then to the State Senate; and in 1887 the people have committed to his care the financial policy of the State by the largest vote received by any candidate on the Democratic State ticket at the 1887 election. In each of the offices he has filled he has devoted to the public the care and energy which he reserves to his own private affairs. The State cannot but be one of the subjects to which he has given most attention, and in the position of Comptroller his familiarity with their history and management has been most useful. Among other measures presented by him while in Congress was that giving the executive power to veto objectionable items in appropriation bills without killing the whole bill; and it is due to him that a noble monument marks the spot where the first great victory of the colonies was achieved—the battlefield of Saratoga. He was always alert for the interests of his constituency, in securing mail facilities, in looking after the interests of the veterans of the war, giving patient examination to their claims and earnestly pushing all just claims to a speedy settlement. Mr. Wemple's personal popularity has been demonstrated by his election to Congress and to the Senate in a strongly Republican district, where he has received the highest number of votes ever cast for any man, with but a single exception. In private life he is plain and earnest, although dignified and of strong convictions; he is genial and courteous and ever-ready to listen to counsel and willing to oblige, when principle does not forbid. A firm friend and a sturdy fighter, he has the good will and cordial respect of all who know him; and while he is uncompromising in his adherence to Democracy, he wins large support from his political opponents, because they recognize the honesty and uprightness of the man. He is married and resides at Fultonville. He was elected Comptroller by a plurality of 15,374 over Jesse L'Amoreaux, the Republican candidate, and was re-elected in 1889 by 11,000 plurality over Martin W. Cooke, Republican, and B. L. Rand, Prohibition.

Elliot Danforth, State Treasurer.

Elliot Danforth was born at Middleburgh, Schoharie county, N. Y., on the 6th of March, 1850. He is the youngest son of Judge Peter S. Danforth, of Middleburgh, ex-Senator and ex-Justice of the Supreme Court. In 1861, when the civil war broke out, young Danforth was only eleven years old, an age which prevented him from joining the Union army, but his patriotism only awaited an opportunity to prove his high regard for those who shared the trials of a soldier's life, for when it was proposed to establish a soldier's and sailor's home in the State of New York, Mr. Danforth's efforts in aid of the project, were unceasing until success was attained. From his youth Elliot Danforth manifested a great desire for the acquisition of knowledge, and at the public schools he was noted for his studious habits, and his fine literary tastes were thus early formed. Soon after leaving school he commenced the study of the law in the office of his father, and in January, 1871, he was admitted to the bar. Well grounded in principles of the law as well as in general literature, and possessing an earnest and forcible delivery, his success as a professional man was fully assured. In 1874, he married Miss Ida Prince, an accomplished young lady, the only child of Dr. Gervis Prince, President of the First National bank of Bainbridge, N. Y. In 1878 Mr. Danforth formed a law partnership with the Hon. George H. Winsor, of Bainbridge, and the firm was not long in achieving a widely extended reputation in the successful performance of their professional duties. Mr. Danforth is a member of the New York Bar Association and has served on many important committees; he was President of the corporation of Bainbridge for three years. Mr. Danforth entered with great enthusiasm into the broad and stirring field of politics. From the first his affiliations were with the Democratic party, and he came before the people as a staunch representative of the young Democracy of the Jacksonian school. In 1880 Mr. Danforth was a delegate to the National Democratic Convention which met at Cincinnati and nominated General Hancock for the Presidency. He was the youngest member of the Convention. In the fall of 1880 he was unanimously nominated as the Democratic candidate for Congress from his district, but declined the honor. In the same year his name was presented as a candidate for State Treasurer and he received a very flattering support from his friends. In 1884 Mr. Danforth was again a delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago which nominated Grover Cleveland for President, toward whose election he gave ardent support, delivering many stirring addresses in different parts of the State during that memorable and exciting campaign. Soon after the election of the Hon. L. J. Fitzgerald as State Treasurer in 1884, Mr. Danforth was appointed Deputy State Treasurer, the duties of which he discharged with such ability and success that Treasurer Fitzgerald on his re-election reappointed him Deputy for two years from January 1, 1888. Mr. Danforth is one of the directors and also the attorney of the First National Bank of Bainbridge, and a member of the Board of Education in that village. He is a member of several fraternal organizations, such as the Masonic, the Odd Fellows, etc. In these societies he is a popular, industrious and working member. At the Democratic State Convention held at Syracuse in 1889, Mr. Danforth was unanimously nominated for Treasurer of the State, which nomination was ratified by the people at the election in November by their giving him over 16,000 plurality.

Charles F. Tabor, Attorney-General.

Was born June 21, 1841, in St. Joseph county, Mich. In 1843, his father, Silas Tabor, returned to his old home in Newstead, Erie county, where he had resided many years, and where he died in 1863, on the farm which had been his for nearly half a century. Young Tabor lived with his parents and worked on his father's farm until he was eighteen years old, and helping his father occasionally in his building contracts, going when he could to the district school in winter, and later attending the Lima Seminary and the Williamsville and Clarence Academies. He began the study of law with the Hon. James M. Humphrey, of Buffalo, N. Y., teaching school winters to enable him to prepare himself for the bar, to which he was admitted in October, 1863, by the General Term of the Supreme Court, having been personally examined by Judges Grover, Davis, Marvin and Daniels. Mr. Tabor was a Supervisor in Erie county for two years, and was the nominee of his party both years for chairman of the board; he was Excise Commissioner of his county for three years; he was Member of Assembly for the Fourth district of Erie county, a Republican district, in 1873 and 1874, being a member of Committees on Education and Cities, and taking a prominent and positive part in the debates and proceedings of the Assembly for those years. In 1886 he was the candidate of his party for County Judge, and was defeated by only seventy-eight votes in the county which gave Garfield 2,800 majority. He was for several years attorney for the board of supervisors of Erie county. He was appointed First Deputy Attorney-General in June, 1883, and held the position until he was sworn in as Attorney-General. In the Attorney-General's office he had charge of the public interests before the Board of Claims and the conduct of the cases brought against State officers. He was nominated for Attorney-General in the fall of 1887, and elected by 14,361 plurality, carrying Erie county by over 800 majority. The average majority against the rest of the Democratic ticket was about 2,500 in that county. Mr. Tabor has always been a Democrat, and his father was also, having been elected by that party to the office of Superintendent of the Poor of Erie county in 1871. He was re-elected Attorney-General in 1889 by about 9,000 plurality over James M. Varnum, Republican, and C. A. Hart, Prohibitionist.

John Bogart, State Engineer and Surveyor,

Was born in Albany, of which city his family were among the earliest settlers, having come thither from Holland in 1642. He early attended the Albany Academy, and is a graduate of Rutgers College. Previous to the war he gained honorable distinction upon various engineering works, among them the enlargement of the Erie Canal, the short line of the New York Central Railroad between Syracuse and Rochester, and the original construction of the New York Central park. At the very opening of the war Mr. Bogart offered his services, and was assigned to duty as an engineer in connection with the works of Fortress Monroe. He had charge of the construction of the strong granite fort on the Rip-Raps in Hampton Roads. He was present at the celebrated engagement between the Confederate iron-clad Merrimac and the Union vessels Cumberland and Congress, and on the next day saw, from his station at the masthead of one of the vessels near Fortress Monroe, the engagement between the Merrimac and Monitor, which revolutionized naval warfare. During the war Mr. Bogart was on active duty in Virginia, especially at Yorktown, the Chickahominy, Norfolk, Point Lookout, the James river, City Point, and at Richmond immediately after the evacuation. His brother was killed in the action at Port Hudson, La. Mr. Bogart continued in the service until 1864. Since then he has been constantly engaged in his profession upon most important engineering works in various parts of the United States. He was the chief engineer of the Brooklyn Park commission for several years, the chief engineer of the department of public parks of New York city from 1872 to 1877, and has been engaged upon the public improvements of Chicago, New Orleans, Albany, Omaha, Nashville, Keene, Hartford and other cities. For the past ten years he has been secretary of the American Society of Civil Engineers. He was Deputy State Engineer and Surveyor of the State of New York until his resignation in July, 1887. Mr. Bogart stands high in the profession, as he does with every one with whom he has come in contact, either in public or private life. He was elected over O. H. P. Cornell, Republican, by 13,061 plurality in 1887, and re-elected in 1889 by about 17,000 over William Van Rensselaer, Republican.

SENATORS.

J. S. Fassett, President Pro Tempore.

J. Sloat Fassett (Republican), President pro tempore of the Senate, who represents the Twenty-seventh district, was born of American parentage in Elmira, November 13, 1833. He was graduated from the Elmira Free Academy in 1870, and Rochester University in 1875, with the highest literary honors, and soon after entered upon the practice of the law in his native city. In 1883 he supplemented his legal and literary studies by a course of lectures at Heidelberg University, Germany, and by extended travel in Europe and the east. He entered political life by appointment from Governor Robinson, who chose him to fill the vacancy in the office of District Attorney for Chemung county in 1879 and 1880. He is trustee of Cook Academy and trustee of Rochester University, and proprietor of the Elmira Advertiser, and active in many prominent business enterprises in Elmira and other cities. He was Senator in 1884-85-86-87-88. In 1889 he was unanimously renominated for a fourth term by acclamation upon the presentation of the two counties in the district outside of Chemung, his own county. He was re-elected by the largest majority ever given to anyone in the district, running over a thousand ahead of his ticket. His majority over his Democratic competitor, E. W. Chamberlain, was 4,733. Each of the three counties gave him a majority. In 1888 Mr. Fassett was a delegate to the National Republican Convention and was made the Committeeman for the State of New York. The National Committee made him not only its Secretary, but the Secretary of the Executive Committee as well, which position he accepted and the duties of which he performed during the campaign of 1888. In 1889 he was elected President pro tempore of the Senate to succeed the late Henry R. Low, and in 1890 he was re-elected to that position. Mr. Fassett is one of the most effective and brilliant debaters in the Senate, and has served with credit on the principal committees of that body. He is married and lives at Elmira.

John Francis Ahearn.

John Francis Ahearn (Democrat), who represents the Sixth district, was born in New York, of Irish parentage, April 13, 1853, and was educated at the public schools of New York. He has been a clerk in various well-known business houses. He was a member of the Assembly in 1882, serving on the Committee on Railroads, and has since been Clerk of the Police Court. He is married and resides at No. 41 Gouverneur street, New York. Mr. Ahearn is a member of the County Democracy, and was elected as the candidate of that organization by 4,715 plurality over Thomas F. Grady (Tammany), who had carried the district at the special election in 1888 by 4,815 plurality, and T. M. Holden, Prohibitionist.

James W. Birkett.

James W. Birkett (Republican), who represents the Third district, was born July 31, 1841, and was educated in a New York public school. Moved from New York city to Brooklyn in 1864, and has resided there since. He is married and is engaged in the business of manufacturing and erecting steam and hot water heating apparatus, and also ginner's supplies at 396 Jay street, and in the business of engineer and contractor at 66 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn. He was elected Alderman in the Second aldermanic district in 1885, and served two years. This Second aldermanic district comprises the same wards as the Third Senatorial district which he now represents in the Senate. He is and has been Treasurer of the Republican General and also the Campaign Committees since 1885, and he did very efficient work for his party in the last presidential campaign. He was elected to the Senate in 1889 by 4,038 plurality over Matthew T. Bride, Democrat, and a Prohibition candidate.

William L. Brown.

William L. Brown (Democrat), who represents the Fifth district, was born of Irish parents in Vermont on Christmas Day, 1840. His parents removed to Mahoning county, O., where he passed his boyhood and received his early education. His father died when he was very young, and he assumed the care and support of his widowed mother. He became a school teacher and obtained employment in that capacity in Ohio for several terms, then he went to Copiah county, Miss., and was teaching school there when the war broke out. He disagreed with the southern leaders on the question of the Union and left the south. Although serving in the war in the Eighty-eighth and One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Regiments of Ohio Volunteers, his rank of colonel came with his appointment as aide-de-camp on the staff of Governor William Allen, the Democratic War Horse of Ohio. After the war Col. Brown, with a party of friends, set out for Montana, across the plains with mule teams. It was the first regular train that made the trip over the Bridger route. The journey was one of great danger and hardship, but they reached Virginia City without an actual Indian fight, although many were expected. Montana then was strongly Democratic; and in the fall campaign Col. Brown made a number of effective political speeches. He was made chief clerk of the Territorial Legislature by unanimous vote of the Democratic members, being the first to hold that office after the organization of that body. He remained in Montana for two years engaged in mining near Virginia City, where he employed a number of men and added considerably to his fortunes. Returning east he took control of the Youngstown (Ohio) Vindicator, which he made a paper of influence among Ohio Democrats and labor organizations. In 1873, he ran for State Senator in "the Western Reserve," and ran 1,400 ahead of his ticket in that hopelessly Republican section. Youngstown, strongly Republican, gave him over 1,000 majority in a vote of less than 3,000. After settling at Youngstown, he actively engaged and participated in political affairs as a speaker and a writer, and speedily arose to prominence in his party. For a number of years he was chairman of the Mahoning Democratic County Committee and represented his district in the National Democratic Conventions of 1872 and 1876. He soon afterwards came to New York, and is now the successful business manager of the New York News, and the associate and partner of the Hon. Benjamin Wood in the publication of that paper. Col. Brown is married. He was elected in 1889 as the Tammany candidate by 2,545 plurality over Michael C. Murphy, County Democrat, indorsed by the Republicans, and F. M. Hammond, Prohibitionist.

Jacob A. Cantor.

Jacob A. Cantor (Democrat), who represents the Tenth district, was born in the Seventeenth ward of New York city, December 8, 1854. His parents were natives of London, England. He is a graduate of the public schools, and has been a resident of either Yorkville or Harlem since 1880. In his fourteenth year he entered the law office of William Ware Peck. Early in 1870 Mr. Cantor became associated with the firm of Webster & Craig, the former of whom is a son-in-law of Hon. Hamilton Fish, and the latter ex-Judge Advocate-General of New York. At the invitation of Manton Marble, in 1872, Mr. Cantor became a reporter on the New York World, remaining on the staff of that paper until 1877. During his connection with the World he entered the University Law School, from which he graduated with distinction in 1878. Two years later he was a partner with William D. Hennen, author of the "Louisiana Digest," and later was associated with Charles E. Coddington, compiler of several legal treatises on Law and Trade. He is now senior member of the law firm of Cantor & Van Schaick. For the past seven years Mr. Cantor has been a delegate from the metropolis to every Democratic State convention. He was one of the Democratic speakers during the Presidential contest of 1880, and the State campaigns that have followed, and was an earnest supporter of the Democratic candidates for President and Vice-President during the campaign of 1884. He was a Delegate-at-Large from New York city to the State convention of 1884. Mr. Cantor was a Member of the Assembly in 1885, 1886 and 1887, and was elected to the Senate of 1888-89, serving on important committees. He also was chosen as the candidate for President pro tem. in the Democratic caucus, an unusual compliment to a Senator on his first term in the Senate. Mr. Cantor is a fluent speaker and a legislator of substantial attainments, his name being prominently associated with the act requiring surface railroads to compensate municipalities for the use of streets. He is married, residing at 140 East One Hundred and Fourth street, New York, and is an active member and former trustee of the Press club. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1889 as the Tammany nominee by 6,695 plurality over Charles A. Peabody, Republican, Alston G. Culver, County Democrat, and E. D. Garnsey, Prohibitionist.

Norton Chase.

Norton Chase (Democrat), who represents the Seventeenth district, was born of American parentage, in Albany, September 2, 1861, and is consequently the youngest member of the Senate. He was educated at the Albany Academy, graduating with honors in 1878. He attended Yale College for a year and then entered the Albany Law School, from which he received the degree of LL. B. in 1882. He studied law with the late Judge Samuel Hand, and shortly after his death, in 1886, formed a partnership with Mr. Frank B. Delehanty, under the firm name of Chase & Delehanty, succeeding to much of the practice of Judge Hand. Mr. Chase is married and resides in Albany. He has taken an active interest in military matters and is Major of the Tenth Battalion, M. G. S. N. Y. He is a member of many business and social organizations and takes an active part in the life and plans of the community he represents. He has always been a Democrat and entered active political life in 1835, when he was chosen to the Assembly by 3,300 plurality from the Third Albany district. He served on the committees on Judiciary, Military Affairs, and Two-thirds and Three-fifths Bills, and was prominent in the debates of the session. In 1837 he was the Democratic candidate for Senator for the Seventeenth district and was elected after one of the most exciting contests in the district, but was counted out by eight votes and the seat was awarded to Henry Russell. Since attaining his majority he has done faithful work for the Democracy as a campaign speaker. During the campaign of 1868 he served on the Democratic canal boat "Thomas Jefferson," speaking three and four times a day, with the Hon. John Boyd Thacher, Congressmen C. R. Brockenridge and John Allen and others. Mr. Chase was re-elected to the Senate in 1869 by 3,151 plurality over George H. Treadwell, Republican, and Joel R. Wager, Prohibitionist.

Henry J. Coggeshall.

Henry J. Coggeshall (Republican), who represents the Twenty-second district, was born in Waterville, April 28, 1845, of New York State parentage. He was educated in the common schools and the seminary of his native village, studied law, and was admitted to practice in 1868. He is a ready and pleasing speaker, and of decided popularity. He has been one of the trustees of Waterville village, president of the fire department, and is now a member of the Board of Education. From 1869 to 1872, he was Assistant District Attorney of Oneida county; Member of the Assembly in 1888, and Clerk of Oneida county from 1890 to 1893. He was elected to the Senate in 1894, and is now serving his fourth consecutive term. During his service he has been a member of the Judiciary and Railroad Committees and other important committees, chairman of the Committee on Miscellaneous Corporations, and has also been prominent in debate. He has always been a Republican. Mr. Coggeshall is married and lives at Waterville. He was elected by 1,010 plurality in 1890 over James Flanagan, Democrat.

Michael F. Collins.

Michael F. Collins (Democrat), who represents the Sixteenth district, was born in Troy, N. Y., September 27, 1854, of Irish parentage, and was educated in the public schools and Christian Brothers' Academy. Mr. Collins worked for a number of years at his trade, that of newspaper compositor. He was one of the printers who were locked out in the Troy Press strike in 1877, and afterward started the Troy Standard; left the Standard in 1879, and purchased the Troy Observer, a Democratic Sunday newspaper, of which he is also editor. He is president of the Board of Civil Service Examiners of Troy, president of the Pioneer Democratic club, and trustee of the Pioneer Building and Loan Association. He is married and resides at Troy. He served with credit in the Assembly in 1886 and 1887. He was elected to the Senate in 1887 by 2,818 plurality over James H. Manville, Republican, although the district has a normal Republican plurality of about 2,000, and in 1889 was re-elected by 3,382 plurality over James C. Rogers, Republican, and F. O. Ives, Prohibitionist.

Gilbert A. Deane.

Gilbert A. Deane (Republican), who represents the Fifteenth district, was born in Connecticut, June 2, 1851, of American parentage, and was educated at Williamstown, Mass. He lives at Copake, where he is engaged in iron mining and manufacturing. He was a member of the Assembly in 1884, and was elected to the Senate in 1885, serving as chairman of the Military Committee and member of various committees. He was re-elected in 1889 by 2,680 plurality over J. Mansfield Davies, Democrat.

Harvey J. Donaldson.

Harvey J. Donaldson (Republican), who represents the Eighteenth district, was born in Washington county in 1848, of American parentage. He was educated at the schools of Montgomery and Albany counties, and until 1880 was engaged in business as a contractor. For the following six years he was a paper manufacturer, and he is now retired from active business. He is director of the First National Bank of Ballston Spa and of the Citizens' National Bank of Saratoga Springs. Mr. Donaldson is married and lives at Ballston. He has always been a Republican and served in the Assembly in 1888 and 1890. He was elected to the Senate by 11,188 plurality over Thomas Morphy, Prohibitionist, no Democratic nomination being made.

Louis W. Emerson.

Louis W. Emerson (Republican), who represents the Nineteenth district, was born of American parentage, at Warrensburgh, July 25, 1857, and was educated at the Warrensburgh Academy. He is a manufacturer by occupation, and although a strong Republican, he has never held office until elected to the Senate. Mr. Emerson is a bachelor and resides at Warrensburgh. He was elected by 4,600 plurality over Henry D. Graves, Democrat.

George Z. Erwin.

George Z. Erwin (Republican), who represents the Twentieth district, was born at Madrid, St. Lawrence county, not far from the place of his present residence, on the 15th of January, 1840. His preliminary education was obtained in the St. Lawrence Academy, at Potsdam; then he entered the Middlebury, Vt., College, and in 1863, at the age of twenty-five, graduated with honor. After graduation he at once began the study of law, and from 1869 to 1873 was a member of the firm of Tappan & Erwin, which was dissolved by the election of the senior member to the Supreme Court bench. Mr. Erwin has since been a member of the legal firm of Dart & Erwin. In the fall of 1881 he was first nominated for the Assembly, and represented the Third district of St. Lawrence for six consecutive years. During his service in the popular branch of the Legislature he was a member of the Committees on Ways and Means, Railroads, Banks, and Privileges and Elections, and the select committee to investigate Receiverships and the Public Works Department of New York. In 1885 he was Speaker of the Assembly, and was again a candidate against James W. Husted in 1886, but withdrew before the caucus was held. He was elected to the Senate in 1887, serving on the Finance, Judiciary and Insurance Committees, and taking a prominent part in debates. He was re-elected in 1889 by 8,481 plurality over Calvin T. Fletcher, Democrat, and Horatio S. Hendee, Prohibitionist.

Edward Hawkins.

Edward Hawkins (Democrat), who represents the First district, was born at Stony Brook, Long Island, of American parentage, January 21, 1836. He was educated at the public school of the village, and when quite young became a sailor, engaging in the merchant service. He followed the sea for many years, and on abandoning it turned his energies to the manufacture of menhaden oil and guano. He is at present engaged in farming at Jamesport, Long Island. He is a trustee of the Riverhead Savings Bank. Mr. Hawkins is married. He has always been a Democrat, and his contest in 1889 attracted especial notice, as his brother, the Hon. S. S. Hawkins, who had represented the district in the previous Senate, was his Republican opponent. He was elected by 1,585 plurality over S. S. Hawkins, Republican, and J. E. Phelps, Prohibitionist.

Francis Hendricks.

Francis Hendricks (Republican), who represents the Twenty-fifth district, was born of American parentage, at Kingston, N. Y., November 23, 1834, and was educated at the public schools and the Albany Academy. Removing to Syracuse when a young man he began business life and is now one of the most successful merchants in that city. He is President of the State Bank of Syracuse and President of the Trust and Deposit Company of Onondaga. He is married. Mr. Hendricks has always been a Republican, and as such was chosen Fire Commissioner and Mayor of Syracuse. He served in the Assembly in 1884 and 1886, and is now serving his third term in the Senate. He has been Chairman of the Cities Committee, and, although not a fluent talker on the floor, has been one of the most influential members in his party caucus and in determining legislation. He was elected in 1889 by 4,960 plurality over Jabez B. Norton, Democrat.

Thomas Hunter.

Thomas Hunter (Republican), who represents the Twenty-sixth district, was born in Baltimore, Md., of Irish parentage, September 11, 1834, but his parents moved to Cayuga county when he was three years old. His early educational opportunities were limited to six months attendance at the public schools. He worked on a farm until the age of seventeen, when he went to Virginia and worked on the Manassas Gap Railroad. From a day laborer he became a foreman. In 1857 he returned to Sterling, and entered the milling business. Going again to Virginia in 1860, he was there when the war broke out. August 7, 1862, he enlisted as a private in Company F, 110th Regiment, New York Volunteers. On the twenty-fifth of the same month he was made Second Lieutenant, and in the following May was promoted to Captain. He served with the Nineteenth corps under General Banks, participating in several important engagements. In February, 1864, he was detached from his regiment and was ordered into Florida where he mustered in 574 men as the Second Florida cavalry, declining the command of the organization as he preferred to remain with his company. He was stationed in Florida until the rebellion was crushed and was mustered out of service on the 2d of August, 1865. Upon his return north he engaged in the lumber business, and in 1871 began his career as a railway contractor. His first contract was on the Southern Central, and he constructed ninety miles of the present Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg Railway; he four-tracked the New York Central from Syracuse to Clyde, and afterwards was awarded a contract in the construction of the Welland canal. He also filled large contracts on the West Shore, the Pennsylvania Railway and western roads. During these years he has made his home at Sterling; is married and has been a successful farmer. He served in the Assembly of 1881-82, and is the present supervisor of his town. He was nominated for the Senate after a prolonged dead-lock; was elected by 2,771 plurality over John D. Teller, Democrat, and Isaac C. Andrews, Prohibitionist.

Eugene Semmes Ives.

Eugene Semmes Ives (Democrat), who represents the Eleventh district, was born in Washington, D. C., November 11, 1859. He was educated at the University of Georgetown, D. C., and subsequently took the degree of Bachelor of Laws, at Columbia College, New York city, having previously pursued his legal studies in Austria and Belgium. He is now a practicing lawyer in the city of New York. In politics a Democrat, Mr. Ives was never before the fall of 1884 a candidate for office, when he was elected to the Assembly; he was again elected to the Assembly in 1886, and was one of the best known members of that House, being the author of the Ives Pool bill, and in charge of the Field Code scored a remarkable triumph as a legislative leader in obtaining a majority in favor of the Code. In 1889 he was in charge of the New York Rapid Transit bill, and took an active part in debate, serving on the Judiciary and General Laws Committees. Mr. Ives is married and is well known in the society life of New York, Washington and Albany. He was elected as the Tammany candidate in 1889 by 8,319 plurality over John Carlin, Republican, and Dennis A. Spellacy, County Democrat.

John C. Jacobs.

John C. Jacobs (Democrat), who represents the Second district, was born in Lancaster, Pa., December 16, 1838. He comes from Revolutionary stock on his father's side and his mother's family was of German origin. He was educated at the common schools, and when fourteen years old he learned the printer's trade. He was the Albany correspondent of the New York World and other papers at the outbreak of the war, and during McClellan's campaign acted as a war correspondent. He entered public life as an unsuccessful candidate for the Assembly in 1863, but for twenty years from 1886 he served continuously in the Legislature, being during the greater part of this time the Democratic leader in the branch of which he was a member. He served in the Assembly continuously from 1866 to 1874, acting on various committees and as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee in 1870. For twelve successive years from 1874 he represented the Fourth district in the Senate, and was the parliamentary leader of his party, as well as serving on the principal committees. Since 1885 he has withdrawn from public life, but in 1889 he resumed his active interest in political affairs, and was elected to the Senate by 8,198 plurality over Philip Casey, Republican and Independent.

John Laughlin.

John Laughlin (Republican), who represents the Thirty-first district, was born of Irish parentage, in Newstead, Erie county, March 14, 1856. He lived on a farm in that town until he was ten years of age, when his family removed to Wilson, Niagara county. He continued in agricultural pursuits until he was nineteen years of age, when he entered the High School at Lockport, where he completed a four years' course. He began the study of law in the office of Hon. Richard Crowley, at that time United States Attorney for the northern district of New York. In April, 1880, Mr. Crowley removed to Buffalo and Mr. Laughlin accompanied him, and was admitted to the bar in October of the same year. Subsequently he entered into partnership with Mr. Crowley, continuing until the latter removed to New York. Afterward he associated with him ex-County Clerk Joseph E. Ewell and Supervisor Daniel McIntosh, under the firm name of Laughlin, Ewell & McIntosh. Mr. Laughlin defended Hattie Penseyres, who was tried at Buffalo for the murder of her husband, and saved her from the gallows, the conviction being for murder in the second degree. The case attracted great attention in the western part of the State. Mr. Laughlin is unmarried and lives in Buffalo. He has always been a Republican and served in the Senate of 1888-89, acting as chairman of the Canal Committee and member of the Judiciary Committee. He devoted himself especially to legislation for canal improvement, though taking part also in political debates. He was re-elected in 1889 by 2,671 plurality over Matthias Rohr, Democrat, and John A. Thompson, Prohibitionist.

John J. Linson.

John J. Linson (Democrat), who represents the Fourteenth district, was born of American parentage, at Mongaup Valley, Sullivan county, November 29, 1860. He was educated at the Monticello Academy and Albany State Normal school, after which he taught school for a time. In January, 1872, he was admitted to the bar, and four years later he became a partner of the Hon. Augustus Schoonmaker, and remained in that firm until the appointment of Mr. Schoonmaker as Inter-State Commerce Commissioner. He has always been an active and ardent Democrat. For five years he served as Corporation Counsel of the city of Kingston, and for three years was Justice of the Peace, in which positions and in the extensive practice of his profession he has won an enviable reputation as a lawyer. He was a member of the Senate of 1888-89, serving on the Finance and General Laws Committees and taking a leading part in political and legal debates. He was the author of the Linson electoral bill, designed to check corrupt practices at elections and won a State reputation by his services in the last Senate. He is married and lives at Kingston. Mr. Linson was re-elected in 1889 by 8,620 plurality, one of the largest the district ever gave, over Charles C. Kromer, Republican, and Isaac C. Darr, Prohibitionist.

Patrick H. McCarren.

Patrick H. McCarren (Democrat), who represents the Sixth Kings district, was born in Boston, in 1849, of Irish parentage, and educated at public and private schools. He is a cooper by trade, has been oil and coopersage inspector, and is now in the real estate and insurance business. He is unmarried, and lives at 169 Wythe avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y. He was a member of the Assembly from the district in 1882-83, 1889 and was prominent in debates and deliberations of the sessions. In 1885 he was an unsuccessful candidate for the Senate. He was elected to the Senate in 1889 by 417 plurality over Edward H. Schluter, Republican, and F. McDonough, Prohibitionist.

Donald McNaughton.

Donald McNaughton (Democrat), who represents the Twenty-ninth district, was born in Mumford, town of Wheatland, Monroe Co., N. Y., March 29, 1830. His parents were of sturdy Scotch stock. His education was confined to the public school in Mumford, and from a clerk in early life he prepared himself for the legal profession. For eight years he represented his town in the Board of Supervisors and was chairman of the Board. In 1864 he was presented with a law library by the citizens of Wheatland for his successful efforts in filling the quota of that town in the various drafts. During the construction of the Rochester and State Line Railroad, and for many years after its completion, he was Secretary and Treasurer of that company; is a trustee of the Central Union Storage and Transfer Company of Rochester, trustee of the Reynolds Library, President of the Scottish Society of Rochester, and Secretary of the Wheatland Historical Society. He is unmarried and resides in Mumford, having a law office in Rochester. Mr. McNaughton was elected to the Senate in 1887 by 429 plurality, although the district gave over 1000 plurality for the Republican State ticket. He served on the committees on Cities, Railroads, Canals and Public Buildings; was a member of the New York Aqueduct investigating committee, and in 1889 repeated his previous triumph, carrying his district by 371 plurality over William A. Sutherland, Republican, and the Prohibition nominee, although the district again gave nearly 1000 plurality for the Republican State ticket.

Edmund O'Connor.

Edmund O'Connor (Republican), who represents the Twenty-fourth district, was born in Ireland, of Irish parentage, in November, 1848, but came to this country when a child. He was educated at the public schools and the academy at Little Falls and at the Delhi Academy. During this period he contributed to his own support by working in the railroad blacksmith shop and the hammer shop at Little Falls. After leaving school he began the study of the law and for several years he has practiced successfully his profession in Stephanton, where he lives. Mr. O'Connor is married. He has always been a Republican, but though active in party politics he has never before held an elective office. He has been a trustee of the Binghamton Asylum for the Chronic Insane. He was elected in 1889 by 2,160 plurality over Frederick A. Shaw, Democrat, and Rufus A. Thompson, Prohibitionist.

William P. Richardson.

William P. Richardson (Republican), who represents the Thirteenth district, was born at Lawrence, Mass., May 10, 1848. He comes of old colonial stock, William Richardson having settled in this country from England in 1682. His great-grandfather on his father's side was Captain John Richardson, who served in the Revolutionary war and was wounded at the battle of Stillwater, in this State. His ancestry on his mother's side also, took part in the Revolutionary struggle, his great-grandfather, David Collins, having entered the service of his country at the age of seventeen, remaining until the close of the war. Mr. Richardson's boyhood and school days were spent in Newburyport, Mass., and in Providence, R. I. He received his education in the public schools, and at about the age of fifteen obtained employment in a drug store, in Providence, R. I. There he remained for two years, at the end of that time going to Paterson, N. J., where he engaged in the same line of business. After an unsuccessful business venture in Havana and the Bahama Islands he returned to Paterson and engaged in the hardware business. He was elected a member of the Paterson Board of Education. For about fifteen years he has been a resident of Goshen, where he owns one of the largest and most productive farms in the county. He is President of the Orange County Farmers' Association and director of the State Agricultural Society. He is married. He has always been a Republican and was Presidential Elector for his district in 1888. He was elected to the Senate by 253 plurality over Peter Ward, Democrat, and Howard G. McKoon, Prohibitionist.

William H. Robertson.

William H. Robertson (Republican), who represents the Twelfth district, was born at Bedford, Westchester county, October 10, 1828, of Scotch-English parentage, and was educated at the Bedford Union Academy. He taught school for three years and then read law, being admitted to the bar in 1847. He has practiced law ever since, his firm, Closs & Robertson, formed in 1864, being the oldest now in practice in the State. In 1876 Williams College conferred the degree of LL. D. upon him. Mr. Robertson is married and lives at Katonah. He has had a longer and more extended political career than any man now in active political life in the State, having been a Whig and a Republican always. He was Supervisor of Bedford four years; chairman of the Westchester Board of Supervisors twice; member of Assembly in 1849 and 1850; of the State Senate in 1854-55 and 1873-75 74-75 76-77 78-79 80-81 82-83 and President pro tem, in 1874-75 76-77 78-79 80-81; County Judge of Westchester county twelve years (three terms); Presidential Elector in 1880; Representative in the Fortieth Congress; Delegate to the Republican National Conventions in 1864, 1876, 1880, 1884 and 1888, and Delegate to Whig and Republican State Conventions repeatedly; Collector of the Port of New York, four years, and member of the Republican State Committee for fifteen successive years. He was one of the three Republicans from this State sent by General Grant to Florida in 1876 to see the electoral vote cast; chairman of the Military Committee appointed by Gov. Morgan in 1882 to raise and organize State troops in the Eighth Senate district; Commissioner to superintend the draft in Westchester in the early part of the war, under an appointment of the Governor, and Brigade Inspector of the Seventh Brigade for six years. In 1849 and 1855 he and Reuben Roblee, of Warren, cast the only votes for William N. Seward for United States Senator. He has been chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee seven years, of the Committee on Commerce and Navigation two years, and on Literature two years. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1886 by 2,713 plurality over Henry C. Nelson, Democrat, and Lyon, Prohibitionist.

George F. Roesch.

George F. Roesch (Democrat), who represents the Seventh district, was born in New York city, June 19, 1855, and educated in St. Nicholas Parochial School, De La Salle Institute of the Christian Brothers and Columbia College Law School. He also read law in the offices of Cyrus Lawton and Barnum & Rebbann, and was admitted to the bar on October 30, 1876. He has always been a Tammany Democrat; has been a speaker for the Democracy since 1874, and took part in the Tilden, Hancock and Cleveland campaigns. He is unmarried and lives at 35 1st Avenue, New York. He is a member of the New York Press club. He was a member of the Assembly in 1883, serving on the Committees on the Judiciary, Public Health, State Charitable Institutions, Memorial Services of the late Governor E. D. Morgan and the Conference committee to establish a State Bureau of Labor Statistics; in 1885 serving on General Laws and Two-thirds and Three-fifths bills, and on the Democratic caucus committee; in 1888 serving on the Judiciary, Federal Relations and Special Committee to investigate the condition of the Indian tribes in this State; in 1889 serving on the Judiciary, Federal Relations and Public Printing. He was the author of the bills to repeal the law which prohibited actions being brought in this State on policies of life insurance where the insured had died outside of the State; to prohibit the manufacture of cigars in tenement houses; to authorize the Board of Education in New York city to provide special schools and classes to enable those to acquire an English education who cannot attend the regular day or evening sessions on account of their occupations; to extend to veterans the privilege of music at funerals of comrades on Sunday; to abolish the store money order system and compel corporations to pay their employes in cash; to protect by injunction and action for damages the labels of trades unions attached to the products of skilled labor. In 1886 he introduced a bill to give citizens the preference over un-naturalized persons in employment on public works. His predecessor was elected in 1887 on the united Democratic nomination by a plurality over five opponents. Frederick W. Diehl was nominated by the County Democracy and endorsed by the regular Republicans and also by the John J. O'Brien faction. Mr. Roesch defeated the combination candidate by a majority of 2,340. He was elected by 2,340 plurality over Frederick W. Diehl, County Democrat, endorsed by the Republicans.

Charles T. Saxton.

Charles T. Saxton (Republican), who represents the Twenty-eighth district, was born at Clyde,

N. Y., where he still resides, July 2, 1846, of American parentage; was educated at Clyde High School and prepared for college; but the war breaking out he abandoned his books, and, on November 19, 1861, he enlisted in the Nineteenth New York Volunteers, when but fifteen years old, serving until February, 1864, through the Port Hudson and Red River campaigns in Louisiana, and the Shenandoah Valley campaign of 1864 in Louisiana, attaining the rank of Sergeant-Major. He was admitted to the bar in 1867, since which time he has been engaged in the practice of the law. He has been President of the village of Clyde and Trustee of the Clyde High School. He was a member of the Assembly in 1867, 1868 and 1869, serving as chairman of the Judiciary Committee for three years. He is the author of the Saxton bill, which aims to apply to the State the Australian ballot system, which has recently been adopted in several States. Mr. Saxton is a leader in debate on general and political topics. He is married. He was elected to the Senate in 1889 by 4,184 plurality over Martin Sunderlin, Democrat, and William R. Hunt, Prohibitionist.

Titus Sheard.

Titus Sheard (Republican), who represents the Twenty-third district, was born at Batley, England, of English parentage, October 4, 1841, but emigrated to this country in 1856. He attended the public schools for a few months during intervals from work as an employe in woolen mills, and subsequently taught school for a few years. By economy he accumulated enough money to start in the manufacturing of woolen and knit goods, and he has since that time rapidly amassed wealth. He is President of the Sheard Manufacturing Company, is married and lives at Little Falls. He has always been a Republican, and was a member of the Assembly of 1878, 1879 and 1884. In the last-named year he was chosen Speaker, receiving the Republican caucus nomination after an exciting contest with Theodore Roosevelt. He was nominated for the Senate in 1889, after one of the longest dead-locks on record, which attracted the notice of the whole State, and was finally solved by a letter from the Hon. Thomas C. Platt in Mr. Sheard's favor. He was elected by 2,697 plurality over A. Beckman Cox, Democrat, and Philip Elwood, Prohibitionist.

George B. Sloan.

George B. Sloan (Republican), who represents the Twenty-first district, was born in the city of Oswego, June 20, 1832. His father, James Sloan, was a native of Massachusetts, and emigrated to this State in 1835. His mother was of New Hampshire birth. After receiving a good common school education, at the age of fourteen he commenced a business career. Subsequently, and several years later, he became widely known in the business field as a member of the firm of Irwin & Sloan, whose transactions in their line of business for twenty years were larger than any similar firm in the northern part of the State. That firm was dissolved in 1885, and the business was given over to young men who had previously been junior partners in the firm, and it is now carried on under the title of Gaylord, Downey & Co. Mr. Sloan is married, is president of the Second National Bank of Oswego, director of the Oswego Shade Cloth Company, member of the local board of the State Normal School at Oswego, and trustee of the New York State Idiot Asylum at Syracuse. In politics he has always been an active Republican. He was a member of Assembly in 1874, '75-'77, '79 (Speaker in 1877, defeating James W. Husted after a close and exciting canvass). He is now serving his third successive term in the Senate. He has been chairman of the Finance Committee, and in all financial matters is the recognized leader of his party in the Senate. He was offered the position of United States Treasurer at New York, but declined, and has several times declined to be a candidate on the State ticket. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1893 by 3,995 plurality over George E. Morn, Democrat, and Charles G. Bacon, Prohibitionist.

Charles A. Stadler.

Charles A. Stadler (Democrat), who represents the Ninth district, was born in Germany, July 15, 1843. He came to this country at the age of three years, and when old enough he was placed by his parents in De La Salle's private institute, where a careful foundation was laid for the education he afterward received. At the age of twelve Mr. Stadler entered the public schools of New York and studied ornamental drawing, it being the intention of his parents to apprentice him to an engraver. Shortly after leaving school he entered upon a commercial career. His sterling character and talent for handling large enterprises placed him at the head of the New York Ice Exchange. He was made president of the Sebastian Manufacturing Company, and became a member of the firm of Neidlinger, Schmidt & Co. He is likewise a member of the New York Produce Exchange. Mr. Stadler has always been a Democrat in principle, and a careful student of political economy. During the movement in favor of a national modification of the war tariff Mr. Stadler was chosen by citizens to appear before congressional committees and represent them in the matter. He appeared before the Finance Committee of the United States Senate, and the Committee of Ways and Means of the House, and eloquently advocated the reduction of duties upon raw material. Last winter Mr. Stadler made several masterly arguments against sumptuary legislation. He is a member of the Liederkreis, Arion and other kindred organizations. THE ARGUS RECORD FOR 1890.

A Summary of Substantial Public Achievements.

During the past year the Argus has ably sustained its reputation as the leading newspaper in this section and the leading exponent of Democratic principles in the nation.

Special attention has been paid during the past year to the comprehensive compilation and far-reaching collection of news. Nothing has been left undone to present complete reports of the world's doings, and the able manner in which news has been gathered and presented to the readers of The Argus is an extremely expressive commentary upon the enterprise of Albany's leading newspaper.

Its correspondents are in all parts of the United States, and the staff correspondents in all the important news centers of the State are always alert. The Argus has always been the exponent of reform and earnest in its advocacy of what is best for the people.

The Correction of Census Errors. —

A notable instance of this is shown in The Argus crusade against the work of the census bureau on the recent enumeration, single-handed and alone. The Argus first sounded the tocsin, and presented its arguments in such an irrefutable manner that the result could be foreseen. It sent reporters into every ward in the city, and made an enumeration of every non-enumerated inhabitant. Every one was sought and such proof of error collected that Superintendent Porter was bound to act, and recognizing the incompleteness of the work performed by his agents, sent the following telegram :

"WASHINGTON, July 11 1890.

"To the Albany Argus :

"Supt. Porter has ordered Supervisor Derrick to order enumerators who were reported as delinquent in The Argus of June 28 and July 2, to complete work in their districts. Nothing will be left undone by this office to have a perfect count in your city.

"J. H. WARDLE,

"Acting Chief Clerk."

This was soon followed by the following emphatic and conclusive directions from the Superintendent of the Census :

"To JOHN HYDE, Special Agent of Census, Washington, D. C. :

"Instruct Special Agent Ray to proceed at once to Albany, see the Argus people and the Supervisor, and, if necessary, recount the districts about which there is a dispute in relation to the returns. Tell Mr. Ray to employ a sufficient number of enumerators to do the work in three or four days, and pay them four dollars per day. Let the Argus name at least half of the men, subject to Mr. Ray's approval, who must see that they are thoroughly competent and trustworthy. Above all, impress Mr. Ray with the necessity of prompt action. Have a copy of this telegram sent to Representative Tracy this morning.

"(Signed) ROBERT P. PORTER."

The result of the special enumeration vindicated the position taken by the Argus, and it is a matter of congratulation, not alone to the Argus, but to the citizens of Albany, that by its unaided efforts the error in the enumeration was corrected and

THE POPULATION INCREASED 3,172.

The subsequent combined efforts on the part of the press of New York city, the city officials, its congressmen and others to obtain a recount in the metropolis were disregarded. Albany being the only city in the State to obtain a recount.

The New York and New England Fair.—The success attending the initial meeting of the New York and New England Fair Association proves the foresight of The Argus in inaugurating the plan and fostering the idea whereby this organization was perfected and its successful operation carried out. After the removal of the State fair from this city, the feasibility of effecting a new association was considered, a plan proposed, and suggestions offered. The subsequent incorporation of the association, and the success of the venture is a matter of public knowledge.

The Hudson Improvement.—The benefits which would be derived from the enlargement of the Hudson channel would naturally aid the development of Albany, and not alone this city, but the whole eastern and middle section. The Argus has been steadfast in its advocacy of deepening the channel of the Hudson river so that ocean steamships can load and unload freight at our wharves. The preliminary steps have been taken and the work of the convention recently held in this city promises such happy results that the necessary appropriation by congress is almost assured.

Its Standard Features.—Aside from these stellar accomplishments, The Argus is the recognized market authority in this section. Its quotations are exact and the commercial news is gathered by experts. This department is in charge of thoroughly competent men and is always reliable.

It is the only paper that presents a complete record of legal events. Daily, during the sessions of the Court of Appeals and other courts, it presents a clear, concise, and succinct record of the day's work. It gives the calendars of the various courts, and a complete transcript of the decisions of the appellate tribunals. This feature is invaluable to this busy lawyer, and especially so when it is known that the news given is always accurate.

During the summer sporting news becomes the principal pabulum of the live American, and the doings of the sporting world are eagerly looked for. The accurate record of events is a prime requisite and every effort is made to have the news given complete and exact.

A feature in which The Argus excels all other papers is in the presentation of election returns. No time, trouble or expense is spared in giving complete reports, and specials are received, not alone from all parts of this State, but from all parts of the United States. The returns given in The Argus last November were more complete and accurate than those presented by any other paper.

Some Notable Beats.—Its columns are always newswy and in them are mirrored the latest news of the day. It is always the latest news and The Argus is always first to get it. In this connection it is only necessary to note the interviews obtained shortly after election with ex-President Cleveland and the leaders of Democratic thought throughout the country, which attracted such extended notice; the brilliant account of the wreck of the Montreal sleeper on the Central-Hudson near Schoharie. The Argus presented a complete account of the O'Brien murder at Karna, the expose of Thompson's villainy in the Denny will case, and its exhaustive and extremely interesting reports of the complications in the memorable Central-Hudson strike.

Its record for the past year is a voucher that its readers will never fail to find the news of the day accurately and entertainingly set forth in its columns.

ECLIPSES—1892.

There will be four eclipses this year, two of the Sun and two of the Moon, as follows:

- I. A total eclipse of the Sun, April 26, invisible in North America.
- II. A partial eclipse of the Moon, May 11, visible in the United States east of Cincinnati; the Moon rising with the eclipse upon it, size, 11.51 digits, the Moon's apparent diameter being considered as 13 digits. The time of ending will be as follows: New York city, 7h. 41m. eve., Washington, 7h. 29m. eve. and Boston, 7h. 53m. eve.
- III. A partial eclipse of the Sun, October 20, visible about noon throughout nearly all of North America and the West Indies. Greatest size of the eclipse, 10.9 digits, the Sun's apparent diameter being considered as 13 digits, and seen south-west of Iceland. The size in the Northern and Atlantic States, north of Virginia, will be about half of the Sun's disk. Invisible or else very small on the west coast of the United States.
- IV. A total eclipse of the Moon, November 4, invisible in the United States; but seen, in Asia and Europe.

THE SOLAR SYSTEM.

To the average inhabitant of our Earth, looking up at the sky with the natural eye, it seems to be manifest that the Earth upon which he stands is the largest, as well as the most important, part of Creation. The Sun itself appears to have been formed only to give us light and heat by day, and the Moon and Stars to furnish us with light at night. When, however, we look forth and beyond with the eye of the mind, and in the light which science, aided by the telescope, affords us, we learn how really little is this planet, our Earth, as compared with the millions of stars and systems of worlds which stud the heavens, and make up the immensity of the Universe. Our Solar System, with all its planets and attending satellites, asteroids and comets, is apparently only one of many such systems, and our Earth only one of the smaller planets belonging to that system. In what follows we have enumerated the primary planets, with their satellites, and the comets connected with the Solar System, confining ourselves, for want of space, to the simplest facts known relative thereto, and the accepted data concerning each.

The SUN is the center of our Solar System, and around it all the planets, comets, stars or meteors belonging to this system revolve or circle, receiving from the Sun their light and heat. The time occupied by each planet in thus circling once around the Sun is called the year of that planet. All the planets, in addition to their revolutions around the Sun, also revolve or turn around their own axis or center in the same manner as a wheel turns around its hub, and the time each planet thus turns once around its own center is the day of that planet. The Sun is estimated to be eight hundred and sixty-five thousand miles in diameter—that is, it is that distance measured through its center, and its bulk is seven hundred times that of all its planets combined.

MERCURY is the planet nearest to the Sun, being distant from that body thirty-six million miles. It is the smallest of the planets, and only two thousand nine hundred and ninety-two miles in diameter. Its year is eighty-eight of our days, that being the time it occupies in circling once around the Sun. Its day is twenty-four hours and five minutes long, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

VENUS is the planet second in distance from the Sun. It is at times our beautiful Evening Star, and at others the Morning Star, and, from its nearness to us, appears to our view as the largest of the stars. It is sixty-seven million miles distant from the Sun, and seven thousand six hundred and sixty miles in diameter, being larger than Mercury or Mars, and smaller than our Earth and the other planets. Its year is two hundred and twenty-five of our days, that being the time occupied in circling once around the Sun. Its day is twenty-three hours and twenty-one minutes, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

The EARTH, the world in which we live, is the third planet from the Sun, being distant ninety-two million seven hundred thousand miles, and its diameter is seven thousand nine hundred and eighteen miles. Its tropical year, on which the seasons depend, is three hundred and sixty-five days, five hours, forty-eight minutes and fifty-seconds, the time occupied in circling once around the Sun. Its day is twenty-four hours, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

MARS is the fourth planet from the Sun, being distant one hundred and forty-one million miles. It is four thousand and two hundred miles in diameter, being larger than Mercury, but smaller than all the other planets, and is generally distinguishable by its red color. Its year is six hundred and eighty-seven of our days, that being the time occupied in circling once around the Sun. Its day is twenty-four hours and thirty-seven minutes, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

JUPITER is the fifth planet from the Sun, and is distant from it four hundred and eighty-two million miles. Like Venus, it is at times our Evening and again our Morning Star, and when at its nearest point to the earth is second only to Venus in beauty and brilliancy. It is the largest of all the planets, being eighty-five thousand miles in diameter. Its year is nearly twelve of our years, that being the time it occupies in circling once around the Sun. Its day is short, being but nine hours and fifty-five minutes long, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

SATURN is the sixth planet from the Sun, being distant eight hundred and eighty-four million miles. Saturn is next to the largest of the planets, and is seventy-one thousand miles in diameter. Its year is twenty-nine and one-half of our years, that being the time it occupies in circling once around the Sun. Its day is ten hours and fourteen minutes long, the time taken in revolving once around its own center. This planet is especially interesting in consequence of its being surrounded by a detached ring, forming one of the great wonders of the heavens.

URANUS is the seventh planet from the Sun, and is seventeen hundred and eighty million miles distant from that body. It is the fourth largest of the planets in size, being thirty-one thousand seven hundred miles in diameter. Its year is eighty-four of our years, that being the time it occupies in circling once around the Sun. Its day is unknown.

NEPTUNE is the eighth planet from the Sun, being distant two thousand seven hundred and eighty million miles. Neptune is the third largest planet in size, being thirty-four thousand five hundred miles in diameter. Its year is nearly one hundred and sixty-five of our years, the time occupied in circling once around the Sun. Its day is unknown.

The planets, unlike the Sun, are all dark bodies, having no light of their own, and are seen and shine only by the light they receive from the Sun. Those visible to the naked eye are Mercury (rarely), Venus, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn, and these are readily distinguished by their clear, steady light, so different from the twinkling light of the fixed stars. Six of the planets have satellites or moons, revolving around them in the same manner that the planets do around the Sun, and they serve to light their respective planets at night in the same manner that our moon gives light to the Earth.

Our EARTH has but one satellite, the familiar Moon, which is two hundred and thirty-eight thousand miles distant from us, its diameter being two thousand one hundred and sixty miles. From the moon's nearness to us, it appears vastly larger than any of the planets, and seems to be next to the Sun in size. It circles around the earth once in twenty-seven days, seven hours, forty-three minutes and eleven seconds.

MARS has two satellites or moons, which, after centuries of search, were discovered by Prof. Hall through the great Washington telescope in 1877. They are respectively about four thousand and fourteen thousand five hundred miles above the surface of the planet, and are extremely small in size, being only about twenty miles each in diameter. The inner one revolves around Mars about three times as fast as Mars revolves around its own axis, thus causing the anomalous appearance to an inhabitant of that planet of this moon rising in the west and setting in the east.

JUPITER is attended by four moons, the smallest of these being about the size of our moon, and the others considerably larger.

SATURN has at least eight moons, the largest being nearly equal in size to the planet Mars, and in addition is possessed of the luminous ring surrounding its center, before alluded to.

URANUS has four moons, and NEPTUNE at least one; but both of these planets are so very far distant from the earth that the most powerful telescopes have failed to reveal much that is really definite about them.

ASTEROIDS. — There is another class of bodies, two hundred and fifty-seven of which have so far been discovered, belonging to the Solar System, known as the Asteroids, or minor planets, the latter designation being given to distinguish them from the larger or primary planets above enumerated. With the primary planets they revolve around the Sun in eccentric orbits of their own, occupying the vast space of over three hundred millions of miles between Mars and Jupiter. These Asteroids cannot be seen by the naked eye, the largest being only three hundred and seventy miles in diameter, while many are not more than fifteen miles. The four principal in size of the Asteroids are Ceres, Pallas, Juno and Vesta.

COMETS. — There is still another class of bodies belonging to or visiting the Solar System, designated Comets. They are those mysterious and beautiful heavenly bodies which come in view only at comparatively long intervals to surprise and excite the curiosity of mankind, and oftentimes, unfortunately, serve to arouse the superstitions and fears of the less informed. They are either periodic or transient. The former circle around the Sun in regular periods of their own, but instead of revolving around that body in flattened circles, like the planets, their paths are egg-shaped, or ovals, approaching close to and swinging around the Sun, and then shooting out from it with immense velocity into the realms of space, then turning again approach the Sun to repeat the circuit. In their motion out from and toward the Sun they cross the paths of the planets, many of them travelling much greater distances than most of the latter. The best observed of the Comets are Halley's, whose revolution occupies seventy-six years; Faye's in seven and a-half years, and Encke's in three years and four months. The latter moves around and out from the Sun, crossing the orbits of Mercury, Venus, the Earth and the Asteroids, nearly to the orbit of Jupiter, then turning speeds around on its return, cutting anew the orbits named, to again swing around the Sun. To this list may be added the lost Comet of Biela, formerly well recognized under a period of six years and eight months, but which has not been seen since 1832, when it came round as two comets, one and one-half million miles apart. The source of the meteoric displays or falling stars of November 27, 1835, and of November 27, 1872, is confidently referred to the matter of this lost comet, which is thus resolving itself into a meteor-stream. The transient comets come from the realms of space to visit our system, where, after having passed around the Sun, they dart away to disappear in space again, never more to return, unless, perchance, arrested by the giant planet Jupiter, and held captive, as they sometimes are.

NEW YORK STATE CONVENTIONS AND PLATFORMS.

Democratic.

The Democratic State Convention met in Saratoga on Wednesday, September 15, 1891, the Hon. George Raines, of Rochester, acting as temporary and permanent chairman. The following ticket was nominated:

Governor—ROSSELL P. FLOWER, of Jefferson. Lieutenant-Governor—WILLIAM F. SHEEHAN, of Erie.

Secretary of State—FRANK RICE, of Ontario. Comptroller—FRANK CAMPBELL, of Steuben. Treasurer—ELLIOT DANFORTH, of Chenango. Attorney-General—SIMON W. ROSENDALE, of Ithaca.

State Engineer and Surveyor—MARTIN SCHENCK, of Rensselaer.

The following platform was unanimously adopted:

First. The Democratic party of the State of New York, in Convention assembled, renews the pledges of its fidelity to Democratic faith, and, as regards national issues, reaffirms the doctrine of its national platform of 1884 and 1888, endorsed by its popular votes in those years and so overwhelmingly ratified by the popular verdict in the congressional election of 1890. We now, as then, steadfastly adhere to principles of sound finance. We are against the coinage of a silver dollar which is not of the intrinsic value of any other dollar of the United States. We, therefore, denounce the new Sherman silver law under which one-tenth of our gold stock has been exported and all our silver output is dammed up at home, as false pretense, but artful hindrance of return to free bi-metallic coinage and as tending only to reduce a change from one kind of monometallism to another. We, therefore, unite with the friends of honest money everywhere in stigmatizing the Sherman progressive silver basis law as no solution of the gold and silver question and as a fit appendix to the subsidy and bounty swindle, the McKinley worse-than-war tariff, the Blaine reciprocity humbug, the squandered surplus, the advancing deficit, the defective census, the falsified representation, and the revolutionary procedures of the billion congress, all justly condemned by the people's great uprising last November—a uprising which renewed next year, will empower Democratic statesmen to guide the people's councils and to execute the people's will.

Second. We congratulate the people of the State upon the beneficent results which followed the election of a Democratic assembly last autumn. That victory secured the election of a Democrat to the United States Senate—a representative in full sympathy with the popular majority on great questions of federal policy. It gave the State the lowest tax rate in thirty-six years, and for the first time in a generation freedom from taxation for the general purposes of government. It gave New York city the means of securing rapid transit—a boon which Republican legislatures had for years denied. It gave the people the shortest legislative session in seventeen years—a tribute to the faithful industry of the Democratic assembly by whom this result was achieved in the interest of economy and good legislation. Our pledges to the people contained in the Democratic platforms of 1887, 1888 and 1889, were promptly redeemed by the Democratic assembly in the passage of the following measures:

1. A bill to enumerate the inhabitants of the State preparatory to a reapportionment of the senate and assembly districts.

2. A bill to reapportion the congress districts, in pursuance of the federal statute and upon the basis of the recent federal census.

3. A bill to provide for a constitutional convention in accordance with the wish of the people as declared by a large majority at the polls in 1884.

4. A bill to revise and consolidate the excise laws—a measure intelligently and equitably framed, carefully regulating the sale of intoxicating liquors, prescribing just fees for licenses and preserving all needed restrictions for the maintenance of order and the good of society.

5. Several bills to ameliorate the condition of agriculture and labor and to lessen the burden of direct taxation.

All these measures passed by the Democratic assembly in obedience to the demand of the popular majority, were defeated in the Republican senate by the representatives of the minority of the people.

Thus has the Republican party continued to betray the people's interests. It defies the Constitution and denies fair representation in the legislature to 1,300,000 new inhabitants of the State by refusing to pass an enumeration bill—the preliminary step to the abolition of the present antiquated apportionment of senate and assembly districts, which is based on the census of sixteen years ago. It not only conspired with the federal census bureau to deprive the State of an additional representative in Congress and in the electoral college by a fraudulent count of the inhabitants in New York city, but it refuses to comply with the command of its own Federal Congress to rearrange the thirty-four congressional districts of the State so that each shall contain "as nearly as practicable an equal number of inhabitants." It ignores the emphatic declaration of the people who, by a plurality of 328,000 votes, recorded themselves in favor of a Constitutional Convention. It insists upon the passage of sumptuary laws which needlessly interfere with the personal liberty of law-abiding citizens. It demonstrates the hypocrisy of its professions by twice recording itself in the legislature in favor of a prohibition amendment and then refusing to make provision for its submission to the people except at a special election not desired by prohibitionists and an unnecessary expense of over $400,000 to the taxpayers. It refuses to ameliorate the condition of wage earners by enacting just and conservative laws in their interest. It shows its subservience to the moneyed interests by ignoring the demand of the agricultural and working classes for reforms in methods of taxation. It covertly lends its influence to the restriction of manhood suffrage. It indicates its hostility to manhood sufrage. It indicates its hostility to home rule by its efforts at meddlesome legislative interference with the affairs of large cities. It encourages expensive legislative investigating committees whose investigations degenerate into strikes for political patronage upon the official authorities of Democratic municipalities. It inflicted a hostile blow upon the best welfare and prosperity of the State by depriving New York of the World's Fair, because the Republican leader could not control its board of directors. By that act New York was deprived of the benefit of the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars within her borders. By that act the interests of every wage-earner, every merchant, every farmer, every manufacturer, every householder, every artisan, every railroad and transportation company, were cruelly sacrificed. The people will not forget that the most conspicuous agent in this partisan crime is now the candidate of his party for Governor. Against that record of misrepresentation and betrayal the Democratic party most earnestly protests.

We reaffirm the principles and pledges contained in our State platforms of '89 and preceding years. We oppose needless special legislation. We favor home rule for counties and municipalities. We believe in low taxes and in economical administration.

We demand a revision of the various confused statutes regulating the sale of intoxicating liquors and the enactment of a just, equitable and comprehensive excise law, framed in accordance with existing public sentiment, as repeatedly manifested. We believe that all excise revenues, whether called license fees or taxes, should belong to the treasuries of the localities under whose authority licenses are issued, to be applied in reducing the burden of local taxation. We are opposed to all sumptuary legislation that needlessly interferes with the personal liberty or reasonable customs of the people. We favor the largest liberty for the individual citizen consistent with the public welfare.

We demand an extension of electoral reform with a view to preventing the profuse expenditure of money by candidates and political committees, but we resolutely oppose any effort to hamper or restrict the constitutional privilege of manhood suffrage, and we congratulate the people of the State that by the persistent efforts of a Democratic Governor, sustained by the Democrats in the legislature in defense of this principle, there has been at last wrested from the Republican legislature by force of public sentiment, a genuine electoral reform law which guarantees an absolutely secret ballot; which prevents intimidation and corruption; which reserves for workingmen the right to two hours on election day in which to vote without loss of pay for time consumed; which largely diminishes the opportunities of candidates to expend money illegitimately; which prescribes a careful system of registration of electors; which imposes heavy penalties for corrupt practices in elections; and which preserves inviolable to every citizen, however humble or unlettered he may be, the right to cast his ballot for whomsoever he may choose for any office within the gift of the people.

We favor a revision of the tax laws whereby personal and corporate property shall be made to bear its full and just burdens.

We favor the continuance of the policy which seeks to improve the canal system of the State and maintain its efficiency.

The interests of labor should be fostered by proper and necessary legislation. Honest working men and working women should be protected from competition with convict labor. The Republican party, having had control of the legislature almost continuously for many years, has withheld the necessary legislation required to adequately accomplish such purposes; and in this connection we denounce the failure of the Republican senate last winter to enact the so-called Riley bill desired by the workmen of the State, which had passed the Democratic assembly and had for its object the further restriction of convict labor competition.

We favor legislative provision for a proper exhibit from this State at the World's Columbian exposition to be held in Chicago in 1893, and we especially commend the measure to secure that object which was passed by the Democratic assembly last spring, but which a Republican senate with surprising reluctance, after its successful efforts to locate the fair in Chicago, refused to enact.

This country has always been the refuge of the oppressed from every land—exiles for conscience sake—and in the spirit of the founders of our government we condemn the oppression and expatriation practiced by the Russian government upon its Jewish citizens, and we call upon our national government, in the interests of justice and humanity, by all just and proper means, to use its prompt and best efforts to bring about a cessation of these cruel persecutions in the dominions of the Czar, and to secure to the oppressed equal rights.

We heartily indorse the able and statesmanlike administration of Governor D. B. Hill during his seven years as chief executive of the State. He has resolutely maintained the principles of the Democratic party, and has faithfully contended for the interests of the people. He has ably resisted the aggressions of successive Republican legislatures whose object has been only partisan advantage, and he has been a firm and unrelenting foe to vicious and corrupt legislation. In his administration of State affairs he has received the intelligent and conscientious co-operation of his Democratic associates in the State departments; their joint efforts have put the State practically out of debt and left an enormous surplus in the treasury. Efficiency and economy have marked their official records. We respectfully submit that this faithful discharge of responsibility justifies a continuance of the trust imposed in the Democratic party, of which they have been true representatives.

Law Cases Printed PROMPTLY BY THE ARGUS CO.

Republican.

The Republican State Convention was held at Rochester, N. Y., September 10, 1891. Mr. W. W. Goodrich, of Kings, was elected temporary chairman, and Col. James M. Varnum, of New York, was permanent chairman. The following ticket was nominated:

Governor—J. SLOAT FASSETT, of Chemung.
Lieutenant-Governor—JOHN W. VROOMAN, of Herkimer.

Secretary of State—EUGENE F. O'CONNOR, of Kings.

Comptroller—ARTHUR C. WADE, of Chautauque.
Treasurer—IRA HEDGES, of Rockland.

Attorney-General—WILLIAM A. SUTHERLAND, of Monroe.

State Engineer and Surveyor—VERPLANCK COLVIN, of Albany.

The following platform was unanimously adopted:

The Republicans of the State of New York, by their chosen representatives, appeal to the electors, and declare:

First. They adhere to the principles on which the national victory was won in 1863, by the decisive electoral votes of this State, and they approve the legislation of the Fifty-first congress in the embodiment of those principles.

Second. They commend the wisdom, patriotism and purity of the administration of President Harrison, who has brought himself near to the hearts of the people by his ability and fidelity in the enforcement of the laws and the performance of his duties, and also by the admirable presentation of American principles which he has made in his addresses to the people.

Third. The administration commands the confidence and respect of the American people by its intelligent, efficient and sagacious conduct of the public business in all the departments; especially by the ability and energy displayed by a distinguished citizen of this State in building up a navy to become adequate to the national defense; by the thorough and successful management of the vast transactions of the treasury under the present secretary and his lamented predecessor; and by the brilliant and conservative treatment of our foreign relations by the Secretary of State, which has raised the American name to the highest position ever attained among the nations of the globe.

Fourth. The revenue legislation of the Fifty-first congress, both in the tariff and the administrative act, is a just and proper application of the policy of protection to American labor and the control of home markets for the industry of our own people: and the fruits of this legislation are increasing daily in the establishment of new factories, in steadier employment to wage-earners, in better prices to the farmer for the products of the soil, and in the assurance of financial independence for our country in the face of monetary distress throughout Europe and South America.

Fifth. By well-adjusted treaties of reciprocity, the administration is opening the markets of the western world to our surplus farm products and manufactures, by admitting free or duty such articles as we do not or cannot produce in adequate quantity, and securing in exchange the exemption from duty of such articles as it is profitable for our farms and factories to export. The joint operation of such reciprocity and of the protective system, with the restoration of the American flag to the ocean carrying trade promises to develop our foreign commerce on a healthy basis, advantageous to all our industries.

Sixth. The act of July 14, 1890, provides for the purchase of the silver product of American mines and issuing of the new treasury note protected by a reserve of one hundred cents worth of silver for every dollar issued.

We commend this policy of maintaining gold and silver at a parity the treasury notes paid for silver to be kept at par with gold. The voice of New York is emphatic against any degradation of the currency, and demands, with President Harrison, that "every dollar issued by the government, whether paper or coin, shall be as good as every other dollar."

Seventh. The Republican party, not forgetting the critical days when the needs of the republic counted neither blood nor treasure, while mindful of the dictates of economy and avoiding reaction invited by excess of appropriations, favors the fulfillment of the pledges given to the soldiers of the Union that the nation which they saved would not fall in just treatment of surviving veterans and of the widows and orphans of those who sacrificed their lives that the nation might live.

Eighth. That we approve the speedy construction of the Nicaragua canal under American charter, by American enterprise, and with American capital as essential to national defense and the interests of inter-state commerce, and the trade of the continent.

Ninth. We recognize the dignity of labor as the necessity of proper legislation to protect interest. We deprecate any attempt to lessen the fruits of toil, or to place honest workmen in competition with paupers and convicts, domestic or foreign. The rigid enforcement of the alien labor contract law is commended. We endorse the law enacted by the late Republican congress to protect our people against the influx of the vicious, pauper and criminal classes of foreign nations; and we emphatically approve the rigid enforcement of these laws. We endorse the provisions of the act known as the Fassett law and we condemn the evasion of the provisions of that act by the present State administration.

Tenth. We re-assert the expressed determination of the Republican party to maintain the right of franchise to its fullest extent, and to give to all citizens the amplest protection to which they are entitled under the Constitution.

Eleventh. We favor such legislation as will prevent all illegal combinations and unjust exactions by aggregated capital and corporate powers. We insist upon the suppression of all trusts, combinations and schemes designed artificially to increase the price of the necessities of life.

Twelfth. The cruelties and persecutions practiced upon the Jews in Russia are abhorrent to the sense of justice of this people; and the intervention of our government by all proper means to secure to the oppressed of all foreign nations equal rights under their laws is commended.

Thirteenth. We reaffirm the Republican party favor to thorough, genuine reform in the civil service, and commend the national administration for giving effect thereto under existing law. And the flagrant and persistent abuses in the State Civil service by the Democratic administration are held up to condemnation.

Fourteenth. Appeal is taken to the people of the State to redeem its government from discredit brought upon it by Democratic maladministration, the result of a personal despotism in the executive office, which has tolerated and fostered corruption and debauchery of the State, prostituted the canals, State prisons and public institutions and all avenues of legislation to the ambition of an audacious and selfish executive. Thanks are given faithful Republican legislators who have combated these conditions, and, so far as was in their power, rendered them inoperative.

Fifteenth. We favor comprehensive and efficient excise legislation for giving local option by counties, towns and cities, and restriction by taxation in such localities as do not by option exclude the liquor traffic.

Sixteenth. That there is this year no State tax for "general purposes," and a consequent reduction of the tax levy, which fixes the lowest rate of State tax in thirty-six years, is the result of wise and far-seeing Republican legislation, under which already direct taxation has been lessened more than $20,000,000, directly benefiting real estate and personal property, and at the same time establishing the State and municipal credit at the highest level. This work of equalizing and relieving the burden of taxation should be continued to completion on the same lines.

Seventeenth. The refusal of the Democratic assembly to allow investigation of the State canals and the large expenditures annually made thereon, was confession of the jobbery and dishonesty in the Democratic perversion of the public property to base partisan uses. The effort of the Republican members of the late legislature to enforce economy on the public works, thwarted by Democratic opposition, is heartily commended.

Eighteenth. The denial by a Democratic speaker of the legislature of the right of petition, in the instance of the memorial of clergymen of all denominations and many other citizens, was a flagrant and inexcusable violation of the rights of the people and has our reprobation.

Nineteenth. We favor the amendment of the ballot law by the substitution, for the unofficial "paster" ballot of the "blanket" official ballot, upon which the names of candidates shall be compactly grouped, rendering the voter's duty easy, treating candidates with equal justice, lessening opportunities for fraud, bribery and corruption, and largely reducing the expenses of elections.

Twentieth. We approve the principle that the government of cities is primarily a matter of business administration, and the enactment of laws to secure for all the cities of the State genuine home rule, the enactment of a law to require a general and uniform system of municipal accounting, and the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution requiring the passage of a general bill for the government of cities.

Twenty-first. The passage of a direct tax refunding bill by a Republican congress, and its approval by the Republican president, returned to this State $2,218,000, which would have been distributed to the several counties as their just due, but for Democratic opposition in the legislature.

Twenty-second. We denounce the unpatriotic effort of Governor Hill, through the last Democratic assembly, to place this State in an unfriendly attitude towards the World's Columbian exposition to be held in Chicago in 1893; that we recognize the necessity for an exhibition by the State in keeping with its commercial and industrial supremacy in the nation; and that we favor early action by the next legislature providing for a proper exhibit from this State.

Twenty-third. It is a fundamental principle of Republican policy, to reduce taxation and to retrench the expenditures of public money whenever it can be done; therefore, in the promotion of that policy, the next legislature is requested to adopt an amendment to section thirteen of article six of the Constitution of this State, expunging therefrom the provision made for the payment of the salary of any judicial officer after the expiration of his term of office.

Prohibition.

The Prohibition State Convention was held in Bleecker Hall, Albany, N. Y., on September 3 and 4. Mr. H. Clay Bascom, of Rensselaer, was elected temporary and permanent chairman, and the following ticket was nominated:

Governor—JOSEPH W. BRUCE, of Madison.

Lieutenant-Governor—GEORGE W. HALLOCK, of Suffolk.

Secretary of State—WILLIAM E. BOOTH, of Livingston.

Comptroller—WILLIAM W. SMITH, of Dutchess.

Treasurer—FRANCIS CRAWFORD, of Westchester.

State Engineer—HENRY P. FORBES, of St. Lawrence.

The following platform was unanimously adopted:

The Prohibition party of the State of New York, in convention assembled, acknowledging allegiance to Almighty God as governor of the nation, and reaffirming the principles contained in the platform of the party as adopted in their national convention in 1888, hereby declare:

First. That the record of the licensed liquor traffic in this State and nation demands the continued existence of a party pledged to its entire suppression.

Second. That the license of the traffic in alcoholic beverages, whether high or low is erroneous in theory and has proved ineffectual in practice to check or destroy intemperance, or to lessen the evils resulting therefrom, and we demand a repeal of all laws legalizing the traffic and the substitution in their place of total prohibition.

Third. That the failure of the legislature to comply with the requirements of the Constitution to provide for submission to the voters of the State of the prohibitory amendment, has again demonstrated that both Democratic and Republican legislators are subject to the control and domination of the liquor interests, and that they and the parties they represent are unworthy of support.

Fourth. That we denounce as a prostitution of the powers of government the action of the national administration in attempting, through the department of State, to foster American breweries by special appropriations of the people's money, for the purpose of extending the business of drunkard-making into our sister republic of South America, and we view with unutterable shame the failure of the United States senate to ratify the Brussels treaty providing for a mitigation of the ravages of the liquor traffic in Africa.

Fifth. That the interests of the nation demand that so long as the tariff shall exist the adjustment of its details shall be removed from the arena of partisan politics and placed in the hands of a non-partisan commission; such a commission would so adjust details of the schedule that the sum total of import duties shall not exceed the revenue requirements of the government, and the duties levied on imported articles of manufacture competing with those of home manufacture shall be no higher than are necessary to restore to the home manufacturer whatever quality or condition he may have lost by reason of the payment of a higher scale of wages in their production.

Sixth. That the right of suffrage rests on no mere circumstance of race, color or sex, and we favor the submission to the people of the State of a constitutional amendment striking out the word "male" in the section describing the qualifications of voters.

Seventh. That the issuing of a national currency belongs to the sovereign power alone, and should not be delegated to private individuals or corporations. We favor the issue of legal tender treasury notes, redeemable in gold and silver, and the maintenance of a metal reserve sufficient for that purpose.

Eighth. That the civil service law should be strictly and honestly enforced to the end that fitness, and not party services, should control in all appointments to office.

Ninth. That the suppression of the liquor traffic is the dominant political issue in nation and State, and we appeal to all voters to join us in an heroic endeavor to dethrone the political rum power now dragging at its chariot wheels the two great prostituted parties of our land and to destroy forever its influence in the nation.

Socialist Labor.

The Socialist Labor party nominated the following ticket:

Governor—DANIEL DE LEON, of New York.
Lieut.-Governor—FRANK GESSER, of Oneida.
Secretary of State—FREDERICK BENNETTS, of Westchester

Comptroller—HENRY VITALIUS of Albany.
Treasurer—JAMES WITHERS, of Kings
Attorney-General—HENRY G. WILSHIRE, of New York
State Engineer and Surveyor—CHARLES WILSON, of New York.

THE NEW STANDARD TIME.

In 1884, four standard meridians were adopted within the United States, by which railway trains are run and local time regulated. These meridians are fifteen degrees or 900 miles, apart, there being a difference of just one hour in time from one meridian to another, as there are 360 degrees in the earth's circumference, which, divided by twenty-four hours, gives fifteen degrees to every hour. The Eastern meridian, seventy-five degrees west from Greenwich, passes four minutes west of New York city. The Central meridian, ninety degrees west longitude, passes through New Orleans and St. Louis. The Mountain standard meridian, one hundred and five degrees west longitude, passes near Pike's Peak, Rocky Mountains. The Pacific meridian, one hundred and twenty degrees west longitude, is near the coast, San Francisco being nine and one-half miles west of it. The figures in these calendar pages will be correct for the various standard meridians; for places east of any meridian and within seven and one-half degrees of it, one minute of time for each quarter of a degree of longitude (equal to fifteen miles nearly), or four minutes for each degree, must be subtracted from the almanac figures. For a place west of any meridian, and within seven and one-half degrees of it, add one minute for each quarter of a degree to the almanac figures. Any United States map gives the distance in longitude of most places from the several standard meridians, sufficiently near to make practical application of the rule.

NOTE.—The vote given in the preceding tables is that cast for the heads of the electoral tickets, Oswald Otendorfer (Dem.), and William H. Seward (Rep.), except in New York county, where the vote of the highest elector on each ticket is given, as about 2,000 electoral tickets were voted in New York city bearing the names of thirty-four Republican district electors and two Labor electors-at-large. The table of pluralities, given elsewhere, gives the plurality for the highest elector on each ticket. The following shows the range of difference in electors: Democratic, Otendorfer, head of ticket, 635,757; Mehrbach, highest, 635,965; Youmans, lowest, 635,901; average for thirty-six electors, 635,940. Republican, Seward, head of ticket and to west, 648,759; Crouse, highest, 650,333; average for thirty-four district electors, 650,308; average for entire thirty-six electors, 650,221.

ARBOR DAY.

Observed in the following States on day appointed by Governor: Colorado, Connecticut (April or May), Illinois, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland (April), Michigan, Minnesota, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Ohio (April), Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont. In other States as follows: Alabama (February 22); Florida (February); Indiana (April and November); Iowa (April or May); Massachusetts (last Saturday in April); Missouri (first Friday after first Tuesday in April); Nebraska (April 22); New York (Friday following first day of May); Oregon (second Friday in April); Pennsylvania (April and October); Tennessee (November); Texas (February); West Virginia (first Friday in November); Wisconsin (April 30).

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES.

Roswell P. Flower, Governor.

Roswell Pettibone Flower was born at Theresa, Jefferson county, N. Y., August 7, 1835. He was the sixth child and fourth son in a family of nine children. His father, Nathan M. Flower, was a native of Greene county in this State. His mother was born at Cherry Valley, Otsego county. They came to Jefferson county about seventy years ago. His ancestors on his father's side were among the first settlers in Hartford, Conn., having located there in 1696. Mr. Flower's father was a wool carder and cloth dresser as well as a farmer. He died when Gov. Roswell P. Flower was eight years of age, but his wife, being a woman of good executive ability, continued his business with the aid of her sons. In his eighteenth year he secured a job in a Watertown hardware store and laid the foundation for his future success in business. He had been here no more than a month before he was offered a position as clerk in the village post-office at a salary of $600 a year and board. Six years in the Watertown post-office at $700 a year, gave him the capital to go into business on his own account. He bought a half interest in the jewelry store of W. H. Sigourney and in two years bought out his partner. His aptitude for business enabled him to accumulate something during the ten years following that he was in the jewelry trade and gave him the confidence of Henry Keep, his brother-in-law. In 1859 Mr. Keep was on his deathbed, in New York. Two or three weeks before he died he sent for Mr. Flower and asked him to take charge of his estate. His property ran up into the millions, and it required careful management to keep it together but it was kept intact, and through Mr. Flower's management increased in value. He has invested largely in undeveloped real estate and railroad properties that have become very valuable.

In politics Mr. Flower has always been a Democrat. He cast his first vote for Buchanan and has always been an active worker for his party. He was chairman of the Jefferson county committee for several years and it was here that the nucleus of the famous Tilden organization was formed. Mr. Flower suggested to Mr. Tilden the adoption of a scheme that he had formulated in his own county. Mr. Tilden saw the good points in it and it was extended to every county in the State. In it the young men in the Democratic party were recognized as an important factor in the conduct of its affairs. In 1881 Mr. Flower was induced to run for Congress in the Eleventh district against William Waldorf Astor, a vacancy having been created by the resignation of Levi P. Morton. His canvass was made on the understanding that he would not pay out a dollar for votes. He won served acceptably, and declined to accept a re-nomination. His name was before the Democratic State convention for Governor in 1883, when Grover Cleveland was nominated. At that time he had 123 votes against 123 for Gen. Slocum and 61 for Mr. Cleveland. The feeling that the nomination should go outside of New York and Brooklyn gave it to Mr. Cleveland. Without his consent, and against his wishes, Mr. Flower was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor in the convention of 1884, but immediately declined. He again accepted a Congressional nomination in 1888, because both factions of his party in the Twelfth district were united on him and determined that he should stand. In Congress Mr. Flower has been a hard worker. No member of the last house was better posted on the banking and currency question, or on matters relating to the interests of the farmer and working men. He was one of the most earnest champions of the World's fair for New York city, also one of those who demanded a re-enumeration of the inhabitants of the city after the results of the late census had been made known, and it was shown to be incorrect. Mr. Flower's record in the Fifty-fifth and Fifty-first Congress was one of earnest devotion to the interests of New York State and the Democratic party. As the leader of the Democratic delegation from the Empire State he has been a prominent figure in the consultations of the party leaders at Washington. He was an earnest, intelligent advocate of the Mills bill, and as a minority member of the Ways and Means Committee he stoutly opposed the iniquities of the McKinley tariff. His experience as a banker has been valuable during the discussions of currency questions, and he is repeatedly on record against free coinage and the silver act of July 11, 1890. Mr. Flower was the leader and organizer in Congress of the movement to secure the World's fair for New York. Mr. Flower also made a determined effort to secure to New York State an additional representative in Congress and additional electoral votes to which the State was entitled, even on Porter's fraudulent census. He favored liberal pensions and liberal treatment of employees in the public service. His speeches on the tariff and irrigation bills attracted widespread attention; the great success of the congressional campaigns of 1892 and 1890 was due largely to Mr. Flower's efforts, he being Chairman of the Congressional Committee each time. He was married in 1859 to Mrs. Sarah M. Woodruff, of Watertown. Three children have been born to them, only one of whom survives. He was elected Governor on November 3, 1891, over Jacob Sloat Fessett, Republican, by a plurality of 47,987.

William F. Sheehan, Lieutenant-Governor.

William F. Sheehan was born in Buffalo, of Irish ancestry, November 6, 1859. In his early youth he sold newspapers on the streets and was a ferry boy on the rivers and creeks of his native city. Later in his life he started in to learn the trade of a molder, but gave it up after a few months' experience. His early education was received in the Buffalo public schools and St. Joseph's College. At the age of twenty-one he was admitted to the bar and since that time has been engaged in the practice of the law. In 1892 he formed a partnership with Hon. Charles F. Tabor, the present Attorney-General of the State, and has continued in the firm up to the present time. Mr. Sheehan has always been a Democrat and an active worker in his party. The Democracy of Buffalo, recognizing his ability, elected him to the Assembly in 1884. He has been returned every year since that time, and since 1886 has been the leader of the Democratic side in the lower house. While in the Assembly Mr. Sheehan served on the most important committees and made an excellent record as a leader and a legislator. Six times he has been the Democratic candidate for Speaker and last year he was elected to that position. As a presiding officer, he was noted for his fairness and his thorough knowledge of the rules of the House. While on the floor Mr. Sheehan made for himself a reputation as a ready and forcible debater as well as a sagacious and far-seeing legislator. His service on the most important committees has always been prompt, honest and faithful to his constituency and the people of the State. Last year he was named for Lieutenant-Governor by the Democratic State convention at Saratoga, and was elected by 34,419 plurality over John W. Vrooman, Republican, George W. Hallock, Prohibitionist, and Frank Gesser, Socialist Labor.

Frank Rice, Secretary of State.

Frank Rice, Secretary of State, was born in the town of Seneca, Ontario county, N. Y., January 15, 1845. His paternal and maternal grandfathers emigrated to Seneca, the latter from England and the former from Massachusetts, and were the first settlers in that part of the country. The farms which they purchased are still owned by their descendants, one of them now being in the possession of Mr. Rice's father. During his early years Mr. Rice worked on the farm in the summer and attended school during the winter at the district school. When eleven years of age he entered Dr. Taylor's private school at Geneva, N. Y., where he remained for one year. He then returned to his home, and at the age of fifteen he spent one year in the Geneva Classical and Union school. The next schooling which he received was at the Canandaigua Academy, where he remained for three years under Dr. Noah T. Clarke. In the fall of 1864 he entered Hamilton College, from which he was graduated in 1868 with high honors. In 1869 he began the study of law at Canandaigua in the office of Comstock & Bennett. At that time this was the leading law firm in Ontario county, and under its instruction Mr. Rice acquired a knowledge of law which has since enabled him to rise to a commanding position at the bar of western New York. He entered upon the practice of his profession in 1870, and in 1875 he was nominated by the Democratic party for District Attorney. In a county which is one of the Republican strongholds of the State his chances for election were looked upon by his opponents with no small degree of ridicule. The Republicans placed in nomination a strong candidate and a hotly contested canvass ensued, the result being Mr. Rice's election by a majority of 634. In 1878 Mr. Rice was renominated and again displayed what the Republicans conceded to be wonderful political strength by defeating his opponent by 899 majority. In 1882 he was nominated by his party for the Assembly and was elected by 1,266 majority, reversing a Republican majority of the year previous of 1,223. The Legislature was Democratic that year, and Mr. Rice at once attained a prominent position among the leaders of his party. He was chosen chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, and it will be remembered that the duties of the committee during that session were unusually arduous, there being five closely contested cases before it. Of this number, that of Sprague v. Bliss was the most important, and the impartial manner in which Mr. Rice presided over the deliberations of the committee won for him the hearty indorsement of representatives of both parties. He also served as a member of the Judiciary, Insurance and other committees. His greatest victory, however, was in 1883, when he was renominated for the Assembly and pitted against the Hon. John Raines, the present Representative in Congress from the Twenty-ninth district. Although Mr. Raines was the strongest candidate the Republicans could have nominated at that time, Mr. Rice was re-elected by a majority of 241, while the county went Republican by 692. That year he was nominated in the Democratic caucus for Speaker, but as the Legislature was Republican, he, of course, was not elected, but became the leader of his party on the floor. During the session he served as a member of the Committees on Ways and Means, and Cities and Rules. In the fall of 1884 he was nominated for the office of County Judge of Ontario, and while Mr. Blaine's plurality in Ontario county was 739, Mr. Rice was elected by a majority of 606, and thus honored with his fifth consecutive victory in a Republican county. He was serving his fifth year as County Judge when he was nominated by his party at Syracuse in 1889 for Secretary of State. This victory was more gratifying than any with which he had been honored heretofore, he having carried his own election district, town, county and State, his plurality in the county being 778, and in the State over 20,000 over John I. Gilbert, Republican, Jesse Griffin, Prohibitionist, and Thomas K. Beecher Greenback. Mr. Rice was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in 1880, which nominated General Hancock for the Presidency, and served as Secretary of the New York State delegation. He has also been a delegate to nearly every State convention since that time, and was a member of the Democratic State Committee in 1888. He has always been a Democrat, and since his majority actively connected with the leadership of his party. He has been a candidate for office six times, has never been defeated, and has each time received a majority in his county in spite of its normal Republican majority of about 1,000. The eminent fairness and ability which characterized his work in the office of Secretary of State secured him a renomination last year at Saratoga and he was re-elected by a plurality of 83,173 over Eugene F. O'Connor, Republican, William E. Booth, Prohibitionist, and Frederick Bennett, Socialist Labor.

Frank Campbell, Comptroller.

The Hon. Frank Campbell is the youngest son of the late Lt.-Governor Robert Campbell, and is thirty-three years of age. After completing his education at Trenton, N. J., he traveled in Europe a few months, after which he returned home and in company with his brother, the late Clarence Campbell, formed the banking firm of Campbell Bros., which was later reorganized as the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank, of which he had been the cashier since its organization. This is well known as one of the strong financial institutions of the southern tier, and his experience in its management, with other important positions of trust which Mr. Campbell has held, gives him the practical knowledge needed to assume the most important financial office in the State. In 1887 he was appointed by Governor Hill a trustee of the Soldiers' Home, near Bath, and was chosen its treasurer soon afterwards. He has filled the trust with fidelity and has taken great interest in this institution, one of the noblest in the State. Mr. Campbell has been prominent in the politics of Steuben since he attained his majority, and in 1889 he was elected member of the State Committee for the Twenty-ninth district. He was nominated for Comptroller by the Democratic State Convention at Saratoga in 1891 and was elected by 45,306 plurality over Arthur C. Wade, Republican, William W. Smith, Prohibitionist, and Henry Vitalius, Socialist Labor.

Elliot Danforth, State Treasurer.

Elliot Danforth was born at Middleburgh, Schoharie county, N. Y., on the 6th of March, 1850. He is the youngest son of Judge Peter S. Danforth, of Middleburgh, ex-Secutor and ex-Justice of the Supreme Court. In 1861, when the civil war broke out, young Danforth was only eleven years old, an age which prevented him from joining the Union army, but his patriotism only awaited an opportunity to prove his high regard for those who shared the trials of a soldier's life, for when it was proposed to establish a soldiers' and sailors' home in the State of New York, Mr. Danforth's efforts in aid of the project were unceasing until success was attained. From his youth Elliot Danforth manifested a great desire for the acquisition of knowledge, and at the public schools he was noted for his studious habits, and his fine literary tastes were thus early formed. Soon after leaving school he commenced the study of the law in the office of his father, and in January, 1871, he was admitted to the bar. Well grounded in principles of the law as well as in general literature, and possessing an earnest and forcible delivery, his success as a professional man was fully assured. In 1874, he married Miss Ida Prince, an accomplished young lady, the only child of Dr. Gervie Prince, President of the First National Bank of Bainbridge, N. Y. In 1878 Mr. Danforth formed a law partnership with the Hon. George H. Winsor, of Bainbridge, and the firm was not long in achieving a widely extended reputation in the successful performance of their professional duties. Mr. Danforth is a member of the New York Bar Association and has served on many important committees; he was President of the corporation of Bainbridge for three years. Mr. Danforth entered with great enthusiasm into the broad and stirring field of politics. From the first his affiliations were with the Democratic party, and he came before the people as a staunch representative of the young Democracy of the Jack-sonian school. In 1880 Mr. Danforth was a delegate to the National Democratic Convention which met at Cincinnati and nominated General Hancock for the Presidency. He was the youngest member of the Convention. In the fall of 1880 he was unanimously nominated as the Democratic candidate for Congress from his district, but declined the honor. In the same year his name was presented as a candidate for State Treasurer and he received a very flattering support from his friends. In 1884 Mr. Danforth was again a delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago which nominated Grover Cleveland for President; toward whose election he gave ardent support, delivering many stirring addresses in different parts of the State during that memorable and exciting campaign. Soon after the election of the Hon. L. J. Fitzgerald as State Treasurer in 1884, Mr. Danforth was appointed Deputy State Treasurer, the duties of which he discharged with such ability and success that Treasurer Fitzgerald, on his reelection, re-appointed him Deputy for two years from January 1, 1888. Mr. Danforth is one of the directors and also the attorney of the First National Bank of Bainbridge, and a member of the Board of Education in that village. He is a member of several fraternal organizations, such as the Masonic, the Odd Fellows, etc. In these societies he is a popular, industrious and working member. At the Democratic State Convention held at Syracuse in 1889, Mr. Danforth was unanimously nominated for Treasurer of the State, which nomination was ratified by the people at the election in November by their giving him over 16,000 plurality. He was renominated last year by the Democratic State Convention of Saratoga, and was re-elected by 43,281 plurality over Ira M. Hedges, Republican, Francis Crawford, Prohibitionist, and James Withers, Socialist Labor.

Simon W. Rosendale, Attorney-General.

Simon W. Rosendale was born in Albany in June, 1841, and obtained his education at the Albany Academy. At the age of sixteen he entered the law office of Courtney & Casady in Albany, and after two years' study went to the academy at Barre, Vt., and remained a student there till 1861. He was admitted to the bar in 1862, and in 1868 was elected Recorder of Albany on the Democratic ticket by one of the largest majorities ever given such an official. And during the four years he held the office, he discharged its duties in such an able, impartial manner as to receive approval from all good citizens.

Mr. Rosendale's legal advice was so eagerly and largely sought after in important cases, that he was subsequently appointed by Mayor Nolan legal adviser of the city government. But his own growing law practice induced him, in 1882, to resign the office of Corporation Counsel. A year previous to this he was fortunate in having formed a partnership with the Hon. Rufus W. Peckham, now on the bench of the Court of Appeals, the firm name being that of Peckham, Rosendale & Hoberg. This firm was the immediate successor of that which had consisted of the elder Rufus W. Peckham, Lyman and Grenville Tremain, and soon became one of the strongest in the city, its business being large and lucrative and its success great. The firm was dissolved in 1884, when Mr. Peckham was elected Judge of the Supreme Court. Mr. Rosendale and Mr. Albert Hesseberg then continued under the firm name of Rosendale & Hesseberg, which firm still continues to be widely and favorably known to the public.

In the spring of 1884 Mr. Rosendale was again appointed (by Mayor Banks) Corporation Counsel of the city of Albany, a position which held until the close of the Mayor's term of office. He is a director of the National Commercial Bank and of the Albany Railway Company; a trustee of the National Savings Bank, and one of the Governors of the Albany Hospital. He has also been closely identified with Hebrew charitable and fraternal organizations. He was for many years President of the Court of Appeals of the Order of B'nai B'rith; a trustee of the congregation Anshe-Emeth; President of the Jewish Home Society, etc. In politics Mr. Rosendale is an uncompromising Democrat, always loyal to the welfare of his party, and ever earnest in the advocacy of those measures which are calculated to insure its success in great political contests. He is strongly imbued with the progressive ideas of the late leaders of the Democracy, Daniel Manning and Samuel J. Tilden. He is pre-eminently a gentleman of great regard for individual liberty in a proper sense, with broad ideas of men and things, and a very liberal education. Besides his large acquaintance with our own language and literature, he can also read and speak the German language with ease and fluency, and is well acquainted with the rich mines of German literature, science and art. He was nominated by the Democratic State Convention at Saratoga in 1891 for Attorney-General, his nomination being memorable by the important part played by the Albany county delegation and the Albany Phalanx in caring for his candidacy. He was elected by 41,980 plurality over William A. Sutherland, Republican, Calvin S. Croesser, Prohibitionist, and Henry G. Wilschire, Socialist Labor.

Martin Schenck, State Engineer and Surveyor.

Martin Schenck, the newly-elected State Engineer and Surveyor, aptly meets the requirements of the office. Graduating as a civil engineer from Union College in 1866, he at once began work as a engineer on the Sedalia branch of the M., K. and T. Railroad, of Missouri; was connected also with the Union Pacific Railroad, thence transferred to the Nebraska branch, and as engineer in charge constructed railroad bridges across Smoky Hill river, Otter and Lyons' creeks in Indian territory. Returning east in 1872, was engineer for contractors on the additional tracks of the N. Y. C. and H. R. Railroad, thence appointed engineer on the Callao and Lima Railroad in Peru, S. A. The death of his father prevented his acceptance. From 1874 to 1880 he practiced professionally, devoting his time to hydraulic engineering and water power improvements. From 1881 to 1882 he acted as engineer to contractors on the construction of the West Shore Railroad. In 1883 he entered the canal department, where he has since been continuously employed, many important works being entrusted to his care; during the summer-seasons of 1887-91 was chief engineer of the Hudson river improvement. The major portion of the locks upon the eastern division of the Erie canal were lengthened under Mr. Schenck's supervision. His long connection with the canals insures his unquestioned familiarity with their needs and the best practical methods of accomplishing results.

It was due to the efforts of Martin Schenck that the present river improvements are now being made by the general government. His ably written reports to the State Engineer so well depicted the condition and the needs of the Hudson that the present improvements resulted. Concerning the thoroughness of his work in maintaining navigation, a United States engineer, high in authority, recently remarked: "The work done by the New York State authorities on the Hudson river, during the past ten years, speaks for itself, for, notwithstanding the miserable condition of our dykes, the river was never in better condition than at present." It will at once be seen that watchful and intelligent care will be exercised over the great waterways which regulate traffic, so that they will continue to serve the purpose intended by their advocate and champion, Dewitt Clinton. He was elected State Engineer in 1891 by 41,916 plurality over Verplanck Colvin, Republican, Henry P. Forbes, Prohibitionist, and Charles Wilson, Socialistic Labor.

SENATORS.

John Francis Ahearn.

John Francis Ahearn (Democrat), who represents the Sixth district, was born in New York, of Irish parentage, April 18, 1833, and was educated at the public schools of New York. He has been a clerk in various well-known business houses. He was a member of the Assembly in 1882, serving on the Committee on Railroads, and has since been Clerk of the Police Court. He is married and resides at No. 41 Gouverneur street, New York. Mr. Ahearn is a member of the County Democracy, and was elected as the candidate of that organization by 4,716 plurality over Thomas F. Grady (Tammany), who had carried the district at the special election in 1888 by 4,815 plurality, and T. M. Holden, Prohibitionist, and was re-elected as a Tammany candidate by 11,721 plurality over Gabriel Marks, Republican, George Lidner, Socialist Labor, and T. W. Holden Prohibitionist.

Joseph Aspinall.

Joseph Aspinall (Republican), who represents the Third Senatorial district, was born of English and Scotch parents, at Brooklyn, in 1854, and was educated at the public schools, private schools and Columbia Law School, where he graduated in 1875. He is counsel for the National City Bank of Brooklyn and custodian of many important interests. In 1880 he went to London to represent the Long Island heirs in the estate known as the "Hyde Estate." This matter required his presence in London for four months. Mr. Aspinall is prominent in political and social circles. He was for many years secretary of the Irving Literary Society. He is prominent in Masonic circles, having taken thirty-two degrees, and is connected with all the Scottish rite bodies of Brooklyn, and is a member of Kismet Temple, Mystic Shrine. He was for two years President of the Garfield Club, and is a member of the Aurora Grata Club, the Union League Club, the Lake Mahopac Yacht Club, and The Brooklyn Club, and a member of the Adriance Club, a social organization, and the Adelphi Riding Club. He is unmarried, living in Brooklyn. He has always been a Republican and served in the Assembly of 1888 and 1889, being active in the discussions over the ceiling scandal. He was elected to the Assembly in 1890 by 123 plurality over Francis J. Reinhard, Democrat, and Ash, Prohibitionist. Mr. Aspinall was nominated for the Senate in 1891 and was elected by 2,160 plurality over Charles W. Sutherland, Democrat, Mat Leven, Socialist Labor, and James E. Ranney, Prohibitionist.

Clarence E. Bloodgood.

Clarence Edelbert Bloodgood (Democrat), who represents the Fourteenth Senatorial district, was born in Jewett, Greene county, forty-two years ago. He was prepared for college at Stamford Seminary, Delaware county, and was graduated from Yale in 1875. In that year he was elected School Commissioner for the First district of Greene county and was re-elected in 1878 and 1881, serving nine years. He studied law with James B. Olney and was admitted to the bar January, 1886. Since then he has been engaged in the active practice of the law. He is single and has resided in Catskill for the last twelve years. He was elected by 2,784 plurality over Jacob I. Werner, Republican, and Hiram Brown, Prohibitionist.

William L. Brown.

William L. Brown (Democrat), who represents the Fifth district, was born of Irish parents in Vermont on Christmas Day, 1840. His parents removed to Mahoning county, O., where he passed his boyhood and received his early education. His father died when he was very young, and he assumed the care and support of his widowed mother. He became a school teacher and obtained employment in that capacity in Ohio for several terms, then he went to Copiah county, Miss., and was teaching school there when the war broke out. He disagreed with the southern leaders on the question of the Union and left the south. Although serving in the war in the Eighty-eighth and One Hundredth and Twenty-fifth Regiments of Ohio Volunteers, his rank of colonel came with his appointment as aide-de-camp on the staff of Governor William Allen, the Democratic War Horse of Ohio. After the war Col. Brown, with a party of friends, set out for Montana, across the plains with mule teams. It was the first regular train that made the trip over the Bridger route. The journey was one of great danger and hardship, but they reached Virginia City without an actual Indian fight, although many were expected. Montana then was strongly Democratic, and in the fall campaign Col. Brown made a number of effective political speeches. He was made chief clerk of the Territorial Legislature by unanimous vote of the Democratic members, being the first to hold that office after the organization of that body. He remained in Montana for two years engaged in mining near Virginia City, where he employed a number of men and added considerably to his fortunes. Returning east he took control of the Youngstown (Ohio) Vindicator, which he made a paper of influence among Ohio Democrats and labor organizations. In 1875, he ran for State Senator in "the Western Reserve," and ran 1,400 ahead of his ticket in that hopelessly Republican section. Youngstown, strongly Republican, gave him over 1,000 majority in a vote of less than 8,000. After settling at Youngstown, he actively engaged and participated in political affairs as a speaker and a writer, and speedily arose to prominence in his party. For a number of years he was chairman of the Mahoning Democratic County Committee and represented his district in the National Democratic Conventions of 1872 and 1876. He soon afterwards came to New York, and is now the successful business manager of the New York News, and the associate and partner of the Hon. Benjamin Wood in the publication of that paper. Col. Brown is married. He was elected in 1889 as the Taunman candidate by 2,545 plurality over Michael C. Murphy, County Democrat, endorsed by the Republicans, and F. M. Hammond, Prohibitionist, and was re-elected in 1891 by 8,946 plurality over J. W. Fanning, J. C. Wins, and minor candidates.

Jacob A. Cantor, President Pro Tem.

Jacob A. Cantor (Democrat), who represents the Tenth district, and who is President pro tem. of the Senate, was born in the Seventeenth ward of New York city, December 4, 1834. His parents were natives of London, England. He is a graduate of the public schools, and has been a resident of either Yorkville or Harlem since 1860. In his fourteenth year he entered the law office of William Ware Peck. Early in 1870 Mr. Cantor became associated with the firm of Webster & Craig, the former of whom is a son-in-law of Hon. Hamilton Fish, and the latter ex-Judge-Advocate-General of New York. At the invitation of Manton Marble, in 1872, Mr. Cantor became a reporter on the New York World, remaining on the staff of that paper until 1877. During his connection with the World he entered the University Law School, from which he graduated with distinction in 1875. Two years later he was a partner with William D. Hennes, author of the "Louisiana Digest," and later was associated with Charles E. Coddington, compiler of several legal treatises on Law and Trade. He is now senior member of the law firm of Cantor & Van Schaick. For the past seven years Mr. Cantor has been a delegate from the metropolis to every Democratic State convention. He was one of the Democratic speakers during the Presidential contest of 1880, and the State campaigns that have followed, and was an earnest supporter of the Democratic candidates for President and Vice-President during the campaign of 1884. He was a Delegate-at-Large from New York city to the State convention of 1884. Mr. Cantor was a Member of the Assembly in 1865, 1866 and 1867, and was elected to the Senate of 1868-69, serving on important committees. He also was chosen as the candidate for President pro tem. in the Democratic caucus, an unusual compliment to a Senator on his first term in the Senate. Mr. Cantor is a fluent speaker and a legislator of substantial attainments, his name being prominently associated with the act requiring surface railroads to compensate municipalities for the use of streets. He is a widower, residing at 140 West One Hundred and Fourth street, New York, and is an active member and former trustee of the Press Club. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1869 as the Tammany nominee by 5,636 plurality over Charles A. Peabody, Republican, Alston G. Culver, County Democrat, and E. D. Garnsey Prohibitionist. He was re-elected again in 1891 and is now serving his third consecutive term, having been elected by 5,627 plurality over Leroy B. Crane, Republican, Matthew F. Neville, Prohibitionist and minor candidates.

Henry J. Coggeshall.

Henry J. Coggeshall (Republican), who represents the Twenty-second district, was born in Waterville, April 28, 1845, of New York State parentage. He was educated in the common schools and the seminary of his native village; studied law, and was admitted to practice in 1866. He is a ready and pleasing speaker, and of decided popularity. He has been one of the trustees of Waterville village, president of the fire department, and is now a member of the Board of Education. From 1869 to 1872 he was Assistant District Attorney of Oneida county; Member of the Assembly in 1883, and Clerk of Oneida county from 1880 to 1883. He was elected to the Senate in 1884, and is now serving his fourth consecutive term. During his service he has been a member of the Judiciary and Railroad Committees and other important committees, chairman of the Committee on Miscellaneous Corporations, and has also been prominent in debate. He has always been a Republican. Mr. Coggeshall is married and lives at Waterville. He was elected by 1,010 plurality in 1889 over James Flanagan, Democrat, and was re-elected in 1891 by 1,567 plurality over Thomas E. Kenney, Democrat, and Hoxie, Prohibitionist.

John Hamilton Derby.

John Hamilton Derby, who represents the Sixteenth district, was born in Sandy Hill, forty-six years ago, and was educated at the public schools and the Fort Edward Institute. He began business as a shipping clerk for Howland & Co. about twenty-two years ago. A year after he was admitted to a proprietary interest. From the age of sixteen years until he was twenty-six years of age, he was a railroad clerk on the Atlantic and Great Western. Mr. Derby resides at Sandy Hill, and is a member of the firm of Howland & Co., paper manufacturers. He has been identified with the Republican party since he attained his majority. He was three years supervisor of the town of Kingsbury and last year chairman of the board. He has also had twelve years' experience in the school department of the town and is vice-president of the school board at present. He is president of the Sandy Hill Power Company, vice-president of the Electric Light Company, director of the Sandy Hill Water Company, director of the National Bank of Sandy Hill, treasurer of the Royal Arcanum and member of the finance committee of the grand council of that order. He is also treasurer of the Sandy Hill Lodge of Empire Order of Mutual Aid. He is also president of the board of trustees of the Sandy Hill Presbyterian Church. He was elected to the Senate in 1891 by 661 plurality over Michael F. Collins, Democrat, and Nathaniel B. Powers, Prohibitionist.

Harvey J. Donaldson.

Harvey J. Donaldson (Republican), who represents the Eighteenth district, was born in Washington county in 1848, of American parentage. He was educated at the schools of Montgomery and Albany counties, and until 1880 was engaged in business as a contractor. For the following six years he was a paper manufacturer, and he is now retired from active business. He is a director of First National Bank of Ballston Spa and of the Citizens' National Bank of Saratoga Springs. Mr. Donaldson is married and lives at Ballston. He has always been a Republican and served in the Assembly in 1888 and 1889. He was elected to the Senate by 11,188 plurality over Thomas Morphy, Prohibitionist, no Democratic nomination being made. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1891 by 803 plurality over Edward H. Hoyt, Democrat, and John Paterson, Prohibitionist.

James T. Edwards.

Dr. James T. Edwards of Randolph, who was nominated at Jamestown September twenty-eighth, both by a people's convention and the regular Democratic convention for the Thirty-second district, and who now represents that district, is a gentleman of versatile and proved ability. He was born in 1838, in New Jersey; was educated at Pennington Seminary and Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., where he graduated with honor in 1860, receiving in addition to the usual college degrees the honorary D. D. and LL. D. He taught until the war, when he enlisted as a private and served as Second Lieutenant, First Lieutenant and Adjutant, Eleventh R. I. Vols. In 1864 he was elected principal of East Greenwich Seminary, which position he held for six years, during which time he also served three terms as State Senator, winning an influential place in that body. He was presidential elector for Grant, stumped the State in his interest, and was prominently mentioned as a candidate for Congress, but withdrew his name. He was active in the general educational interests of Rhode Island, being prominent in the establishment of its first normal school, and at the time of his leaving was President of the State Teachers' Association. For twenty-one years he has been President of Chamberlain Institute at Randolph, this State; he has been connected with the Chautauqua movement from the first, serving as trustee, member of the executive committee, and for the last ten years has been head of the scientific department. He has a wide reputation as a lecturer upon scientific, educational, agricultural, patriotic and ethical subjects, and is greatly interested in agricultural pursuits, and is President of the W. N. Y. Agricultural Association. He is also an author of some note, having contributed some valuable pamphlets to the current literature on physics and chemistry. He was elected to the Senate in 1891 as the candidate of the Independent Republicans and Democrats by 1,029 plurality over Commodore P. Vedder, who had been elected for the preceding term by 5,401 plurality, and Jerome L. Higbee, Farmers' Alliance.

Louis W. Emerson.

Louis W. Emerson (Republican), who represents the Nineteenth district, was born of American parentage, at Warrensburgh, July 23, 1837, and was educated at the Warrensburgh Academy. He is a manufacturer by occupation, and although a strong lepublican, he has never held office until elected to the Senate. Mr. Emerson is a bachelor and resides at Warrensburgh. He was elected by 4,609 plurality over Henry D. Graves, Democrat, and was re-elected to the Senate in 1891 by 2,227 plurality over Hiram Walworth, Democrat, and William C. Burdick, Prohibitionist.

Matthias Endres.

Matthias Endres (Democrat), who represents the thirty-first Senatorial district, was born in Buffalo, of German parents, July 6, 1853; was educated in the public and parochial schools of Buffalo, and from a compositor and gas-fitter became a lawyer. He has always been a Democrat and served his fourth successive term in the Assembly, and has been a member of the Committee on Trade and Manufactures, and especially interested in labor measures. He has always run ahead of his ticket, increasing each year his plurality. He was re-elected in 1890 by 1,346 majority over Louis Friol, Republican. He took a prominent part in legislative affairs in the last Legislature, and after the expiration of his term was nominated for Senator. John Loughlin, who had represented the district for two terms, was elected in 1897 by 4,301, and in 1899 by 2,671 plurality but in the face of Mr. Endres's popularity he was defeated by 779 plurality. There were two other minor candidates also in the field.

George Z. Erwin.

George Z. Erwin (Republican), who represents the Twentieth district, was born at Madrid, St. Lawrence county, not far from the place of his present residence, on the 15th of January, 1810. His preliminary education was obtained in the St. Lawrence Academy, at Potsdam; then he entered the Middlebury, Vt., College, and in 1835, at the age of twenty-five, graduated with honor. After graduation he at once began the study of law, and from 1839 to 1878 was a member of the firm of Tappan & Erwin, which was dissolved by the election of the senior member to the Supreme Court bench. Mr. Erwin has since been a member of the legal firm of Dart & Erwin. In the fall of 1881 he was first nominated for the Assembly, and represented the Third district of St. Lawrence for six consecutive years. During his service in the popular branch of the Legislature he was a member of the Committees on Ways and Means, Railroads, Banks and Privileges and Elections, and the select committee to investigate Receiverships and the Public Works Department of New York. In 1885 he was Speaker of the Assembly, and was again a candidate against James W. Husted in 1886, but withdrew before the caucus was held. He was elected to the Senate in 1887, serving on the Finance, Judiciary and Insurance Committees, and taking a prominent part in debates. He was re-elected in 1889 by 8,481 plurality over Calvin T. Fletcher, Democrat, and Horatio S. Hendee, Prohibitionist, and again re-elected in 1891 without opposition. No candidate being named against him.

Edward Floyd Jones.

Edward Floyd Jones (Democrat), who represents the First Senatorial District, was born at South Oyster Bay, L. I., in 1823, and is sixty-eight years of age. Both of his parents were native Americans. He was educated at the Union Academy, Jamaica, Queens county, and early in life entered commercial pursuits, but is now a farmer residing at Seaford, Queens county. He is a widower. He has always been a Democrat and has served as Supervisor of the town of Oyster Bay. He is at present a trustee in the Atlantic Mutual Insurance Company of New York city. He was elected to the Senate in 1891, to succeed Edward Hawkins by 2,277 plurality over Lucien Knapp, Republican, and minor nominees.

Edward P. Hagan.

Edward P. Hagan (Democrat), who represents the Ninth New York Senatorial district, was born in New York city, February 1, 1846 his parents being natives of Ireland. He was educated in the public schools and at the College of the City of New York. His occupation is that of a clerk, and he was formerly engaged in the real estate business. In politics he is a Tammany Democrat. Mr. Hagan was elected a Member of Assembly in 1879 and 1880. He was returned in 1886-6-7-8, serving on the Committees on Cities, Charitable and Religious Societies and Expenditures of the Executive. He was elected to the Senate in 1891 by 12,797 plurality over Frank Plack, Republican, and minor nominees.

Thomas Hunter.

Thomas Hunter (Republican), who represents the Twenty-sixth district, was born in Baltimore, Md., of Irish parentage, September 11, 1834, but his parents moved to Cayuga county when he was three years old. His early educational opportunities were limited to six months attendance at the public schools. He worked on a farm until the age of seventeen, when he went to Virginia and worked on the Manassas Gap Railroad. From a day laborer he became a foreman. In 1857 he returned to Sterling, and entered the milling business. Going again to Virginia in 1860, he was there when the war broke out. August 7, 1862, he enlisted as a private in Company F, 110th Regiment, New York Volunteers. On the twenty-fifth of the same month he was made Second Lieutenant, and in the following May was promoted to Captain. He served with the Nineteenth corps under General Banks, participating in several important engagements. In February, 1861, he was detached from his regiment and was ordered into Florida where he mustered in 574 men as the Second Florida cavalry, declining the command of the organization as he preferred to remain with his company. He was stationed in Florida until the rebellion was crushed and was mustered out of service on the 3d of August, 1865. Upon his return north he engaged in the lumber business, and in 1871 began his career as a railway contractor. His first contract was on the Southern Central, and he constructed ninety miles of the present Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railway; he four-tracked the New York Central from Syracuse to Clyde, and afterwards was awarded a contract in the construction of the Welland canal. He also filled large contracts on the West Shore, the Pennsylvania Railway and western roads. During these years he has made his home at Sterling; is married and has been a successful farmer. He served in the Assembly of 1881-82, and is the present Supervisor of his town. He was nominated for the Senate after a prolonged dead-lock; was elected by 2,771 plurality over John D. Teller, Democrat, and Isaac C. Andrews, Prohibitionist, and was re-elected in 1891 by 2,386 plurality over William H. Shaw, Democrat.

John McCarthy.

John McCarthy (Democrat), who represents the Second Senatorial district, was born of Irish-American parents, in Westchester county, and moved to Brooklyn when he was eighteen years of age. His early desires were for mercantile pursuits, but he eventually entered the service of the city of Brooklyn in the municipal Board of Health. Still later he became clerk to Justice Walsh, which position he retained for some years, relinquishing this eventually to become Alderman, serving on important committees while remaining in the board, and becoming also its presiding officer. He has dealt largely in Brooklyn real estate and has many valuable lots. He was nominated in 1891 to succeed John C. Jacobs, and was elected by 16,315 plurality over Archibald C. Weeks, Republican, and minor nominees.

Patrick H. McCarren.

Patrick H. McCarren (Democrat), who represents the Fourth Kings district, was born in Boston, in 1849, of Irish parentage, and educated at public and private schools. He is a cooper by trade, has been oil and coopersage inspector, and is now in the real estate and insurance business. He is unmarried, and lives at 169 Wythe avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y. He was a member of the Assembly from the district in 1882-83, 1889 and was prominent in debates and deliberations of the sessions. In 1885 he was an unsuccessful candidate for the Senate. He was elected to the Senate in 1889 by 417 plurality over Edward H. Schlueter, Republican, and F. McDonough, Prohibitionist, and was re-elected in 1891 by 2,893 plurality over Edward H. Schlueter, Republican, Gustave Shaefer, Socialist Labor, and George C. Weeks, Prohibition.

Charles P. McClelland.

Charles P. McClelland (Democrat), who represents the Twelfth Senatorial district, was born in Scotland December 19, 1834, and came to this country when a child. He was educated at the public schools and in youth worked in a grocery store, until appointed a clerk in New York at the age of twenty. He devoted his evenings to study and in 1880 he graduated with the degree of LL. B. at the New York University Law School. He has always been a Democrat and held several village offices in Dobbs Ferry. He was Deputy Collector of the Port of New York under Collectors Daniel Magone and Joel B. Erhardt, and is Manager of the Hudson River Hospital for the Insane. He served in the Assembly of 1885 and 1886, holding important committee positions and taking a leading part in debates and in party councils. He is a forcible, direct and well-contained speaker, and has always inspired respect by his sincerity, good sense and information in speaking. He was elected to the Assembly in 1890 by 351 plurality over J. Irving Burns, Republican, who represented the district in the last Assembly. In 1891 Mr McClelland took a prominent part in legislative affairs, serving as Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee. He was nominated as Senator to succeed Senator Robertson, and was elected by 2,319 plurality over Bradford R. Rhodes, Republican, and Daniel R. Wood, Prohibitionist.

Martin T. McMahon.

Martin T. McMahon (Democrat), who represents the Eighth Senatorial district, was born of Irish parents in Canada, in 1848, and came to this country as a boy. He was educated at St. Johns College, Fordham, which bestowed the degree of LL. D. upon him in 1886. Going, while yet a young man, to California, he attained a prominent position among the citizens of the new State. At the outbreak of the war for the Union, he entered the service and was prominently associated with the history of the Army of the Potomac in all its campaigns from Bull Run to Appomattox. The family of which he was a member sent three sons to the war. Two of them died in the service, the oldest, the Colonel of the One Hundred and Sixty-fourth New York in the Corcoran Legion, yielded to disease consequent upon wounds and exposure; the youngest brother, James, fell at Cold Harbor, literally cut in two by musket balls while crossing a Confederate parapet at the head of his regiment in the command originally led by his brother. Martin T. McMahon was Captain and Assistant Adjutant-General on the staff of General McClellan, and the most fraternal relations continued between the organizer of the Army of the Potomac and his favorite staff officer until McClellan's death. The Sixth Corps being organized and placed under the command of General Sedgwick, McMahon was assigned to duty with it as Adjutant-General and Chief of Staff, and Sedgwick, shot in battle, died in his arms. Colonel McMahon likewise served as the principal staff officer of General William B. Franklin. At the close of the war he was made Brevet Major-General by the government. He is a widower, practicing law in New York. He has always been a Democrat, and was Receiver of Taxes in New York for many years, and United States Marshal under President Cleveland's administration. He was elected to the Assembly in 1890 by 1,336 plurality over Lucas L. Van Allen, Republican, and minor nominees, being the first Democrat ever elected in the district to the Assembly. He served on important committees in the Legislature of '90-'91, and was nominated for Senator in 1891. After an exciting contest he defeated Lisenard Stewart, who represented the district for the last term by 1,367 plurality, William T. Jerome, County Democrat, and Joseph A. Bogardus, Prohibitionist.

Joseph Mullin.

Joseph Mullin (Republican), who represents the Twenty-first Senatorial district, was born in Watertown, N. Y., May 29, 1848, of Irish-American parents. He is married and is a practicing lawyer, residing at Watertown, N. Y. He has always been a steadfast Republican, but has never before held an office, his only representative office being delegate to the National Republican Convention in 1888. He is a director in the Watertown National Bank; Farmers' National Bank of Adams, N. Y.; Ontario Paper Company and the Watertown Street Railway Company. He was elected to the Senate in 1891 by 3,568 plurality over Charles W. Clare, Democrat, and John D. Huntington, Prohibitionist.

John A. Nichols.

John A. Nichols (Democrat), who represents the Twenty-fifth Senatorial district was born in New Hampshire in 1848. He received his early education in the Boston public schools and at the Walnut Hill school at Geneva, N. Y. He is married and lives at De Witt. He has always been a Democrat and represented his town for three terms in the Board of Supervisors. He is a farmer and a real estate dealer on a large scale. He was elected to the Senate in 1891 by 906 plurality over Rufus T. Peck, Republican, and minor candidates. Mr. Nichols is a plain and unassuming man of business. He dislikes display and has won the respect and regard of the electors of his district by his unostentatious demeanor. Mr. Peck, his opponent, is also a popular man in the Twenty-fifth district, and the ante-election campaign between the two candidates was managed in a spirited manner. The result of the election showed on the face of the returns that Mr. Peck had a majority of the votes cast, but proceedings were at once begun to correct the returns as the illegal action of Clerk Cotton had invalidated a certain number of the ballots cast. The proceedings resulted in the Court of Appeals declaring those votes invalid, thus giving Mr. Nichols a clear plurality.

Edward B. Osborne.

Edward B. Osborne (Democrat), who represents the Fifteenth Senate district, was born of New England parents, at Northampton, Mass., August 8, 1814, and was educated at the printer's case. When thirteen years of age he entered the office of the Northampton Gazette as an apprentice; from 1834-5 he was foreman of the Salem Landmark, then organ of the Rev. Dr. Cheever in his famous "Deacon Giles Distillery" controversy; in 1836 he was publisher and editor of the Quincy Patriot, then home organ of John Quincy Adams in his struggle in Congress for the right of petition; from 1837 to 1853 he was editor and publisher of the Danbury, Conn., Times. In 1853 he removed to Poughkeepsie and purchased the American of that city, changing its name to the Dutchess Democrat, which, in 1856, was combined with the Telegraph. Mr. Osborne continued as editor and proprietor of the paper, doing admirable service for his party, until 1883, when he disposed of his interests and retired. He is married and lives in Poughkeepsie. He has always been a Democrat, and served in the Assembly in 1884-85, and as County Clerk of Dutchess from 1886 to 1889. He was elected to the Assembly in 1890 by 329 plurality over Edgar A. Briggs, Republican, and E. P. Badgley, Prohibitionist, and was elected to the Senate in 1891 by 14 plurality over Gilbert A. Deane, Republican.

Edmund O'Connor.

Edmund O'Connor (Republican), who represents the Twenty-fourth district, was born in Ireland, of Irish parentage, in November, 1848, but came to this country when a child. He was educated at the public schools and the academy at Little Falls and at the Delhi Academy. During this period he contributed to his own support by working in the railroad blacksmith shop and the hammer shops at Little Falls. After leaving school he began the study of the law and for several years he has practiced successfully his profession in Binghamton, where he lives. Mr. O'Connor is married.

He has always been a Republican, but though active in party politics he has never before filled an elective office. He has been a trustee of the Binghamton Asylum for the Chronic Insane. He was elected in 1889 by 3,160 plurality over Frederick A. Shaw, Democrat, and Rufus A. Thompson, Prohibitionist, and was re-elected to the Senate in 1891 over Charles W. Brown, Democrat, and Nelson G. Place, Prohibitionist.

Amasa J. Parker.

Amasa J. Parker (Democrat), who represents the Seventeenth Senatorial district, was born May 6, 1843, in Delhi, Delaware county, and is, therefore, forty-eight years old, and is the only surviving son of the late Amasa J. Parker and Harriet L. Parker. He received his early education at the Messrs. Wrightson's school and at the Boys' Academy, later, in 1860, entering the sophomore class at Union, from whence he graduated in 1863. In the fall of the same year, being then only twenty years of age, he entered the Albany Law school, and graduating the following year, the school at that time having but one year's course, he entered the office of the leading legal firm of that time, Caggar, Porter & Hand. With this firm he remained until 1865, when he was taken into partnership with his father, which continued until the latter's decease recently, the legal firm of which he is now a member being styled Parker & Fiero. In 1861, when the war of the rebellion broke out, Gen. Parker was instrumental in organizing the Union College Zouaves, which furnished the Union Army with more than sixty commissioned officers, and in 1864 he became a member of the National Guard, with which he has ever since been prominently connected. He acted as aide-de-camp with the rank of Major, and later, in 1875, became Lieutenant-Colonel of the Tenth regiment and succeeded to the command in 1877; in this position his natural liking for military matters was evidenced by the deep interest he manifested in National Guard affairs, the regiment under his command being surpassed only by the famous Seventh, of New York city. Still later, in 1886, he became Brigadier-General of the Third brigade, the district embracing thirty-two counties, and he held the position with honor for four years, resigning in 1890. He was president of the Y. M. A. in 1875-76, and was instrumental in 1887-88 in raising the popular subscription which, with the Bleecker trust funds, enabled the trustees to erect Harmanus Bleecker Hall. He is a director, officer or trustee in numberless institutions, and is identified not only with solid and progressive interests, but is of that enterprising mould which permits and takes pleasure in the advancing of the interests of new Albany. Gen. Parker was married to Miss Cornelia Kane Strong, of New Orleans, on April 23, 1863. His political career has been very successful. From a single term in the Assembly in 1882, he went into the Senate, serving in 1886-87, being elected by a plurality of 1,568, his term being marked by the passage of an additional appropriation of $100,000 for the National Guard, making $400,000, which sum has been appropriated annually since. A distinct innovation was the public hearings given by the Albany delegation as a body upon all measures affecting local interests. In the Assembly he served as chairman of the Militia Committee and was also a member of the Judiciary Committee and the Committee on Federal Relations, and was the compiler of the Military Code, now in force in this State. In the Senate his legislative ability was also recognized by his appointment upon the following committees: Finance, Judiciary, Cities, Militia, Commerce and Navigation, Taxation and Retrenchment and Miscellaneous Corporations. He was elected to the Senate in 1891 by 4630 plurality over Vreeland H. Youngman, Republican, Peter S. Smith, Prohibitionist, and William S. McClure, Socialist Labor.

Cornelius R. Parsons.

Cornelius R. Parsons (Republican), who represents the Twenty-ninth district, was born in York, Livingston county, N. Y., May 22, 1843. At an early age he removed with his parents to Rochester, where he has since resided. He was educated at the Rochester public schools. Mr. Parsons was a member of the Board of Aldermen of the city of Rochester for a period of seven years, representing both the Seventh and Fourteenth wards, and was President of that body in 1871. He has also been a member of the Republican State Committee, serving in that capacity for seven years, and has long been prominent in the councils of his party. In 1876 he was elected Mayor of Rochester, and was six times re-elected—always by large majorities—to the same office, serving for fourteen consecutive years. He is married and is a lumber merchant. When in the Assembly he represented the largest district in the State, and he was elected its representative by a plurality of 4,478, being endorsed by the United Labor party, over Robert Courtney, Democrat, who represented the district in the preceding Assembly, Edmond Redmond, Independent Democrat, and Lyman C. Hough, Prohibitionist. Mr. Parsons' father, the late Hon. Thomas Parsons, represented the city of Rochester in the Assembly of 1858, and was a member of the State Senate from the Monroe district in 1866-67. Mr. Parsons was elected to the Senate in 1891 to succeed Senator Donald McNaughton, by 5,121 plurality over Jacob H. Myers, Democrat, Edgar S. Marvin, Prohibitionist, and Carl A. Lueddecke, Socialist Labor.

George W. Plunkitt.

George W. Plunkitt (Democrat), who represents the Eleventh New York district, was born in the Twenty-second ward of the city of New York, in a place called "Negro Village," which now constitutes a portion of Central Park, on the 17th day of November, 1842. His ancestors were Irish. At about the age of eleven years he left the public schools in the city of New York and found employment driving a horse and cart in a dirt bank at three shillings a day. This he remained at for quite a while, afterwards entering the brush-making business as an apprentice at twelve shillings per week. This latter he remained at but a short time, apprenticing himself to Francis Davidson, a butcher. Having served his time with him, Mr. Davidson started him in the business in Washington Market, where he continued for twenty-one years. He sold out his business in 1876 and embarked in the business of harbor transportation and general contractor. As early as 1866 he was a candidate for Assembly. He did not at that time, however, receive the indorsement of the regular Democratic organization, and, therefore, failed of an election. But he polled a vote of 1,859 which, considering the fact that he was a "stump" candidate, shows that even then, a mere boy, he possessed great personal popularity. In 1868, as the Tammany nominee for Assembly, he was elected by a plurality of about 1,500 in a triangular contest. He was re-elected the following November over the Democratic union and the Republican candidates. Elected to Board of Aldermen 1870, served in 1870-71-72 and part of 1873 with great credit to himself and satisfaction to his constituents in defending the laboring classes and improving the west side of New York. He was elected to the senate in 1883 and re-elected in 1885, and during his term of four years he never was defeated on the floor of the Senate or had a bill vetoed by either Governors Cleveland or Hill. Mr. Plunkitt is an excellent debater, an argumentative and forcible speaker, carrying with him that earnestness which is almost certain of conviction; has thorough knowledge of parliamentary rules, and a personal bearing to all with whom he comes in contact calculated to rally strong support. He has the reputation of being one of the best informed men for information appertaining to the government of the city of New York, its wants and requirements. He was elected to the Senate in 1891 by 7,141 plurality over Michael J. Fenton, Republican, and three minor nominees.

William P. Richardson.

William P. Richardson (Republican), who represents the Thirteenth district, was born at Lawrence, Mass., May 10, 1843. He comes of old colonial stock, William Richardson having settled in this country from England in 1632. His great-grandfather on his father's side was Captain John Richardson, who served in the Revolutionary war, and was wounded at the battle of Stillwater, in this State. His ancestry on his mother's side also took part in the Revolutionary struggle, his great-grandfather, David Collins, having entered the service of his country at the age of seventeen, remaining until the close of the war. Mr. Richardson's boyhood and school days were spent in Newburyport, Mass., and in Providence, R. I. He received his education in the public schools, and at about the age of fifteen obtained employment in a drug store, in Providence, R. I. There he remained for two years, at the end of that time going to Paterson, N. J., where he engaged in the same line of business. After an unsuccessful business venture in Havana and the Bahama Islands he returned to Paterson and engaged in the hardware business. He was elected a member of the Paterson Board of Education. For about fifteen years he has been a resident of Goshen, where he owns one of the largest and most productive farms in the county. He is President of the Orange County Farmers' Association and director of the State Agricultural Society. He is married. He has always been a Republican and was Presidential elector for his district in 1898. He was elected to the Senate by 232 plurality over Peter Ward, Democrat, and Howard G. McKoon, Prohibitionist. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1891 by a plurality of 607 over C. Fred Lamont, Democrat, and Gabriel Seeley, Prohibitionist.

George F. Roesch.

George F. Roesch (Democrat), who represents the Seventh district, was born in New York city, June 19, 1835, and educated in St. Nicholas Parochial School, De La Salle Institute of the Christian Brothers and Columbia College Law School. He also read law in the offices of Cyrus Lawton and Barnum & Rebmann, and was admitted to the bar on October 30, 1878. He has always been a Tammany Democrat; has been a speaker for the Democracy since 1874, and took part in the Tilden, Hancock and Cleveland campaigns. He is unmarried and lives at 35 First Avenue, New York. He is a member of the New York Press club. He was a member of the Assembly in 1883, serving on the Committees on the Judiciary, Public Health, State Charitable Institutions, Memorial Services of the late Governor E. D. Morgan and the Conference Committee to establish a State Bureau of Labor Statistics. In 1885 serving on General Laws and Two-thirds and Three-fifths bills and on the Democratic caucus committee; in 1888 serving on the Judiciary, Federal Relations and Special Committee to investigate the condition of the Indian tribes in this State; in 1889 serving on the Judiciary, Federal Relations and Public Printing. He was the author of the bills to repeal the law which prohibited actions being brought in this State on policies of life insurance where the insured had died outside of the State; to prohibit the manufacture of cigars in tenement-houses; to authorize the board of education in New York city to provide special schools and classes to enable those to acquire an English education who cannot attend the regular day or evening sessions on account of their occupations; to extend to veterans the privilege of music at funerals of comrades on Sunday, to abolish the store money order system and compel corporations to pay their employees in cash; to protect by injunction and action for damages the labels of trades unions attached to the products of skilled labor. In 1885 he introduced a bill to give citizens the preference over unnaturalized persons in employment on public works. His predecessor was elected in 1887 on the united Democratic nomination by a plurality over five opponents. Frederick W. Diehl was nominated by the County Democracy and endorsed by the regular Republicans and also by the John J. O'Brien faction. Mr. Roesch defeated the combination candidate by a majority of 2,240. He was elected by 2,240 plurality over Frederick W. Diehl, County Democrat, endorsed by the Republicans. He was again elected to the Senate in 1891 by 5,532 plurality over John A. Dinkel, Republican, and minor nominees.

Charles T. Saxton.

Charles T. Saxton (Republican), who represents the Twenty-eighth district, was born in Clyde, N. Y., where he still resides, July 2, 1846, of American parentage; was educated at Clyde High School and prepared for college; but the war breaking out he abandoned his books, and, on November 19, 1861, he enlisted in the Nineteenth New York Volunteers, when but fifteen years old, serving until February, 1866, through the Port Hudson and Red River campaigns in Louisiana, and the Shenandoah Valley campaign of 1864 in Louisiana, attaining the rank of Sergeant-Major.

He was admitted to the bar in 1867, since which time he has been engaged in the practice of the law. He has been President of the village of Clyde and Trustee of the Clyde High School. He was a Member of the Assembly in 1887-1888 and 1889, serving as Chairman of the Judiciary Committee for three years. He is the author of the Saxton bill, which aims to apply to the State the Australian ballot system, which has recently been adopted in several States. Mr. Saxton is a leader in debate on general and political topics. He is married. He was elected to the Senate in 1889 by 4,154 plurality over Martin Sunderland, Democrat, and William R. Hunt, Prohibitionist, and was re-elected in 1891 by 16,017 over Enoch O. Marsh, Prohibitionist, there being no Democratic candidate in the field.

John E. Smith.

John E. Smith (Republican), who represents the Twenty-third district, embracing Madison, Otsego and Herkimer counties, has already served one term in the upper house. He was born at Nelson, Madison county, N. Y., August 4, 1843, being brought up a farmer. His mother died when he was ten months old and his father when he was four years old. He lived with his half-brother, S. Perry Smith, pursuing his studies, and later in life teaching school in the winters. Later he entered the law office of Lucius P. Clark, at Morrisville, and afterwards pursued a course at the Albany Law School, graduating with the degree of LL. B., and was admitted to the bar in May, 1867. Since then he has practiced law at Morrisville. In 1872 he became a Republican, and in 1877 he was elected District Attorney of Madison county, holding that office for one term, and was later appointed to the office by Governor Cornell to fill the unexpired term caused by the resignation of Henry Barclay. He served in the Senate of 1886-7, and was appointed Assistant United States District Attorney for the Northern district of New York. In July, 1889, and resigned July 15, 1891, to enter the contest for the Senatorship. The strife in the nominating convention was severe and long-continued by Mr. Smith, who eventually won the nomination and was elected by 2,098 plurality over John D. Henderson, Democrat, and John Greene, Prohibitionist.

Greenleaf S. Van Gorder.

Greenleaf S. Van Gorder (Republican), who represents the Thirtieth district, was born at York, Livingston county, of Holland-Dutch and Scotch-Irish parentage, June 2, 1853. He was educated at the public schools of Livingston and Allegany counties and the Academy of Allegany county, and studied law with Sanford & Bowen at Angelica, N. Y., and was admitted to the bar at Buffalo, N. Y., June, 1877. Has been trustee of the Pike Seminary since December, 1882. Was Town Clerk of Pike in 1873, 1879, 1880 and 1881; and Supervisor of the Town of Pike in 1883, 1884, 1885, 1886 and 1887. Has always been a Republican and served in the Assembly in 1888 and 1889, taking an active part in debate and advocating especially the sale of the State salt reservation in Onondaga. He was elected to the Senate in 1889 by 2,883 plurality over John H. Buck, Democrat, and Alva Carpenter, Prohibitionist. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1891 by 411 plurality over Harvey Arnold, Democrat, and A. F. Brown, Prohibitionist.

Charles E. Walker.

Charles E. Walker (Democrat), who represents the Twenty-seventh Senatorial district, was born in Corning in 1860. He is the son of the late Congressman Charles C. B. Walker, who is held in warm recollection throughout the State. The nominee is largely engaged in lumbering and farming, giving to the latter occupation a large share of his personal attention. At Palmyra, N. Y., he has one of the finest farms of the State devoted to the rearing of fine cattle and horses. In Steuben county, also, he is largely interested in the agricultural industry. He has been active in the councils and work of the Democratic party and merits the preferment that has been conferred upon him, not only by his party service, but by the qualifications that prepare him to serve the district and the State to their credit and advantage. Mr. Franklin D. Sherwood, the Republican candidate, secured a plurality of the votes cast at the general election, but being at the time of his election a Park Commissioner of the city of Hornellsville, he was declared constitutionally ineligible by the Court of Appeals, and the Senate, on January 5, awarded the seat to Mr. Walker.

Alfred Ronald Conkling.

Alfred Ronald Conkling (Republican), who represents the Seventh New York district, was born in New York city September 28, 1850. He is the eldest son of the late Col. Frederick A. Conkling, who died within the past year. In 1870 he graduated from the Sheffield Scientific School of Yale College. Mr. Conkling went abroad in 1872 and entered the University of Berlin, where he devoted himself to the study of geology and mineralogy. He was afterward appointed United States geologist for the so-called "surveys and explorations west of the one hundredth meridian," under command of Lieut. George M. Wheeler. Leaving the service of the federal government in 1877 Mr. Conkling studied law in the office of the late Chancellor Erastus C. Benedict, and graduated at the Columbia College Law School. Gen. Stewart L. Woodford appointed Mr. Conkling as Assistant United States District Attorney. In the autumn of 1882 he resigned his position and opened a law office. Mr. Conkling was the Republican candidate for Congress in the Seventh district in 1884, and received the largest vote ever cast for a Republican in that strongly Democratic district. He was a member of the Common Council in 1887 and 1888. Mr. Conkling wrote, in 1889, the "Life and Letters of Roscoe Conkling," his uncle. He has long been a member of the Republican County Committee from the Seventh Assembly district, and is generally a delegate to State conventions. He is single and has an office at No. 179 Broadway. He was elected to the Assembly in 1891 by 557 plurality over Jenkins Van Schaick and minor nominees.

Howard Conkling.

Howard Conkling, the Republican Member of Assembly from Warren county, was born December 7, 1855. On leaving school he became a clerk in an importing house, and afterward in the fire insurance business. After some years of travel he settled down in Luzerne, and is a man interested in all public improvements in the town. He has built a number of small cottages and has invested in bond and mortgages on country property in and around Luzerne. In 1888 he organized the Luzerne Driving Park Association. In 1889, in partnership with another man, he made large purchases of some lumber lots near the Lake George highway, and is now actively engaged in the lumber business. He is single and has a very pleasant home at Luzerne, where he has a picture gallery which contains a very interesting collection of prints and engravings on the history of the United States. He has always been a Republican and has taken a prominent part in Warren county politics, serving as delegate to the last two Republican State conventions. He is the vice-president of the Warren County Agricultural Society and was formerly secretary for the United States of the Society for Instruction in First Aid to the Injured. His father, F. A. Conkling, organized the Eighty-fourth Regiment, N. G. S. N. Y., at his own expense and took the field in Virginia on two occasions. He was elected to the Legislature in 1891 by 46 plurality over William Cameron, Democrat, and Seneca Stoddard, Prohibitionist.

John Connelly.

John Connelly (Democrat), who represents the Nineteenth New York district, was born in Ireland, of Irish parentage, in 1859. Arriving in this country in his fourteenth year, he became an apprentice to a plumber and served out his time, though at its expiration he was obliged to quit his trade on account of ill health. Being of a studious temperament, his evenings and hours of leisure were devoted to the acquisition of knowledge at the Cooper Union Library. In the debating room, where the burning questions of the day were discussed, he became a prominent figure, and in due time was elected President of the New York Literary Society. Through the influence of Peter Cooper, Mr. Connelly received an appointment as ticket agent on the elevated railroad, and served at the one station, One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street and Eighth avenue, for seven years. Though still a young man, Mr. Connelly has been conspicuously before the public for many years. In 1880, when President of the New York Literary Society, a speech of his on the "Third Term" contained much intrinsic merit. During the Hancock campaign he was selected by ex-Mayor Cooper, Mayor Hewitt and ex-Governor Abbott to make speeches in all the principal towns through New Jersey. He was among the most prominent and energetic of the organizers of the Irish Land and anti-Monopoly Leagues. His eulogy of Horatio Seymour, delivered in Tammany Hall four years ago, was so excellent that Mr. John Seymour, brother of the Governor, sent the young orator a flattering note of thanks, and declared that his oration would be handed down as an heirloom in the Seymour family. He is serving his fifth consecutive term in the Assembly, and is one of the most fluent and eloquent of the speakers on the Democratic side. He was re-elected to the Assembly as a Tammany Democrat in 1890, by 4,162 plurality over Henry B. Altman, Republican, — Boorman, County Democrat, and minor nominees, and was again re-elected by 549 plurality over S. H. Randall, Republican, and minor nominees.

He has always been a Republican, and was elected Justice of the Peace for two arms and is now Justice of Sessions, being the first Republican ever elected to office in the town of New Utrecht. He was elected to the Assembly in 1891 by 1,524 plurality over James P. Graham, Democrat.

John Cooney.

John Cooney (Democrat), who represents the Third Kings district, was born in Albany, June 9, 1836, of Irish-American parentage, and was educated at the Albany Academy, subsequently studying law. He has been remarkably successful as a criminal lawyer in the defense of capital cases, and enjoys one of the largest practices in Kings county. He is a bachelor, living at 500 State street, Brooklyn. He has always been a Democrat, but never held political office until elected to the Assembly in 1899. He served with credit in that body and was re-elected in 1890 by 2,768 plurality over Henry Mugge, Republican, and L. Franeus, Socialist. In the Assembly of 1891 he served on the Cities and Judiciary Committees. He was re-elected in 1891 by 2,778 plurality over George D. Lewis, Republican.

James R. Cowan.

James R. Cowan, Republican, who represents Delaware county, was born in Hobart, N. Y., May 22, 1858, and is of Scottish descent. He received his education in the public schools and a Stamford Seminary, and is now a farmer and banker, being president of the National Bank of Hobart. He has always been a Republican, and has been Justice of the Peace and is now Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Delaware county. He is unmarried and resides at Hobart, N. Y. He was elected to the Assembly in 1891 by 452 plurality over Henry Davie, Democrat, and A. R. Bourn, Prohibitionist.

Richard Curran.

Richard Curran, Republican, who represents the second district of Monroe, was born in Ireland, January 13, 1838. With his parents he came to this country in 1850, and settled at Seneca Falls, N. Y., where he was educated at the public schools and academy. He also studied medicine at this place, graduating in the winter of 1859-60. In May, 1861, he enlisted in the Thirty-third, New York Volunteers, and served with that regiment as Assistant Surgeon till the close of its two years' term. Soon after he was commissioned Assistant Surgeon of the Sixth New York Cavalry, and a few months later was made Surgeon of the Ninth New York Cavalry, with which regiment he remained until the close of the war. He was present at nearly all the battles fought by the Army of the Potomac, at Yorktown, Williamsburg, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, the Wilderness, Winchester, Cedar Creek, Five Forks and Appomattox. He has always been a Republican and has served one term in the Rochester Board of Education. He was appointed Park Commissioner in 1898, but resigned in July, 1891. He was elected in 1891 by 2,830 plurality over John Bernhard, Democrat, and Horace Howe, Prohibitionist.

William H. Denniston.

William H. Denniston (Republican), who represents the Third Monroe district, was born of Irish-American parents, at Rochester, March 10, 1850.

He was educated at the public schools and the Poughkeepsie Business College, and for twenty years has been a merchant and farmer, residing at Parma Centre. He is married. He has always been a Republican, and for eight years was Town Clerk and Overseer of the Poor, four years was Supervisor, and from 1882 to 1889 was Postmaster. From 1886 to 1889 he was a manager of the Monroe County Penitentiary. He was elected to the Assembly in 1890 by 996 plurality over William S. Church, Democrat, and Byam, Prohibitionist, and was re-elected in 1891 by 817 plurality over John M. Loudon, Democrat, and G. W. Doty, Prohibitionist.

Clarence W. Dexter.

Clarence W. Dexter, Republican Member of Assembly for Madison county, was born in the town of Stockbridge, in April, 1848. He was left at eighteen years of age to care for his widowed mother and several smaller children. At sixteen he began buying eggs and by careful and hard work saved a little so that in 1870 he had about $400 ahead, every dollar earned by his own exertions. With this capital he started in the grocery business at Munnsville. The same careful attention here brought him increased trade and in a few years he moved into larger quarters, which he has since materially increased. His business ran up to $50,000 a year and the stock he carried inventoried from $12,000 to $15,000. About eight years ago Mr. Dexter bought one of the finest farms in Stockbridge and has conducted it most successfully. Two years ago he bought a third interest in the Stringer, Barr & Company Agricultural works at Munnsville, and under the firm name of Stringer, Dexter & Coe, has managed that business most successfully. Under his direction the output of the works and the number of employees have been largely increased. Mr. Dexter's entire time is devoted to this industry now. The only office Mr. Dexter has ever held is that of postmaster, having taken that when it brought only ten dollars per month. In Munnsville Mr. Dexter has done much to improve and benefit the condition of the workmen. He has built several houses, has given them a store at home equal in all respects to any in the county, and in the agricultural works has put new life and vigor into a business that was slowly withering away. None of his friends are more devoted to him than the men in his employ. He has one of the pleasantest homes in the village, presided over by a bright and amiable wife and brightened by the presence of a young daughter of about nine years. He was elected to the Assembly in 1891 by 1,446 plurality over Thomas A. Devereux, Democrat, and Samuel E. Johns, Prohibitionist.

Israel T. Deyo.

Later he worked at boat building and railroading in different parts of the country. But disliking such he next learned the bricklayer's trade, at which he worked for a number of years in Massachusetts, New York, England and other places. He prospered as a mechanic and some ten years ago purchased the famous bottling establishment of the late John Hall, and by energy and perseverance built up the business. Early in 1891 he leased a brick-yard, and owing to earlier experience in the business, manufacturing the finest grades of Hudson River brick sent to market. He is also largely interested in real estate in both the towns of Haverstraw where his residence and bottling establishment is, and in the town of Stony Point. He has always been a staunch Democrat, and is now Assessor of the town of Haverstraw. He was elected to the Assembly by 199 plurality over Arthur W. Tompkins, Democrat, and David F. Knapp, Prohibitionist.

Jacob Goldberg.

Jacob Goldberg (Democrat), who represents the Second Erie district, was born in Buffalo, in November, 1863. He attended the public schools and was known as one of the brightest and most apt of the boys of his time. He at once looked to a trade when old enough and became an expert cigar-maker. But that was not enough for him. He was ambitious. He became circulator of the Buffalo Times, and was a usher in the Academy of Music. It was at that time he took up the study of medicine. He studied night and day, earning a livelihood at the same time. In February, '83, he graduated, and at once settled down to a large and lucrative practice. He was also appointed medical examiner of the Prudential Insurance Company, which position he also held in the Home Benefit Society of New York, the Guarantee Alliance of New York, Mutual Union of Rochester, American Protective League of Baltimore, Benefit Association of Syracuse, and the National Life of Hartford, Conn. He is also connected with the I. O. O. F., the Sons of Veterans, Knights of Maccabees, and is a member of the Cleveland Democracy. In 1888 the Democrats of the old Fifth ward nominated him for Supervisor and he succeeded in cutting down the usual majority from 1,200 to 100. In 1889 he went to New York for special study of the eye and ear, which branch of his profession he has made a specialty. Dr. Goldberg was nominated for the Assembly by the Democrats of the Second district in 1891, and elected by 433 plurality over John R. Hozel, Republican.

Charles Goodell.

Charles Goodell (Democrat), who represents the First district of Otsego county, was born in Decatur, Otsego county, May 11, 1833, where he resided until 1855. He received his education from the common schools. As soon as he reached his majority he was elected Town Clerk of his native town, which town he represented in the Board of Supervisors in 1879, 1880 and 1881, being elected each time in that close town by a large majority. In 1886 he removed to Worcester and soon thereafter was appointed a Justice of the Peace to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. G. Crippen, and at the following town meeting was elected to the same office. Upon the expiration of this term he received the unanimous nomination of his party, and though a strong and honorable man ran against him, he was re-elected by the unusual majority of 220, which position he now holds. Mr. Goodell has been a farmer, and an extensive dealer in hops, butter and other farm produce. He was elected to the Assembly in 1891 by 428 plurality over Albert Potts, Republican, and Edwin Judd, Prohibitionist.

John Thomas Gorman.

Green (Republican), who represents Herkimer county, was born at Paines Hollow, of American parents, July 23, 1837, and was educated at the public schools of Little Falls, the Fairfield Academy and at Geneva. He is married and is a physician and farmer, living at Paines Hollow. He has always been a Republican until elected to the Assembly in 1890, but had never held office. He was elected to the Assembly in 1890 by 439 plurality over J. D. Henderson, Democrat, who represented the county in the last Assembly, and the Prohibition nominee, and was reelected by 290 plurality over James Conkling, Democrat, and E. Remington, Prohibitionist.

Henry H. Guenther.

Henry H. Guenther (Democrat), who represents the Fourth district of Erie, was born in the city of Buffalo, of German parentage, on January 29, 1862. At the age of eighteen months he lost his right hand by being run over by a street car. He was educated in the public schools at Buffalo and Youngstown (Ohio) High School, and was graduated from the Ann Harbor (Mich.), Law School, in the class of '81, receiving the degree of LL. B. Mr. Guenther has been connected with the Buffalo corporation counsel's office for three years, as clerk, and is now a bachelor, practicing law in Buffalo. He has always been a Democrat and is serving his sixth consecutive term in the Assembly. During this time he has been a member of several of the most important committees. He was re-elected in 1890 virtually without opposition, no Republican being found willing to accept the nomination against him. His plurality over John Lehn, Prohibitionist, was 3,161. He was again re-elected by 1,203 plurality over E. A. Hayes, Republican, and G. R. Burnside, Prohibitionist.

Louis Herbert Hahlo.

Louis Herbert Hahlo (Democrat), who represents the Twenty-first New York district, was born in New York city, January 19, 1865, of German parents. He was educated in New York at the public schools and the College of the City of New York, and afterwards pursued a course at the Columbia Law School and was finally admitted to the bar. He is single and is a practicing lawyer with an office at 280 Broadway. He has always been a Democrat, and is the first Democrat ever elected from the Twenty-first district for Assemblyman. He was elected in 1891 by 163 plurality over Thomas B. O'Dell and minor nominees.

Cornelius Haley.

Cornelius Haley (Democrat), who represents the First Onondaga district, was born of Irish parents, at Little Falls, December 20, 1830, and was educated at the public schools. He began to earn his living when only eleven years old in the Little Falls woolen mills, but soon turned to his present employment, that of iron molder, devoting his spare time to educating himself. He is married and lives at 14 Jay street, Utica. He has always been a Democrat and has been active in advocating measures for the benefit of labor. He was elected to the Assembly in 1890 by 715 plurality over J. K. O'Connor, Republican who represented the district in the Assembly of 1891, and J. H. Kent, Independent Democrat. He was re-elected in 1891 by 736 plurality over T. S. Griffiths, Republican, and Morgan, Prohibitionist.

Edward Hall.

Edward Hall (Democrat), member from Clinton county, was born at Fort Ann, N. Y., January 1, 1852, of American parents, and is married and living at Lyon Mountain, New York. He received his early education in the schools of his native village, and afterwards studied civil engineering, in which profession he is now engaged, being Assistant General Manager of the Chateaugay Ore and Iron Co. He has always been a Democrat and has represented the town of Dannemora for the past ten years in the Board of Supervisors. He was a member of the 1890 United States Assay Commission. He was elected in 1891 by 26 plurality, in a county where the normal Republican plurality is 1,200 over George Chahoon, Republican, and Philip Stoughton, Prohibitionist.

Galen R. Hitt.

Galen R. Hitt (Democrat), who represents the Third Albany district, was born in Pawlet, Vt., August 16, 1843. Though a native of Vermont for more than a quarter of a century Mr. Hitt has resided in Albany. He was educated in the common schools and at the Troy Conference Academy, Poughkeepsie, Vt.; studied law at Rutland, Vt., and this city, and was admitted to practice May, 1868. His Democracy has the true ring, and for many years he has figured prominently in State and National campaigns; has served as Alderman from the Sixth ward and alderman-at-large. He has been very successful as a lawyer. In 1874 Mr. Hitt helped to organize the Albany Boatman's Relief Association, and was six years a director and for four years its attorney. In 1877 he joined the Burgesses Corps, and is still a member of the famous old organization, and has acted as its president and vice-president. In the autumn of 1888 he was elected to the Assembly by a plurality of 1,209 over James D. Walsh, Republican. His exceptional ability was so markedly displayed that at the Assembly convention of his party, October 18, 1889, all attention was turned to him and he was accordingly re-nominated by acclamation. His full popularity was shown when, on November fifth following, he was elected over George G. Latham, the Republican nominee, by the magnificent plurality of 2,584, the largest ever given any candidate in the Third district up to that time. With the prestige of this big majority Mr. Hitt entered upon his second term as a legislator. He served with distinction on the following committees: "Cities and Railroads," and "Public Lands and Forestry." Many important bills were introduced by him, and their passage successfully urged in his determined, effective manner. He won considerable influence at this session of the Legislature, and it was not to be wondered at that the citizens of the Third district turned towards him when the time for electing his successor had arrived. He was again nominated by acclamation as the Democratic candidate for a third term in the Legislature. He carried the third district triumphantly by 2,941 plurality over John McCabe, the Republican candidate, exceeding even his former magnificent majority. During the last session of the legislature he did faithful and brilliant work on the floor, as Chairman of the Judiciary Committee and a member of the Committee on "Affairs of Cities" and "Public Lands and Forests." Mr. Hitt had settled down to look after the duties of his practice, but upon the death of Mr. William E. Murphy, who had been elected to represent the Third district at the general election. Mr. Hitt was induced to enter the field again and he was again re-elected to the Assembly in 1891 by 2,410 plurality over John J. McCabe, Republican.

William Nicholas Hoag.

William Nicholas Hoag (Republican), who represents the Eleventh New York district, was born of American parentage, in New York, in 1861, and was educated at the Poughkeepsie Military Institute. He is secretary of the Lawrenceville Cement Company; is a bachelor. He has always been a Republican, and was elected to the Assembly in 1889. James W. Husted (Republican), who represents the Third Westchester district, was born of American parents, descended from English and French stock, at Bedford, N. Y., October 31, 1833. He was educated at the Bedford Academy and at Yale College, where he took his degree in 1854. For three years following he taught school and studied law, being admitted to practice in 1857. Mr. Husted is one of the few men in political life who retain youth's interest in literature, and he possesses a poetic gift of fair order. He has been Superintendent of Village Schools, County School Commissioner, Deputy Superintendent of Insurance, Harbor Master and Deputy Captain of the Port of New York. In Masonry he wears the Jewel of the thirty-third degree, and has been Grand Master of the State Lodge. In military rank he has reached that of Major-General of the Fifth Division of the National Guard, State of New York. He is a director of the Mutual Life Insurance Company and of the P. P. and B. Railroad, has been president of the Poughkeepsie Bridge Company and has been actively interested in large business ventures. He is married and lives at Peekskill. Gen. Husted enjoys the double honor of having served a longer period in the Legislature and having held the office of Speaker of the Assembly oftener than any man in the history of the State. He is now serving his twenty-second year as member of Assembly, and last year he served his sixth term as Speaker. The Hons. Alexander Sheldon and DeWitt C. Littlejohn each served five terms as Speaker, the longest service up to 1890. Gen. Husted has represented both Westchester and Rockland counties, the latter as a non-resident. In his long service in the Assembly he has acted as chairman or member of nearly all the important committees, and when not wielding the gavel has been his party's leader on the floor. He has been frequently a delegate to National and State conventions, and, as the best parliamentarian in the State, has presided at such assemblages. He is a forcible political debater and a graceful speaker on non-political occasions. In 1881 he was defeated for State Treasurer on the Republican ticket. He was elected to the Assembly in 1890 by 587 plurality over Abram Hyatt, Democrat, and J. A. Brodie, Prohibitionist. He was again elected to the Assembly in 1891 by 574 plurality over Edgar L. Ryder, Democrat, and Homer Anderson, Prohibitionist.

Edward G. Tracy.

Edward G. Tracy, of Waverly, the Republican member from Tioga county, was born in East Southfield, Bradford county, Pa., in 1841. He lived on the farm until twenty years old, when, deciding to follow the mercantile business, he accepted a situation in a store in Lock Haven, Pa. Close application to business and the confinement of in-door life so injured his health that he resigned his position and entered the office of an older brother, who is a physician. Regaining his health he decided to follow the profession of pharmacist, and entered into partnership with G. F. Waldo, in Waverly, N. Y., in 1867. In 1883 he purchased his partner's interest, and has continued the business in the same store first occupied twenty-four years ago. He was a member of the Board of Education of Waverly for ten years, serving as secretary for five years and president for four years. He was elected Supervisor of the town of Barton in 1889 and was re-elected in 1890 and 1891, by an increased majority each year. He was elected to the Assembly in 1891 by 800 plurality over Enoch Williams, Democrat, and John Tribe, Prohibitionist.

James H. Tripp.

James H. Tripp (Republican), who represents Cortland, was born in Columbia county, New York, January 17, 1832. He removed with his parents to Cortland county in 1839. The earlier years of his life were spent in working on his father's farm in the summer, and attending school and teaching school during the winter months. From 1856 to 1862 he was engaged in the mercantile business in Marathon, New York; from 1862 to 1866 in the banking business in Canandaigua and Geneva, New York, and from 1866 to 1884, in the mercantile and private banking business in Marathon, New York, under the firm name of Tripp & Adams. He assisted in the organization of the First National Bank of Marathon in 1884, and has been President of the bank since its organization. For the last few years he has been somewhat interested in farming. He is now Director and President of the First National bank of Marathon, also a Director in the Homer National Bank of Homer, New York. His parents were both natives of the United States and he was educated in the common schools and the Cortlandville Academy. He was elected to the Assembly in 1891 by 908 plurality over Peter D. Muller, Democrat, and Eugene Van Hoesla, Prohibitionist.

John A. Vanderwater.

John A. Vanderwater (Democrat), who represents the Second Dutchess district, was born in Belleville, Ontario, June 20, 1849, of American parents. He received a common school and academic education, and also received instruction in a commercial college. He has been a farmer, nurseryman, milk peddler and school teacher, and one of the School Commissioners of Dutchess county prior to his election. He has always been a Democrat and has held the office of Justice of the Peace. He is married and resides at 13 Grand avenue, Poughkeepsie. He was elected to the Assembly in 1891 by 17 plurality over Archibald Rogers, Democrat, and minor nominees.

Lewis Varney.

Lewis Varney (Republican), who represents the Second Saratoga district, was born of American parents at Luzerne in 1838, and was educated at the public schools and the Jonesville and Glens Falls Academics. He was admitted to the bar in 1861 and to United States Court practice in 1864. He argued the town bonding case before the Court of Appeals in 1871 and secured a reversal of judgment, saving Saratoga Springs $100,000. He is married, living at Saratoga Springs. He was elected to the Assembly in 1890 by 594 plurality over Frank M. Boyce, Democrat, and Levi B. Dedrick, Prohibitionist. He was re-elected to the Assembly by 616 plurality over Elihu Wing, Democrat, and James T. McEckron, Prohibitionist.

William H. Wait.

William H. Wait (Republican), the Member of Assembly from the county of Schuyler, was born in the town of Hoosick, Rensselaer county, New York, July 26, 1841. He received his education in the common schools, and in the select or high school, at "Peach Orchard," conducted for many years by the noted teacher, Prof. John A. Gillett. Mr. Wait was married March 7, 1872. In November, 1878, Mr. Wait was elected Treasurer of the county of Schuyler, on the Republican ticket, and in 1874 purchased a village home, and became a citizen of Watkins, where the family have ever since resided. He was re-elected County Treasurer in 1876, and again in 1888, and his third term, in that office, will expire January 1, 1892. His majority at each election was large, indicating an unusual degree of personal popularity in all sections of the county. During the interim between his second and third elections to the County Treasurership Mr. Wait was twice chosen Supervisor of the town of Dix—in 1887 and 1888—and discharged the duties of the office faithfully and to the entire satisfaction of his fellow townsmen. He also, during that time, established the "Farmers and Merchants' Bank" in Watkins—he being its President and sole owner; and it is regarded as a safe, reliable and prudently managed financial institution. He also established and became the senior member of the firm of Chase & Co., in Watkins, which is extensively engaged in the carriage, harness and general horse and livery furnishing business, and owns two fruit farms (one of twenty and another of thirty-five acres) on the east shore of Seneca Lake, at and near North Hector. He was elected to the Assembly in 1891 by 484 plurality over Eugene K. Smith, Democrat, and the Prohibition nominee.

William H. Walker.

William H. Walker (Democrat), who represents the Ninth New York district, was born in Ireland, December, 1849. He has always been a Republican, and was elected to the Assembly in 1890 by 561 plurality over Abram De Graff, Democrat, and Fred Wheeler, Prohibitionist, and was re-elected by 1,072 plurality over William D. Strevel, Democrat, and John F. Terwilliger, Prohibitionist.

Henry D. Warner.

Henry L. Warner (Democrat), Member from Columbia county, was born in Canaan, March 6, 1833. He was educated in the Canaan public schools and is now a farmer, married, residing at Canaan Four Corners. He has always been a Democrat, but has never held a public position before. He was elected to the Assembly in 1891 by 146 plurality over Aaron B. Gardiner, Republican, and the Prohibition nominee.

George P. Webster.

George P. Webster (Democrat), who represents the Twenty-third New York district, was born of New England parentage at Watertown, Conn., June 28, 1828, and was educated in Connecticut.

In 1849-50 he crossed the plains to California with an ox-train, and for three years sought his fortune in the gold mines. He then returned to Kentucky and there studied law. He has always been a Democrat, and was prosecuting attorney of Campbell county, Ky., for four years, solicitor of Newport, Ky., for two years, and was elected to the Kentucky Legislature for the session of 1890-91. At the outbreak of the war he resigned from the Legislature, and coming North in May, 1861, was commissioned, by President Lincoln, Captain and A. Q. M., was promoted successively to be Major, Lieutenant-Colonel and Colonel, and was mustered out November, 1866, as Colonel, having served throughout the war in the campaigns in Kentucky and Missouri. He is married, living at 60 East One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street, New York, and is a lawyer. He served in the Assembly of 1890 and was re-elected in 1890 as a Tammany Democrat by 5,004 plurality over Johnston, Republican; Loucheim, County Democrat; Butler, Independent; Yoerg, Socialist; Doody, Communist, and Arnold, Prohibitionist. He served with honor in the last Legislature, and was re-elected last year to the present Legislature by 3332 plurality over William Johnston, Republican, and B. Franklin, Prohibitionist.

George L. Weed.

George L. Weed (Republican), who represents the Eleventh Kings district, was born of American parentage in Brooklyn, February 7, 1857, and was educated at the Brooklyn Collegiate and Polytechnic Institute. He was formerly a manufacturer of axes and edge tools, and is now a hardware commission merchant, married and living in Brooklyn. He is a well-known Mason, a member of the thirty-second degree Scottish Rite, a Knight Templar, a member of the Mystic Shrine, the Royal Arcanum, Legion of Honor, National Provident Union, Order of the Golden Chain and several other societies. He has always been a Republican and served in the Assembly in 1890. He is married and resides at No. 63 Court street, Brooklyn. He was again elected to the Assembly in 1891 by 1,670, the largest plurality ever obtained in this district, over Raymond G. Crow, Democrat, and minor nominees.

George L. Weeks.

George L. Weeks (Republican), who represents the Second district of Queens county, was born in Easthampton, L. I., in 1846, of American parents. He was educated in the public schools of New York city, and for a time was a milk dealer in Brooklyn, but is now a shipwright, married and living at Seaford, Long Island. He served four years in the Forty-Seventh Brooklyn State Regiment during the war. He has always been a Republican and has been Justice of the Peace of the town of Stony Point, Rockland county, and has been a candidate for Member of Assembly. He was elected to the Assembly in 1891 by 422 plurality over James A. McKenna, Democrat.

James Lee Wells (Republican), who represents the Twenty-fourth New York, was born at West Farms, New York, December 16, 1843, of parents of English descent. He graduated at Columbia College in 1863, and for several years afterwards was engaged in mercantile pursuits, but is now engaged in the real estate and insurance business in New York city. In politics Mr. Wells has always been a Republican, and has frequently been a delegate to the State conventions of his party. He had not, however, prior to his election to the Assembly of 1879, held any public position other than a member of the Board of Education of West Farms. He represented the First Westchester district, and was a member of the committees on Commerce and Navigation, Roads and Bridges, and was chairman of the Committee on Federal Relations. He was a member of the New York Board of Aldermen in 1881-2-3, and from 1884 to 1886 was official appraiser of the city of New York in acquiring lands, about 4,000 acres, for new parks and parkways in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth wards and adjacent parts of Westchester county. He is one of the founders of the Twenty-third Ward Bank, and the Dollar Savings Bank of New York, and is still a director in each. He has also been a director of the Real Estate Exchange. He is married and resides at No. 267 Alexander avenue, New York. He was elected to the Assembly in 1891 by 907 plurality over Thomas J. Byrnes, Democrat, and minor nominees.

Obed Wheeler.

Obed Wheeler (Republican), Member from the First district of Dutchess, was born at South Dover, in that county, November 15, 1841. His ancestors were among the first settlers in South Dover, where he now resides. He was educated at the Amenia Academy, from which institution he graduated in 1862. He afterwards entered Yale College, but did not graduate. Mr. Wheeler was commissioned a First Lieutenant, September 18, 1862, in the One Hundred and Fiftieth N. Y. S. V., and promoted to a captaincy in January, 1864. At the close of the war he was brevetted a major. He was at the battle of Gettysburg, afterwards was transferred to Sherman's army and remained there until the close of the war. He has always been a Republican in politics, and represented his district in the Assembly of 1878 and 1879. He was re-elected in 1891 by 47 plurality over Russell, Democrat, and the Prohibition nominee.

William Egbert Wheeler.

William Egbert Wheeler (Republican), who represents the First district of Cattaraugus, was born at Portville, New York, November 31, 1843, of American parents. He received his early education at the Cortland Academy, Homer, New York, where he was fitted for college, graduating in 1863 with first honors. He entered the class of 1866 at Hamilton College at the beginning of the sophomore year, and subsequently entered the class of 1866 of Yale College at the beginning of the previous year and graduated with the class. He was a member of the Yale Varsity crew and rowed in the race with Harvard in 1866. He is now a manufacturer engaged in the manufacture of lumber, leather and the production of oil at Portville, New York. He has always been a Republican, and has been elected Supervisor of his town for six terms, and has also been a member of the school board of the village in which he resides. NATURALIZATION LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

DECLARATION OF INTENTION.—An alien seeking naturalization as a citizen of the United States must declare on oath before a Circuit or District Court of the United States, or a District or Supreme Court of the Territories, or a court of record of any of the States having common law jurisdiction and a seal and clerk, at least two years before his admission that it is, bona fide, his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign State or ruler, and particularly to the one of which he may be at the time a citizen or subject.

OATH ON APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION.—At the time of his application for admission he must also declare on oath, before some one of the courts above specified, "that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he absolutely and entirely renounces and abjures all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign prince, potentate, State or sovereignty, and particularly, by name to the prince, potentate, State or sovereignty of which he was before a citizen or subject."

CONDITIONS OF CITIZENSHIP.—It must appear to the satisfaction of the court to which the alien has applied for final admission, that he has resided continuously within the United States for at least five years, and in the State or Territory where the court is held at least one year, and that during that time "he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same."

TITLES OF NOBILITY.—If the applicant bears any hereditary title or belongs to any order of nobility, he must make an express renunciation at the time of his application.

SOLDIERS.—Any alien twenty-one years old and upward, who has been honorably discharged from the armies of the United States, may become a citizen on his petition, without any previous declaration of intention, provided he has resided in the United States at least one year previous to his application, and is of good moral character.

MINORS.—Any alien under the age of twenty-one, who has resided in the United States three years next preceding his twenty-first birthday and has continued to reside therein up to the time he makes application to be admitted a citizen, may, after he arrives at the age of twenty-one, and after he has resided five years within the United States, including the three years of his minority, be admitted a citizen; but he must make a declaration on oath and prove to the satisfaction of the court that for the two years next preceding it has been his bona fide intention to become a citizen.

CHILDREN OF NATURALIZED CITIZENS.—The children of persons who have been duly naturalized, being under twenty-one at the time of the naturalization of their parents, shall, if dwelling in the United States, be considered as citizens.

CITIZENS' CHILDREN BORN ABROAD.—The children of persons who now are or have been citizens of the United States are considered as citizens, though they may be born out of the limits and jurisdiction of the United States.

CHINESE.—The naturalization of Chinamen is prohibited by section 14, chapter 136, Laws of 1892.

PROTECTION OF NATURALIZED CITIZENS.—Section 2000 of the Revised Statutes of the United States expressly declares that "all naturalized citizens of the United States while in foreign countries are entitled to and shall receive from this government the same protection of person and property which is accorded to native-born citizens."

THE RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE.—The right to vote is conferred by the State, naturalization by the United States. In several States aliens who have declared their intentions enjoy the right to vote equally with naturalized or native-born citizens. But the Federal naturalization laws apply to the whole Union alike, and no alien may be naturalized until after five years' residence, except as an honorably discharged soldier or a person whose parents have been naturalized while he was under twenty-one years of age, as above recited. Even after five years' residence and due naturalization, he is not entitled to vote unless the laws of the State confer the privilege upon him.

PROPORTION OF THE SEXES.—Of the immigrants arrived during the last decade, 3,205,911, or 61.10 per cent, were males, 2,040,702, or 38.90 per cent, females, and 1,121,499, or 21.4 per cent, under 15 years; 51 per cent, or 334,229, from Ireland, were males; 49 per cent, or 321,258, females. From Germany, 836,290, or 57.6 per cent, were males, and 616,690, or 42.4 per cent, females. From England, Sweden, Norway and Scotland, 61 per cent were males. From Hungary, 94,248, or 73.8 per cent, were males, and 33,488, or 26.2 per cent, females. From Italy, 243,923, or 79.4 per cent, were males, and 63,386, or 20.6 per cent, females.

AGES OF IMMIGRANTS.—From 1881 to 1890, inclusive, 21.4 per cent, or 1,121,499 of the total 5,216,613 immigrants, were under 15 years; 3,372,778, or 68.1 per cent, were between 15 and 40, and 582,811, or 10.5 per cent, were over 40; Hungary and Italy furnish largest percentage of immigrants between 15 and 40 years—respectively, 74.1 and 69.1 per cent. Italy furnishes the largest percentage over 40 years, the proportion being 15.5 per cent, while the average of all countries was 10.5. The lowest per cent of those above 40 years is from Ireland, 2.3 per cent. Ireland furnishes the highest per cent, 28.1; 73.6 of immigrants between 15 and 40 years. The highest percentage of children, or those under 15 years of age, comes from Germany, where the per cent was 36.6, the lowest, 14.7, was from Hungary.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

AMERICA.—Twenty-nine States and Territories, a majority of the Union, have given women some form of suffrage. The Judiciary Committee of the Federal House of Representatives reported in the spring of 1890 a Constitutional amendment, securing suffrage to the women of the whole country. In Canada women have municipal suffrage in every Province and Territory; in Ontario, for all elective offices but members of the Legislature and Parliament.

Arizona, Colorado, Delaware, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Texas, Vermont, Washington and Wisconsin grant women various degrees of school suffrage.

In Arkansas and Missouri women vote, by petition, on liquor license in many cases. In Delaware suffrage is exercised by women in several municipalities. In Kansas they have equal suffrage with men at all municipal elections. About 60,000 voted in 1891. In Montana they vote on local taxation. In New York they vote at school elections; 8,000 voted at Binghamton in 1890. They vote also on local improvements, such as gas and electric street lighting, paving, sewerage and municipal bonds. In Pennsylvania women vote by signing or refusing to sign petitions on paving and other local improvements. In Utah women voted from 1870 until disfranchised by Congress in the "Edmunds Law." They are now actively demanding the repeal of this law. In 1884 the people formed a State constitution securing suffrage to women, but Congress did not admit the Territory. In Washington women voted generally for five years, and then were excluded by the decision of the Territorial Supreme Court. They were mostly debarred from voting on the State Constitution, and the men voted down a constitutional provision guaranteeing suffrage to women. The women assert that they were shut out unlawfully, and will appeal to the United States Supreme Court; 14,000 women voted in the Territory in one year. In Wyoming women have had the same vote with men since 1870. They requested the constitutional convention to guarantee suffrage to them in 1889. This was done with practical unanimity in convention and at the polls. Congress declared that it "accepted, ratified and confirmed" this constitution, and admitted the State

July 10, 1890. The women have generally voted the Republican ticket, as that party was mainly instrumental in enfranchising them.

Bills relieving various classes of women from disfranchisement were passed in 1891 by one house of the Legislature (but not by the other), in Arizona, California, Kansas, Nebraska, New York, Oklahoma and New Zealand. Similar measures were proposed in 1891, but not passed in the Legislatures of Arkansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Mexico, New South Wales, Nova Scotia, Ohio and South Australia; and in the constitutional conventions of Kentucky and Mississippi. Woman suffrage movements are also active in Denmark, Germany, Greece, Newfoundland and Switzerland.

AFRICA.—Cape Colony has municipal woman suffrage. The colony rules a million square miles.

ASIA.—All Russian colonies in Siberia have municipal woman suffrage for heads of households. So have the women taxpayers of India in the rural districts of British Burma and the municipalities in the Presidencies of Bombay and Madras.

AUSTRALIA.—Every province has municipal and school woman suffrage. The country is about as large as the United States, not including Alaska.

AUSTRALASIA.—New Zealand and Tasmania have municipal and school woman suffrage.

EUROPE.—In England, Scotland and Wales women vote for all elective offices but Members of Parliament. In France the women teachers elect women members of all boards of education. In Sweden women vote for all elective officers but Representatives; also, indirectly, for members of the House of Lords. In Norway they have school suffrage. In Ireland they vote for harbor boards, poor-law guardians, and in Belfast for municipal officers. In Russia women householders vote for all elective officers and on all local matters. In Finland, for all elective officers. In Austria-Hungary they vote, by proxy, for all elective officers. In Croatia and Dalmatia they do so at local elections in person. In Italy widows vote for Members of Parliament.

ISLANDS.—Iceland, the Isle of Man and Pitcairn Island have full woman suffrage. Nearly 2,000 Islands have it in some degree.

The area of countries where women have some suffrage is about 20,000,000 square miles, larger than all Asia, and their population is about 385,000,000, more than that of all Europe.

BALLOT REFORM.

The following States and Territories have passed ballot reform laws in a more or less complete and effective form:

1868—Kentucky (applying only to Louisville), Massachusetts.

1869—Connecticut, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Wisconsin.

1890—Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Oklahoma, Vermont, Washington, Wyoming.

1891—Arkansas, California, Delaware, Maine, Nebraska, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, Oregon, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Illinois.

All the States except New York, New Jersey and

Connecticut provide for a "blanket" ballot.

The Australian rule of placing candidates' names on the ballot in alphabetical order under the titles of offices prevails in California, Massachusetts, Kentucky, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Oregon, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Vermont, Washington and Wyoming.

The Belgian system of grouping party tickets is followed in Delaware, Indiana (where a party device or symbol is used), Maine, Maryland, Missouri, Ohio, Wisconsin and Oklahoma.

The first bill embodying the principles of the Australian system ever presented to a Legislature in America was introduced in the New York Assembly in 1888, by Charles T. Saxton, of Clyde.

The Democratic Paper of New York State!

NEW YORK WILL BE THE MOST IMPORTANT STATE AT THE COMING PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

ITS WEALTH, ENTERPRISE, PRESTIGE AND ITS THIRTY-SIX VOTES GIVE IT A PROMINENCE OVER ALL ITS SISTER STATES. IT IS ESSENTIAL, THEREFORE, THAT THE CAUSE OF DEMOCRACY SHOULD HAVE A

STAUNCH, RELIABLE AND LOYAL NEWSPAPER

IN NEW YORK STATE AS A CHAMPION.

One Whose Record and Reputation Inspire Confidence.

THE ARGUS IS SUCH A NEWSPAPER.

THE REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER.

The following Complimentary Notices Were Given at the Time of the Seventy-Fifth Anniversary of the Argus in 1888.

From President Cleveland.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, January 16, 1888. }

To The Argus:

For more than two years I daily read the Albany Argus, deriving therefrom my information of passing events, and gathering abundant reasons for my Democratic faith. Of course, long before this intimate acquaintance, I was familiar with the paper as an influential expositor of party principles and policy. But when a person reads a newspaper every day, for even no longer a period than two years, it grows to be like a companion and friend whose existence and prosperity becomes matters of interest. It is for these reasons that I most heartily and sincerely congratulate the managers of The Argus upon the seventy-fifth year of its establishment. Its history has been honorable; its influence has been great; its loyalty to political principles in days of newspaper inconstancy has been steadfast, and may it continue for many years to demonstrate that courage and loyalty and honesty are profitable as well as right.

Yours, very truly,
GROVER CLEVELAND.

From Governor David B. Hill.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
ALBANY, January 25, 1888. }

To The Argus:

I congratulate The Argus upon the anniversary it celebrates to-day. Democrats remember that it has fought in many gallant contests for the supremacy of Democratic principles; that it has bravely stood firm in defeat; that it has wisely counseled in victory.

The Argus marked its silver and golden anniversary periods by honorable, brilliant and continued successes, and it now completes its three-fourths of a century with renewed youthful vigor. I give it my good wishes for innumerable prosperous years to come.

Very truly yours,
DAVID B. HILL.

From Charles A. Dana.

Always the strenuous supporter of the Democratic party. The Argus has counted among its conductors a number of the most conspicuous and powerful men of the Empire State. Two of them especially I have had the advantage of knowing personally, and they were Edwin Croswell and William Cassidy. . . . In those days Albany, as the political capital of the State, held its own against New York, the commercial capital, and in point of political influence was undoubtedly its superior. But as the great financial center of the country and the focus of news from all parts of the world, the larger town has gradually overshadowed the smaller in importance; and yet, while these great changes have been going on, the Albany Argus has not lost its leading position. This has been due to the fact that it has had no rival at the capital, as well as to the steadiness with which, for the last twenty-five years, it has supported the policy and the candidates of the Democratic party, and still more to the discretion and sound judgment of those who have had control of its affairs.

CHARLES A. DANA,
Editor New York Sun.

For almost a quarter of a century as editor of the Plain Dealer of this city, I exchanged with The Argus, and it was always a favorite paper with me. It has taught many a lesson of political rectitude to the opposition in its many chameleon changes. Its editorials always patriotic, able, intelligent and judicious, have had great weight in the Empire State and throughout the country. Conservative at all times, it has never been timid or faltering in advocating the principles of the old

Democratic party. Carrying the banner of the party with lofty directness, never the mere organ of men or factions, it has achieved a renown in the field of journalism that makes it one of the historical newspapers of the Union. In 1884, when there seemed to be danger that the State of New York might be filched from the Democratic column and placed in that of the enemy, the watchfulness of The Argus in securing prompt returns from every precinct in the State, and the accuracy of its tabulations was wonderful, and the wired words that the "Albany Argus says Cleveland has 1,000 unchangeable majority in New York State," kept everywhere alive the hope that culminated in the fact that its prophecy was correct.

W. W. ARMSTRONG,
Editor Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The proprietors of The Argus and the people of Albany have abundant reason to be proud of the long and honorable career of that paper, and to rejoice that it is now more vigorous and useful and powerful than ever. I congratulate you upon the attainments and achievements of the past and upon the opportunities and the promise of the future.

SAMUEL BOWLES,

From the New York Times.

It has always been a power, and sometimes a very considerable one, in its party from the time when Jesse Buel established it in 1813 as a "Republican" organ to sustain the National administration in the "second war of Independence" to the time when its chief was transferred to the treasury department in 1885 to make for himself a record more distinguished than that of any of his many-gifted predecessors.

From the Troy Times.

The Troy Times has often had occasion to disagree with the Albany Argus touching questions of public policy, but it has never failed to recognize its greatness as a newspaper, edited with commanding ability and setting a worthy example in enterprise, good judgment and appreciation of the public's demand upon the profession.

From the Plattsburgh Republican.

From the Buffalo Courier.

The Argus is steadily engaged in upholding Democratic principles, and supporting the administration of the general and the State governments with wisdom, skill and power.

From the Ogdensburg Advance.

The Argus has always been an earnest and consistent exponent of pure Democracy. and we hope that the next three-quarters of a century will witness an increase of influence in the same ratio as the last.

From the Wayne Democratic Press.

The Argus presents a glorious record. Since its very inception Democracy has had no firmer, no more powerful or faithful friend and champion than it.

From the Chatham Courier.

The Argus is an able journal, and when we want our Democracy "straight," we turn to this paper.

From the Brooklyn Citizen.

The Argus always has been an able and earnest exponent of Democratic principles, and its influence in the councils of the party has ever been of the highest. Its prosperity is a deserved tribute to conscientious and sterling journalism.

ECLIPSES—1898.

There will be only two eclipses this year, both of the Sun, as follows:
 I. A total eclipse of the Sun, April 16, invisible in North America; the total phase being visible in South America and Africa.
 II. An annular eclipse of the Sun, October 9, visible only as such in the Pacific Ocean and at Lima, Peru. The partial eclipse will be visible from Alaska to Florida, and west of a line drawn from Savannah to Lincoln, Neb., and very small or a mere contact of limbs, in the southern part of the Mississippi Valley soon after 2 p. m. It begins at Memphis at 2h. 26m., New Orleans 2h. 17m., Little Rock 2h. 6m., Topeka 1h. 33m., Kansas City 1h. 41m., Denver 0h. 16m., Salt Lake City 11h. 21m., morn., size 4 digits; San Francisco 10h. 13m., size 6 digits; Portland, Ore., 10h. 15m., size 5 digits; Austin 1h. 14m., eve., size 3 digits; New Orleans 2h. 17m., size 1.8 digits.

MORNING AND EVENING STARS—1898.

MORNING STARS.

Venus, until May 2.
 Mars, after September 4.
 Jupiter, from April 27 to July 29.
 Saturn, after October 8.
 Uranus, until February 10, and after November 8.
 Mars, Jupiter, Saturn and Uranus may be considered as beginning to be evening stars when they begin to rise at midnight.

EVENING STARS.

Venus, after May 2.
 Mars, until September 4.
 Jupiter, until April 27, and after July 29.
 Saturn, from January 4 to October 8.
 Uranus, from February 10 to November 8.

PLANETS BRIGHTEST, OR BEST SEEN.

Mercury, March 11, in the west after sunset; also August 28, in the east before sunrise. It will be theoretically brightest several other times in the year, but having then a low altitude, will probably not be visible.

Venus and Mars not this year.
 Jupiter, November 18.
 Saturn, March 29.
 Uranus, April 28.

THE SOLAR SYSTEM.

To the average inhabitant of our Earth, looking up at the sky with the natural eye, it seems to be manifest that the Earth upon which he stands is the largest, as well as the most important, part of Creation. The Sun itself appears to have been formed only to give us light and heat by day, and the Moon and Stars to furnish us with light at night. When, however, we look forth and beyond with the eye of the mind, and in the light which science, aided by the telescope, affords us, we learn how really little is this planet, our Earth, as compared with the millions of stars and systems of worlds which stud the heavens, and make up the immensity of the Universe. Our Solar System, with all its planets and attending satellites, asteroids and comets, is apparently only one of many such systems, and our Earth only one of the smaller planets belonging to that system. In what follows we have enumerated the primary planets, with their satellites, and the comets connected with the Solar System, confining ourselves, for want of space, to the simplest facts known relative thereto, and the accepted data concerning each.

The Sun is the center of our Solar System, and around it all the planets, comets, stars or meteors belonging to this system revolve or circle, receiving from the Sun their light and heat. The time occupied by each planet in thus circling once around the Sun is called the year of that planet. All the planets, in addition to their revolutions around the Sun, also revolve or turn around their own axis or center in the same manner as a wheel turns around its hub, and the time each planet thus turns once around its own center is the day of that planet. The Sun is estimated to be eight hundred and sixty-five thousand miles in diameter—that is, it is that distance measured through its center, and its bulk is seven hundred times that of all its planets combined.

MERCURY is the planet nearest to the Sun, being distant from that body thirty-six million miles. It is the smallest of the planets, and only two thousand nine hundred and ninety-two miles in diameter. Its year is eighty-eight of our days, that being the time it occupies in circling once around the Sun. Its day is twenty-four hours and five minutes long, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

VENUS is the planet second in distance from the Sun. It is at times our beautiful Evening Star, and at others the Morning Star, and, from its nearness to us, appears to our view as the largest of the stars. It is sixty-seven million miles distant from the Sun, and seven thousand six hundred and sixty miles in diameter, being larger than Mercury or Mars, and smaller than our Earth and the other planets. Its year is two hundred and twenty-five of our days, that being the time occupied in circling once around the Sun. Its day is twenty-three hours and twenty-one minutes, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

The EARTH, the world in which we live, is the third planet from the Sun, being distant ninety-two million seven hundred thousand miles, and its diameter is seven thousand nine hundred and eighteen miles. Its tropical year, on which the seasons depend, is three hundred and sixty-five days, five hours, forty-eight minutes and fifty-seconds, the time occupied in circling once around the Sun. Its day is twenty-four hours, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

MARS is the fourth planet from the Sun, being distant one hundred and forty-one million miles. It is four thousand and two hundred miles in diameter, being larger than Mercury, but smaller than all the other planets, and is generally distinguishable by its red color. Its year is six hundred and eighty-seven of our days, that being the time occupied in circling once around the Sun. Its day is twenty-four hours and thirty-seven minutes, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

JUPITER is the fifth planet from the Sun, and is distant from it four hundred and eighty-two million miles. Like Venus, it is at times our Evening and again our Morning Star, and when at its nearest point to the earth is second only to Venus in beauty and brilliancy. It is the largest of all the planets, being eighty-five thousand miles in diameter. Its year is nearly twelve of our years, that being the time it occupies in circling once around the Sun. Its day is short, being but nine hours and fifty-five minutes long, the time taken in revolving once around its own center.

SATURN is the sixth planet from the Sun, being distant eight hundred and eighty-four million miles. Saturn is next to the largest of the planets, and is seventy-one thousand miles in diameter. Its year is twenty-nine and one-half of our years, that being the time it occupies in circling once around the Sun. Its day is ten hours and fourteen minutes long, the time taken in revolving once around its own center. This planet is especially interesting in consequence of its being surrounded by a detached ring, forming one of the great wonders of the heavens.

URANUS is the seventh planet from the Sun, and is seventeen hundred and eighty million miles distant from that body. It is the fourth largest of the planets in size, being thirty-one thousand seven hundred miles in diameter. Its year is eighty-four of our years, that being the time it occupies in circling once around the Sun. Its day is unknown.

NEPTUNE is the eighth planet from the Sun, being distant two thousand seven hundred and eighty million miles. Neptune is the third largest planet in size, being thirty-four thousand five hundred miles in diameter. Its year is nearly one hundred and sixty-five of our years, the time occupied in circling once around the Sun. Its day is unknown.

The planets, unlike the Sun, are all dark bodies, having no light of their own, and are seen and shine only by the light they receive from the Sun. Those visible to the naked eye are Mercury (rarely), Venus, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn, and these are readily distinguished by their clear, steady light, so different from the twinkling light of the fixed stars. Six of the planets have satellites or moons, revolving around them in the same manner that the planets do around the Sun, and they serve to light their respective planets at night in the same manner that our moon gives light to the Earth.

Our EARTH has but one satellite, the familiar Moon, which is two hundred and thirty-eight thousand miles distant from us, its diameter being two thousand one hundred and sixtyn miles. From the moon's nearness to us, it appears vastly larger than any of the planets, and seems to be next to the Sun in size. It circles around the earth once in twenty-seven days, seven hours, forty-three minutes and eleven seconds.

MARS has two satellites or moons, which, after centuries of search, were discovered by Prof. Hall through the great Washington telescope in 1877. They are respectively about four thousand and fourteen thousand five hundred miles above the surface of the planet, and are extremely small in size, being only about twenty miles each in diameter. The inner one revolves around Mars about three times as fast as Mars revolves around its own axis, thus causing the anomalous appearance to an inhabitant of that planet of this moon rising in the west and setting in the east.

JUPITER is attended by four moons, the smallest of these being about the size of our moon, and the others considerably larger.

SATURN has at least eight moons, the largest being nearly equal in size to the planet Mars, and in addition is possessed of the luminous ring surrounding its center, before alluded to.

URANUS has four moons, and NEPTUNE at least one; but both of these planets are so very far distant from the earth that the most powerful telescopes have failed to reveal much that is really definite about them.

ASTEROIDS. — There is another class of bodies, two hundred and fifty-seven of which have so far been discovered, belonging to the Solar System, known as the Asteroids, or minor planets, the latter designation being given to distinguish them from the larger or primary planets above enumerated. With the primary planets they revolve around the Sun in eccentric orbits of their own, occupying the vast space of over three hundred millions of miles between Mars and Jupiter. These Asteroids cannot be seen by the naked eye, the largest being only three hundred and seventy miles in diameter, while many are not more than fifteen miles. The four principal in size of the Asteroids are Ceres, Pallas, Juno and Vesta.

COMETS. — There is still another class of bodies belonging to or visiting the Solar System, designated Comets. They are those mysterious and beautiful heavenly bodies which come in view only at comparatively long intervals to surprise and excite the curiosity of mankind, and oftentimes, unfortunately, serve to arouse the superstitions and fears of the less informed. They are either periodic or transient. The former circle around the Sun in regular periods of their own, but instead of revolving around that body in flattened circles, like the planets, their paths are egg-shaped, or ovals, approaching close to and swinging around the Sun, and then shooting out from it with immense velocity into the realms of space, then turning again approach the Sun to repeat the circuit. In their motion out from and toward the Sun they cross the paths of the planets, many of them traveling much greater distances than most of the latter. The best observed of the Comets are Halley's, whose revolution occupies seventy-six years; Faye's in seven and a-half years, and Encke's in three years and four months. The latter moves around and out from the Sun, crossing the orbits of Mercury, Venus, the Earth and the Asteroids, nearly to the orbit of Jupiter, then turning speeds around on its return, cutting anew the orbits named, to again swing around the Sun. To this list may be added the lost Comet of Biela, formerly well recognized under a period of six years and eight months, but which has not been seen since 1852, when it came round as two comets, one and one-half million miles apart. The source of the meteoric displays or falling stars of November 27, 1885, and of November 27, 1872, is confidently referred to the matter of this lost comet, which is thus resolving itself into a meteor-stream. The transient comets come from the realms of space to visit our system, where, after having passed around the Sun, they dart away to disappear in space again, never more to return, unless, perchance, arrested by the giant planet Jupiter, and held captive, as they sometimes are.

HERSCHEL'S WEATHER TABLE.

FOR FORETELLING THE WEATHER, THROUGHOUT ALL THE LUNATIONS OF EACH YEAR, FOREVER.

This table is the result of many year's actual observation, the whole being constructed on a due consideration of the attraction of the Sun and Moon, in their several positions respecting the Earth, and will, by simple inspection, show the observer what kind of weather will most probably follow the entrance of the Moon into any of its quarters, and that so near the truth as to be seldom or never found to fail.

NATIONAL CONVENTIONS AND PLATFORMS.

The National Democratic Convention met at Chicago Tuesday June 21, 1892.

William C. Owens, of Kentucky, was Temporary Chairman; Simon P. Sheerin, of Indiana, Secretary. William L. Wilson, of West Virginia was permanent president.

Grover Cleveland was nominated for President by Leon Abbett of New Jersey

Nominations for Vice President were as follows: Adlai E. Stevenson, Illinois; Isaac P. Gray, Indiana.

The first ballot resulted as follows: Stevenson 402; Gray, 243. Before the result was announced sufficient changes were made to insure the nomination of Mr. Stevenson, and it was made unanimous.

First. The representatives of the Democratic party of the United States, in national convention assembled, do reaffirm their allegiance to the principles of the party as formulated by Jefferson and exemplified by the long and illustrious line of his successors in Democratic leadership, from Madison to Cleveland. We believe the public welfare demands that these principles be applied to the conduct of the federal government, through the accession to power of the party that advocates them; and we solemnly declare that the need of a return to these fundamental principles of a free, popular government, based on home rule and individual liberty, was never more urgent than now, when the tendency to centralize all power at the federal capitol has become a menace to the reserved rights of the States that strikes at the very roots of our government under the Constitution as framed by the fathers of the republic.

Second. We warn the people of our common country, jealous for the preservation of their free institutions, that the policy of federal control of elections, to which the Republican party has committed itself, is fraught with the gravest dangers, scarcely less momentous than would result from a revolution, practically establishing monarchy on the ruins of the republic. It strikes at the north as well as the south, and injures the colored citizen even more than the white; it means a horde of deputy marshals at every polling place, armed with federal power; returning boards appointed and controlled by federal authority, the outrage of the electoral rights of the people in the several States, the subjugation of the colored people to the control of the party in power and the reviving of race antagonisms now happily abated, of the utmost peril to the safety and happiness of all; a measure deliberately and justly described by a leading Republican senator as "the most infamous bill that ever crossed the threshold of the senate." Such a policy, if sanctioned by law, would mean the dominance of a self-perpetuating oligarchy of office-holders, and the party first entrusted with its machinery could be dislodged from power only by an appeal to the reserved right of the people to resist oppression which is inherent in all self-governing communities. Two years ago this revolutionary policy was emphatically condemned by the people at the polls; but in contempt of that verdict, the Republican party has defiantly declared, in its latest authoritative utterance, that its success in the coming elections will mean the enactment of the force bill and the usurpation of despotic control over elections in all the States. Believing that the preservation of republican government in the United States is dependent upon the defeat of this policy of legalized force and fraud we invite the support of all citizens who desire to see the Constitution maintained in its integrity with the laws pursuant thereto, which have given our country a hundred years of unexampled prosperity, and we pledge the Democratic party, if it be intrusted with power, not only to the defeat of the force bill, but also to relentless opposition to the Republican policy of profligate expenditure, which, in the short space of two years, has squandered an enormous surplus and emptied an overflowing treasury, after piling new burdens of taxation upon the already overtaxed labor of the country.

Third. We denounce Republican protection as a fraud upon labor, as a robbery of the great majority of the American people for the benefit of a few. We declare it to be a fundamental principle of the Democratic party that the federal government has no constitutional power to impose and collect a dollar for tariff duties except for purposes of revenue only, and demand that the collection of such taxes be limited to the necessities of the government honestly and economically administered.

We denounce the McKinley Tariff Law, enacted by the Fifty-first Congress, as the culminating atrocity of class legislation. We endorse the efforts made by the Democrats of the present congress to modify its most oppressive features in the direction of free raw materials and cheaper manufactured goods that enter into general consumption, and we promise its repeal as one of the beneficent results that will follow the action of the people in entrusting power to the Democratic party. Since the McKinley tariff went into operation there have been ten reductions of the wages of laboring men to one increase. We deny that there has been any increase of prosperity to the country since the tariff went into operation, and we point to the dullness and distress, the wage reductions and strikes in the iron trade as the best possible evidence that no such prosperity has resulted from the McKinley act.

We call the attention of thoughtful Americans to the fact that after thirty years of restrictive taxes against the importation of foreign wealth, in exchange for our agricultural surplus, the homes and farms of the country have become burdened with a real estate mortgage debt of over two thousand five hundred million dollars, exclusive of all other forms of indebtedness; that in one of the chief agricultural States of the west there appears a real estate mortgage debt averaging $100 per capita of the total population; and that similar conditions and tendencies are shown to exist in the other agricultural exporting States. We denounce a policy which fosters no industry so much as it does that of the sheriff.

Fourth. Trade interchange on the basis of reciprocal advantages to the countries participating, is a time-honored doctrine of the Democratic faith; but we denounce the sham reciprocity which juggles with the people's desire for enlarged foreign markets and freer exchanges by pretending to establish closer trade relations for a country whose articles of export are almost exclusively agricultural products with other countries that are also agricultural, while erecting a custom-house barrier of prohibition tariff taxes against the richest countries of the world that stand ready to take our entire surplus of products and to exchange therefor commodities which are necessities and comforts of life among our own people.

Fifth. We recognize in the trusts and combinations, which are designed to enable capital to secure more than its just share of the joint product of capital and labor, a natural consequence of the prohibitive taxes which prevent the free competition which is the life of honest trade; but we believe their worst evils can be abated by law, and we demand the rigid enforcement of the laws made to prevent and control them, together with such further legislation in restraint of their abuses as experience may show to be necessary.

Sixth. The Republican party, while professing a policy of reserving the public land for small holdings by actual settlers, has given away the people's heritage till now a few railroads and non-resident aliens, individual and corporate, possess a larger area than that of all our farms between the two seas. The last Democratic administration reversed the improvident and unwise policy of the Republican party touching the public domain, and reclaimed from corporations and syndicates, alien and domestic, and restored to the people nearly one hundred million acres of valuable land, to be sacredly held as homesteads for our citizens, and we pledge ourselves to continue this policy until every acre of land so unlawfully held shall be reclaimed and restored to the people.

Seventh. We denounce the Republican legislation known as the Sherman act of 1890 as a cowardly makeshift, fraught with possibilities of danger in the future, which should make all of its supporters, as well as its author, anxious for its speedy repeal. We hold to the use of both gold and silver as the standard money of the country, without discriminating against either metal or charge for mintage, but the dollar unit of coinage of both metals must be of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value, or be adjusted through international agreement, or by such safeguards of legislation as shall insure the maintenance of the parity of the two metals and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the markets and in the payment of debts; and we demand that all paper currency shall be kept at par with and redeemable in such coin. We insist upon this policy as especially necessary for the protection of the farmers and laboring classes, the first and most defenseless victims of unstable money and a fluctuating currency.

Eighth. We recommend that the prohibitory ten per cent tax on State bank issues be repealed.

Ninth. Public office is a public trust. We reaffirm the declaration of the Democratic national convention of 1876 for the reform of the civil service, and we call for the honest enforcement of all laws regulating the same. The nomination of a president, as in the recent Republican convention by delegations composed largely of his appointees, holding office at his pleasure, is a scandalous satire upon free popular institutions and a startling illustration of the methods by which a president may gratify his ambition. We denounce a policy under which Federal office-holders usurp control of party conventions in the States, and we pledge the Democratic party to the reform of these and all other abuses which threaten individual liberty and local self-government.

Tenth. The Democratic party is the only party that has ever given the country a foreign policy consistent and vigorous, compelling respect abroad and inspiring confidence at home. While avoiding entangling alliances, it has aimed to cultivate friendly relations with other nations and especially with our neighbors on the American continent, whose destiny is closely linked with our own, and we view with alarm the tendency to a policy of irritation and bluster, which is liable at any time, to confront us with the alternative of humiliation or war. We favor the maintenance of a navy strong enough for all purposes of national defense and to properly maintain the honor and dignity of the country abroad.

Eleventh. This country has always been the refuge of the oppressed from every land — exiles for conscience sake — and in the spirit of the founders of our government, we condemn the oppression practiced by the Russian government upon its Lutheran and Jewish subjects, and we call upon our national government in the interest of justice and humanity, by all just and proper means, to use its prompt and best efforts to bring about a cessation of these cruel persecutions in the dominions of the czar, and to secure to the oppressed equal rights. We tender our profound and earnest sympathy to those lovers of freedom who are struggling for home rule and the great cause of local self-government in Ireland.

Twelfth. We heartily approve all legitimate efforts to prevent the United States from being used as the dumping ground for the known criminals and professional paupers of Europe, and we demand the rigid enforcement of the laws against Chinese immigration, or the importation of foreign workmen under contract to degrade American labor and lessen its wages; but we condemn and denounce any and all attempts to restrict the immigration of the industrious and worthy of foreign lands.

Thirteenth. This convention hereby renews the expression of appreciation of the patriotism of the soldiers and sailors of the union in the war for its preservation, and we favor just and liberal pensions for all disabled union soldiers, their widows and dependents; but we demand that the work of the pension office shall be done industriously, impartially and honestly. We denounce the present administration of that office as incompetent, corrupt, disgraceful and dishonest.

Fourteenth. The Federal government should care for and improve the Mississippi river and other great waterways of the republic so as to secure for the interior States easy and cheap transportation to the tide water.

When any waterway of the republic is of sufficient importance to demand the aid of the government, that such aid should be extended on a definite plan of continuous work until permanent improvement is secured.

Fifteenth. For purposes of national defense and the promotion of commerce between the States, we recognize the early construction of the Nicaragua canal and its protection against foreign control as of great importance to the United States.

Sixteenth. Recognizing the World's Columbian exposition as a national undertaking of vast importance, in which the general government has invited the co-operation of all the powers of the world, and appreciating the acceptance by many of such powers of the invitation extended and the broadest liberal efforts being made by them to contribute to the grandeur of the undertaking, we are of the opinion that congress should make such necessary financial provision as shall be requisite to the maintenance of the national honor and public faith.

Seventeenth. Popular education being the only safe basis of popular suffrage, we recommend to the several States most liberal appropriations for the public schools. Free common schools are the nursery of good government, and they have always received the fostering care of the Democratic party which favors every means of increasing intelligence. Freedom of education being an essential of civil and religious liberty, as well as a necessity for the development of intelligence, must not be interfered with under any pretext whatever. We are opposed to State interference with parental rights and right of conscience in the education of the children, as an infringement of the fundamental Democratic doctrine that the largest individual liberty, consistent with the rights of others, insures the highest type of American citizen and the best government.

Eighteenth. We approve the action of the present house of representatives in passing bills for the admission into the United States of the territories of New Mexico and Arizona, and we favor the early admission of all the territories having necessary population and resources to admit them to Statehood, and while they remain territories we hold that officials appointed to administer the government of any territory, together with the District of Columbia and Alaska, should be bona fide residents of the territory or district in which their duties are to be performed. The Democratic party believes in home rule and the control of their own affairs by the people of the vicinage.

Nineteenth. We favor legislation by congress and State legislatures to protect the lives and limbs of railway employes and those of other hazardous companies, and denounce the inactivity of the Republican party, and particularly the Republican senate, for causing the defeat of measures beneficial and protective to this class of wageworkers.

Twentieth. We are in favor of the enactment, by the States, of laws for abolishing the notorious sweating system, for abolishing contract convict labor and for prohibiting the employment in factories of children under fifteen years of age.

Twenty-first. We are opposed to all sumptuary laws as an interference with the individual rights of the citizen.

Twenty-second. Upon this statement of principles and policies, the Democratic party asks the intelligent judgment of the American people. It asks a change of administration and a change of party, in order that there may be a change of system and a change of methods, thus securing the maintenance unimpaired of institutions under which the republic has grown great and powerful.

Republican.

The National Republican Convention met at Minneapolis Tuesday June 7, 1892. J. Sloat Fassett of New York, was temporary chairman, and William McKinley, of Ohio, was permanent chairman.

Benjamin Harrison was nominated for President on the first ballot. The following was the result of the ballot: Harrison 535 $\frac{1}{2}$; Blaine 1821-6; McKinley 182; Reed 4; Lincoln 1.

First. We reaffirm the American doctrine of protection. We call attention to its growth abroad. We maintain that the prosperous condition of our country is largely due to the wise revenue legislation of the Republican Congress. We believe that all articles which cannot be produced in the United States, except luxuries, should be admitted free of duty, and that on all imports coming in competition with the products of American labor there should be levied duties equal to the difference between wages abroad and at home. We assert that the prices of manufactured articles of general consumption have been reduced under the operations of the Tariff Act of 1890. We denounce the efforts of the Democratic majority of the House of Representatives to destroy our tariff laws piecemeal, as is manifested by their attacks upon wool, lead and lead ores, the chief products of a number of States, and we ask the people for their judgment thereon.

Second. We point to the success of the Republican policy of reciprocity, under which our export trade has vastly increased and new and enlarged markets have been opened for the products of our farms and work-shops. We remind the people of the bitter opposition of the Democratic party to this practical business measure, and claim that, executed by a Republican administration, our present laws will eventually give us control of the trade of the world.

Third. The American people from tradition and interest, favor bimetalism and the Republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions, to be determined by legislation, as will secure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals, so that the purchasing and debt-paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equal. The interests of the producers of the country, its farmers and its workmen, demand that every dollar, paper or coin, issued by the government, shall be as good as any other. We commend the wise and patriotic steps already taken by our government to secure an international conference to adopt such measures as will insure a parity of value between gold and silver for use as money throughout the world.

Fourth. We demand that every citizen of the United States shall be allowed to cast one free and unrestricted ballot in all public elections, and that such ballot shall be counted and returned as cast; that such laws shall be enacted and enforced as will secure to every citizen, be he rich or poor, native or foreign born, white or black, this sovereign right guaranteed by the Constitution. The free and honest popular ballot, the just and equal representation of all the people, as well as their just and equal protection under the laws, are the foundation of our Republican institutions, and the party will never relax its efforts until the integrity of the ballot and the purity of elections shall be fully guaranteed and protected in every State. We denounce the continued inhuman outrages perpetrated upon American citizens for political reasons in certain Southern States of the Union.

Fifth. We favor the extension of our foreign commerce, the restoration of our mercantile marine by home-built ships, and the creation of a navy for the protection of our national interests and the honor of our flag; the maintenance of the most friendly relations with all foreign powers, entangling alliances with none, and the protection of the rights of our fishermen.

Sixth. We reaffirm our approval of the Monroe doctrine, and believe in the achievement of the manifest destiny of the republic in its broadest sense.

Seventh. We favor the enactment of more stringent laws and relations for the restriction of criminal, pauper and contract immigration.

Eighth. We favor efficient legislation by congress to protect the life and limbs of employes of transportation companies engaged in carrying on interstate commerce, and recommend legislation by the respective States that will protect employes engaged in State commerce, in mining and manufacturing.

Ninth. The Republican party has always been the champion of the oppressed, and recognizes the dignity of manhood, irrespective of faith, color or nationality; it sympathizes with the cause of home rule in Ireland, and protests against the persecution of the Jews in Russia.

Tenth. The ultimate reliance of free popular government is the intelligence of the people, and the maintenance of freedom among men. We, therefore, declare anew our devotion to liberty of thought and conscience, of speech and press, and approve all agencies and instrumentalities which contribute to the education of the children of the land; but while insisting upon the fullest measure of religious liberty, we are opposed to any union of church and State.

Eleventh. We reaffirm our opposition, declared in the Republican platform of 1888, to all combinations of capital, organized in trusts or otherwise, to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens. We heartily indorse the action already taken upon this subject, and ask for such further legislation as may be required to remedy any defects in existing laws, and to render their enforcement more complete and effective.

Twelfth. We approve the policy of extending to towns, villages and rural communities the advantages of the free-delivery service, now enjoyed by the larger cities of the country, and reaffirm the declaration contained in the Republican platform of 1888, pledging the reduction of letter postage to one cent at the earliest possible moment consistent with the maintenance of the post-office department and the highest class of postal service.

Thirteenth. We commend the spirit and evidence of reform in the civil service and the wise and consistent enforcement by the Republican party of the laws regulating the same.

Fourteenth. The construction of the Nicaragua canal is of the highest importance to the American people, but as a measure of national defense and to build up and maintain American commerce it should be controlled by the United States government.

Fifteenth. We favor the admission of the remaining Territories at the earliest practical date, having due regard to the interests of the people of the Territories and of the United States. All the Federal officers appointed for the Territories should be selected from bona fide residents thereof, and the right of self-government should be accorded as far as practicable.

Sixteenth. We favor cessation, subject to the homestead laws of the arid public lands to the States and Territories in which they lie, under such congressional restrictions as to disposition, reclamation and occupancy by settlers as will secure the maximum benefits to the people.

Seventeenth. The World's Columbian Exposition is a great national undertaking, and congress should promptly enact such reasonable legislation in aid thereof as will insure a discharging of the expense and obligations incident thereto and the attainment of results commensurate with the dignity and progress of the nation.

Eighteenth. In temperance we sympathize with all wise and legitimate efforts to lessen and prevent the evils of intemperance and promote morality.

Nineteenth. Ever mindful of the services and sacrifices of the men who saved the life of the nation, we pledge anew to the veteran soldiers of the republic a watchful care and recognition of their just claims upon a grateful people.

Twentieth. We commend the able, patriotic and thoroughly American administration of President Harrison. Under it the country has enjoyed remarkable prosperity and the dignity and honor of the nation at home and abroad have been faithfully maintained; and we offer the record of pledges kept as a guarantee of faithful performance in the future.

NEW YORK STATE CONVENTIONS AND PLATFORMS.

Democratic.

The Democratic State Convention met in Saratoga on Wednesday, September 15, 1891, the Hon. George Raines, of Rochester, acting as temporary and permanent chairman. The following ticket was nominated:

Governor—ROSWELL P. FLOWER, of Jefferson.
Lieutenant-Governor—WILLIAM F. SHERMAN, of Erie.

Comptroller—FRANK CAMPBELL, of Steuben.

State Engineer and Surveyor—MARTIN SOHRENK, of Rensselaer.

The following platform was unanimously adopted:

First. The Democratic party of the State of New York, in Convention assembled, renews the pledges of its fidelity to Democratic faith, and, as regards national issues, reaffirms the doctrine of the national platform of 1884 and 1888, indorsed by the popular votes in those years and so overwhelmingly ratified by the popular verdict in the congressional election of 1890. We now, as then, steadfastly adhere to principles of sound finance. We are against the coinage of a silver dollar which is not of the intrinsic value of any other dollar of the United States. We, therefore, denounce the new Sherman silver law under which one-tenth of our gold stock has been exported and all our silver output is dammed up at home, as a false pretense, but artful hindrance of return to free bi-metallic coinage and as tending only to produce a change from one kind of monometallism to another. We, therefore, unite with the friends of honest money everywhere in stigmatizing the Sherman progressive silver basis law as no solution of the gold and silver question and as a fit appendix to the subsidy and bounty swindle, the McKinley worse-than-war tariff, the Blaine reciprocity humbug, the squandered surplus, the advancing deficit, the defective census, the falsified representation, and the revolutionary procedures of the billion congress, all justly condemned by the people's great uprising last November—a verdict which renewed next year, will empower Democratic statesmen to guide the people's councils and to execute the people's will.

Second. We congratulate the people of the State upon the beneficent results which followed the election of a Democratic assembly last autumn. That victory secured the election of a Democrat to the United States Senate—a representative in full sympathy with the popular majority on great questions of federal policy. It gave the State the lowest tax rate in thirty-six years, and for the first time in a generation freedom from taxation for the general purposes of government. It gave New York city the means of securing rapid transit—a boon which Republican legislatures had for years denied. It gave the people the shortest legislative session in seventeen years—a tribute to the faithful industry of the Democratic assembly by whom this result was achieved in the interest of economy and good legislation. Our pledges to the people contained in the Democratic platforms of 1887, 1888 and 1889, were promptly redemmed by the Democratic assembly in the passage of the following measures:

1. A bill to enumerate the inhabitants of the State preparatory to a reapportionment of the senate and assembly districts.

2. A bill to reapportion the congress districts, in pursuance of the federal statute and upon the basis of the recent federal census.

3. A bill to provide for a constitutional convention in accordance with the wish of the people as declared by a large majority at the polls in 1893.

4. A bill to revise and consolidate the excise laws—a measure intelligently and equitably framed, carefully regulating the sale of intoxicating liquors, prescribing just fees for licenses and preserving all needed restrictions for the maintenance of order and the good of society.

5. Several bills to ameliorate the condition of agriculture and labor and to lessen the burden of direct taxation.

All these measures passed by the Democratic assembly in obedience to the demand of the popular majority, were defeated in the Republican senate by the representatives of the minority of the people.

Thus has the Republican party continued to betray the people's interests. It defies the Constitution and denies fair representation in the legislature to 1,300,000 new inhabitants of the State by refusing to pass an enumeration bill—the preliminary step to the abolition of the present antiquated apportionment of senate and assembly districts, which is based on the census of sixteen years ago. It not only conspired with the federal census bureau to deprive the State of an additional representative in Congress and in the electoral college by a fraudulent count of the inhabitants in New York city, but it refuses to comply with the command of its own Federal Congress to rearrange the thirty-four congressional districts of the State so that each shall contain "as nearly as practicable an equal number of inhabitants." It ignores the emphatic declaration of the people who, by a plurality of 328,000 votes, recorded themselves in favor of a Constitutional Convention. It insists upon the passage of sumptuary laws which needlessly interfere with the personal liberty of law-abiding citizens. It demonstrates the hypocrisy of its professions by twice recording itself in the legislature in favor of a prohibition amendment and then refusing to make provision for its submission to the people except at a special election not desired by prohibitionists and an unnecessary expense of over $200,000 to the taxpayers. It refuses to ameliorate the condition of wage earners by enacting just and conservative laws in their interest. It shows its subservency to the moneyed interests by ignoring the demand of the agricultural and working classes for reforms in methods of taxation. It covertly lends its influence to the restriction of manhood suffrage. It indicates its hostility to manhood suffrage. It indicates its hostility to home rule by its efforts at meddlesome legislative interference with the affairs of large cities. It encourages expensive legislative investigating committees whose investigations degenerate into strikes for political patronage upon the official authorities of Democratic municipalities. It inflicted a hostile blow upon the best welfare and prosperity of the State by depriving New York of the World's Fair, because the Republican leader could not control its board of directors. By that act New York was deprived of the benefit of the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars within her borders. By that act the interests of every wage-earner, every merchant, every farmer, every manufacturer, every householder, every artisan, every railroad and transportation company, were cruelly sacrificed. The people will not forget that the most conspicuous agent in this partisan crime is now the candidate of his party for Governor. Against that record of misrepresentation and betrayal the Democratic party most earnestly protests.

We reaffirm the principles and pledges contained in our State platforms of '89 and preceding years. We oppose needless special legislation. We favor home rule for counties and municipalities. We believe in low taxes and in economical administration.

We demand a revision of the various confused statutes regulating the sale of intoxicating liquors and the enactment of a just, equitable and comprehensive excise law, framed in accordance with existing public sentiment, as repeatedly manifested. We believe that all excise revenues, whether called license fees or taxes, should belong to the treasuries of the localities under whose authority licenses are issued, to be applied in reducing the burden of local taxation. We are opposed to all sumptuary legislation that needlessly interferes with the personal liberty or reasonable customs of the people. We favor the largest liberty for the individual citizen consistent with the public welfare.

We demand an extension of electoral reform with a view to preventing the profuse expenditure of money by candidates and political committees, but we resolutely oppose any effort to hamper or restrict the constitutional privilege of manhood suffrage, and we congratulate the people of the State that by the persistent efforts of a Democratic Governor, sustained by the Democrats in the legislature in defense of this principle, there has been at last wrested from the Republican legislature by force of public sentiment, a genuine electoral reform law which guarantees an absolutely secret ballot; which prevents intimidation and corruption; which reserves for workmen the right to two hours on election day in which to vote without loss of pay for time consumed; which largely diminishes the opportunities of candidates to expend money illegitimately; which prescribes a careful system of registration of electors; which imposes heavy penalties for corrupt practices in elections; and which preserves inviolable to every citizen, however humble or unlettered he may be, the right to cast his ballot for whomsoever he may choose for any office within the gift of the people.

We favor a revision of the tax laws whereby personal and corporate property shall be made to bear its full and just burdens.

We favor the continuance of the policy which seeks to improve the canal system of the State and maintain its efficiency.

The interests of labor should be fostered by proper and necessary legislation. Honest working men and working women should be protected from competition with convict labor. The Republican party, having had control of the legislature almost continuously for many years, has withheld the necessary legislation required to adequately accomplish such purposes; and in this connection we denounce the failure of the Republican senate last winter to enact the so-called Riley bill desired by the workmen of the State, which had passed the Democratic assembly and had for its object the further restriction of convict labor competition.

We favor legislative provision for a proper exhibit from this State at the World's Columbian exposition to be held in Chicago in 1893, and we especially commend the measure to secure that object which was passed by the Democratic assembly last spring, but which a Republican senate with surprising reluctance, after its successful efforts to locate the fair in Chicago, refused to enact.

This country has always been the refuge of the oppressed from every land—exiles for conscience sake—and in the spirit of the founders of our government we condemn the oppression and expatriation practiced by the Russian government upon its Jewish citizens, and we call upon our national government, in the interests of justice and humanity, by all just and proper means, to use its prompt and best efforts to bring about a cessation of these cruel persecutions in the dominions of the Czar, and to secure to the oppressed equal rights.

We heartily indorse the able and statesmanlike administration of Governor D. B. Hill during his seven years as chief executive of the State. He has resolutely maintained the principles of the Democratic party, and has faithfully contended for the interests of the people. He has ably resisted the aggressions of successive Republican legislatures whose object has been only partisan advantage, and he has been a firm and unrelenting foe to vicious and corrupt legislation. In his administration of State affairs he has received the intelligent and conscientious co-operation of his Democratic associates in the State departments; their joint efforts have put the State practically out of debt and left an enormous surplus in the treasury. Efficiency and economy have marked their official records. We respectfully submit that this faithful discharge of responsibility justifies a continuance of the trust imposed in the Democratic party, of which they have been true representatives.

THE ARGUS CO.

Republican.

The Republican State Convention was held at Rochester, N. Y., September 10, 1891. Mr. W. W. Goodrich, of Kings, was elected temporary chairman, and Col. James M. Varnum, of New York, was permanent chairman. The following ticket was nominated:

Governor—J. SLOAT FASSETT, of Chemung.
Lieutenant-Governor—JOHN W. VROOMAN, of Herkimer.

Comptroller—ARTHUR C. WADE, of Chautauqua.

State Engineer and Surveyor—VERPLANCK COLVIN, of Albany.

The following platform was unanimously adopted:

The Republicans of the State of New York, by their chosen representatives, appeal to the electors, and declare:

First. They adhere to the principles on which the national victory was won in 1868, by the decisive electoral votes of this State, and they approve the legislation of the Fifty-first congress in the embodiment of those principles.

Second. They commend the wisdom, patriotism and purity of the administration of President Harrison, who has brought himself near to the hearts of the people by his ability and fidelity in the enforcement of the laws and the performance of his duties, and also by the admirable presentation of American principles which he has made in his addresses to the people.

Third. The administration commands the confidence and respect of the American people by its intelligent, efficient and sagacious conduct of the public business in all the departments; especially by the ability and energy displayed by a distinguished citizen of this State in building up a navy to become adequate to the national defense; by the thorough and successful management of the vast transactions of the treasury under the present secretary and his lamented predecessor; and by the brilliant and conservative treatment of our foreign relations by the Secretary of State, which has raised the American name to the highest position ever attained among the nations of the globe.

Fourth. The revenue legislation of the Fifty-first congress, both in the tariff and the administrative act, is a just and proper application of the policy of protection to American labor and the control of home markets for the industry of our own people; and the fruits of this legislation are increasing daily in the establishment of new factories, in steadier employment to wage-earners, in better prices to the farmer for the products of the soil, and in the assurance of financial independence for our country in the face of monetary distress throughout Europe and South America.

Fifth. By well-adjusted treaties of reciprocity, the administration is opening the markets of the western world to our surplus farm products and manufactures, by admitting free of duty such articles as we do not or cannot produce in adequate quantity, and securing in exchange the exemption from duty of such articles as it is profitable for our farms and factories to export. The joint operation of such reciprocity and of the protective system, with the restoration of the American flag to the ocean carrying trade promises to develop our foreign commerce on a healthy basis, advantageous to all our industries.

Sixth. The act of July 14, 1890, provides for the purchase of the silver product of American mines and issuing of the new treasury note protected by a reserve of one hundred cents worth of silver for every dollar issued.

We commend this policy of maintaining gold and silver at a parity the treasury notes paid for silver to be kept at par with gold. The voice of New York is emphatic against any degradation of the currency, and demands, with President Harrison, that "every dollar issued by the government, whether paper or coin, shall be as good as every other dollar."

Seventh. The Republican party, not forgetting the critical days when the needs of the republic counted neither blood nor treasure, while mindful of the dictates of economy and avoiding reaction invited by excess of appropriations, favors the fulfillment of the pledges given to the soldiers of the Union that the nation which they saved would not fail in just treatment of surviving veterans and of the widows and orphans of those who sacrificed their lives that the nation might live.

Eighth. That we approve the speedy construction of the Nicaragua canal under American charter, by American enterprise, and with American capital as essential to national defense and the interests of inter-state commerce, and the trade of the continent.

Ninth. We recognize the dignity of labor and the necessity of proper legislation to protect interest. We deprecate any attempt to lessen the fruits of toil, or to place honest workmen in competition with paupers and convicts, domestic or foreign. The rigid enforcement of the alien labor contract law is commended. We endorse the laws enacted by the late Republican congress to protect our people against the influx of the vicious, pauper and criminal classes of foreign nations; and we emphatically approve the rigid enforcement of these laws. We endorse the provisions of the act known as the Fassett law and we condemn the evasion of the provisions of that act by the present State administration.

Tenth. We re-assert the expressed determination of the Republican party to maintain the right of franchise to its fullest extent, and to give to all citizens the amplest protection to which they are entitled under the Constitution.

Eleventh. We favor such legislation as will prevent all illegal combinations and unjust exactions by aggregated capital and corporate powers. We insist upon the suppression of all trusts, combinations and schemes designed artificially to increase the price of the necessities of life.

Twelfth. The cruelties and persecutions practiced upon the Jews in Russia are abhorrent to the sense of justice of this people; and the intervention of our government by all proper means to secure to the oppressed of all foreign nations equal rights under their laws is commended.

Thirteenth. We reaffirm the Republican party's favor to thorough, genuine reform in the civil service, and commend the national administration for giving effect thereto under existing law. And the flagrant and persistent abuses in the State Civil service by the Democratic administration are held up to condemnation.

Fourteenth. Appeal is taken to the people of the State to redeem its government from discredit brought upon it by Democratic maladministration, the result of a personal despotism in the executive office, which has tolerated and fostered corruption and debauchery of the State, prostituted the canals, State prisons and public institutions and all avenues of legislation to the ambition of an audacious and selfish executive. Thanks are given faithful Republican legislators who have combated these conditions, and, so far as was in their power, rendered them inoperative.

Fifteenth. We favor comprehensive and efficient excise legislation for giving local option by counties, towns and cities, and restriction by taxation in such localities as do not by option exclude the liquor traffic.

Sixteenth. That there is this year no State tax for "general purposes," and a consequent reduction of the tax levy, which fixes the lowest rate of State tax in thirty-six years, is the result of wise and far-seeing Republican legislation, under which already direct taxation has been lessened more than $20,000,000, directly benefiting real estate and personal property, and at the same time establishing the State and municipal credit at the highest level. This work of equalizing and relieving the burden of taxation should be continued to completion on the same lines.

Seventeenth. The refusal of the Democratic assembly to allow investigation of the State canals and the large expenditures annually made thereon, was confession of the jobbery and dishonesty in the Democratic perversion of the public property to base partisan uses. The effort of the Republican members of the late legislature to enforce economy on the public works, thwarted by Democratic opposition, is heartily commended.

Eighteenth. The denial by a Democratic speaker of the legislature of the right of petition, in the instance of the memorial of clergymen of all denominations and many other citizens, was a flagrant and inexcusable violation of the rights of the people and has our reprobation.

Nineteenth. We favor the amendment of the ballot law by the substitution, for the unofficial "paster" ballot of the "blanket" official ballot, upon which the names of candidates shall be compactly grouped, rendering the voter's duty easy, treating candidates with equal justice, lessening opportunities for fraud, bribery and corruption, and largely reducing the expenses of elections.

Twentieth. We approve the principle that the government of cities is primarily a matter of business administration, and the enactment of laws to secure for all the cities of the State genuine home rule, the enactment of a law to require a general and uniform system of municipal accounting, and the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution requiring the passage of a general bill for the government of cities.

Twenty-first. The passage of a direct tax refunding bill by a Republican congress, and its approval by the Republican president, returned to this State $2,213,000, which would have been distributed to the several counties as their just due, but for Democratic opposition in the legislature.

Twenty-second. We denounce the unpatriotic effort of Governor Hill, through the last Democratic assembly, to place this State in an unfriendly attitude towards the World's Columbian exposition to be held in Chicago in 1893; that we recognize the necessity for an exhibition by the State in keeping with its commercial and industrial supremacy in the nation; and that we favor early action by the next legislature providing for a proper exhibit from this State.

Twenty-third. It is a fundamental principle of Republican policy, to reduce taxation and to retrench the expenditures of public money whenever it can be done; therefore, in the promotion of that policy, the next legisla ure is requested to adopt an amendment to section thirteen of article six of the Constitution of this State, expunging therefrom the provision made for the payment of the salary of any judicial officer after the expiration of his term of office.

Prohibition.

The Prohibition State Convention was held in Bleecker Hall, Albany, N. Y., on September 3 and 4. Mr. H. Clay Bascom, of Rensselaer, was elected temporary and permanent chairman, and the following ticket was nominated:

Governor—JOSEPH W. BRUCE, of Madison.
Lieutenant-Governor—GEORGE W. HALLOCK, of Suffolk.
Secretary of State—WILLIAM E. BOOTH, of Livingston.
Comptroller—WILLIAM W. SMITH, of Dutchess.
Treasurer—FRANÇOIS CRAWFORD, of Westchester.
State Engineer—HENRY P. FORBES, of St. Lawrence.

The following platform was unanimously adopted:

The Prohibition party of the State of New York, in convention assembled, acknowledging allegiance to Almighty God as governor of the nation, and reaffirming the principles contained in the platform of the party as adopted in their national convention in 1893, hereby declare:

First. That the record of the licensed liquor traffic in this State and nation demands the continued existence of a party pledged to its entire suppression.

Second. That the license of the traffic in alcoholic beverages, whether high or low is erroneous in theory and has proved ineffectual in practice to check or destroy intemperance, or to lessen the evils resulting therefrom, and we demand a repeal of all laws legalizing the traffic and the substitution in their place of total prohibition.

Third. That the failure of the legislature to comply with the requirements of the Constitution to provide for submission to the voters of the State of the prohibitory amendment, has again demonstrated that both Democratic and Republican legislators are subject to the control and domination of the liquor interests, and that they and the parties they represent are unworthy of support.

Fourth. That we denounce as a prostitution of the powers of government the action of the national administration in attempting, through the department of State, to foster American breweries by special appropriations of the people's money, for the purpose of extending the business of drunkard-making into our sister republic of South America, and we view with unutterable shame the failure of the United States senate to ratify the Brussels treaty providing for a mitigation of the ravages of the liquor traffic in Africa.

Fifth. That the interests of the nation demand that so long as the tariff shall exist the adjustment of its details shall be removed from the arena of partisan politics and placed in the hands of a non-partisan commission; such a commission would so adjust details of the schedule that the sum total of import duties shall not exceed the revenue requirements of the government, and the duties levied on imported articles of manufacture competing with those of home manufacture shall be no higher than are necessary to restore to the home manufacturer whatever quality or condition he may have lost by reason of the payment of a higher scale of wages in their production.

Sixth. That the right of suffrage rests on no mere circumstance of race, color or sex, and we favor the submission to the people of the State of a constitutional amendment striking out the word "male" in the section describing the qualification of voters.

Seventh. That the issuing of a national currency belongs to the sovereign power alone, and should not be delegated to private individuals or corporations. We favor the issue of legal tender treasury notes, redeemable in gold and silver, and the maintenance of a metal reserve sufficient for that purpose.

Eighth. That the civil service law should be strictly and honestly enforced to the end that fitness, and not party services, should control in all appointments to office.

Ninth. That the suppression of the liquor traffic is the dominant political issue in nation and State, and we appeal to all voters to join us in an heroic endeavor to dethrone the political rum power now dragging at its chariot wheels the two great prostituted parties of our land and to destroy forever its influence in the nation.

Socialist Labor.

The Socialist Labor party nominated the following ticket:

Governor—DANIEL DE LEON, of New York.
Lieut.-Governor—FRANK GESSER, of Oneida.
Secretary of State—FREDERICK BENNETTE, of Westchester

Treasurer—JAMES WITHERS, of Kings
State Engineer and Surveyor—CHARLES WILSON, of New York.

Kentucky.

At the State election in August, 1891, four tickets were voted for. The vote for Governor was: John Young Brown (Dem.), 144,168; A. T. Wood (Rep.), 116,037; S. B. Erwin (People's), 25,631; Josiah Harris (Pro.), 8,293. A new Constitution was adopted, which furnishes a secret ballot for the State, the "Australian" system of voting in cities; prohibiting counties, cities or towns taking stock in, or making donations of money to railroads; prohibiting State officers—executive, judicial or legislative, accepting railroad passes; and changing time of holding all elections to November.

STATE GOVERNMENT.—Governor, John Young Brown; Lieutenant-Governor, Mitchell C. Alford; Secretary of State, John W. Headley; Attorney-General, W. J. Hendrick; Auditor, L. C. Norman; Treasurer, H. S. Hale; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Ed. Porter Thompson; Register Land Office, Green B. Swango—all Democrats.

LEGISLATURE.—Senate—Democrats, 29; Republicans, 9; People's, 1. House—Democrats, 70; Republicans, 16; People's, 7; Ind. Democrats, 4; Alliance, 3.

Kentucky.

At the State election in August, 1891, four tickets were voted for. The vote for Governor was: John Young Brown (Dem.), 144,168; A. T. Wood (Rep.), 116,087; S. B. Erwin (People's), 25,631; Josiah Harris (Pro.), 3,298. A new Constitution was adopted, which furnishes a secret ballot for the State, the "Australian" system of voting in cities; prohibiting counties, cities or towns taking stock in, or making donations of money to railroads; prohibiting State officers—executive, judicial or legislative, accepting railroad passes; and changing time of holding all elections to November.

STATE GOVERNMENT.—Governor, John Young Brown; Lieutenant-Governor, Mitchell C. Alford; Secretary of State, John W. Headley; Attorney-General, W. J. Hendrick; Auditor, L. C. Norman; Treasurer, H. S. Hale; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Ed. Porter Thompson; Register and Office, Green B. Swango—all Democrats.

LEGISLATURE.—Senate—Democrats, 28; Republicans, 9; People's, 1. House—Democrats, 70; Republicans, 16; People's, 7; Ind. Democrats, 4; Alliance, 3.

Justices Supreme Court, 1892.

Two Justices of the Supreme Court were elected on November 8, 1892 Peter B. McLennan in the Fifth District, and Francis A. Macomber in the Seventh. There was no opposition to Judge Macomber's election, but in the Fifth District the Democrats and Republicans named opposing candidates. The following is the vote in the BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES.

Roswell P. Flower, Governor.

Roswell Pettibone Flower was born at Theresa, Jefferson county, N. Y., August 7, 1835. He was the sixth child and fourth son in a family of nine children. His father, Nathan M. Flower, was a native of Greene county in this State. His mother was born at Cherry Valley, Otsego county. They came to Jefferson county about seventy years ago. His ancestors on his father's side were among the first settlers in Hartford, Conn., having located there in 1686. Mr. Flower's father was a wool carder and cloth dresser as well as a farmer. He died when Gov. Roswell P. Flower was eight years of age, but his wife, being a woman of good executive ability, continued his business with the aid of her sons. In his eighteenth year he secured a job in a Watertown hardware store and laid the foundation for his future success in business. He had been here no more than a month before he was offered a position as clerk in the village post-office at a salary of $600 a year and board. Six years in the Watertown post-office at $700 a year, gave him the capital to go into business on his own account. He bought a half interest in the jewelry store of W. H. Sigourney and in two years bought out his partner. His aptitude for business enabled him to accumulate something during the ten years following that he was in the jewelry trade and gave him the confidence of Henry Keep, his brother-in-law. In 1859 Mr. Keep was on his deathbed, in New York. Two or three weeks before he died he sent for Mr. Flower and asked him to take charge of his estate. His property ran up into the millions, and it required careful management to keep it together, but it was kept intact, and through Mr. Flower's management increased in value. He has invested largely in undeveloped real estate and railroad properties that have become very valuable.

In politics Mr. Flower has always been a Democrat. He cast his first vote for Buchanan and has always been an active worker for his party. He was chairman of the Jefferson county committee for several years and it was here that the nucleus of the famous Tilden organization was formed. Mr. Flower suggested to Mr. Tilden the adoption of a scheme that he had formulated in his own county. Mr. Tilden saw the good points in it and it was extended to every county in the State. In it the young men in the Democratic party were recognized as an important factor in the conduct of its affairs. In 1881 Mr. Flower was induced to run for Congress in the Eleventh district against William Waldorf Astor, a vacancy having been created by the resignation of Levi P. Morton. His canvass was made on the understanding that he would not pay out a dollar for votes. He won served acceptably, and declined to accept a re-nomination. His name was before the Democratic State convention for Governor in 1893, when Grover Cleveland was nominated. At that time he had 123 votes against 123 for Gen. Slocum and 61 for Mr. Cleveland. The feeling that the nomination should go outside of New York and Brooklyn gave it to Mr. Cleveland. Without his consent, and against his wishes, Mr. Flower was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor in the convention of 1895, but immediately declined. He again accepted a Congressional nomination in 1895, because both factions of his party in the Twelfth district were united on him and determined that he should stand. In Congress Mr. Flower has been a hard worker. No member of the last house was better posted on the banking and currency question, or on matters relating to the interests of the farmer and working men. He was one of the most earnest champions of the World's fair for New York city, also one of those who demanded a re-enumeration of the inhabitants of the city after the results of the late census had been made known, and it was shown to be incorrect. Mr. Flower's record in the Fifth and Fifty-first Congress was one of earnest devotion to the interests of New York State and the Democratic party. As the leader of the Democratic delegation from the Empire State he has been a prominent figure in the consultations of the party leaders at Washington. He was an earnest, intelligent advocate of the Mills bill, and as a minority member of the Ways and Means Committee he sturdily opposed the iniquities of the McKinley tariff. His experience as a banker has been valuable during the discussions of currency questions, and he is repeatedly on record against free coinage and the silver act of July 14, 1890. Mr. Flower was the leader and organizer in Congress of the movement to secure the World's fair for New York. Mr. Flower also made a determined effort to secure to New York State the additional representative in Congress and additional electoral votes to which the State was entitled, even on Porter's fraudulent census. He favored liberal pensions and liberal treatment of employes in the public service. His speeches on the tariff and irrigation bills attracted widespread attention; the great success of the congressional campaigns of 1892 and 1890 was due largely to Mr. Flower's efforts, he being Chairman of the Congressional Committee each time. He was married in 1859 to Mrs. Sarah M. Woodruff, of Watertown. Three children have been born to them, only one of whom survives. He was elected Governor on November 3, 1891, over Jacob Sloat Fassett, Republican, by a plurality of 47,957.

William F. Sheehan, Lieutenant-Governor.

William F. Sheehan was born in Buffalo, of Irish ancestry, November 6, 1859. In his early youth he sold newspapers on the streets and was a ferry boy on the rivers and creeks of his native city. Later in his life he started in to learn the trade of a molder, but gave it up after a few months' experience. His early education was received in the Buffalo public schools and St. Joseph's College. At the age of twenty-one he was admitted to the bar and since that time has been engaged in the practice of the law. In 1893 he formed a partnership with Hon. Charles F. Tabor, the present Attorney-General of the State, and has continued in the firm up to the present time. Mr. Sheehan has always been a Democrat and an active worker in his party. The Democracy of Buffalo, recognizing his ability, elected him to the Assembly in 1884. He has been returned every year since that time, and since 1896 has been the leader of the Democratic side in the lower house. While in the Assembly Mr. Sheehan served on the most important committees and made an excellent record as a leader and a legislator. Six times he has been the Democratic candidate for Speaker and last year he was elected to that position. As a presiding officer, he was noted for his fairness and his thorough knowledge of the rules of the House. While on the floor Mr. Sheehan made for himself a reputation as a ready and forcible debater as well as a sagacious and far-seeing legislator. His service on the most important committees has always been prompt, honest and faithful to his constituency and the people of the State. Last year he was named for Lieutenant-Governor by the Democratic State convention at Saratoga, and was elected by 34,419 plurality over John W. Vrooman, Republican, George W. Hallock, Prohibitionist, and Frank Gesser, Socialist Labor.

Frank Rice, Secretary of State.

Frank Rice, Secretary of State, was born in the town of Seneca, Ontario county, N. Y., January 15, 1845. His paternal and maternal grandfathers emigrated to Seneca, the latter from England and the former from Massachusetts, and were the first settlers in that part of the country. The farms which they purchased are still owned by their descendants, one of them now being in the possession of Mr. Rice's father. During his early years Mr. Rice worked on the farm in the summer and attended school during the winter at the district school. When eleven years of age he entered Dr. Taylor's private school at Geneva, N. Y., where he remained for one year. He then returned to his home, and at the age of fifteen he spent one year in the Geneva Classical and Union school. The next schooling which he received was at the Canandaigua Academy, where he remained for three years under Dr. Noah T. Clarke. In the fall of 1864 he entered Hamilton College, from which he was graduated in 1868 with high honors. In 1869 he began the study of law at Canandaigua in the office of Comstock & Bennett. At that time this was the leading law firm in Ontario county, and under its instruction Mr. Rice acquired a knowledge of law which has since enabled him to rise to a commanding position at the bar of western New York. He entered upon the practice of his profession in 1870, and in 1875 he was nominated by the Democratic party for District Attorney. In a county which is one of the Republican strongholds of the State his chances for election were looked upon by his opponents with no small degree of ridicule. The Republicans placed in nomination a strong candidate and a hotly contested canvass ensued, the result being Mr. Rice's election by a majority of 684. In 1878 Mr. Rice was renominated and again displayed what the Republicans conceded to be wonderful political strength by defeating his opponent by 899 majority. In 1882 he was nominated by his party for the Assembly and was elected by 1,266 majority, reversing a Republican majority of the year previous of 1,228. The Legislature was Democratic that year, and Mr. Rice at once attained a prominent position among the leaders of his party. He was chosen chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, and it will be remembered that the duties of the committee during that session were unusually arduous, there being five closely contested cases before it. Of this number, that of Sprague v. Bliss was the most important, and the impartial manner in which Mr. Rice presided over the deliberations of the committee won for him the hearty indorsement of representatives of both parties. He also served as a member of the Judiciary, Insurance and other committees. His greatest victory, however, was in 1883, when he was renominated for the Assembly and pitted against the Hon. John Raines, the present Representative in Congress from the Twenty-ninth district. Although Mr. Raines was the strongest candidate the Republicans could have nominated at that time, Mr. Rice was re-elected by a majority of 241, while the county went Republican by 692. That year he was nominated in the Democratic caucus for Speaker, but as the Legislature was Republican, he, of course, was not elected, but became the leader of his party on the floor. During the session he served as a member of the Committees on Ways and Means, and Cities and Rules. In the fall of 1884 he was nominated for the office of County Judge of Ontario, and while Mr. Blaine's plurality in Ontario county was 739, Mr. Rice was elected by a majority of 606, and thus honored with his fifth consecutive victory in a Republican county. He was serving his fifth year as County Judge when he was nominated by his party at Syracuse in 1889 for Secretary of State. This victory was more gratifying than any with which he had been honored heretofore, he having carried his own election district, town, county and State, his plurality in the county being 773, and in the State over 20,000 over John I. Gilbert, Republican, Jesse Griffin, Prohibitionist, and Thomas K. Beecher Greenback. Mr. Rice was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in 1880, which nominated General Hancock for the Presidency, and served as Secretary of the New York State delegation. He has also been a delegate to nearly every State convention since that time, and was a member of the Democratic State Committee in 1888. He has always been a Democrat, and since his majority actively connected with the leadership of his party. He has been a candidate for office six times, has never been defeated, and has each time received a majority in his county in spite of its normal Republican majority of about 1,000. The eminent fairness and ability which characterized his work in the office of Secretary of State secured him a renomination last year at Saratoga and he was re-elected by a plurality of 88,173 over Eugene F. O'Connor, Republican, William E. Booth, Prohibitionist, and Frederick Bennett, Socialist Labor.

Frank Campbell, Comptroller.

The Hon. Frank Campbell is the youngest son of the late Lt.-Governor Robert Campbell, and is thirty-three years of age. After completing his education at Trenton, N. J., he traveled in Europe a few months, after which he returned home and in company with his brother, the late Clarence Campbell, formed the banking firm of Campbell Bros., which was later reorganized as the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank, of which he had been the cashier since its organization. This is well known as one of the strong financial institutions of the southern tier, and his experience in its management, with other important positions of trust which Mr. Campbell has held, gives him the practical knowledge needed to assume the most important financial office in the State. In 1887 he was appointed by Governor Hill a trustee of the Soldiers' Home, near Bath, and was chosen its treasurer soon afterwards. He has filled the trust with fidelity and has taken great interest in this institution, one of the noblest in the State. Mr. Campbell has been prominent in the politics of Steuben since he attained his majority, and in 1889 he was elected member of the State Committee for the Twenty-ninth district. He was nominated for Comptroller by the Democratic State Convention at Saratoga in 1891 and was elected by 45,306 plurality over Arthur C. Wade, Republican, William W. Smith, Prohibitionist, and Henry Vitalius, Socialist Labor.

Elliot Danforth, State Treasurer.

Elliot Danforth was born at Middleburgh, Schoharie county, N. Y., on the 6th of March, 1850. He is the youngest son of Judge Peter S. Danforth, of Middleburgh, ex-Senator and ex-Justice of the Supreme Court. In 1861, when the civil war broke out, young Danforth was only eleven years old, an age which prevented him from joining the Union army, but his patriotism only awaited an opportunity to prove his high regard for those who shared the trials of a soldier's life, for when it was proposed to establish a soldiers' and sailors' home in the State of New York, Mr. Danforth's efforts in aid of the project were unceasing until success was attained. From his youth Elliot Danforth manifested a great desire for the acquisition of knowledge, and at the public schools he was noted for his studious habits, and his fine literary tastes were thus early formed. Soon after leaving school he commenced the study of the law in the office of his father, and in January, 1871, he was admitted to the bar. Well grounded in principles of the law as well as in general literature, and possessing an earnest and forcible delivery, his success as a professional man was fully assured. In 1874, he married Miss Ida Prince, an accomplished young lady, the only child of Dr. Gervie Prince, President of the First National Bank of Bainbridge, N. Y. In 1878 Mr. Danforth formed a law partnership with the Hon. George H. Winsor, of Bainbridge, and the firm was not long in achieving a widely extended reputation in the successful performance of their professional duties. Mr. Danforth is a member of the New York Bar Association and has served on many important committees; he was President of the corporation of Bainbridge for three years. Mr. Danforth entered with great enthusiasm into the broad and stirring field of politics. From the first his affiliations were with the Democratic party, and he came before the people as a staunch representative of the young Democracy of the Jack-sonian school. In 1880 Mr. Danforth was a delegate to the National Democratic Convention which met at Cincinnati and nominated General Hancock for the Presidency. He was the youngest member of the Convention. In the fall of 1890 he was unanimously nominated as the Democratic candidate for Congress from his district, but declined the honor. In the same year his name was presented as a candidate for State Treasurer and he received a very flattering support from his friends. In 1894 Mr. Danforth was again a delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago which nominated Grover Cleveland for President; toward whose election he gave ardent support, delivering many stirring addresses in different parts of the State during that memorable and exciting campaign. Soon after the election of the Hon. L. J. Fitzgerald as State Treasurer in 1894, Mr. Danforth was appointed Deputy State Treasurer, the duties of which he discharged with such ability and success that Treasurer Fitzgerald, on his reelection, re-appointed him Deputy for two years from January 1, 1898. Mr. Danforth is one of the directors and also the attorney of the First National Bank of Bainbridge, and a member of the Board of Education in that village. He is a member of several fraternal organizations, such as the Masonic, the Odd Fellows, etc. In these societies he is a popular, industrious and working member. At the Democratic State Convention held at Syracuse in 1898, Mr. Danforth was unanimously nominated for Treasurer of the State, which nomination was ratified by the people at the election in November by their giving him over 16,000 plurality. He was renominated last year by the Democratic State Convention of Saratoga, and was re-elected by 48,281 plurality over Ira M. Hedges, Republican, Francis Crawford, Prohibitionist, and James Withers, Socialist Labor.

Simon W. Rosendale, Attorney-General.

Simon W. Rosendale was born in Albany in June, 1841, and obtained his education at the Albany Academy. At the age of sixteen he entered the law office of Courtney & Cassidy in Albany, and after two years' study went to the academy at Barre, Vt., and remained a student there till 1861. He was admitted to the bar in 1862, and in 1868 was elected Recorder of Albany on the Democratic ticket by one of the largest majorities ever given such an official. And during the four years he held the office, he discharged its duties in such an able, impartial manner as to receive approval from all good citizens.

Mr. Rosendale's legal advice was so eagerly and largely sought after in important cases that he was subsequently appointed by Mayor Nolan legal adviser of the city government. But his own growing law practice induced him, in 1882, to resign the office of Corporation Counsel. A year previous to this he was fortunate in having formed a partnership with the Hon. Rufus W. Peckham, now on the bench of the Court of Appeals, the firm name being that of Peckham, Rosendale & Hensberg. This firm was the immediate successor of that which had consisted of the elder Rufus W. Peckham, Lyman and Grenville Tremain, and soon became one of the strongest in the city, its business being large and lucrative and its success great. The firm was dissolved in 1884, when Mr. Peckham was elected Judge of the Supreme Court. Mr. Rosendale and Mr. Albert Haseberg then continued under the firm name of Rosendale & Haseberg, which firm still continues to be widely and favorably known to the public.

In the spring of 1884 Mr. Rosendale was again appointed (by Mayor Banks) Corporation Counsel of the city of Albany, a position which held until the close of the Mayor's term of office. He is a director of the National Commercial Bank and of the Albany Railway Company; a trustee of the the National Savings Bank, and one of the Governors of the Albany Hospital. He has also been closely identified with Hebrew charitable and fraternal organizations. He was for many years President of the Court of Appeals of the Order of B'nai B'rith; a trustee of the congregation Anshe-Emeth; President of the Jewish Home Society, etc. In politics Mr. Rosendale is an uncompromising Democrat, always loyal to the welfare of his party, and ever earnest in the advocacy of those measures which are calculated to insure its success in great political contests. He is strongly imbued with the progressive ideas of the late leaders of the Democracy, Daniel Manning and Samuel J. Tilden. He is pre-eminently a gentleman of great regard for individual liberty in a proper sense, with broad ideas of men and things, and a very liberal education. Besides his large acquaintance with our own language and literature, he can also read and speak the German language with ease and fluency, and is well acquainted with the rich mines of German literature, science and art. He was nominated by the Democratic State Convention at Saratoga in 1891 for Attorney-General, his nomination being memorable by the important part played by the Albany county delegation and the Albany Phalanx in caring for his candidacy. He was elected by 41,930 plurality over William A. Sutherland, Republican, Calvin S. Crosser, Prohibitionist, and Henry G. Wilshire, Socialist Labor.

Martin Schenck, State Engineer and Surveyor.

Martin Schenck, the newly-elected State Engineer and Surveyor, aptly meets the requirements of the office. Graduating as a civil engineer from Union College in 1869, he at once began work as a engineer upon the Sedalia branch of the M., K. and T. Railroad, of Missouri; was connected also with the Union Pacific Railroad, thence transferred to the Nebraska branch, and as engineer in charge constructed railroad bridges across Smoky Hill river, Otter and Lyons' creeks in Indian territory. Returning east in 1872, was engineer for contractors on the additional tracks of the N. Y. C. and H. R. Railroad, thence appointed engineer on the Callao and Lima Railroad in Peru, S. A. The death of his father prevented his acceptance. From 1874 to 1890 he practiced professionally, devoting his time to hydraulic engineering and water power improvements. From 1881 to 1882 he acted as engineer to contractors on the construction of the West Shore Railroad. In 1883 he entered the canal department, where he has since been continuously employed, many important works being entrusted to his care; during the summer-seasons of 1887-91 was chief engineer of the Hudson river improvement. The major portion of the locks upon the eastern division of the Erie canal were lengthened under Mr. Schenck's supervision. His long connection with the canals insures his unquestioned familiarity with their needs and the best practical methods of accomplishing results.

It was due to the efforts of Martin Schenck that the present river improvements are now being made by the general government. His ably written reports to the State Engineer so well depicted the condition and the needs of the Hudson that the present improvements resulted. Concerning the thoroughness of his work in maintaining navigation, a United States engineer, high in authority, recently remarked: "The work done by the New York State authorities on the Hudson river, during the past ten years, speaks for itself, for, notwithstanding the miserable condition of our dykes, the river was never in better condition than at present." It will at once be seen that watchful and intelligent care will be exercised over the great waterways which regulate traffic, so that they will continue to serve the purpose intended by their advocate and champion, Dewitt Clinton. He was elected State Engineer in 1891 by 41,916 plurality over Verplanck Colvin, Republican, Henry P. Forbes, Prohibitionist, and Charles Wilson, Socialistic Labor.

SENATORS.

John Francis Ahearn.

John Francis Ahearn (Democrat), who represents the Sixth district, was born in New York, of Irish parentage, April 18, 1853, and was educated at the public schools of New York. He has been a clerk in various well-known business houses. He was a member of the Assembly in 1882, serving on the Committee on Railroads, and has since been Clerk of the Police Court. He is married and resides at No. 41 Gouverneur street, New York. Mr. Ahearn is a member of the County Democracy, and was elected as the candidate of that organization by 4,716 plurality over Thomas F. Grady (Tammany), who had carried the district at the special election in 1889 by 4,815 plurality, and T. M. Holden, Prohibitionist, and was re-elected as a Tammany candidate by 11,721 plurality over Gabriel Marks, Republican, George Lidner, Socialist Labor, and T. W. Holden Prohibitionist.

Joseph Aspinall.

Joseph Aspinall (Republican), who represents the Third Senatorial district, was born of English and Scotch parents, at Brooklyn, in 1854, and was educated at the public schools, private schools and Columbia Law School, where he graduated in 1875. He is counsel for the National City Bank of Brooklyn and custodian of many important interests. In 1880 he went to London to represent the Long Island heirs in the estate known as the "Hyde Estate." This matter required his presence in London for four months. Mr. Aspinall is prominent in political and social circles. He was for many years secretary of the Irving Literary Society. He is prominent in Masonic circles, having taken thirty-two degrees, and is connected with all the Scottish rite bodies of Brooklyn, and is a member of Kismet Temple, Mystic Shrine. He was for two years president of the Garfield Club, and is a member of the Aurora Grata Club, the Union League Club, the Lake Mahopac Yacht Club, and The Brooklyn Club, and a member of the Adriance Club, a social organization, and the Adelphi Riding Club. He is unmarried, living in Brooklyn. He has always been a Republican and served in the Assembly of 1888 and 1889, being active in the discussions over the ceiling scandal. He was elected to the Assembly in 1890 by 123 plurality over Francis J. Reinhard, Democrat, and Ash, Prohibitionist. Mr. Aspinall was nominated for the Senate in 1891 and was elected by 2,160 plurality over Charles W. Sutherland, Democrat, Mat Leven, Socialist Labor, and James E. Ranney, Prohibitionist.

Clarence E. Bloodgood.

Clarence Edelbert Bloodgood (Democrat), who represents the Fourteenth Senatorial district, was born in Jewett, Greene county, forty-two years ago. He was prepared for college at Stamford Seminary, Delaware county, and was graduated from Yale in 1875. In that year he was elected School Commissioner for the First district of Greene county and was re-elected in 1878 and 1881, serving nine years. He studied law with James B. Olney and was admitted to the bar January, 1885. Since then he has been engaged in the active practice of the law. He is single and has resided in Catskill for the last twelve years. He was elected by 2,784 plurality over Jacob L. Werner, Republican, and Hiram Brown, Prohibitionist.

William L. Brown.

William L. Brown (Democrat), who represents the Fifth district, was born of Irish parents in Vermont on Christmas Day, 1840. His parents removed to Mahoning county, O., where he passed his boyhood and received his early education. His father died when he was very young, and he assumed the care and support of his widowed mother. He became a school teacher and obtained employment in that capacity in Ohio for several terms, then he went to Copiah county, Miss., and was teaching school there when the war broke out. He disagreed with the southern leaders on the question of the Union and left the south. Although serving in the war in the Eighty-eighth and One Hundredth and Twenty-fifth Regiments of Ohio Volunteers, his rank of colonel came with his appointment as aide-de-camp on the staff of Governor William Allen, the Democratic War Horse of Ohio. After the war Col. Brown, with a party of friends, set out for Montana, across the plains with mule teams. It was the first regular train that made the trip over the Bridger route. The journey was one of great danger and hardship, but they reached Virginia City without an actual Indian fight, although many were expected. Montana then was strongly Democratic, and in the fall campaign Col. Brown made a number of effective political speeches. He was made chief clerk of the Territorial Legislature by unanimous vote of the Democratic members, being the first to hold that office after the organization of that body. He remained in Montana for two years engaged in mining near Virginia City, where he employed a number of men and added considerably to his fortunes. Returning east he took control of the Youngstown (Ohio) Vindicator, which he made a paper of influence among Ohio Democrats and labor organizations. In 1875, he ran for State Senator in "the Western Reserve," and ran 1,400 ahead of his ticket in that hopelessly Republican section. Youngstown, strongly Republican, gave him over 1,000 majority in a vote of less than 3,000. After settling at Youngstown, he actively engaged and participated in political affairs as a speaker and a writer, and speedily arose to prominence in his party. For a number of years he was chairman of the Mahoning Democratic County Committee and represented his district in the National Democratic Conventions of 1872 and 1876. He soon afterwards came to New York, and is now the successful business manager of the New York News, and the associate and partner of the Hon. Benjamin Wood in the publication of that paper. Col. Brown is married. He was elected in 1886 as the Tammany candidate by 2,541 plurality over Michael C. Murphy, County Democrat, endorsed by the Republicans, and F. M. Hammond, Prohibitionist, and was re-elected in 1891 by 8,946 plurality over J. W. Fanning, J. C. Winn, and minor candidates.

Jacob A. Cantor, President Pro Tem.

Jacob A. Cantor (Democrat), who represents the Tenth district, and who is President pro tem. of the Senate, was born in the Seventeenth ward of New York city, December 6, 1854. His parents were natives of London, England. He is a graduate of the public schools, and has been a resident of either Yorkville or Harlem since 1860. In his fourteenth year he entered the law office of William Ware Peck. Early in 1870 Mr. Cantor became associated with the firm of Webster & Craig, the former of whom is a son-in-law of Hon. Hamilton Fish, and the latter ex-Judge-Advocate-General of New York. At the invitation of Manton Marble, in 1872, Mr. Cantor became a reporter on the New York World, remaining on the staff of that paper until 1877. During his connection with the World he entered the University Law School, from which he graduated with distinction in 1875. Two years later he was a partner with William D. Hennen, author of the "Louisiana Digest," and later was associated with Charles E. Coddington, compiler of several legal treatises on Law and Trade. He is now senior member of the law firm of Cantor & Van Schaick. For the past seven years Mr. Cantor has been a delegate from the metropolis to every Democratic State convention. He was one of the Democratic speakers during the Presidential contest of 1880, and the State campaigns that have followed, and was an earnest supporter of the Democratic candidates for President and Vice-President during the campaign of 1884. He was a Delegate-at-Large from New York city to the State convention of 1884. Mr. Cantor was a Member of the Assembly in 1885, 1886 and 1887, and was elected to the Senate of 1888-89, serving on important committees. He also was chosen as the candidate for President pro tem. in the Democratic caucus, an unusual compliment to a Senator on his first term in the Senate. Mr. Cantor is a fluent speaker and a legislator of substantial attainments, his name being prominently associated with the act requiring surface railroads to compensate municipalities for the use of streets. He is a widower, residing at 140 East One Hundred and Fourth street, New York, and is an active member and former trustee of the Press Club. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1899 as the Tammany nominee by 5,636 plurality over Charles A. Peabody, Republican, Alston G. Culver, County Democrat, and E. D. Garnsey Prohibitionist. He was re-elected again in 1891 and is now serving his third consecutive term, having been elected by 5,627 plurality over Leroy B. Crane, Republican, Matthew F. Neville, Prohibitionist and minor candidates.

Henry J. Coggeshall.

Henry J. Coggeshall (Republican), who represents the Twenty-second district, was born in Waterville, April 23, 1845, of New York State parentage. He was educated in the common schools and the seminary of his native village; studied law, and was admitted to practice in 1866. He is a ready and pleasing speaker, and of decided popularity. He has been one of the trustees of Waterville village, president of the fire department, and is now a member of the Board of Education. From 1869 to 1872 he was Assistant District Attorney of Oneida county; Member of the Assembly in 1883, and Clerk of Oneida county from 1880 to 1883. He was elected to the Senate in 1884, and is now serving his fifth consecutive term. During his service he has been a member of the Judiciary and Railroad Committees and other important committees, chairman of the Committee on Miscellaneous Corporations, and has also been prominent in debate. He has always been a Republican. Mr Coggeshall is married and lives at Waterville. He was elected by 1,010 plurality in 1889 over James Flanagan, Democrat, and was re-elected in 1891 by 1,567 plurality over Thomas E. Kenney, Democrat, and Hoxie, Prohibitionist.

John Hamilton Derby.

John Hamilton Derby, who represents the Sixteenth district, was born in Sandy Hill, forty-six years ago, and was educated at the public schools and the Fort Edward Institute. He began business as a shipping clerk for Howland & Co. about twenty-two years ago. A year after he was admitted to a proprietary interest. From the age of sixteen years until he was twenty-six years of age, he was a railroad clerk on the Atlantic and Great Western. Mr. Derby resides at Sandy Hill, and is a member of the firm of Howland & Co., paper manufacturers. He has been identified with the Republican party since he attained his majority. He was three years supervisor of the town of Kingsbury and last year chairman of the board. He has also had twelve years' experience in the school department of the town and is vice-president of the school board at present. He is president of the Sandy Hill Power Company, vice-president of the Electric Light Company, director of the Sandy Hill Water Company, director of the National Bank of Sandy Hill, treasurer of the Royal Arcanum and member of the finance committee of the grand council of that order. He is also treasurer of the Sandy Hill Lodge of Empire Order of Mutual Aid. He is also president of the board of trustees of the Sandy Hill Presbyterian Church. He was elected to the Senate in 1891 by 661 plurality over Michael F. Collins, Democrat, and Nathaniel B. Powers, Prohibitionist.

Harvey J. Donaldson.

Harvey J. Donaldson (Republican), who represents the Eighteenth district, was born in Washington county in 1813, of American parentage. He was educated at the schools of Montgomery and Albany counties, and until 1880 was engaged in business as a contractor. For the following six years he was a paper manufacturer, and he is now retired from active business. He is a director of First National Bank of Ballston Spa and of the Citizens' National Bank of Saratoga Springs. Mr. Donaldson is married and lives at Ballston. He has always been a Republican and served in the Assembly in 1888 and 1889. He was elected to the Senate by 11,188 plurality over Thomas Morphy, Prohibitionist, no Democratic nomination being made. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1891 by 309 plurality over Edward H. Hoyt, Democrat, and John Paterson, Prohibitionist.

James T. Edwards.

Dr. James T. Edwards of Randolph, who was nominated at Jamestown September twenty-eighth, both by a people's convention and the regular Democratic convention for the Thirty-second district, and who now represents that district, is a gentleman of versatile and proved ability. He was born in 1838, in New Jersey; was educated at Pennington Seminary and Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., where he graduated with honor in 1860, receiving in addition to the usual college degrees the honorary D. D. and LL. D. He taught until the war, when he enlisted as a private and served as Second Lieutenant, First Lieutenant and Adjutant, Eleventh R. I. Vols. In 1864 he was elected principal of East Greenwich Seminary, which position he held for six years, during which time he also served three terms as State Senator, winning an influential place in that body. He was presidential elector for Grant, stamped the State in his interest, and was prominently mentioned as a candidate for Congress, but withdrew his name. He was active in the general educational interests of Rhode Island, being prominent in the establishment of its first normal school, and at the time of his leaving was President of the State Teachers' Association. For twenty-one years he has been President of Chamberlain Institute at Randolph, this State; he has been connected with the Chautauque movement from the first, serving as trustee, member of the executive committee, and for the last ten years has been head of the scientific department. He has a wide reputation as a lecturer upon scientific, educational, agricultural, patriotic and ethical subjects, and is greatly interested in agricultural pursuits, and is President of the W. N. Y. Agricultural Association. He is also an author of some note, having contributed some valuable pamphlets to the current literature on physics and chemistry. He was elected to the Senate in 1891 as the candidate of the Independent Republicans and Democrats by 1,029 plurality over Commodore P. Vedder, who had been elected for the preceding term by 5,401 plurality, and Jerome L. Higbee, Farmers' Alliance.

Louis W. Emerson.

Louis W. Emerson (Republican), who represents the Nineteenth district, was born of American parentage, at Warrensburgh, July 25, 1837, and was educated at the Warrensburgh Academy. He is a manufacturer by occupation, and although a strong Republican, he has never held office until elected to the Senate. Mr. Emerson is a bachelor and resides at Warrensburgh. He was elected by 4,609 plurality over Henry D. Graves, Democrat, and was re-elected to the Senate in 1891 by 2,227 plurality over Hiram Walworth, Democrat, and William C. Burdick, Prohibitionist.

Matthias Endres.

Matthias Endres (Democrat), who represents the Thirty-first Senatorial district, was born in Buffalo, of German parents, July 6, 1853; was educated in the public and parochial schools of Buffalo, and from a compositor and gas-fitter became a lawyer. He has always been a Democrat and served his fourth successive term in the Assembly, and has been a member of the Committee on Trade and Manufactures, and especially interested in labor measures. He has always run ahead of his ticket, increasing each year his plurality. He was re-elected in 1890 by 1,346 majority over Louis Friol, Republican. He took a prominent part in legislative affairs in the last Legislature, and after the expiration of his term was nominated for Senator. John Loughlin, who had represented the district for two terms, was elected in 1887 by 4,801, and in 1889 by 2,671 plurality but in the face of Mr. Endres's popularity he was defeated by 779 plurality. There were two other minor candidates also in the field.

George Z. Erwin.

George Z. Erwin (Republican), who represents the Twentieth district, was born at Madrid, St. Lawrence county, not far from the place of his present residence, on the 15th of January, 1840. His preliminary education was obtained in the St. Lawrence Academy, at Potsdam; then he entered the Middlebury, Vt., College, and in 1865, at the age of twenty-five, graduated with honor. After graduation he at once began the study of law, and from 1869 to 1878 was a member of the firm of Tappan & Erwin, which was dissolved by the election of the senior member to the Supreme Court bench. Mr. Erwin has since been a member of the legal firm of Dart & Erwin. In the fall of 1881 he was first nominated for the Assembly, and represented the Third district of St. Lawrence for six consecutive years. During his service in the popular branch of the Legislature he was a member of the Committees on Ways and Means, Railroads, Banks and Privileges and Elections, and the select committee to investigate Receiverships and the Public Works Department of New York. In 1885 he was Speaker of the Assembly, and was again a candidate against James W. Husted in 1896, but withdrew before the caucus was held. He was elected to the Senate in 1887, serving on the Finance, Judiciary and Insurance Committees, and taking a prominent part in debates. He was re-elected in 1889 by 8,481 plurality over Calvin T. Fletcher, Democrat, and Horatio S. Hendee, Prohibitionist, and again re-elected in 1891 without opposition. No candidate being named against him.

Edward Floyd Jones.

Edward Floyd Jones (Democrat), who represents the First Senatorial District, was born at South Oyster Bay, L. I., in 1823, and is sixty-eight years of age. Both of his parents were native Americans. He was educated at the Union Academy, Jamaica, Queens county, and early in life entered commercial pursuits, but is now a farmer residing at Seaford, Queens county. He is a widower. He has always been a Democrat and has served as Supervisor of the town of Oyster Bay. He is at present a trustee in the Atlantic Mutual Insurance Company of New York city. He was elected to the Senate in 1891, to succeed Edward Hawkins by 2,277 plurality over Lucien Knapp, Republican, and minor nominees.

Edward P. Hagan.

Edward P. Hagan (Democrat), who represents the Ninth New York Senatorial district, was born in New York city, February 1, 1846 his parents being natives of Ireland. He was educated in the public schools and at the College of the City of New York. His occupation is that of a clerk, and he was formerly engaged in the real estate business. In politics he is a Tammany Democrat. Mr. Hagan was elected a Member of Assembly in 1879 and 1880. He was returned in 1885-6-7-8, serving on the Committees on Cities, Charitable and Religious Societies and Expenditures of the Executive. He was elected to the Senate in 1891 by 12,797 plurality over Frank Plsek, Republican, and minor nominees.

Thomas Hunter.

Thomas Hunter (Republican), who represents the Twenty-sixth district, was born in Baltimore, Md., of Irish parentage, September 11, 1834, but his parents moved to Cayuga county when he was three years old. His early educational opportunities were limited to six months attendance at the public schools. He worked on a farm until the age of seventeen, when he went to Virginia and worked on the Manassas Gap Railroad. From a day laborer he became a foreman. In 1867 he returned to Sterling, and entered the milling business. Going again to Virginia in 1869, he was there when the war broke out. August 7, 1862, he enlisted as a private in Company F, 110th Regiment, New York Volunteers. On the twenty-fifth of the same month he was made Second Lieutenant, and in the following May was promoted to Captain. He served with the Nineteenth corps under General Banks, participating in several important engagements. In February, 1864, he was detached from his regiment and was ordered into Florida where he mustered in 574 men as the Second Florida cavalry, declining the command of the organization as he preferred to remain with his company. He was stationed in Florida until the rebellion was crushed and was mustered out of service on the 3d of August, 1865. Upon his return north he engaged in the lumber business, and in 1871 began his career as a railway contractor. His first contract was on the Southern Central, and he constructed ninety miles of the present Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railway; he four-tracked the New York Central from Syracuse to Clyde, and afterwards was awarded a contract in the construction of the Welland canal. He also filled large contracts on the West Shore, the Pennsylvania Railway and western roads. During these years he has made his home at Sterling; is married and has been a successful farmer. He served in the Assembly of 1881-82, and is the present Supervisor of his town. He was nominated for the Senate after a prolonged dead-lock; was elected by 2,771 plurality over John D. Teller, Democrat, and Isaac C. Andrews, Prohibitionist, and was re-elected in 1891 by 2,836 plurality over William H. Shaw, Democrat.

John McCarthy.

John McCarthy (Democrat), who represents the Second Senatorial district, was born of Irish-American parents, in Westchester county, and moved to Brooklyn when he was eighteen years of age. His early desires were for mercantile pursuits, but he eventually entered the service of the city of Brooklyn in the municipal Board of Health. Still later he became clerk to Justice Walsh, which position he retained for some years, relinquishing this eventually to become Alderman, serving on important committees while remaining in the board, and becoming also its presiding officer. He has dealt largely in Brooklyn real estate and has many valuable lots. He was nominated in 1891 to succeed John C. Jacobs, and was elected by 16,315 plurality over Archibald C. Weeks, Republican, and minor nominees.

Patrick H. McCarren.

Patrick H. McCarren (Democrat), who represents the Fourth Kings district, was born in Boston, in 1849, of Irish parentage, and educated at public and private schools. He is a cooper by trade, has been oil and cooperage inspector, and is now in the real estate and insurance business. He is unmarried, and lives at 169 Wythe avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y. He was a member of the Assembly from the district in 1882-83, 1889 and was prominent in debates and deliberations of the sessions. In 1885 he was an unsuccessful candidate for the Senate. He was elected to the Senate in 1889 by 417 plurality over Edward H. Schlueter, Republican, and F. McDonough, Prohibitionist, and was re-elected in 1891 by 2,893 plurality over Edward H. Schlueter, Republican, Gustave Shaefer, Socialist Labor, and George C. Weeks, Prohibition.

Charles P. McClelland.

Charles P. McClelland (Democrat), who represents the Twelfth Senatorial district, was born in Scotland December 19, 1834, and came to this country when a child. He was educated at the public schools and in youth worked in a grocery store, until appointed a clerk in New York at the age of twenty. He devoted his evenings to study and in 1880 he graduated with the degree of LL. B. at the New York University Law School. He has always been a Democrat and held several village offices in Dobbs Ferry. He was Deputy Collector of the Port of New York under Collectors Daniel Magone and Joel B. Erhardt, and is Manager of the Hudson River Hospital for the Insane. He served in the Assembly of 1885 and 1886, holding important committee positions and taking a leading part in debates and in party councils. He is a forcible, direct and well-contained speaker, and has always inspired respect by his sincerity, good sense and information in speaking. He was elected to the Assembly in 1890 by 831 plurality over J. Irving Burns, Republican, who represented the district in the last Assembly. In 1891 Mr McClelland took a prominent part in legislative affairs, serving as Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee. He was nominated as Senator to succeed Senator Robertson, and was elected by 2,819 plurality over Bradford R. Rhodes, Republican, and Daniel R. Wood, Prohibitionist.

Martin T. McMahon.

Martin T. McMahon (Democrat), who represents the Eighth Senatorial district, was born of Irish parents in Canada, in 1848, and came to this country as a boy. He was educated at St. Johns College, Fordham, which bestowed the degree of LL. D. upon him in 1866. Going, while yet a young man, to California, he attained a prominent position among the citizens of the new State. At the outbreak of the war for the Union, he entered the service and was prominently associated with the history of the Army of the Potomac in all its campaigns from Bull Run to Appomattox. The family of which he was a member sent three sons to the war. Two of them died in the service, the oldest, the Colonel of the One Hundred and Sixty-fourth New York in the Corcoran Legion, yielded to disease consequent upon wounds and exposure; the youngest brother, James, fell at Cold Harbor, literally cut in two by musket balls while crossing a Confederate parapet at the head of his regiment in the command originally led by his brother. Martin T. McMahon was Captain and Assistant Adjutant-General on the staff of General McClellan, and the most fraternal relations continued between the organizer of the Army of the Potomac and his favorite staff officer until McClellan's death. The Sixth Corps being organized and placed under the command of General Sedgwick, McMahon was assigned to duty with it as Adjutant-General and Chief of Staff, and Sedgwick, shot in battle, died in his arms. Colonel McMahon likewise served as the principal staff officer of General William B. Franklin. At the close of the war he was made Brevet Major-General by the government. He is a widower, practicing law in New York. He has always been a Democrat, and was Receiver of Taxes in New York for many years, and United States Marshal under President Cleveland's administration. He was elected to the Assembly in 1890 by 1,336 plurality over Lucas L. Van Allen, Republican, and minor nominees, being the first Democrat ever elected in the district to the Assembly. He served on important committees in the Legislature of '90-'91, and was nominated for Senator in 1891. After an exciting contest he defeated Lisenard Stewart, who represented the district for the last term by 1,367 plurality, William T. Jerome, County Democrat, and Joseph A. Bogardus, Prohibitionist.

Joseph Mullin.

Joseph Mullin (Republican), who represents the Twenty-first Senatorial district, was born in Watertown, N. Y., May 29, 1848, of Irish-American parents. He is married and is a practicing lawyer, residing at Watertown, N. Y. He has always been a steadfast Republican, but has never before held an office, his only representative office being delegate to the National Republican Convention in 1888. He is a director in the Watertown National Bank; Farmers' National Bank of Adams, N. Y. Ontario Paper Company and the Watertown Street Railway Company. He was elected to the Senate in 1891 by 8,568 plurality over Charles W. Clare, Democrat, and John D. Huntington, Prohibitionist.

John A. Nichols.

John A. Nichols (Democrat), who represents the Twenty-fifth Senatorial district was born in New Hampshire in 1848. He received his early education in the Boston public schools and at the Walnut Hill school at Geneva, N. Y. He is married and lives at De Witt. He has always been a Democrat and represented his town for three terms in the Board of Supervisors. He is a farmer and a real estate dealer on a large scale. He was elected to the Senate in 1891 by 906 plurality over Rufus T. Peck, Republican, and minor candidates. Mr. Nichols is a plain and unassuming man of business. He dislikes display and has won the respect and regard of the electors of his district by his unostentatious demeanor. Mr. Peck, his opponent, is also a popular man in the Twenty-fifth district, and the ante-election campaign between the two candidates was managed in a spirited manner. The result of the election showed on the face of the returns that Mr. Peck had a majority of the votes cast, but proceedings were at once begun to correct the returns as the illegal action of Clerk Cotton had invalidated a certain number of the ballots cast. The proceedings resulted in the Court of Appeals declaring those votes invalid, thus giving Mr. Nichols a clear plurality.

Edward B. Osborne.

Edward B. Osborne (Democrat), who represents the Fifteenth Senate district, was born of New England parents, at Northampton, Mass., August 8, 1814, and was educated at the printer's case. When thirteen years of age he entered the office of the Northampton Gazette as an apprentice; from 1834-5 he was foreman of the Salem Landmark, then organ of the Rev. Dr. Cheever in his famous "Deacon Giles Distillery" controversy; in 1836 he was publisher and editor of the Quincy Patriot, then home organ of John Quincy Adams in his struggle in Congress for the right of petition; from 1837 to 1853 he was editor and publisher of the Danbury, Conn., Times. In 1853 he removed to Poughkeepsie and purchased the American of that city, changing its name to the Dutchess Democrat, which, in 1856, was combined with the Telegraph. Mr. Osborne continued as editor and proprietor of the paper, doing admirable service for his party, until 1883, when he disposed of his interests and retired. He is married and lives in Poughkeepsie. He has always been a Democrat, and served in the Assembly in 1834-35, and as County Clerk of Dutchess from 1836 to 1839. He was elected to the Assembly in 1890 by 329 plurality over Edgar A. Briggs, Republican, and E. P. Badgley, Prohibitionist, and was elected to the Senate in 1891 by 14 plurality over Gilbert A. Deane, Republican.

Edmund O'Connor.

Edmund O'Connor (Republican), who represents the Twenty-fourth district, was born in Ireland, of Irish parentage, in November, 1848, but came to this country when a child. He was educated at the public schools and the academy at Little Falls and at the Delhi Academy. During this period he contributed to his own support by working in the railroad blacksmith shop and the hammer shops at Little Falls. After leaving school he began the study of the law and for several years he has practiced successfully his profession in Binghamton, where he lives. Mr. O'Connor is married.

He has always been a Republican, but though active in party politics he has never before filled an elective office. He has been a trustee of the Binghamton Asylum for the Chronic Insane. He was elected in 1899 by 3,160 plurality over Frederick A. Shaw, Democrat, and Rufus A. Thompson, Prohibitionist, and was re-elected to the Senate in 1901 over Charles W. Brown, Democrat, and Nelson G. Place, Prohibitionist.

Amasa J. Parker.

Amasa J. Parker (Democrat), who represents the Seventeenth Senatorial district, was born May 6, 1843, in Delhi, Delaware county, and is, therefore, forty-eight years old, and is the only surviving son of the late Amasa J. Parker and Harriet L. Parker. He received his early education at the Messrs. Wrightson's school and at the Boys' Academy, later, in 1860, entering the sophomore class at Union, from whence he graduated in 1863. In the fall of the same year, being then only twenty years of age, he entered the Albany Law school, and graduating the following year, the school at that time having but one year's course, he entered the office of the leading legal firm of that time, Caggar, Porter & Hand. With this firm he remained until 1865, when he was taken into partnership with his father, which continued until the latter's decease recently, the legal firm of which he is now a member being styled Parker & Fiero. In 1861, when the war of the rebellion broke out, Gen. Parker was instrumental in organizing the Union College Zouaves, which furnished the Union Army with more than sixty commissioned officers, and in 1864 he became a member of the National Guard, with which he has ever since been prominently connected. He acted as aide-de-camp with the rank of Major, and later, in 1875, became Lieutenant-Colonel of the Tenth regiment and succeeded to the command in 1877; in this position his natural liking for military matters was evidenced by the deep interest he manifested in National Guard affairs, the regiment under his command being surpassed only by the famous Seventh, of New York city. Still later, in 1886, he became Brigadier-General of the Third brigade, the district embracing thirty-two counties, and he held the position with honor for four years, resigning in 1890. He was president of the Y. M. A. in 1875-76, and was instrumental in 1887-88 in raising the popular subscription which, with the Bleeker trust funds, enabled the trustees to erect Harmanus Bleeker Hall. He is a director, officer or trustee in numberless institutions, and is identified not only with solid and progressive interests, but is of that enterprising mould which permits and takes pleasure in the advancing of the interests of new Albany. Gen. Parker was married to Miss Cornelia Kane Strong, of New Orleans, on April 22, 1868. His political career has been very successful. From a single term in the Assembly in 1882, he went into the Senate, serving in 1886-87, being elected by a plurality of 1,588, his term being marked by the passage of an additional appropriation of $100,000 for the National Guard, making $400,000, which sum has been appropriated annually since. A distinct innovation was the public hearings given by the Albany delegation as a body upon all measures affecting local interests. In the Assembly he served as chairman of the Militia Committee and was also a member of the Judiciary Committee and the Committee on Federal Relations, and was the compiler of the Military Code, now in force in this State. In the Senate his legislative ability was also recognized by his appointment upon the following committees: Finance, Judiciary, Cities, Militia, Commerce and Navigation, Taxation and Retrenchment and Miscellaneous Corporations. He was elected to the Senate in 1891 by 4630 plurality over Vreeland H. Youngman, Republican, Peter S. Smith, Prohibition, and William B. McClure, Socialist Labor.

Cornelius R. Parsons.

Cornelius R. Parsons (Republican), who represents the Twenty-ninth district, was born in York, Livingston county, N. Y., May 21, 1842. At an early age he removed with his parents to Rochester, where he has since resided. He was educated at the Rochester public schools. Mr. Parsons was a member of the Board of Aldermen of the city of Rochester for a period of seven years, representing both the Seventh and Fourteenth wards, and was President of that body in 1871. He has also been a member of the Republican State Committee, serving in that capacity for seven years, and has long been prominent in the councils of his party. In 1876 he was elected Mayor of Rochester, and was six times re-elected—always by large majorities—to the same office, serving for fourteen consecutive years. He is married and is a lumber merchant. When in the Assembly he represented the largest district in the State, and he was elected its representative by a plurality of 4,478, being indorsed by the United Labor party, over Robert Courtney, Democrat, who represented the district in the preceding Assembly. Edmond Redmond, Independent Democrat, and Lyman C. Hough, Prohibitionist. Mr. Parsons' father, the late Hon. Thomas Parsons, represented the city of Rochester in the Assembly of 1858, and was a member of the State Senate from the Monroe district in 1866-67. Mr. Parsons was elected to the Senate in 1891 to succeed Senator Donald McNaughton, by 5,121 plurality over Jacob H. Myers, Democrat, Edgar S. Marvin, Prohibitionist, and Carl A. Luedcke, Socialist Labor.

George W. Plunkitt.

George W. Plunkitt (Democrat), who represents the Eleventh New York district, was born in the Twenty-second ward of the city of New York, in a place called "Negro Village," which now constitutes a portion of Central Park, on the 17th day of November, 1842. His ancestors were Irish. At about the age of eleven years he left the public schools in the city of New York and found employment driving a horse and cart in a dirt bank at three shillings a day. This he remained at for quite a while, afterwards entering the brush-making business as an apprentice at twelve shillings per week. This latter he remained at but a short time, apprenticing himself to Francis Davidson, a butcher. Having served his time with him, Mr. Davidson started him in the business in Washington Market, where he continued for twenty-one years. He sold out his business in 1876 and embarked in the business of harbor transportation and general contractor. As early as 1866 he was a candidate for Assembly. He did not at that time, however, receive the indorsement of the regular Democratic organization, and, therefore, failed of an election. But he polled a vote of 1,859 which, considering the fact that he was a "stump" candidate, shows that even then, a mere boy, he possessed great personal popularity. In 1868, as the Tammany nominee for Assembly, he was elected by a plurality of about 1,500 in a triangular contest. He was re-elected the following November over the Democratic union and the Republican candidates. Elected to Board of Alderman 1870, served in 1870-71-72 and part of 1873 with great credit to himself and satisfaction to his constituents in defending the laboring classes and improving the west side of New York. He was elected to the senate in 1883 and re-elected in 1885, and during his term of four years he never was defeated on the floor of the Senate or had a bill vetoed by either Governors Cleveland or Hill. Mr. Plunkitt is an excellent debater, an argumentative and forcible speaker, carrying with him that earnestness which is almost certain of conviction; has thorough knowledge of parliamentary rules, and a personal bearing to all with whom he comes in contact calculated to rally strong support. He has the reputation of being one of the best informed men for information appertaining to the government of the city of New York, its wants and requirements. He was elected to the Senate in 1891 by 7,141 plurality over Michael J. Fenton, Republican, and three minor nominees.

William P. Richardson.

William P. Richardson (Republican), who represents the Thirteenth district, was born at Lawrence, Mass., May 10, 1848. He comes of old colonial stock, William Richardson having settled in this country from England in 1632. His great-grandfather on his father's side was Captain John Richardson, who served in the Revolutionary war, and was wounded at the battle of Stillwater, in this State. His ancestry on his mother's side also took part in the Revolutionary struggle, his great-grandfather, David Collins, having entered the service of his country at the age of seventeen, remaining until the close of the war. Mr. Richardson's boyhood and school days were spent in Newburyport, Mass., and in Providence, R. I. He received his education in the public schools, and at about the age of fifteen obtained employment in a drug store, in Providence, R. I. There he remained for two years, at the end of that time going to Paterson, N. J., where he engaged in the same line of business. After an unsuccessful business venture in Havana and the Bahama Islands he returned to Paterson and engaged in the hardware business. He was elected a member of the Paterson Board of Education. For about fifteen years he has been a resident of Goshen, where he owns one of the largest and most productive farms in the county. He is President of the Orange County Farmers' Association and director of the State Agricultural Society. He is married. He has always been a Republican and was Presidential elector for his district in 1888. He was elected to the Senate by 282 plurality over Peter Ward, Democrat, and Howard G. McKoon, Prohibitionist. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1891 by a plurality of 607 over C. Fred Lamont, Democrat, and Gabriel Seeley, Prohibitionist.

George F. Roesch.

George F. Roesch (Democrat), who represents the Seventh district, was born in New York city, June 19, 1865, and educated in St. Nicholas Parochial School, De La Salle Institute of the Christian Brothers and Columbia College Law School. He also read law in the offices of Cyrus Lawton and Barnum & Rebhann, and was admitted to the bar on October 30, 1876. He has always been a Tammany Democrat; has been a speaker for the Democracy since 1874, and took part in the Tilden, Hancock and Cleveland campaigns. He is unmarried and lives at 35 First Avenue, New York. He is a member of the New York Press club. He was a member of the Assembly in 1883, serving on the Committees on the Judiciary, Public Health, State charitable Institutions, Memorial Services of the late Governor E. D. Morgan and the Conference Committee to establish a State Bureau of Labor Statistics. In 1885 serving on General Laws and Two-thirds and Three-fifths bills and on the Democratic caucus committee; in 1888 serving on the Judiciary, Federal Relations and Special Committee to investigate the condition of the Indian tribes in this State; in 1889 serving on the Judiciary, Federal Relations and Public Printing. He was the author of the bills to repeal the law which prohibited actions being brought in this State on policies of life insurance where the insured had died outside of the State; to prohibit the manufacture of cigars in tenement-houses; to authorize the board of education in New York city to provide special schools and classes to enable those to acquire an English education who cannot attend the regular day or evening sessions on account of their occupations; to extend to veterans the privilege of music at funerals of comrades on Sunday, to abolish the store money order system and compel corporations to pay their employees in cash; to protect by injunction and action for damages the labels of trades unions attached to the products of skilled labor. In 1885 he introduced a bill to give citizens the preference over unnaturalized persons in employment on public works. His predecessor was elected in 1887 on the united Democratic nomination by a plurality over five opponents. Frederick W. Diehl was nominated by the County Democracy and endorsed by the regular Republicans and also by the John J. O'Brien faction. Mr. Roesch defeated the combination candidate by a majority of 2,240. He was elected by 2,240 plurality over Frederick W. Diehl, County Democrat, endorsed by the Republicans. He was again elected to the Senate in 1891 by 5,532 plurality over John A. Dinkel, Republican, and minor nominees.

Charles T. Saxton.

Charles T. Saxton (Republican), who represents the Twenty-eighth district, was born in Clyde, N. Y., where he still resides, July 2, 1846, of American parentage; was educated at Clyde High School and prepared for college; but the war breaking out he abandoned his books, and on November 19, 1861, he enlisted in the Nineteenth New York Volunteers, when but fifteen years old, serving until February, 1866, through the Port Hudson and Red River campaigns in Louisiana, and the Shenandoah Valley campaign of 1864 in Louisiana, attaining the rank of Sergeant-Major.

He was admitted to the bar in 1867, since which time he has been engaged in the practice of the law. He has been President of the village of Clyde and Trustee of the Clyde High School. He was a Member of the Assembly in 1887-1888 and 1889, serving as Chairman of the Judiciary Committee for three years. He is the author of the Saxton bill, which aims to apply to the State the Australian ballot system, which has recently been adopted in several States. Mr. Saxton is a leader in debate on general and political topics. He is married. He was elected to the Senate in 1889 by 4,154 plurality over Martin Sunderlin, Democrat, and William R. Hunt, Prohibitionist, and was re-elected in 1891 by 16,017 over Enoch O. Marsh, Prohibitionist, there being no Democratic candidate in the field.

John E. Smith.

John E. Smith (Republican), who represents the Twenty-third district, embracing Madison, Oswego and Herkimer counties, has already served one term in the upper house. He was born at Nelson, Madison county, N. Y., August 4, 1843, being brought up a farmer. His mother died when he was ten months old and his father when he was four years old. He lived with his half-brother, S. Perry Smith, pursuing his studies, and later in life teaching school in the winters. Later he entered the law office of Lucius P. Clark, at Morrisville, and afterwards pursued a course at the Albany Law School, graduating with the degree of LL. B., and was admitted to the bar in May, 1867. Since then he has practiced law at Morrisville. In 1872 he became a Republican, and in 1877 he was elected District Attorney of Madison county, holding that office for one term, and was later appointed to the office by Governor Cornell to fill the unexpired term caused by the resignation of Henry Barclay. He served in the Senate of 1894-7, and was appointed Assistant United States District Attorney for the Northern district of New York. In July, 1889, and resigned July 15, 1891, to enter the contest for the Senatorship. The strife in the nominating convention was severe and long-continued by Mr. Smith, who eventually won the nomination and was elected by 2,086 plurality over John D. Henderson, Democrat, and John Greene, Prohibitionist.

Greenleaf S. Van Gorder.

Greenleaf S. Van Gorder (Republican), who represents the Thirtieth district, was born at York, Livingston county, of Holland-Dutch and Scotch-Irish parentage, June 2, 1835. He was educated at the public schools of Livingston and Allegany counties and the Academy of Allegany county, and studied law with Sanford & Bowen at Angelica, N. Y., and was admitted to the bar at Buffalo, N. Y., June, 1877. Has been trustee of the Pike Seminary since December, 1882. Was Town Clerk of Pike in 1873, 1879, 1880 and 1881; and Supervisor of the Town of Pike in 1883, 1884, 1885, 1886 and 1887. Has always been a Republican and served in the Assembly in 1888 and 1889, taking an active part in debate and advocating especially the sale of the State salt reservation in Onondaga. He was elected to the Senate in 1889 by 2,333 plurality over John H. Buck, Democrat, and Alva Carpenter, Prohibitionist. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1891 by 441 plurality over Harvey Arnold, Democrat, and A. F. Brown, Prohibitionist.

Charles E. Walker.

Charles E. Walker (Democrat), who represents the Twenty-seventh Senatorial district, was born in Corning in 1860. He is the son of the late Congressman Charles C. B. Walker, who is held in warm recollection throughout the State. The nominee is largely engaged in lumbering and farming, giving to the latter occupation a large share of his personal attention. At Palmyra, N. Y., he has one of the finest farms of the State devoted to the rearing of fine cattle and horses. In Steuben county, also, he is largely interested in the agricultural industry. He has been active in the councils and work of the Democratic party and merits the preferment that has been conferred upon him, not only by his party service, but by the qualifications that prepare him to serve the district and the State to their credit and advantage. Mr. Franklin D. Sherwood, the Republican candidate, secured a plurality of the votes cast at the general election, but being at the time of his election a Park Commissioner of the city of Hornellsville, he was declared constitutionally ineligible by the Court of Appeals, and the Senate, on January 5, awarded the seat to Mr. Walker.

MEMBERS OF ASSEMBLY.William Sulzer, Speaker.

William Sulzer, the Speaker of the Assembly, and who represents the Tenth New York district, was born in Elizabeth, N. J., March 18, 1868, and was educated in the public schools and in Columbia College. As a lawyer he has made rapid progress and earned a large measure of fame. During the past few years he has been identified with important litigation in New York city.

Thomas Sulzer, his father, was a German patriot, a comrade of Siegel and Carl Schurz. He was a strong advocate of constitutional liberty. At the age of eighteen, while yet a scholar in the University at Heidelberg, he joined the patriots in the revolution, and was among the first to try and secure freedom for his country. After being captured and imprisoned, he escaped to Switzerland. He came to New York in 1881, married here, and soon became a staunch Democrat. He spoke from the same platform with Stephen A. Douglas in the memorable meeting at Jones' Wood in the summer of 1860.

William Sulzer was recognized as a forcible speaker before he attained his majority. As a member of the Cooper Union Debating Society he won a medal in a discussion as to what was done for constitutional government by the Revolutionary heroes. Like his father he has always been a firm Democrat and has always been ready to give a reason for his faith in the party.

Having long been identified with politics and being a Democrat through and through, was selected by the National Committee to speak in Connecticut, New Jersey and New York in the presidential campaigns of 1884, 1888 and 1892. He was sent to the Assembly from the Fourteenth District in 1889, and he at once took a front rank in debate. He has been re-elected every year since by increased majorities. Mr. Sulzer has voted for every bill in the interest of the city of New York and of organized labor since he became a member of the Assembly. He drafted, reported and secured the passage of the bill for the State care of the insane and led the fight for the anti-Pinkerton bill. Among other bills which he has been instrumental in passing were those prohibiting net-fishing in Jamaica Bay, abolishing the sweating system, the Women's Reformatory bill, the Constitutional Convention bill, the law to entitle the Fourth Avenue tunnel, free lectures or workmen and women, the law for the Columbian celebration, the codification of the quarantine laws, the Freedom of Worship law and the law abolishing imprisonment for debt. Mr. Sulzer is a bachelor, and is in active practice in New York city. He served in the Assembly of 1890, and was re-elected as a Tammany Democrat in 1890 by 1,379 plurality over Leo Sonneberg, County Democrat and Republican, and minor candidates in the old Fourteenth district. Mr. Sulzer took an active and prominent part in the Legislature of 1891, and was again re-elected in the same year by 1,122 plurality over John J. O'Rourke, Republican. He was again re-elected in 1892 by 4,357 plurality over James J. O'Donnell, Republican, Henry Vehling, Socialist, and Emory Cummings, Prohibitionist.

C. Clinton Adams.

C. Clinton Adams (Republican), who represents Cayuga county, was born at Sennett, N. Y., October 11, 1833. He was educated in the common schools and Union school of Weedsport, N. Y. His parents and grandparents were from Vermont and moved to the town of Sennett, Cayuga county, N. Y., and were the early pioneers of this county. His grandfather was a drummer boy in the Revolutionary army and captain in the war of 1812. His business is wholesale hay, grain and produce, under the firm name of C. C. Adams & Sons. He has been a Republican from the formation of the party, and was postmaster under Lincoln, but refused to follow the teachings of Andrew Johnson and was removed. He has been Supervisor of the town of Brutus from 1836 to 1890, and was Chairman of the Board of Supervisors in 1890. He is a member of the First Presbyterian church of Weedsport, is married and resides at Weedsport. He was elected to the Assembly in 1891 from the old First district by 1,317 plurality over H. C. Johnson, Democrat, and the Prohibition nominee. In 1892 he was re-elected by 2,357 plurality over Watson Selover, Democrat, and Porter, Prohibitionist.

Danforth E. Ainsworth.

Danforth E. Ainsworth (Republican), who represents Oswego county, is serving his fifth term in the Assembly. He served last in the Assembly of 1899 from the old Second District of his county. He is a native of Clayton, Jefferson County, where he was born Nov. 29, 1848. He was educated at Pulaski Academy and at Falley Seminary and is an attorney and counselor-at-law, having been admitted to the bar in 1873. He was a trustee of the village of Sandy Creek in 1831-2-3, and has also been a member of the Board of Education. Mr. Ainsworth is a Republican in politics and always has been, but prior to 1885, when he was first elected to the Assembly, had never before been a candidate for public office. He was elected to the Assembly in 1887 by 1,562 plurality, and during his service was regarded as one of the most ready and effective debaters in the House. He was again elected in 1888 by 4,896 plurality, and, after four years lapse, was again elected in November, 1892, by 3,246 plurality, over Hamilton E. Root, Democrat, and Wood, Prohibitionist.

Benjamin H. Avery.

Benjamin H. Avery. (Democrat), who represents Schoharie county, was born in Jefferson, in 1832 of American parents. He was educated at the Stanford Seminary in Delaware county. He is married and conducts a successful business as a merchant. Mr. Avery is a director of the Davenport, Middleburgh and Durham railroad, and has been a Supervisor of his county. He is a lawyer of marked ability and a successful broker in real estate. He is a married man. Mr. Bahan has never held a public office before, and he has always been a Democrat. He was elected by 1,187 plurality over John P. Rockefeller, Republican, and Davis, Prohibitionist.

Henry E. Barnard.

Henry E. Barnard (Democrat), who represents Clinton county, was born in Plattsburgh in 1837, of American parents. He was educated at the University of Vermont, and early entered his chosen profession as a lawyer. He is married and has served many years as a public officer. He was elected Justice of the Peace for Plattsburgh in March, 1867, and resigned that office in March, 1869. He was elected President of the village in 1867, and served continuously till 1873; in 1876 he was again elected, and again in 1880 and in 1888. He was also District Attorney of Clinton county for the years 1871-2-3. He has been a member of the Plattsburgh Board of Education for over ten years, his third term of five years commencing in August last. His only defeat in these long years of public office holding was in 1887, when he ran for County Judge. He has always been a Democrat and held office as such. He was elected by 37 plurality over John Haugran, Republican, and F. C. Cate, Prohibitionist.

Charles M. Bell.

Charles M. Bell (Republican), who represents Columbia county, was born in York, Livingston county, in 1840, of Scotch parents. He was educated in the Genesee county district schools and one term in the Genesee Wesleyan Seminary at Alexander, and one term in the Ammid Seminary in Dutchess county, N. Y. He was the oldest of four brothers who served in the Union army in the Rebellion, and two of whom were killed. He was Sergeant and First Sergeant of Co. G, One Hundred and Twenty-eighth New York Volunteers, then First Lieutenant commanding Ninety-first United States Infantry. He was in the battles around Fort Hudson and those of the Red River campaign. He has always been a Republican, and served as District Attorney of Columbia county in 1872, '73, '74. Clarence W. Dexter.

Clarence W. Dexter (Republican), Member of Assembly for Madison county, was born in the town of Stockbridge, in April, 1848. He was left at eighteen years of age to care for his widowed mother and several smaller children. At sixteen he began buying eggs, and by careful and hard work saved a little, so that in 1870 he had about $400 ahead, every dollar earned by his own exertions. With this capital he started in the grocery business at Munnsville. The same careful attention here brought him increased trade, and in a few years he moved into larger quarters, which he has since materially increased. His business ran up to $50,000 a year and the stock he carried inventoried from $12,000 to $15,000. About eight years ago, Mr. Dexter bought one of the finest farms in Stockbridge, and has conducted it most successfully. Two years ago he bought a third interest in the Stringer, Barr & Company Agricultural works at Munnsville, and under the firm name of Stringer, Dexter & Coe, has managed that business most successfully. Under his direction the output of the works and the number of employes have been largely increased. Mr. Dexter's entire time is devoted to this industry now. The only office Mr. Dexter has ever held is that of postmaster, having taken that when he brought only ten dollars per month. In Munnsville, Mr. Dexter has done much to improve and benefit the condition of the workmen. He has built several houses, has given them a store at home equal in all respects to any in the county, and in the agricultural works has put new life and vigor into a business that was slowly withering away. None of his friends are more devoted to him than the men in his employ. He has one of the pleasantest homes in the village, presided over by a bright and amiable wife, and brightened by the presence of a young daughter of about ten years. He was elected to the Assembly in 1891 by 1,446 plurality over Thomas A. Devereux, Democrat, and Samuel E. Johns, Prohibitionist, and re-elected in 1892 by 2,403 plurality over Reidy Democrat, Perkins Prohibition, and Beagh, Peoples.

He was educated in the public schools in the city of Dublin, and coming to this country he worked as a carpenter, and is now a builder. He has always been a Democrat, and was a member of the Board of Aldermen of New York city from 1887-90, inclusive. He is married and resides at No. 6 St. Luke's Place. He was elected to the Assembly in 1891 from the old Ninth district by 866 plurality over John P. Rockefeller, Republican, and Campbell, Independent Democrat. In 1892 he was elected to the Assembly from the new Eighth district by 2,980 plurality over Alfred R. Conkling, Republican; David P. Lindley, Prohibition, and Gerhardt Rathert, Socialist-Labor.

George P. Webster.

George P. Webster (Democrat), who represents the Twenty-Seventh New York district, was born of New England parentage at Watertown, Conn. June 28, 1828, and was educated in Connecticut. In 1849-50 he crossed the plains to California with an ox-train, and for three years sought his fortune in the gold mines. He then returned to Kentucky and there studied law. He has always been a Democrat, and was prosecuting attorney of Campbell County, Ky., for four years, solicitor of Newport, Ky., for two years, and was elected to the Kentucky Legislature for the session of 1840-61. At the outbreak of the war he resigned from the Legislature, and coming North in May, 1861, was commissioned by President Lincoln, Captain and A. Q. M., was promoted successively to be Major, Lieutenant-Colonel and Colonel, and was mustered out November, 1864, as Colonel, having served throughout the war in the campaigns in Kentucky and Missouri. He is married, living at 60 East One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street, New York, and is a lawyer. He served in the Assembly of 1890, from the old Twenty-third district, and was re-elected in 1890 as a Tammany Democrat, by 5,004 plurality over Johnson, Republican; Loubheim, County Democrat; Butler, Independent; Yoerg, Socialist; Doody, Communist, and Arnold, Prohibitionist. He served with honor in the last Legislature, and was again re-elected to the Legislature of 1891 by 8,533 plurality over William Johnston, Republican, and B. Franklin, Prohibitionist. In 1892 he was elected from the Twenty-seventh district by 1,279 plurality over Henry Grasse, Republican, William McElveen, Prohibitionist and Bernard Wilke, Socialist-Labor.

William Egbert Wheeler.

William Egbert Wheeler (Republican), who represents Cattaraugus county, was born at Portville, N. Y., November 21, 1848, of American parents. He received his early education at the Cortland Academy, Homer, N. Y., where he was fitted for college graduating in 1863 with first honors. He entered the class of 1866 at Hamilton College at the beginning of the sophomore year, and subsequently entered the class of 1866 of Yale College at the beginning of the previous year and graduated with the class. He was a member of the Yale Varsity crew and rowed in the race with Harvard in 1866. He is now a manufacturer engaged in the manufacture of lumber, leather and the production of oil at Portville, N. Y. He has always been a Republican, and has been elected Supervisor of his town for six terms, and has also been a member of the school board of the village in which he resides. He is a director of the First National Bank of Olean, and also of the First National Bank of Westfield. He was elected to the Assembly in 1891 from the old First district of Cattaraugus county by 411 plurality over Danford W. Dean, Democrat, M. M. Jones, Prohibitionist, and Amasa H. Bishop, Peoples. In 1892 he was re-elected by 2,262 plurality over Solon S. Laing, Democrat, T. S. Palmer, Prohibitionist.

Joseph C. Wolff.

Joseph C. Wolff (Democrat), who represents the Sixteenth New York district, was born in Besancon France, on January 9, 1849, of French parents. His parents came to this country early in his life, time and he received his education in the New York public schools. He served in the civil war as a bugler to the Second New York Harris Light Cavalry and participated in the battles of Cedar Creek, Five Forks and Winchester. He is at present a lawyer practicing in New York, married, with an office at No. 80 Nassau street. He has always been a Democrat, but never before his election to the Assembly, a candidate for public office. He was elected to the Assembly in 1892 by 2967 plurality, over Jacob Hassinger, Republican, and minor nominees.

Egbert E. Woodbury.

Egbert E. Woodbury (Republican), who represents Chautauque county, was born of American parents, at Cherry Creek, March 29, 1861, and was educated at the public schools and the Randolph Institute. During his youth he worked on a farm, then studied law, and is now engaged in practice, married and living at Jamestown. He has always been a Republican and has served four years as justice of the peace of the city. He was elected to the Assembly in 1890 from the old Second district by 1,721 plurality over Charles M. Reed, Democrat, and Williams, Prohibitionist. He was re-elected in 1891 by 2,699 plurality over J. Delevan Curtis, Democrat, and Keyes, Prohibitionist, and was re-elected in 1892 by 5,215 plurality over Madigan, Democrat, and Halbrook, Prohibitionist.

Jonathan Wyckoff.

Jonathan Wyckoff (Republican), who represents the Third district of Onondaga, was born in Navarino in 1846. After receiving a thorough common school education Mr. Wyckoff became a farmer, and his thorough business methods soon brought him to the front of the agriculturalists of his section. He has been prominent in farmer's societies and, in 1890, was sent to Washington as the representative of the State Tobacco Growers' Association, to represent the association before the Ways and Means Committee to petition for tobacco legislation. He has also represented the farmers' county organization several times, and is Master of Excelsior Grange No. 456, and Past Master of the County Council. He is also a director of the Onondaga Farmers' Co-operative Fire Insurance Company. He has held political positions before, having served several terms in the Board of Supervisors. He was elected to the Assembly in 1892 by 1,425 plurality over J. Horatio Earll, Democrat, and minor nominees.

Hubbard R. Yetman.

Hubbard R. Yetman (Democrat), who represents Richmond county, was born in Monmouth county, New Jersey, in 1847, and was educated at Freehold. He taught school for fifteen years and is now a civil engineer and insurance agent, married and residing at Tottenville. He enlisted in the Fourteenth Regiment, New Jersey Volunteers in 1862, as a musician, and served until the end of the war, taking part in Grant's campaign, from the Rapidan through the Wilderness to the James, and with Sheridan in the Shenandoah valley. He has been three times Justice of the Peace and is trustee of the Richmond County Building and Mutual Loan Association. He was a member of the Assembly of 1889, and was again elected in 1891 by 1,417 plurality over John H. Ellsworth, Republican, and Cornelius N. Braisted, Prohibitionist. In 1892 he was elected by 1,536 plurality over Cyrus B. White, Republican, and A. R. Heath, Prohibitionist.

There are now forty-two vessels in the new navy of the United States, including vessels built or authorized and under construction, as follows:

One seagoing first-class battleship—Iowa.
 Three coast-line battleships, first-class—Massachusetts, Indiana, Oregon.
 Two battleships, second-class—Maine, Texas.
 Two armored cruisers—New York, Brooklyn.
 One ram.
 Two cruisers of extreme speed—Columbia, Minneapolis.
 Fourteen cruisers—Olympia, Baltimore, Chicago, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Newark, Charleston, Boston, Atlanta, Cincinnati, Raleigh, Detroit, Montgomery, Marblehead.
 One dispatch vessel—Dolphin.
 Six gunboats—Yorktown, Concord, Bennington, Machias, Castine, Petrel.
 One dynamite vessel—Vesuvius.
 One practice vessel—Bancroft.
 Two torpedo boats—Cushing, No. 2.

There will be a grand review of war vessels of the American Navy at New York in April, 1898, to which foreign countries have been invited to send their ships. All the vessels participating will rendezvous April 26, 1893, in Hampton Roads, and proceed thence to New York harbor. The review is expected to be the most important assemblage of naval vessels ever seen in American waters.

NATURALIZATION LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

DECLARATION OF INTENTION.—An alien seeking naturalization as a citizen of the United States must declare on oath before a Circuit or District Court of the United States, or a District or Supreme Court of the Territories, or a court of record of any of the States having common law jurisdiction and a seal and clerk, at least two years before his admission that it is, bona fide, his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign State or ruler, and particularly to the one of which he may be at the time a citizen or subject.

OATH ON APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION.—At the time of his application for admission he must also declare on oath, before some one of the courts above specified, "that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he absolutely and entirely renounces and abjures all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign prince, potentate, State or sovereignty, and particularly, by name to the prince, potentate, State or sovereignty of which he was before a citizen or subject."

CONDITIONS OF CITIZENSHIP.—It must appear to the satisfaction of the court to which the alien has applied for final admission, that he has resided continuously within the United States for at least five years, and in the State or Territory where the court is held at least one year, and that during that time "he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same."

TITLES OR NOBILITY.—If the applicant bears any hereditary title or belongs to any order of nobility, he must make an express renunciation at the time of his application.

SOLDIERS.—Any alien twenty-one years old and upward, who has been honorably discharged from the armies of the United States, may become a citizen on his petition, without any previous declaration of intention, provided he has resided in the United States at least one year previous to his application, and is of good moral character.

MINORS.—Any alien under the age of twenty-one, who has resided in the United States three years next preceding his twenty-first birthday and has continued to reside therein up to the time he makes application to be admitted a citizen, may, after he arrives at the age of twenty-one, and after he has resided five years within the United States, including the three years of his minority, be admitted a citizen; but he must make a declaration on oath and prove to the satisfaction of the court that for the two years next preceding it has been his bona fide intention to become a citizen.

CHILDREN OF NATURALIZED CITIZENS.—The children of persons who have been duly naturalized, being under twenty-one at the time of the naturalization of their parents, shall, if dwelling in the United States, be considered as citizens.

CITIZENS' CHILDREN BORN ABROAD.—The children of persons who now are or have been citizens of the United States are considered as citizens, though they may be born out of the limits and jurisdiction of the United States.

CHINESE.—The naturalization of Chinamen is prohibited by section 14, chapter 126, Laws of 1882.

PROTECTION OF NATURALIZED CITIZENS.—Section 2000 of the Revised Statutes of the United States expressly declares that "all naturalized citizens of the United States while in foreign countries are entitled to and shall receive from this government the same protection of person and property which is accorded to native-born citizens."

THE RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE.—The right to vote is conferred by the State, naturalization by the United States. In several States aliens who have declared their intentions enjoy the right to vote equally with naturalized or native-born citizens. But the Federal naturalization laws apply to the whole Union alike, and no alien may be naturalized until after five years' residence, except an honorably discharged soldier or a person whose parents have been naturalized while he was under twenty-one years of age, as above recited. Even after five years' residence and due naturalization, he is not entitled to vote unless the laws of the State confer the privilege upon him.

PROPORTION OF THE SEXES.—Of the immigrants arrived during the last decade, 3,305,911, or 61.10 per cent, were males, 2,040,702, or 38.90 per cent, females, and 1,121,499, or 21.4 per cent, under 15 years; 51 per cent, or 334,229, from Ireland, were males; 49 per cent, or 321,258, females. From Germany, 836,290, or 57.6 per cent, were males, and 616,690, or 42.4 per cent, females. From England, Sweden, Norway and Scotland, 61 per cent were males. From Hungary, 94,243, or 73.8 per cent, were males, and 33,433, or 26.2 per cent, females. From Italy, 243,923, or 79.4 per cent, were males, and 63,386, or 20.6 per cent, females.

AGES OF IMMIGRANTS.—From 1881 to 1890, inclusive, 21.4 per cent, or 1,121,499 of the total 5,216,613 immigrants, were under 15 years; 3,572,378, or 68.1 per cent, were between 15 and 40, and 553,841, or 10.5 per cent, were over 40; Hungary and Italy furnish largest percentage of immigrants between 15 and 40 years—respectively, 74.1 and 69.1 per cent. Italy furnishes the largest percentage over 40 years, the proportion being 15.5 per cent, while the average of all countries was 10.5. The lowest per cent of those above 40 years is from Ireland, 7.3 per cent. Ireland furnishes the highest per cent, viz.: 78.6 of immigrants between 15 and 40 years. The highest percentage of children, or those under 15 years of age, comes from Germany, where the per cent was 26.6, the lowest, 14.7, was from Hungary.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

AMERICA.—Twenty-nine States and Territories, a majority of the Union, have given women some form of suffrage. The Judiciary Committee of the Federal House of Representatives reported in the spring of 1890 a Constitutional amendment, securing suffrage to the women of the whole country. In Canada women have municipal suffrage in every Province and Territory; in Ontario, for all elective offices but members of the Legislature and Parliament.

Arizona, Colorado, Delaware, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Texas, Vermont, Washington and Wisconsin grant women various degrees of school suffrage.

In Arkansas and Missouri women vote, by petition, on liquor licenses in many cases. In Delaware suffrage is exercised by women in several municipalities. In Kansas they have equal suffrage with men at all municipal elections. About 60,000 voted in 1891. In Montana they vote on local taxation. In New York they vote at school elections; 8,000 voted at Binghamton in 1890. They vote also on local improvements, such as gas and electric street lighting, paving, sewerage and municipal bonds. In Pennsylvania women vote by signing or refusing to sign petitions on paving and other local improvements. In Utah women voted from 1870 until disfranchised by Congress in the "Edmunds Law." They are now actively demanding the repeal of this law. In 1884 the people formed a State constitution securing suffrage to women, but Congress did not admit the Territory. In Washington women voted generally for five years, and then were excluded by the decision of the Territorial Supreme Court. They were mostly debarred from voting on the State Constitution, and the men voted down a constitutional provision guaranteeing suffrage to women. The women assert that they were shut out unlawfully, and will appeal to the United States Supreme Court; 14,000 women voted in the Territory in one year. In Wyoming women have had the same vote with men since 1870. They requested the constitutional convention to guarantee suffrage to them in 1889. This was done with practical unanimity in convention and at the polls. Congress declared that it "accepted, ratified and confirmed" this constitution, and admitted the State

July 10, 1890. The women have generally voted the Republican ticket, as that party was mainly instrumental in enfranchising them.

Bills relieving various classes of women from disfranchisement were passed in 1891 by one house of the Legislature (but not by the other), in Arizona, California, Kansas, Nebraska, New York, Oklahoma and New Zealand. Similar measures were proposed in 1891, but not passed in the Legislatures of Arkansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Mexico, New South Wales, Nova Scotia, Ohio and South Australia; and in the constitutional conventions of Kentucky and Mississippi. Woman suffrage movements are also active in Denmark, Germany, Greece, Newfoundland and Switzerland.

AFRICA.—Cape Colony has municipal woman suffrage. The colony rules a million square miles.

ASIA.—All Russian colonies in Siberia have municipal woman suffrage for heads of households. So have the women taxpayers of India in the rural districts of British Burma and the municipalities in the Presidencies of Bombay and Madras.

AUSTRALIA.—Every province has municipal and school woman suffrage. The country is about as large as the United States, not including Alaska.

AUSTRALASIA.—New Zealand and Tasmania have municipal and school woman suffrage.

EUROPE.—In England, Scotland and Wales women vote for all elective offices but Members of Parliament. In France the women teachers elect women members of all boards of education. In Sweden women vote for all elective officers but Representatives; also, indirectly, for members of the House of Lords. In Norway they have school suffrage. In Ireland they vote for harbor boards, poor-law guardians, and in Belfast for municipal officers. In Russia women householders vote for all elective officers and on all local matters. In Finland, for all elective officers. In Austria-Hungary they vote, by proxy, for all elective officers. In Croatia and Dalmatia they do so at local elections in person. In Italy widows vote for Members of Parliament.

ISLANDS.—Iceland, the Isle of Man and Pitcairn Island have full woman suffrage. Nearly 2,000 Islands have it in some degree.

The area of countries where women have some suffrage is about 20,000,000 square miles, larger than all Asia, and their population is about 885,000,000, more than that of all Europe.

BALLOT REFORM.

The following States and Territories have passed ballot reform laws in a more or less complete and effective form:

1889—Connecticut, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Wisconsin.

1890—Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Oklahoma, Vermont, Washington, Wyoming.

1891—Arkansas, California, Delaware, Maine, Nebraska, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, Oregon, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Illinois.

All the States except New York, New Jersey and

Connecticut provide for a "blanket" ballot.

The Australian rule of placing candidates' names on the ballot in alphabetical order under the titles of offices prevails in California, Massachusetts, Kentucky, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Oregon, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Vermont, Washington and Wyoming.

The Belgian system of grouping party tickets is followed in Delaware, Indiana (where a party device or symbol is used), Maine, Maryland, Missouri, Ohio, Wisconsin and Oklahoma.

The first bill embodying the principles of the Australian system ever presented to a Legislature in America was introduced in the New York Assembly in 1888, by Charles T. Saxton, of Clyde.

THE REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER.

The following Complimentary Notices Were Given at the Time of the Seventy-Fifth Anniversary of the Argus in 1888.

From President Cleveland.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, January 16, 1888. }

To The Argus:

For more than two years I daily read the Albany Argus, deriving therefrom my information of passing events, and gathering abundant reasons for my Democratic faith. Of course, long before this intimate acquaintance, I was familiar with the paper as an influential expositor of party principles and policy. But when a person reads a newspaper every day, for even no longer a period than two years, it grows to be like a companion and friend whose existence and prosperity becomes matters of interest. It is for these reasons that I most heartily and sincerely congratulate the managers of The Argus upon the seventy-fifth year of its establishment. Its history has been honorable; its influence has been great; its loyalty to political principles in days of newspaper inconstancy has been steadfast, and may it continue for many years to demonstrate that courage and loyalty and honesty are profitable as well as right.

Yours, very truly

GROVER CLEVELAND.

From Governor David B. Hill.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
ALBANY, January 25, 1888. }

To The Argus:

I congratulate The Argus upon the anniversary it celebrates to-day. Democrats remember that it has fought in many gallant contests for the supremacy of Democratic principles; that it has bravely stood firm in defeat; that it has wisely counseled in victory.

The Argus marked its silver and golden anniversary periods by honorable, brilliant and continued successes, and it now completes its three-fourths of a century with renewed youthful vigor. I give it my good wishes for innumerable prosperous years to come.

Very truly yours,

DAVID B. HILL.

From Charles A. Dana.

Always the strenuous supporter of the Democratic party. The Argus has counted among its conductors a number of the most conspicuous and powerful men of the Empire State. Two of them especially I have had the advantage of knowing personally, and they were Edwin Crosswell and William Cassidy.

In those days Albany, as the political capital of the State, held its own against New York, the commercial capital, and in point of political influence was undoubtedly its superior. But as the great financial center of the country and the focus of news from all parts of the world, the larger town has gradually overshadowed the smaller in importance; and yet, while these great changes have been going on, the Albany Argus has not lost its leading position. This has been due to the fact that it has had no rival at the capital, as well as to the steadiness with which, for the last twenty-five years, it has supported the policy and the candidates of the Democratic party, and still more to the discretion and sound judgment of those who have had control of its affairs.

CHARLES A. DANA,
Editor New York Sun.

For almost a quarter of a century as editor of the Plain Dealer of this city, I exchanged with The Argus, and it was always a favorite paper with me. It has taught many a lesson of political rectitude to the opposition in its many chameleon changes. Its editorialists always patriotic, able, intelligent and judicious, have had great weight in the Empire State and throughout the country. Conservative at all times, it has never been timid or faltering in advocating the principles of the old

Democratic party. Carrying the banner of the party with lofty directness, never the mere organ of men or factions, it has achieved a renown in the field of journalism that makes it one of the historical newspapers of the Union. In 1884, when there seemed to be danger that the State of New York might be flched from the Democratic column and placed in that of the enemy, the watchfulness of The Argus in securing prompt returns from every precinct in the State, and the accuracy of its tabulations was wonderful, and the wroth words that the "Albany Argus says Cleveland has 1,000 unchangeable majority in New York State" kept everywhere alive the hope that culminated in the fact that its prophecy was correct.

W. W. ARMSTRONG,

Editor Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The proprietors of The Argus and the people of Albany have abundant reason to be proud of the long and honorable career of that paper, and to rejoice that it is now more vigorous and useful and powerful than ever. I congratulate you upon the attainments and achievements of the past and upon the opportunities and the promise of the future.

SAMUEL BOWLES,

From the New York Times.

It has always been a power, and sometimes a very considerable one, in its party from the time when Jesse Buel established it in 1818 as a "Republican" organ to sustain the National administration in the "second war of independence" to the time when its chief was transferred to the treasury department in 1885 to make for himself a record more distinguished than that of any of his many-gifted predecessors.

From the Troy Times.

The Troy Times has often had occasion to disagree with the Albany Argus touching questions of public policy, but it has never failed to recognize its greatness as a newspaper, edited with commanding ability and setting a worthy example in enterprise, good judgment and appreciation of the public's demand upon the profession.

From the Plattsburgh Republican.

From the Buffalo Courier.

The Argus is steadily engaged in upholding Democratic principles, and supporting the administration of the general and the State governments with wisdom, skill and power.

From the Ogdensburg Advance.

The Argus has always been an earnest and consistent exponent of pure Democracy, and we hope that the next three-quarters of a century will witness an increase of influence in the same ratio as the last.

From the Wayne Democratic Press.

The Argus presents a glorious record. Since its very inception Democracy has had no firmer, no more powerful or faithful friend and champion than it.

From the Chatham Courier.

The Argus is an able journal, and when we want our Democracy "straight," we turn to this paper.

From the Brooklyn Citizen.

The Argus always has been an able and earnest exponent of Democratic principles, and its influence in the councils of the party has ever been of the highest. Its prosperity is a deserved tribute to conscientious and sterling journalism.
